

Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg Leave to offer our humble and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

As Members of a Society placed more immediately under your Majesty's Patronage and Protection, and honoured with repeated Marks of your Royal Favour and Regard, particularly in the Instance of your Majesty's gracious Attention to the Wishes of the University, on the late Vacancy of the Provostship, we embrace, with peculiar Pleasure, the Opportunity of expressing our Satisfaction at an Event which must contribute to encrease the domestic Happiness of your Majesty and your illustrious Family, and furnishes additional Security for a Continuance of the Blessings which these Kingdoms have enjoyed under the auspicious Government of the House of Brunswick.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are fully sensible of the Value of these Blessings and of that happy Constitution, which, in the present distracted State of Europe, continues to be the Boast and Security of these Nations. It is our ardent Prayer, that your Majesty's august Family may long be it's just and successful Guardians; a Prayer of which we rejoice to anticipate the Completion in the gracious Compliance of your Majesty and the Prince of Wales with the Wishes of all your Subjects, by the Alliance of His Royal Highness with an amiable Princess of the same illustrious House. Under a deep Sense of your Majesty's paternal Regard for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, we shall not cease, in Conjunction with a zealous Attachment to the Principles of our free and well-ordered Constitution, to cultivate the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

St. James's, May 16.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hartford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hartford, ever desirous of manifesting our sincere Attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the Marriage of the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the House of Brunswick.

It is with great Satisfaction we anticipate the Happiness of seeing the Succession to the Crown of these Realms secured in that illustrious Line.

May the Blessings this Country has enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign be delivered down to the latest Posterity.

The Royal Union, which has diffused so much Joy through every Description of your Majesty's Subjects, cannot fail to add to the domestic Happiness of your Majesty and your Royal Consort.

May their Royal Highnesses long enjoy an uninterrupted Scene of Felicity, while their noble and amiable Qualities ensure the Affection of your Majesty's faithful People, and the universal Respect and Veneration due to their high Birth, Station and Dignity.

By Order of the Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the County of Hartford, held the 9th of May, 1795.

Thomas Harding, Sheriff.

[Presented by Thomas Harding, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Essex, approach your Majesty with our most sincere and respectful Congratulations on the auspicious Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick, most highly respected for her personal and amiable Qualities.

Warmly interested from every Motive of Gratitude, as well as of Duty, in whatever can affect your Majesty's Happiness, we rejoice at an Event so congenial to your Majesty's Wishes; an Event which promises not only an Increase to your Majesty's and the Queen's domestic Felicity, but Stability to your Throne and Government, and a strong Security also to the Liberties, both Civil and Religious, of your Majesty's most faithful Subjects.

It is our most earnest Prayer and Wish, that your Majesty, and your Royal Consort the Queen, the brightest and most illustrious Example for Imitation, may be long preserved a Blessing and a Glory to these Kingdoms; and that your Virtues may be transmitted to your Royal Descendants through all future Generations.

John Hanson, Sheriff.

[Presented by John Hanson, Esq; High Sheriff for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall, deeply impressed with the warmest Affection and Attachment to your Majesty, beg Leave to offer our humble Congratulations on the auspicious Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Every Event which can strengthen the Interest of the House of Brunswick in the British Dominions must afford the most heartfelt Satisfaction to all your loyal Subjects, who have ever experienced the Blessings of your Majesty's Government.

May your Majesty long live to preserve, in the most exalted Degree, our Civil and Religious Liberties, and to participate in the Happiness of your Family, as well as of a free, loyal and grateful People; and may the illustrious Personages, imitating your Majesty's Virtues and Conduct, insure to themselves,
