Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 2, to Saturday June 6, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of May, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for preventing certain Instruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United States of America; and to give to His Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the said United States;" which said Act has been continued by several subsequent Acts until the 5th Day of April, 1795. And whereas by an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to extend the Powers of an Act, made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for giving His Majesty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the United States of America, to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, with respect to certain Articles therein mentioned;" the Powers given by the said recited Act were extended to the Trade and Interchange between this Kingdom and the British Colonies and Plantations in America; so far as the same might relate to Iron, Hemp and Sailcloth, and other Articles of the Produce of any Place bordering on the Baltic, which might be exported from this Kingdom; which last mentioned Act has also by several subsequent Acts been continued until the said 5th Day of April, 1795.

And whereas by another Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to continue the Laws now in Force for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, so far as the same relate to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the Inhabitants of the Countries belonging to the said United States," it is declared to be expedient, that the said Act of the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, so far only as the same extends to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the People and Territories belonging to the United States of America, and also that the said Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, should be further continued and be in Force; and it is thereby enacted, that the said Acts shall continue and be in Force until the 5th Day of April, 1796, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament:

His Majesty doth thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and declare, That any Unmanufactured Goods and Merchandizes, the Importation of which into this Kingdom

Kingdom is not prohibited by Law (except Tobacco, for which Provision is herein after made, and except Oil made from Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale-Fins and Spermaceti) and any Pig Iron, Bar Iron, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Rosin, Pot-Ash, Pearl-Ash, Indico, Masts, Yards and Bowsprits, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, may be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, either in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, or in Ships built in the Countries belonging to the United States of America, or any of them, or in Ships taken by any of the Ships or Vessels of War belonging to the Government, or any of the Inhabitants of the said United States, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty of the said United States (of which Condemnation due Proof shall be given) and owned by the Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least are Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and may be entered and landed in any Port of this Kingdom, upon Payment of such Duties as the like Sorts of Goods or Merchandize are or may be subject and liable to if imported in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, from any British Island or Plantation in America, notwithstanding such Goods or Merchandize; or the Ships in which the same may be brought, may not be accompanied with the Certificates or other Documents heretofore required by Law.

And it is further ordered, that all other Goods and Merchandize, not herein before enumerated or described, the Importation of which into this Kingdom is not prohibited by Law, (except Snuff, for which Provision is herein after made) and also Oil made from Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale-Fins and Spermaceti, being the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, may be imported from thence into this Kingdom in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as herein before required, upon Payment of such Duties of Customs and Excise as are payable on the like Goods and Merchandize upon their Importation into this Kingdom from Countries not under the Dominion of His Majesty, according to the Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. annexed to an Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in Lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies remaining in the Exchequer, for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt;" or by any other Laws in Force passed subsequent to the said Act, touching the Duties contained in the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F.; and in Cases where different Duties are imposed upon the like Goods imported from different Countries not under the Dominion of His Majesty, then that such Goods shall be imported upon the lowest Duties which by the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. are required to be paid on the Importation of any such Goods from any European Country not under the Dominion of His Majesty.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that all such Goods and Merchandize shall be intitled to the same Drawbacks as are allowed upon the Exportation of the like Goods and Merchandize when exported from this Kingdom, according to the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. annexed to the before mentioned Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or according to any other Law in Force, passed subsequent to the said Act, touching Drawbacks. And it is hereby further ordered, that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods and Merchandize exported from this Kingdom to the Territories of the said United States, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Goods or Merchandize to any of the Islands, Plantations, or Colonies, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain in America. And it is hereby further ordered, that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks upon the Exportation of any Sort of Foreign Hemp or Foreign Iron exported from this Kingdom into any British Colony or Plantation in America, or into the Territories of the United States of America, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Sort of Hemp or Iron to other Foreign Parts; and all such Drawbacks and Bounties respectively shall be allowed and paid in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as such Drawbacks and Bounties are allowed and paid, or are subject and liable to by Law; provided always, and His Majesty is further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Importation of Rice and other Articles, without Payment of any Duty whatever, by virtue of an Act passed in the present Session of of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation, and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision for a limited Time, without Payment of Duty," and in the Manner in the said Act mentioned.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, may be imported in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as herein before required, upon Payment of the same Duties as Tobacco, imported by British Subjects from any British Colony or Plantation, is or may hereafter be subject to; and that any Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of any of the said Territories, may be imported in Manner before mentioned, upon Payment of such Duties as Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of Europe, imported from Europe, is or hereafter may be subject to, and may be warehoused and again exported; subject respectively nevertheless to all and singular the Regulations of an Act made and passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof:" And another Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof:" And also another Act passed in the Thirty first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to prevent other Ships than those laden with Tobacco from mooring and discharging their Lading at the Places appointed by an Act made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof; to prohibit the Exportation of damaged or mean Tobacco; and for permitting the Importation of Tobacco and Snuff into the Port of Newcastle upon Tyne."

