

be easy and happy to yourself, as it is an inestimable Blessing to your People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 14th Day of April, 1795.

[ Presented by the Rev. Doctor Worsley, Mayor, and Edward Rusworth, Esq; one of the Aldermen of the said Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with every Sentiment of Reverence for your Royal Person, and of profound Respect for your illustrious Family.

With Minds thus impressed, we humbly presume to offer to your Majesty our cordial Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a most amiable and accomplished Princess of the august House of Brunswick; a Name most deservedly dear to the People of this Land.

Indebted, as we are, to your Majesty, for your constant Solicitude for the Welfare of your People, from your Accession to the Crown of these Realms to the present Hour, we cannot but rejoice at an Event which tends to augment your Majesty's domestic Happiness, and affords the Prospect of continuing to our Posterity those Blessings, which have been happily experienced under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

On this and every Occasion, Sire, we most earnestly hope that your Majesty and your Royal Consort may derive every possible Felicity and Comfort.

[ Presented by Charles Fanshawe, Esq; Recorder, and John Baring, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Town or Borough of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of Kingston upon Hull, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, an Event which we flatter ourselves will not only augment your Majesty's domestic Happiness, but also greatly promote the National Welfare.

May the Divine Providence bless this auspicious Marriage with a numerous Offspring, who may, in future though distant Ages, animated by your Majesty's illustrious Example, long reign in the Hearts of an affectionate, a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal this 24th Day of April, in the Thirty-fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

W. W. Bolton, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of your ancient Borough of Plymouth, with heartfelt Satisfaction approach the Throne, respectfully to offer our sincere and cordial Congratulations to your Majesty and your Royal Consort on the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Strongly impressed as we are with the Sense of your Majesty's paternal Affection towards your People, we cannot but warmly rejoice in any Event which may contribute to the Happiness of your Majesties and that of your august Family.

The Union of His Royal Highness with a Princess of the House of Brunswick is peculiarly adapted to promote the most pleasing Reflections in the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects.

Every Briton, truly attached to the Constitution of his Country, cannot but recollect, with Pride and Satisfaction, that since the Establishment of Princes from that illustrious House upon the Throne of these Kingdoms, the Sceptre hath been swayed with Justice and Equity, and the Rights of the People preserved pure and inviolate.

We ardently pray, that the great King of Kings will be pleased to shower his choicest Blessings on your Majesties and all the Royal Family; that you may long continue to reign over us and in the Hearts of a loyal and affectionate People, loving and beloved; and that when you shall be called hence, to exchange an earth's for an immortal Throne, the Crown of these Realms may, for a long Succession of Ages, descend to your Majesty's Posterity.

W. Symons, Mayor.

[ Presented by Sir Frederick Leman Rogers, Bart. Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, in Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with renewed Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, of Obedience to your Government, and of Reverence for the Constitution.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we rejoice at the Union of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick, which we consider as an Event calculated to promote, not only the domestic Felicity of your Majesty and your Royal Consort, but to secure those Blessings and Privileges we at present enjoy, and to diffuse universal Satisfaction throughout your Majesty's Dominions.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; and that your Crown, as well as your Majesty's public and private Virtues, may descend to your latest Posterity, is the earnest Wish of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects,

The Lord Provost, Magistrates and Common Council of the City of Glasgow.

Signed in our Presence, by our Appointment, and in our Name, and the Seal of the said City is hereto affixed, this 14th Day of April, 1795 Years.
