St. James's, June 6.

THE following Address of the Deputy Consul General and Factory at Lisbon having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deputy Consul General and Factory at Lisbon.

PERMIT us, Sire, to offer our most humble Congratulations to your Majesty on the late auspicious Event which has taken Place in the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick; and to assure your Majesty that our most fervent Prayers will be offered up to Heaven to bestow on them every Happiness, and to bless them with a numerous Offspring; so that the Dominions of Great Britain be perpetuated to the Family of Brunswick, under which our Constitution has arrived to a Degree of Perfection, which makes it the Admiration of all Nations.

The Blessings of your Majesty's Government have diffused so general an Influence through all Ranks and Distinctions of your Majesty's Subjects, that we, though established in a foreign Country, have felt their beneficent Effects; and we are most sincerely happy to have Opportunities in joining our Fellow Countrymen in Expressions of Gratitude, and of testifying our cordial Satisfaction on every Circumstance which affords Pleasure to your Majesty and your august Family.

By Request of the Factory,

John Theodore Koster,
Deputy Consul General.

St. James's, June 6.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Lancaster, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and affectionate Congratulations upon the Nuptials of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with an amiable and an accomplished Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We feel, at the same Time, the liveliest Emotions of Gratitude for that strong Regard which your Majesty has evinced for the future Interests of your People by this auspicious Alliance, which promises Stability to the Throne and Permanency to our excellent Constitution both in Church and State; a Constitution which is deservedly the Boast of Britons and the Envy of Europe, as it wisely provides at once for the Security of Individuals, the Welfare of the Publick, and the Maintenance of pure Religion.

We earnestly pray that the Felicity of the Prince and Princess of Wales may long continue; that your Majesty may have the Happiness to see their Royal Highnesses experience every Blessing which can be expected to flow from this auspicious Event; and that their Union may be the Means of encreasing the domestic Comfort of your august Family in all its Branches. And permit us to assure your Majesty that we, your loyal Subjects, in Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Government, are ready upon all Occasions to support your Majesty's Person, Crown and Family against foreign Enemies and internal Foes.

Robinson Shuttleworth, Sheriff.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of your antient City of Lincoln, humbly beg that your Majesty will be pleased to accept our cordial and respectful Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick. Warmly and deeply interested as we must ever be in a Matter which so nearly relates to your Majesty's own immediate Felicity, as well as to the future Happiness, Welfare and Prosperity of the British Empire, we cannot but rejoice at an Event which is so likely to add further Strength and Stability to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and to perpetuate the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

We humbly beg to unite in one ardent Wish, that your Majesty, in the full Enjoyment of every earthly Happiness, may continue to live in the Hearts of your Subjects, and long, very long, indeed, reign a Patriot King at the Head of an united People.

Given at the Guildhall of the said City under our Common Seal, the 30th Day of May, 1795.

[Presented by Colonel Carwathorne, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bayliffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly beg Permission to offer our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; an Union which opens a pleasing Prospect of Happiness to the Country, and promises an Increase of domestic Felicity to your Majesty.

Grateful for the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Attachment to your
