Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 6, to Tuesday June 9, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of May, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for preventing certain Instruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United States of America; and to give to His Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the said United States;" which said Act has been continued by several subsequent Acts until the 5th Day of April, 1795. And whereas by an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to extend the Powers of an Act, made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for giving His Majesty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the United States of America, to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, with respect to certain Articles therein mentioned," the Powers given by the said recited Act were extended to the Trade and Intercourse between this Kingdom and the British Colonies and Plantations in America, so far as the same might relate to Iron, Hemp and Sailcloth, and other Articles of the Produce of any Place bordering on the Baltic, which might be exported from this Kingdom; which last mentioned Act has also by several subsequent Acts been continued until the said 5th Day of April, 1795.

And whereas by another Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to continue the Laws now in Force for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, so far as the same relate to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the Inhabitants of the Countries belonging to the said United States," it is declared to be expedient, that the said Act of the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, so far only as the same extends to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the People and Territories belonging to the United States of America, and also that the said Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, should be further continued and be in Force; and it is thereby enacted, that the said Acts shall continue and be in Force until the 5th Day of April, 1796, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament:

His Majesty doth thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and declare, That any Unmanufactured Goods and Merchandizes, the Importation of which into this Kingdom

[Price Eighteen-pence.]

Kingdom is not prohibited by Law (except Tobacco, for which Provision is herein after made, and except Oil made from Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale-Fins and Spermaceti) and any Pig Iron, Bar Iron, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Rosin, Pot-Ash, Pearl-Ash, Indico, Masts, Yards and Bowsprits, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, may be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, either in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, or in Ships built in the Countries belonging to the United States of America, or any of them, or in Ships taken by any of the Ships or Vessels of War belonging to the Government, or any of the Inhabitants of the said United States, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty of the said United States (of which Condemnation due Proof shall be given) and owned by the Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least are Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and may be entered and landed in any Port of this Kingdom, upon Payment of such Duties as the like Sorts of Goods or Merchandize are or may be subject and liable to if imported in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, from any British Island or Plantation in America, notwithstanding such Goods or Merchandize, or the Ships in which the same may be brought, may not be accompanied with the Certificates or other Documents heretofore required by Law.

And it is further ordered, that all other Goods and Merchandize, not herein before enumerated or described, the Importation of which into this Kingdom is not prohibited by Law, (except Snuff, for which Provision is herein after made) and also Oil made from Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale-Fins and Spermaceti, being the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, may be imported from thence into this Kingdom in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as herein before required, upon Payment of such Duties of Customs and Excise as are payable on the like Goods and Merchandize upon their Importation into this Kingdom from Countries not under the Dominion of His Majesty, according to the Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. annexed to an Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in Lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies remaining in the Exchequer, for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt;" or by any other Laws in Force passed subsequent to the said Act, touching the Duties contained in the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F.; and in Cases where different Duties are imposed upon the like Goods imported from different Countries not under the Dominion of His Majesty, then that such Goods shall be imported upon the lowest Duties which by the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. are required to be paid on the Importation of any such Goods from any European Country not under the Dominion of His Majesty.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that all such Goods and Merchandize shall be intitled to the same Drawbacks as are allowed upon the Exportation of the like Goods and Merchandize when exported from this Kingdom, according to the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. annexed to the before mentioned Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or according to any other Law in Force, passed subsequent to the said Act, touching Drawbacks. And it is hereby further ordered, that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods and Merchandize exported from this Kingdom to the Territories of the said United States, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Goods or Merchandize to any of the Islands, Plantations, or Colonies, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain in America. And it is hereby further ordered, that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks upon the Exportation of any Sort of Foreign Hemp or Foreign Iron exported from this Kingdom into any British Colony or Plantation in America, or into the Territories of the United States of America, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Sort of Hemp or Iron to other Foreign Parts; and all such Drawbacks and Bounties respectively shall be allowed and paid in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as such Drawbacks and Bounties are allowed and paid, or are subject and liable to by Law; provided always, and His Majesty is further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Importation of Rice and other Articles, without Payment of any Duty whatever, by virtue of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation, and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision for a limited Time, without Payment of Duty," and in the Manner in the said Act mentioned.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, may be imported in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as herein before required, upon Payment of the same Duties as Tobacco, imported by British Subjects from any British Colony or Plantation, is or may hereafter be subject to; and that any Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of any of the said Territories, may be imported in Manner before mentioned, upon Payment of such Duties as Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of Europe, imported from Europe, is or hereafter may be subject to, and may be warehoused and again exported; subject respectively nevertheless to all and singular the Regulations of an Act made and passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof:" And another Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof:" And also another Act passed in the Thirty first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to prevent other Ships than those laden with Tobacco from mooring and discharging their Lading at the Places appointed by an Act made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof; to prohibit the Exportation of damaged or mean Tobacco; and for permitting the Importation of Tobacco and Snuff into the Port of Newcastle upon Tyne."

