AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of April, 1795.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing Date the 6th of February last, to order, and it was thereby ordered, That notwithstanding any Thing contained in Two Acts passed in the last Session of Parliament, referred to in the said Order, it should be lawful for any Person, residing or being in Great Britain, to pay any Bill drawn or indorsed in any Part of the United Provinces, and sent from the said Provinces on or before the Sixteenth Day of January last; provided such Bill should have been made payable at no greater Distance of Time than Three Months from the Date thereof, or Three Months from Sight thereof, under certain Conditions in the said Order contained:—His Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy Council, is hereby pleased to order, That the Licence, so granted by the above recited Order of the Sixth of February last, with respect to the Payment of the Bills therein described, be extended, subject to the Condition mentioned in the said Order, to any Bills, drawn or indorsed in any Part of the United Provinces, and sent from the said Provinces, on or before the said Sixteenth Day of January last, which shall have been made payable at no greater Distance of Time than Five Months from the Date thereof, or Five Months from Sight thereof.

St. James's, May 3.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal and Professors of the University of Edinburgh, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the auspicious Event of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Highness Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Zealously attached, by Affection and Gratitude, to the august House of Hanover, to which the British Empire owes so much of its Prosperity and Glory, we feel the most lively Satisfaction in an Union which promises a large Accession of Happiness to your illustrious Family.

That your Majesty and our most gracious Queen may long behold their Royal Highnesses adorned by those Virtues, and possessed of that conjugal Felicity, of which your Majesties have given them so bright an Example, is our most ardent Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Senatus Academicus.