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, That in case and as often as Rice shall not be allowed, by the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, to be imported without Payment of any Duty, any Rice, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, which shall be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in Manner above-mentioned, may, upon the Importer paying down, in ready Money, the Duty of Eight-pence the Hundred Weight, being Part of the Duties now payable on the Importation of Rice, be landed and warehoused (except as hereinafter excepted) under His Majesty's Locks, in such Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, upon the Importer's own Bond for Payment of the Remainder of the Duties due and payable for such Rice, within Eighteen Months, according to the net Weight and Quantity of such Rice at the Time it shall be so landed: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that upon the Importation of any such Rice into the Ports of London, Bristol, Portsmouth, Cowes, Liverpool, Lancaster, Falmouth, Pool, Whitehaven, Hull, Greenock, and Port Glasgow, or either of them, in the Manner herein before expressed, the Importer shall be at Liberty to enter and land the same without Payment of any Duty whatever; in which Case such Rice shall be warehoused, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and the Proprietors, in such Warehouse or Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and any Three or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; every Expence attending which Warehousing shall be borne by the said Proprietors: And that such Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their known Agent, shall from Time to Time, at all seasonable Hours, as Occasion may require, have free Access to such Warehouses, in the Presence of some proper Officer of the Customs, for the Purpose of screening and shifting the Rice, to prevent it's receiving Damage. And that if any Rice, which shall be so imported from the Territories of the said United States into any of the Ports abovementioned respectively, and warehoused as aforesaid, shall be taken out of the Warehouses wherein the same shall be secured, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and the Proprietors as aforesaid, for Home Consumption, the full Duties, due and payable by Law upon the Importation of such Rice into this Kingdom for Home Consumption, shall, previously to it's being taken out of such Warehouses, be paid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Ports where such Rice shall be so warehoused; but that such Proprietor, if he intends to export such Rice, shall have Liberty to export the same from such Warehouses respectively, under the usual Regulations, without Payment of any Duty whatever: Provided that the Exportation of any such Rice, hereafter to be warehoused, be made within the said Space of Eighteen Months; and if not within that Period, that the full Duties, payable by Law upon the Importation of such Rice, be paid for the same, and not be afterwards drawn back: And that if any Rice which shall have been imported into any Port of

ported. And if any Rice imported into any Port of this Kingdom, not herein before specially named, and warehoused in Manner aforesaid, shall be taken out of any such Warehouse for Home Consumption, the Remainder of the Duties, due and payable by Law, shall, previously to it's being taken out of such Warehouse, be paid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Port where such Rice shall be so warehoused; and that such Payment shall be made, and the Warehouse cleared for such Rice hereafter to be warehoused, within the said Space of Eighteen Months, otherwise the same shall and may be sold for the Duties, in like Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as any other Goods are now directed by Law to be sold for of this Kingdom, not herein before specially named, and shall have been warehoused upon the Importer's Bond, in Manner aforesaid, shall, within the Time herein before mentioned, be taken out of the Warehouse wherein it shall have been so secured, to be exported directly from thence, the Bond entered into for the Payment of the said Duties thereon shall be discharged and cancelled by Debenture or Debentures, made out and passed in the usual Manner, for the Quantity or Quantities of Rice duly ex- the Duties.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

St. James's, June 6.