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, That in case and as often as Rice shall not be allowed, by the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, to be imported without Payment of any Duty, any Rice, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, which shall be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in Manner above-mentioned, may, upon the Importer paying down, in ready Money, the Duty of Eight-pence the Hundred Weight, being Part of the Duties now payable on the Importation of Rice, be landed and warehoused (except as hereinafter excepted) under His Majesty's Locks, in such Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, upon the Importer's own Bond for Payment of the Remainder of the Duties due and payable for such Rice, within Eighteen Months, according to the net Weight and Quantity of such Rice at the Time it shall be so landed: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that upon the Importation of any such Rice into the Ports of London, Bristol, Portsmouth, Cowes, Liverpool, Lancaster, Falmouth, Pool, Whitehaven, Hull, Greenock, and Port Glasgow, or either of them, in the Manner herein before expressed, the Importer shall be at Liberty to enter and land the same without Payment of any Duty whatever; in which Case such Rice shall be warehoused, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and the Proprietors, in such Warehouse or Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and any Three or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; every Expence attending which Warehousing shall be borne by the said Proprietors: And that such Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their known Agent, shall from Time to Time at all seasonable Hours, as Occasion may require, have free Access to such Warehouses, in the Presence of some proper Officer of the Customs, for the Purpose of skreening and shifting the Rice, to prevent it's receiving Damage. And that if any Rice, which shall be so imported from the Territories of the said United States into any of the Ports abovementioned respectively, and warehoused as aforesaid, shall be taken out of the Warehouses wherein the same shall be secured, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and the Proprietors as aforesaid, for Home Consumption, the full Duties, due and payable by Law upon the Importation of such Rice into this Kingdom for Home Consumption, shall, previously to it's being taken out of such Warehouses, be paid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Ports where such Rice shall be so warehoused; but that such Proprietor, if he intends to export such Rice, shall have Liberty to export the same from such Warehouses respectively, under the usual Regulations, without Payment of any Duty whatever: Provided that the Exportation of any such Rice, hereafter to be warehoused, be made within the said Space of Eighteen Months; and if not within that Period, that the full Duties, payable by Law upon the Importation of such Rice, be paid for the same, and not be afterwards drawn back: And that if any Rice which shall have been imported into any Port

ported. And if any Rice imported into any Port of this Kingdom, not herein before specially named, and warehoused in Manner aforesaid, shall be taken out of any such Warehouse for Home Consumption, the Remainder of the Duties, due and payable by Law, shall, previously to it's being taken out of such Warehouse, be paid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Port where such Rice shall be so warehoused; and that such Payment shall be made, and the Warehouse cleared for such Rice hereafter to be warehoused, within the said Space of Eighteen Months, otherwise the same shall and may be sold for the Duties, in like Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as any other Goods are now directed by Law to be sold for of this Kingdom, not herein before specially named, and shall have been warehoused upon the Importer's Bond, in Manner aforesaid, shall, within the Time herein before mentioned, be taken out of the Warehouse wherein it shall have been so secured, to be exported directly from thence, the Bond entered into for the Payment of the said Duties thereon shall be discharged and cancelled by Debenture or Debentures, made out and passed in the usual Manner, for the Quantity or Quantities of Rice duly exported the Duties.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkenner.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d of June, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 3d of December last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 7th Day of this instant June: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time, longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 7th Day of this instant June, presume to transport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkenner.

Carlton House, June 9.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, beg Leave, with unfeigned Joy, to congratulate your Royal Highness on the auspicious Event of your Nuptials with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We earnestly wish your Royal Highness and your august and most amiable Consort the highest Degree of domestic Happiness; and we trust that whenever it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events to call your Royal Highness to the Throne of these Kingdoms, you will, during the Course of a prosperous Reign, find the Hearts of all your Subjects constantly united in Attachment to your Person, and in Defence of our present glorious and happy Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey, in the said City, the 11th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, 1795.

[Presented by Henry Howard, Esq;]

A Son Altesse Royale le PRINCE de GALLES.

MONSEIGNEUR,

LES Ministres et Anciens de l'Eglise Helvétique viennent offrir humblement à votre Altesse Royale leurs Vœux, et ceux de leurs Compatriotes établies à Londres, pour que toutes les Bénédiction du Ciel couronnent l'auguste Union que vous venez de former avec une Princesse, qu'il a ornée de ses Dons les plus précieux, et que tout ce qui vous rend cher aux Espérances de cette Nation soit pour vous une Source inépuisable de Bonheur.

