

of that Constitution which was established in these Kingdoms at the Revolution 1688, and finally secured to them by the Accession of your Majesty's illustrious House, feel it our Duty humbly to offer our Congratulation, to your Majesty on the auspicious Alliance of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the kindred House of Brunswick.

Entertaining the most lively Hope that the Example of your Majesty and your illustrious Ancestors will transmit to succeeding Princes of the House of Hanover the same Care to preserve that Constitution inviolate by which you have been so eminently distinguished, we cannot but feel the highest Satisfaction in an Event, which, while it strengthens your Majesty's Family, we consider at the same Time as giving an additional Security to your Subjects for those Blessings of Civil and Religious Liberty which have hitherto been enjoyed under the House of Hanover, and which we trust will long continue to be the Fruits of your Government over these Kingdoms.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting,

Wm. Macleod Bannatyne.

Rothsay, May 25, 1795.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Preston, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence with our sincerest Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

This Event cannot but afford us the most heartfelt Satisfaction, as it is replete with such an Accession of domestic Felicity to your Majesty and your Royal Family, and opens to your loving Subjects so fair a Prospect of a Continuance of those Blessings we have uniformly enjoyed under your Majesty's most mild and equitable Government.

We earnestly pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over a free and happy People, and that your Sceptre, together with your public and private Virtues, may descend to your latest Posterity.

James Pedder, Mayor, in open Council.