THE following Address of the Deputy Consul General and Factory at Lisbon having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deputy Consul General and Factory at Lisbon.

PERMIT us, Sire, to offer our most humble Congratulations to your Majesty on the late auspicious Event which has taken Place in the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick; and to assure your Majesty that our most fervent Prayers will be offered up to Heaven to bestow on them every Happiness, and to bless them with a numerous Offspring; so that the Dominions of Great Britain be perpetuated to the Family of Brunswick, under which our Constitution has arrived to a Degree of Perfection, which makes it the Admiration of all Nations.

The Blessings of your Majesty's Government have diffused so general an Influence through all Ranks and Distinctions of your Majesty's Subjects, that we, though established in a foreign Country, have felt their beneficent Effects; and we are most sincerely happy to have Opportunities in joining our Fellow Countrymen in Expressions of Gratitude, and of testifying our cordial Satisfaction on every Circumstance which affords Pleasure to your Majesty and your august Family.

By Request of the Factory,

John Theodore Koster,

Deputy Consul General.

St. James's, June 6.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Lancaster, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and affectionate Congratulations upon the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with an amiable and accomplished Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We feel, at the same Time, the liveliest Emotions of Gratitude for that strong Regard which your Majesty has evinced for the future Interests of your People by this auspicious Alliance, which promises Stability to the Throne and Permanency to our excellent Constitution both in Church and State; a Constitution which is deservedly the Boast of Britons and the Envy of Europe, as it wisely provides at once for the Security of Individuals, the Welfare of the Publick, and the Maintenance of pure Religion.

We earnestly pray that the Felicity of the Prince and Princess of Wales may long continue; that your Majesty may have the Happiness to see their Royal Highnesses experience every Blessing which can be expected to flow from this auspicious Event; and that their Union may be the Means of encreasing the domestic Comfort of your august Family in all its Branches. And permit us to assure your Majesty that we, your loyal Subjects, in Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Government, are ready upon all Occasions to support your Majesty's Person, Crown and Family against foreign Enemies and internal Foes.

Robinson Shuttleworth, Sheriff.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of your antient City of Lincoln, humbly beg that your Majesty will be pleased to accept our cordial and respectful Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick. Warmly and deeply interested as we must ever be in a Matter which so nearly relates to your Majesty's own immediate Felicity, as well as to the future Happiness, Welfare and Prosperity of the British Empire, we cannot but rejoice at an Event which is so likely to add further Strength and Stability to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and to perpetuate the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

We humbly beg to unite in one ardent Wish, that your Majesty, in the full Enjoyment of every earthly Happiness, may continue to live in the Hearts of your Subjects, and long, very long, indeed, reign a Patriot King at the Head of an united People.

Given at the Guildhall of the said City under our Common Seal, the 30th Day of May, 1795.

[Presented by Colonel Carwathorne, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bayliffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly beg Permission to offer our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; an Union which opens a pleasing Prospect of Happiness to the Country, and promises an Increase of domestic Felicity to your Majesty.

Grateful for the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Attachment to your your sacred Person. Truſting that the Divine Providence will bleſs the auspicious Event, and perpetuate the Reign of the illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick over an affectionate, free, and loyal People.

In Teſtimony of the above we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the 23d Day of May, 1795.

J. Wiſhamſon, Mayor.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Eardley and John Wilmot, Eſq; Representatives in Parliament for the ſaid City.]

Firmly attached to your Maſteſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, we view with real Satisfaction an Event which promiſes additional Security for our own Happineſs and a Continuance to Poſterity of thoſe Bleſſings enjoyed by us and our Fellow Subjects under your Maſteſty's mild and equitable Government.

Given under our Common Seal the 29th Day of May, 1795.

[Preſented by Sir Chriſtopher Willoughby.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The congratulatory Addreſs of the Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton.

WE, the Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Maſteſty's Royal Preſence to expreſs our heart-felt Participation in the general Joy which the Marriage of His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with the Princeſs Caroline of Brunſwick has diffuſed over the Nation.

