

your sacred Person. Trusting that the Divine Providence will bless the auspicious Event, and perpetuate the Reign of the illustrious House of Brunswick over an affectionate, free, and loyal People.

In Testimony of the above we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the 23d Day of May, 1795.

J. Williamson, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Lord Eardley and John Wilmot, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Hertford, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most cordial Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Attached to your Royal Person, by all the Ties of Gratitude and Affection, for the Advantages we enjoy under your mild and beneficent Government, we feel the highest Satisfaction on this Occasion, which promises to us the greatest Security for the Continuance of our inestimable Constitution in Church and State, the Happiness and Welfare of Individuals, and for the promoting the real Interest and Prosperity of the British Empire.

By Order,

James Atkinson, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by John Calvert, Esq; and Baron Dimsdale, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bridgemen, and Burgesses of the Town of Henley upon Thames in the County of Oxford, in Common Hall assembled, humbly beg Permission to offer our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with Her Serene Highness the Princess of Brunswick.

Firmly attached to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, we view with real Satisfaction an Event which promises additional Security for our own Happiness and a Continuance to Posterity of those Blessings, enjoyed by us and our Fellow Subjects under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government.

Given under our Common Seal the 29th Day of May, 1795.

[Presented by Sir Christopher Willoughby.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The congratulatory Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Royal Presence to express our heartfelt Participation in the general Joy which the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick has diffused over the Nation.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of devoted Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and with Feelings of most lively Gratitude for those inestimable Blessings which this Country has uniformly experienced under the mild Government of your Majesty and your Royal Ancestors, we most cordially congratulate your Majesty on this auspicious Union. We sincerely rejoice in it, as an Event tending to augment the domestic Felicity of your Majesty and your Royal Family, and as affording additional Security for the continued Enjoyment of those invaluable Privileges which we at present possess, by strengthening the pleasing Hope that the Crown of these Realms will descend to your Majesty's Posterity to the latest Times.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to witness the Happiness and Prosperity of your People; and that your Successors, by following the bright Example your Majesty has set before them of every Virtue which can add Dignity to the Royal Character, may equally live in the Hearts of their Subjects, is the sincerest Wish of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton.

Signed, by Appointment of the Meeting,

Henry Glasford, Praeses.

Dumbarton, May 16, 1795.

[Presented by Archibald Edmonstone, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to testify, by this humble Address, the great Satisfaction we derive from a late Occurrence which has happened in your Royal Family, the Union of the Heir Apparent with the most accomplished Princess in Europe, and one so nearly related to your Majesty, must give real Pleasure to every Friend of the Constitution, and to every Professor of the Protestant Religion: Deign, therefore, Gracious Sire! to accept our unfeigned Thanks for planning, and in your Wisdom in bringing to Maturity, an Event of such Consequence to the whole British Empire.

Given under our Common Seal this 18th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Nich. Dunn, Mayor.

[Presented by Hugh Barlow, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Carnarvon, sincerely rejoiced at every Event tending to augment the Happiness and Prosperity
