

Royal Consort our sincere Congratulations upon your happy Union.

We reflect, with infinite Satisfaction, that the beloved Heir Apparent of the Crown of these Kingdoms is united to a Princess, not only renowned for her Virtues and amiable Qualities, but descended from the illustrious House of Brunswick, whose Princes, since their Establishment upon the British Throne, have swayed the Sceptre with Justice, Moderation and Equity, and have been the Objects of universal Affection and Esteem by a grateful and generous People.

The Joy of the Nation upon this important Event is heightened also by the Pleasure which it hath imparted to your Royal Parents.

Their Majesties have, in their own Persons, afforded a bright Example of connubial Felicity, and unite, with the Nation at large, in contemplating, with Delight, the Prospects of Happiness which await your Royal Highnesses, from a Connection in every Respect so well calculated to promote your own Satisfaction and the public Welfare.

W. Symons, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir Frederick Lemau Rogers, Bart. Alderman, Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the loyal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Manchester, humbly crave Permission to approach your Royal Highness with our most cordial and dutiful Congratulations on your Marriage with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Deign to accept our fervent Wishes that your Royal Highness may long enjoy that domestic Happiness, so strongly secured by your Union with a Princess of the most exalted Virtues and the most amiable Manners; and permit our loyal Hearts to blend with these the selfish Prayer, that there never may be wanting to this Nation a Descendant of your Royal House to sit upon the Throne of these Kingdoms, that under a Family to whom it is indebted for the Transmission of its envied Privileges, it may continue to enjoy those Blessings, unimpaired, to the latest Posterity.

Signed, on Behalf of a Meeting of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Manchester, Tho. Richardson, Borough-Reeve, Chairman.

[Presented by Thomas Richardson and Joseph Thackeray, Esqrs. accompanied by John Blackburne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaster.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth, beg Leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most cordial Congratulations on your Royal Highness's Union with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We assure your Royal Highness that every Event which leads to your Happiness, excites in our Breasts the warmest Sensations of Pleasure; and that the particular Event which occasions our Approach to your Royal Highness is peculiarly grateful to us.

The Virtues which your illustrious Consort possesses cannot fail of securing to you that Happiness which it is our most anxious Wish your Royal Highness should experience.

We rejoice when we reflect that Her Royal Highness's Kindred to His Majesty, and her known Attachment to this Country, must give additional Support to that glorious Constitution, under which we enjoy the Blessings attendant on Freedom.

May the Virtues of your Royal Highness and your illustrious Consort afford great Examples to the English Nation; and may your Royal Highness be blest with a numerous Offspring, who, reaping the Benefit of your Example, may, with becoming Zeal, exert themselves in securing to Posterity that Liberty and those distinguished Privileges, which the Inhabitants of this Kingdom enjoy.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, on this 2d Day of May, 1795.

Tho. White, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir Henry Featherstonhaugh, Bart. and the Hon. Thomas Erskine, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

S I R,

THE Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Southampton beg Leave to felicitate your Royal Highness on the important Event of your Marriage with a Princess eminently respectable both for her exalted Birth and personal Accomplishments.

Firmly attached to our gracious Sovereign and his Royal House, full of Reverence for our holy Religion, and zealous for the Support of the Constitution of our Country, we feel the highest Satisfaction at an Union so well calculated to secure and promote the Interests of these first great Objects of our Hopes and Desires.

May you, Sir, and your Royal Consort, live long in the Enjoyment of all domestic Happiness, and when, in the Fullness of Years, your Royal Father, our beloved King, shall be taken from us, may you succeed to the Throne of these Realms, and reign in the Hearts of a free, a brave and loyal People.

[Presented by James Anyatt and George Henry Rose, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

The humble Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

WE, the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, at all Times most truly and sincerely attached to every Branch of the Family of our most gracious Sovereign, and particularly from the distinguished Honour we have received from His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence having condescended to become a Member of this House, cannot, on this auspicious Occasion, suppress our Inclination of offering to your Royal Highness our warmest Congratulations
