St. James's, May 5.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by him been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Marriage of the Prince and Princess of Wales.

Your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your Subjects has been conspicuous on all Occasions; and your Majesty's Approbation of the Alliance of His Royal Highness with a Princess so distinguished in herself, and so illustrious by the Merit of her Family, is a fresh Instance of your Majesty's indulgent Concern for the present and future Prosperity of your People.

We most earnestly wish and pray, that your Majesty may, for many Years, see the Happiness of the Royal Pair, and thereby receive Addition to your own; and that those Virtues, which now add a Lustre to the Crown in your Majesty's Person, may be transmitted down to your Royal Progeny through all succeeding Generations.

Signed in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Aberdeen, in Council convened, and the Common Seal of the City is affixed hereto at Aberdeen, the 28th Day of April, in the Year 1795, by John Abercrombie, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Chesterfield in the County of Derby, in Common Council assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave to express our Joy on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and to offer our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Occasion.

We behold this Event with peculiar Pleasure and Satisfaction, as we consider it the Means of securing to future Generations a Continuance of that Happiness, which in the fullest Manner we have constantly enjoyed under your Majesty's most gracious Protection.

Signed by the Mayor, and given under the Seal of our Corporation, the 21st Day of April, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Job Bradley, Mayor.

St. James's, May 5.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Major-Commandant, Officers and Corps of the loyal Langport Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Major-Commandant, Officers and Corps of the loyal Langport Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, and to express our most heartfelt Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the most illustrious Princess Caroline of Brunswick; an Event which, while it has increased the Felicity of your Majesty's Royal House, has given a Lustre to the English Court, and diffused a general Joy through the British Empire.

We are too sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and benevolent Reign, not to partake in every Event which can throw a new Ray of Pleasure on your Majesty's Countenance, or tend to give an additional Security and Permanency to the best of all human Establishments, the British Constitution.

We cannot but feel ourselves happy in the Contemplation of the animated and unparalleled Exertions for the Defence of your Majesty's Royal Person and Government against Foreign and Domestic Foes; and we pride ourselves in asserting, that it is our highest Ambition, in common with the rest of your Majesty's loyal Corps of Volunteers, to lay down our Lives in the Service of a Monarch we never cease to love, and for the Safety of that Form of Government we have such powerful Reasons to protect and defend.

May your Majesty long live to enjoy the Blessings with which it hath pleased Providence so liberally to surround your Royal Person and Family; and that your Majesty may, at last, but late, exchange this earthly Diadem for a Crown immortal and eternal, is the Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, &c.