Deeply impreſſed with Sentiments of devoted Attachment to your Maſteſty's Perſon, and with Feelings of moſt lively Gratitude for thoſe inſtimable Bleſſings which this Country has uniformly experienced under the mild Government of your Maſteſty and your Royal Anceſtors, we moſt cordially congratulate your Maſteſty on this auspicious Union. We ſincerely rejoice in it, as an Event tending to augment the domeſtic Felicity of your Maſteſty and your Royal Family, and as affording additional Security for the continued Enjoyment of thoſe invaluable Privileges which we at preſent poſſeſs, by ſtrengthening the pleaſing Hope that the Crown of theſe Realms will deſcend to your Maſteſty's Poſterity to the laſteſt Times.

That your Maſteſty may be long preſerved to witneſs the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People; and that your Succeſſors, by following the bright Example your Maſteſty has ſet before them of every Virtue which can add Dignity to the Royal Character, may equally live in the Hearts of their Subjects, is the ſincereſt Wiſh of,

May it pleaſe your Maſteſty,

Your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton.

Signed, by Appointment of the Meeting,

Henry Glaſford, Preſes.

[Preſented by Archibald Edmonſtone, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke.

WE, your Maſteſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke, beg Leave to approach your Maſteſty, to teſtify, by this humble Addreſs, the great Satisfaction we derive from a late Occurrence which has happened in your Royal Family, the Union of the Heir Apparent with the moſt accomplished Princeſs in Europe, and one ſo nearly related to your Maſteſty, muſt give real Pleaſure to every Friend of the Conſtitution, and to every Profeſſor of the Proteſtant Religion: Deign, therefore, Gracious Sire! to accept our unfeigned Thanks for planning, and in your Wiſdom in bringing to Maſturity, an Event of ſuch Conſequence to the whole Britiſh Empire.

Given under our Common Seal this 18th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Nich. Dunn, Mayor.

[Preſented by Hugh Barlow, Eſq; Representative in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Maſteſty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Carnarvon, ſincerely rejoiced at every Event tending to augment the Happineſs and Proſperity Prosperity of your Majesty, humbly solicit your Majesty's Acceptance of our hearty Congratulations upon the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We pray that this Event, so important to the Interests of the British Nation, may prove a Blessing to it, and a lasting Comfort to your Majesty and the illustrious Personages themselves.

We entertain most fervent Hopes that this Alliance will not only create an Addition to the domestic Felicity of your Majesty and all your Royal Family, but be the Means of securing our National Welfare, by perpetuating the mild Government so long enjoyed by Britons, in an increasing Series of Happiness and Prosperity.

Signed, in pursuance of an Order made at a full Court, held at the Guildhall at Carnarvon, on Thursday the 21st Day of May, 1795.

O. A. Poole, }
John Roberts, } Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Taunton, regarding with unfeigned Satisfaction all Events which promise to be Sources of domestic Comfort and Happiness to your Majesty, as well as Causes of essential Service and Support to the Interests of our Country, humbly beg Leave to offer our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on the late auspicious Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

We contemplate, with an equal Mixture of Gratitude and Delight, the many valuable Blessings we have hitherto reaped, and which we still hope to continue to reap from the Equity, the Mildness and Moderation of the Princes of the Brunswick Line in the Exercise of their Dominion over these Realms. We cannot, therefore, but participate in those lively Effusions of Loyalty and Joy in common with all your Majesty's faithful and loving Subjects, excited by the Wisdom and Dignity of an Alliance which, as it tends to increase our Affection and Respect for the Heir Apparent of the Throne, tends also to give Permanence and Stability to the Reign of an illustrious House, so justly and so eminently endeared to us.

That your Majesty may live long, beloved, revered, and crowned with every sublunary Bliss, as the Father of a Family, is our most fervent Prayer: That, as the Father of your People, your Majesty may receive invariably the most cordial Assurances and most substantial Testimonies of their Fidelity and Zeal; and that, as the Governor and Protector of the State, your Majesty may see in it Peace and Tranquility flourish, Content and Unanimity abound. These are Objects which it is not only our Wish, but, as far as the Co-operation of a limited Number of Individuals can avail, it shall be our unremitting Study and most sedulous Endeavour to promote.