[Presented by David Chauvet, Esq;]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highness,

HIS Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, in General Session assembled, most humbly presume to offer to your Royal Highness their hearty Congratulations on your Marriage with a most amiable and accomplished Princess of the House of Brunswick, a Family dear to every Englishman and to every Friend of our excellent Constitution.

That your Union may prove a Source of uninterrupted Happiness to your Royal Highness, and give additional Stability and Duration to the British Empire under the mild Government of our most gracious Sovereign and his illustrious Family, is the ardent Wish of your Royal Highness's dutiful and faithful Servants.

Signed at the Request of the Justices in General Sessions assembled, May 21, 1795,

W. Mainwaring,

Chairman of the Sessions.

[Presented by William Mainwaring, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To Their Royal Highnesses the PRINCE and PRINCESS of WALES.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke, Natives of your Principality, beg Leave to present to your Royal Highnesses our warmest Congratulations on your Nuptials, and to add our sincere Wishes that you may long enjoy every Felicity in the married State, and that your mutual Descendants may never cease to sway the British Sceptre.

Given under our Common Seal this 13th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795, Nicholas Dunn, Mayor.

[Presented by Hugh Barlow, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

SIR,

INFLUENCED by the most respectful Regard, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Highness with most unfeigned Congratulations upon the late auspicious Event of your Royal Highness's Nuptials.

Whilst we feel deeply interested that this happy Circumstance should be the Means of continuing the Succession to the Throne of these Realms in the illustrious House of Hanover, we rejoice at the Prospect it affords of additional domestick Happiness to your Royal Highness.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the 15th of May, 1795.

CASSILLIS, Prefes.

[Presented by the Earl of Eglington.]

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

WE, the Magistrates and Common-Council of the Royal Borough of Rothsay, as Administrators of a Community which has the Honour to give a Title to your Royal Highness, feel ourselves peculiarly called upon to offer our Congratulations on the Alliance which your Highness has formed with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We trust an Event from the personal Virtues and Accomplishments of the Princess, likely to add so much to the Happiness of your Highness, may be also considered in strengthening the Royal House of Hanover, as giving an additional Security to these Kingdoms for the Continuance of that civil and religious Liberty which we trust will long distinguish its Government over them.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of Council, by Archibald Moore, Baillie.

Council Chamber, Rothsay,

May 27, 1795,

[Presented by John Campbell, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Bute, an ancient Part of that Principality of Scotland which stands in the Person of your Highness as Heir to the Throne of these Kingdoms, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on that auspicious Alliance which your Highness has formed with Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Interested in whatever concerns the Happiness of your Royal Highness, and strengthens the illustrious House of Hanover, we cannot but feel the highest Satisfaction in an Event which we consider as not less favourable to both, than it must be grateful to the paternal Feelings of a Sovereign whose Royal Virtues we sincerely hope and wish may transmit with his Crown, at whatever Time your Highness or your Descendants may be called to ascend the Throne of these Kingdoms, and may prove, as it has done to His Majesty, the best Means of insuring their own Happiness, and that of their Subjects.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting.

Wm. Macleod Bannetyn.

Rothsay, May 25, 1795.

[Presented by John Campbell, Esq;]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

WE, the Free Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Maldon, offer our most hearty Congratulations on your Nuptials with her Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We pray that your Royal Highness and your illustrious Consort may ever enjoy domestick Happiness, in as great a Degree as has been experienced by our gracious King and beloved Queen.

[Presented by Joseph Holden Scrutt, and Charles Gals Western, Esqrs; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES.

The humble Address of the Vice-Presidents and Governors of the Lying-in Charity for delivering poor married Women at their own Habitations, instituted 1757.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Vice-Presidents and Governors of this Charity, which has been honoured with your Royal Highness's Patronage from your Infancy, and under your Influence so greatly and beneficially extended, embrace this Opportunity to testify their Gratitude in your amiable Comfort following your benevolent Example by becoming Patronesses of this Institution.

At the same Time they beg Leave to offer their sincere Congratulations on your Royal Highness's Marriage with her Serene Highness the Princess of Brunswick; an Event so propitious to the Happiness of these Kingdoms they cannot but feel with the greatest Pleasure.

It is their Prayer that your Royal Highness and your beloved Comfort may long enjoy every Blessing possible to be attained; and that this Union may strengthen the Bonds of Loyalty and Affection, and perpetuate the Happiness of a great and generous People.

Carlton House, June 9.

