

which this Event must have occasioned to your Majesty and your Royal Comfort.

We earnestly beseech the Almighty, that your Majesty may grow old, amidst a numerous Race of the House of Brunswick, the respected Father of your Family and of your People.

Signed in their Name and by their Appointment.

And. Hamilton, Provoit.

Kinghorn, May 1, 1795.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Cambridge, humbly request Permission to offer to your Majesty our warmest and most unfeigned Sentiments of Congratulation on the auspicious Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Sensible of and grateful for the Blessings and Privileges which we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, we cannot but be deeply and anxiously interested in whatever regards the Honor, the Dignity, and the Happiness of your Majesty's illustrious Family.

Permit us, Sire, to express our sincere Hope, that your Majesty may long experience the uninterrupted Enjoyment of every Blessing which can attend on this most propitious Event, and that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this Tribute of our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Throne, Family and Government.

Given under our Common Seal this 30th Day of April, 1795.

[Presented by Colonel Manners, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Town of Lymington, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.

As faithful and loyal Subjects to your Majesty we look forward, with Confidence and with peculiar Satisfaction, to the Continuance of those invaluable Blessings which these Kingdoms have ever experienced, under the mild and just Reign of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Permit us, therefore, to express our unalterable Sentiments of Attachment and Duty to your Majesty's Person and Family, and to participate in the general Joy of a free, loyal and affectionate People.

Wm. Rooke, Mayor.

Town-Hall, Lymington,
May 7, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace for Argyllshire take the earliest Opportunity of acknowledging, with the most heartfelt Gratitude, the high Sense we have of your Majesty's unremitted Attention to the Interest and Happiness of your Subjects, and to congratulate your Majesty on the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the House of Brunswick, which we sincerely hope will contribute to strengthen your Majesty's Family and encrease your domestic Felicity, with which that of your People are so intimately connected.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by

Rob. Campbell, P.

Inverary, May 1, 1795.

[Presented by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell.]

Carlton House, May 9.

THE following Address having been transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness GEORGE, Prince of WALES.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Wexford, assembled at Spring Assizes, 1795, beg Leave humbly to offer our Congratulations to your Royal Highness on your Nuptials with the Princess Caroline, Daughter to His Serene Highness the Prince of Brunswick and Lunenburgh, and to declare our Joy at an Union which promises Stability to the Succession to the Throne in your Royal House, under whose mild and beneficent Government we have eminently experienced every Blessing.

We fervently wish your Royal Highness uninterrupted Felicity, and that your Royal Father, you, and your Descendants, may wield the Sceptre of these free and happy Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

Carlton House, May 9.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness GEORGE AUGUSTUS, Prince of WALES, Duke of Cornwall, &c. &c.

The Address of the Major-Commandant, Officers and Corps of the loyal Langport Volunteers.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Major-Commandant, Officers and Corps of the Loyal Langport Volunteers, request your Royal Highness's Permission to present, with the greatest Humility and Deference, their Address of Congratulation on your Royal Highness's Marriage with the illustrious Princess Caroline of Brunswick. While this auspicious Event has spread a general Felicity through the British Dominions, we are ambitious of testifying that we cannot view, without the most sensible Emotions of Joy and Satisfaction, an Alliance that cannot but be highly conducive to your Royal Highness's personal Felicity, and the domestic Happiness of our august

Monarch