Matt. Brickdale, Chairman of the Meeting.

[Presented by Alexander Popham, Esq; and Sir Benjamin Hammet, Knt. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Rothefay, offer to your Majesty our sincere and dutiful Congratulations on the Alliance of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

This Event, while it cannot but be particularly grateful to your Majesty's personal Feelings, must at the same Time afford the highest Satisfaction to your faithful Subjects, in the Conviction that while in strengthening your Majesty's illustrious House, it also provides a farther Security for the Continuance of these Blessings which hath been hitherto enjoyed under it; and we farther sincerely hope and trust, that the domestick Duties, which it calls on His Royal Highness to exercise, will prove a Source and Foundation for those Royal Virtues which will ever, we hope, distinguish the Sovereigns of your illustrious House; and by promoting the Happiness and ensuring the Affections of their Subjects, prove, in the Persons of succeeding Sovereigns, as it has done in that of your Majesty, the best and noblest Security for the just Rights and Prerogatives of the Crown.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of Council, by Arch. Moore, Baillie.

Council Chamber, Rothefay,

May 27, 1795.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, in General Meeting assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and offer the warm and loyal Congratulations of dutiful and faithful Subjects on the auspicious Occasion of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess descended from the illustrious House of Brunswick, whose Graces and Endowments, while they cannot fail of contributing to the domestick Felicity of her Royal Partner, must add greatly to the Happiness of your Majesty's Family.

May Heaven grant that your Majesty and our most gracious Queen may long enjoy the Satisfaction of seeing their Royal Highnesses follow your bright Example, and, by imitating the Virtues of their illustrious Parents, secure the Zeal, the Loyalty, and Affection of your People, and transmit the Blessings of your Reign, and of our free and happy Constitution, to future Ages.

Signed by our Præses, in our Presence and by our Appointment, at Greenlaw, Head Burgh of the County of Berwick, the 25th Day of May, 1795 Years.

HOME, Præses.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace of the County of Bute, impressed with the highest Reverence for the Principles of

of that Constitution which was established in these Kingdoms at the Revolution 1688, and finally secured to them by the Accession of your Majesty's illustrious House, feel it our Duty humbly to offer our Congratulation, to your Majesty on the auspicious Alliance of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the kindred House of Brunswick.

Entertaining the most lively Hope that the Example of your Majesty and your illustrious Ancestors will transmit to succeeding Princes of the House of Hanover the same Care to preserve that Constitution inviolate by which you have been so eminently distinguished, we cannot but feel the highest Satisfaction in an Event, which, while it strengthens your Majesty's Family, we consider at the same Time as giving an additional Security to your Subjects for those Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty which have hitherto been enjoyed under the House of Hanover, and which we trust will long continue to be the Fruits of your Government over these Kingdoms.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting,

Wm. Macleod Bannatyne.

Rothsay, May 25, 1795.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence with our sincerest Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

This Event cannot but afford us the most heartfelt Satisfaction, as it is replete with such an Accession of domestic Felicity to your Majesty and your Royal Family, and opens to your loving Subjects so fair a Prospect of a Continuance of those Blessings we have uniformly enjoyed under your Majesty's most mild and equitable Government.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over a free and happy People, and that your Sceptre, together with your public and private Virtues, may descend to your latest Posterity.

James Pedder, Mayor, in open Council.

[Presented by James Allen Park, Esq; Recorder of the said Borough.]

AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d of June, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 3d of December last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 7th Day of this instant June: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time, longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 7th Day of this instant June, presume to transport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

Admiralty-Office, June 6, 1795.

THE King has been pleased to appoint Horatio Nelson, Esquire, the Honorable Thomas Pakenham, and the Honorable George Berkeley, to be Colonels of His Majesty's Marine Forces, in the room of William Young, Esquire, James Gambier, Esq; and the Right Honorable Lord Hugh Seymour, appointed Flag Officers of His Majesty's Fleet.

