

liance so grateful to every true Lover of his Country must brighten the Prospect of securing to our Posterity the Continuance of those Blessings which we and our Ancestors have happily enjoyed in these Kingdoms, under the auspicious and mild Government of the Princes of your illustrious House.

Attached as we are to your Royal Highness, placed under your Royal Patronage, and deeply interested in every Event conducive to your Felicity, we are fully persuaded that the Choice you have made will be as productive of Happiness to your Royal Highness and your amiable Consort as it does afford a solid Satisfaction to us a free, loyal and affectionate People. And long may your Royal Highness live to support our Laws, and defend our Civil and Religious Liberty, by imitating the Virtues and Conduct of your Royal Highness's Father, our most gracious Sovereign.

Signed, at the Request of the County,
Ralph Allen Daniell, Sheriff.

[Presented by Ralph Allen Daniell, Esq; Sheriff.]

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the County of Somerset, feeling the most cordial and firm Attachment towards your august Family, most humbly beg Permission to congratulate your Royal Highness on your Marriage with Her Most Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

At the same Time that we offer our Congratulations on an Event which cannot fail to secure the domestic Happiness of your Royal Highness, we anticipate with Pleasure the Prospect it affords us of a further Security for the Continuation of your illustrious House on the Throne of these Kingdoms.

That your Royal Highness, and your illustrious and amiable Consort, may long enjoy uninterrupted Health and Felicity is our most sincere and fervent Prayer.

Edw. Lyne, Sheriff of Somersetshire.

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES, &c. &c.

The loyal and congratulatory Address of the Gentlemen and Freeholders, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Durham and its Environs.

May it please your Royal Highness,

Penetrated with the most humble and grateful Adoration to the Supreme Being for the manifold Blessings these Kingdoms have so long enjoyed under your Royal and August House, and more peculiarly for those under the auspicious Reign of our present Most Gracious Sovereign, whom God long preserve, with His most amiable and virtuous Queen, upon the Throne of this great and potent Empire, for the Comfort and Happiness of all his loving and affectionate Subjects, composing the most independent and generous Kingdoms upon Earth, we, the Gentlemen and Freeholders, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Durham, &c. beg Leave, with all due Respect, to approach your Royal Person, and to tender to your Royal Highness our sincere Congratulations upon your Matrimonial Union with an amiable and accomplished Princess of the illustrious and serene House of Wolfenbottle, devoutly hoping every Blessing may await your Royal Highness; and that it may ever prove propitious to these Nations, by securing the Protestant Succession, so essential to their Liberties and Independence, as well as the Right to the Crown, in your Royal and illustrious House, to the latest Ages. May the bright and virtuous Examples set your Royal Highnesses, and indeed all the World, by your Royal and illustrious Parents, who are justly deemed the Parents of their People, as all Princes ought ever to be, shine forth with equal Lustre, and be attended with the like beneficial Consequences to Generations unborn, which, through Permission of the Omnipotent, in all human Probability, you and your Descendants are destined to reign over; and whenever it may please the Sovereign Arbitrer of Events to call our Most Gracious and beloved Monarch from a terrestrial to a heavenly Crown, and your Royal Highnesses are seated upon the Throne of your glorious Ancestors, that you may, like them and your Royal Parents, reign in the Hearts of your People, and sway the Imperial Sceptre of these Realms, with equal Justice, Moderation and Mercy, and maintain our inestimable and much envied Constitution, in it's utmost Purity, inviolate.

Given under our Hands at the City of Durham, this 25th Day of April, 1795, and desired to be presented to His Royal Highness by Sir William Appleby.

[Presented by Sir William Appleby, Bart.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common Council assembled.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Worcester, humbly presume to seize the earliest Opportunity of presenting to your Royal Highness our hearty and sincere Congratulations on your propitious Union with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick, eminent for her Virtues and amiable Accomplishments.

Considering the great and good Example of your Royal and august Parents, who are most justly admired and revered by all the World as Paragons of connubial Bliss and Perfection, we cannot doubt but that, by an Imitation of their Virtues and Excellencies, your Royal Highness and your Royal Consort will be crowned with similar Rewards. And it is our most fervent Prayer to the Great Disposer of Persons and Events, that the Felicity of your Royal Highness and your Royal Consort may be uninterrupted and permanent, and that your auspicious Nuptials may not only increase the domestic Comfort and Happiness of all your Royal Family, but prove a Mean of continuing, to the latest Posterity, the Blessings enjoyed by these happy Kingdoms under