ADMIRALTY-

it is enacted, for the Relief of all Persons who have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given, paid or contracted for, with Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, and also who have omitted to insert and write in Words at Length in Indentures or other Writings relating to the Service of any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or contracted for, with or in relation to every such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, that, upon Payment of double the Rates and Duties upon the Monies, or such Part of the Monies, so omitted or neglected to be paid, and also so omitted to be inserted and written in such Indenture or Writing, on or before the 19th Day of December next, to the proper Officer, and tendering the same to be stamped at this Office, every such Indenture or other Writing shall be good and valid, and the Persons so offending be excused from any Penalty incurred by the Omission thereof; except those against whom any Prosecution shall be now depending.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Secretary.

Navy-Office, May 27, 1795.

THERE being a Want of Surgeon's Mates to serve in His Majesty's Ships, the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice to such Gentlemen as are willing to serve therein, that they will, on Application at this Office, receive Letters for Examination before the Surgeon's Company, and have Warrants according to their Qualifications.

They shall receive Two Months Pay in Advance in the Ships to which they shall be appointed, before they proceed to Sea, and Conduct-Money on their first Appointments, at the Rate of Three-pence per Mile from London to the Ports where the Ships they are appointed to lay; the same to be paid by the Clerk of the Cheque of the Yard on their joining their Ships.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty has been pleased to direct that their Pay shall be increased; the Particulars of which may be known by Application at this Office.

Navy-Office, May 30, 1795.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy to pay Six Months Interest on all Bills which bear Interest registered on the Course of the Navy, between the 1st and 31st of October, 1794; and it is recommended to all Persons possessed of such Bills to bring the same to the Treasurer's Office in Somerset-Place as soon as possible, in order that the Payment may take Place before the Expiration of June next, when the List, containing an Account of the same, assigned on the Treasurer, must be closed, for the Purpose of passing his Monthly Accounts with this Office.

Such Bills as are not brought in during that Period will be paid the full Interest upon them, together with the Principal, when they become due.

Navy-Office, June 4, 1795.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that, on Thursday the 18th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to supply His Majesty's Yard at Plymouth with Ship Chandlers' Wares on a standing Contract, to commence immediately.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock, nor any noticed unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

Navy-Office, June 4, 1795.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Thursday next, the 11th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for the Land Carriage of between Five and Six Hundred Loads of Oak Timber, from Waltham Forest to Ilford, both in the County of Essex; and for the Water Carriage thereof from Ilford to His Majesty's Yard at Deptford. The Timber will be ready about the 20th of July next.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock, nor will any be noticed unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

Royal Exchange Assurance Office,

Published by Authority of Parliament,

JOHN JAMES CATHERWOOD, Receiver of Corn Returns

THE AVERAGE PRICE OF SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 3d Day of June, 1795, is Fifty-five Shillings and Two Pence

per HUNDRED WEIGHT,

Exclusive of the Duty of Customs paid or payable thereon, on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
June 6, 1795.

RICHARD WHALLEY BRIDGMAN,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

Whitehall, May 26, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that about Eight o'Clock on the Morning of the 13th Ultimo, a most daring Mob, armed with Clubs and Axes, assembled at Bellemarsh, near Chudleigh, in the County of Devon, an Estate of James Templer, Esq; and forcibly entered a Mill thereon, and pulled down and destroyed a great Part of the Machinery of the said Mill, and at the same Time most inhumanly beat and wounded James Ball, the Tenant of the said Premises; and that upon the 15th Ultimo, another Mob assembled at Ilfrington, near the said Place, armed with various Weapons, and compelled the Peace Officers, who were furnished with a proper Warrant for the Apprehension of John Mortimer, who, together with Three other Persons already apprehended, appeared to be the principal Leaders of the said Insurgents, to retire.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Promoters and Instigators of the said Riots, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them (except the Persons now actually in Custody) who shall discover where the abovementioned John Mortimer is now concealed, or be otherwise instrumental in apprehending and bringing him to Justice.

PORTLAND.

Transport-Office, May 30, 1795.

THE Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service do hereby give Notice, that there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to pay Six Months Interest on all Bills which bear Interest registered on the Course of the Transport Office between the 1st and 31st of October, 1794.