THE following Addresses have been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales; which Address Her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To Her Royal Highness the PRINCESS of WALES,

The humble Address of the Vice-Presidents and Governors of the Lying-in Charity for delivering poor married Women at their own Habitations, instituted 1757.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Vice-Presidents and Governors, who have now the Honor to approach your Royal Highness, desire to express their high Sense of your Goodness in honoring this Charity with your gracious Protection.

A Charity which has flourished for so long a Period under the Countenance of His Royal Highness the Prince, they have a Right to say, cannot but reap additional Benefits from the Patronage of so amiable a Princess.

Allow them also, Madam, to take this Opportunity of offering their Congratulations on your Royal Highness's auspicious Marriage; an Event which they in general feel with their Fellow Citizens as highly interesting to the Happiness of the British Nation.

[Presented by the President, Vice-President and Governors.]

To Her Royal Highness the PRINCESS of WALES,

The humble Address of the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh, humbly offer our sincere Congratulations on the Nuptials of your Royal Highness with a Prince, whose exalted Station is adorned by a Character so universally respected and beloved.

We contemplate with the most lively Interest your Royal Highness's known and amiable Virtues; we have in particular observed those condescending Marks of Benevolence towards the British Nation which your Royal Highness has already manifested, and we consider them as the surest Pledges of the Happiness of your Royal Comfort, and of the Continuance of those Blessings which these Kingdoms have so uninterruptedly enjoyed ever since the Accession of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

By the Appointment, and in the Name of a general Meeting of the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh, held at Jedburgh this 30th Day of April, 1795.

[ANCRAM.

Andrew Lindegren, Agent.

General Post-Office, May 20, 1795.

THERE will be Daily Attendance in the Foreign Department of this Office, from the Hour of Eleven in the Forenoon to the Hour of Three in the Afternoon, to put in Execution an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty's Postmaster General to open and return certain Letters contained in the Mails made up at the General Post-Office in London, for the United Provinces, on the 13th, 16th and 20th Days of January, 1795, and now remaining in the said General Post-Office."

An Abstract of the Act, and Forms of the Oaths required to be taken, may be had at this Office.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, May 6, 1795.

By an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for further regulating the sending and receiving Letters free from the Duty of Postage; for allowing Non-commissioned Officers, Seamen, and Private Men, in the Navy and Army, whilst in Service, to send and receive Letters at a low Rate of Postage; and for permitting Patterns and Samples of Goods to be transmitted by the Post at an easier Rate than is now allowed by Law."

No Letter or Packet whatsoever, sent by the Post within Great Britain, directed by or to any Member of either House of Parliament of Great Britain, shall, from and after the 5th Instant, be exempted from the Duty of Postage, if such Letter or Package shall exceed One Ounce in Weight.

No Letter or Packet directed by any such Member, shall be exempted from the Postage, unless the Member whose Name shall be indorsed thereon, shall actually be in the Post-Town into the Post-Office of which every such Letter or Packet shall be put, or within the Limits of the Delivery of Letters for such Post-Town, or within Twenty Miles of such Post-Town, on the Day, or on the Day before the Day on which such Letter or Packet shall be put into the Post-Office.

No such Member shall be entitled or allowed to send by the Post, free from Postage, superscribed or directed by him, more than Ten Letters in any One Day, nor to receive by the Post, free from Postage, more than Fifteen Letters directed to him in any One Day.

Provided, that whenever the Number of Letters or Packets, not weighing more than One Ounce each, sent or received by any such Member in any One Day, shall exceed the Number exempted by the said Act from Postage, and the Rate of Postage upon any of them shall differ, then such of the said Letters or Packets as would be chargeable with a higher Rate of Postage than the Remainder, shall be included in the Number so exempted, in Preference to any which would be chargeable with a lower Rate of Postage, and the Remainder shall be chargeable with the several Rates of Postage respectively to which such Letters would now by Law be chargeable, if sent or received by any Persons not entitled to send or receive Letters or Packets free from Postage.

The several Persons who by Law are authorized in Right of their Offices and Employments to send and receive Letters free from Postage, and their Successors in such Offices and Employments, may, during their Continuance in such Offices and Employments, send and receive Letters and Packets, free from Postage, as they now send and receive the same.

No printed Votes or Proceedings in Parliament, or printed Newspapers sent without Covers, or in Covers open at the Sides, which shall be signed on the Outside thereof by the Hand of any Member of Parliament as heretofore practised, or which shall be directed to any such Member at any Place whereof he shall have given Notice in Writing to the Postmaster-General, or his Deputy, shall be charged with Postage.

No single Letter sent by the Post from any Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private employed in His Majesty's Navy, Army, Militia, Fencible Regiments, Artillery or Marines, shall, whilst such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private shall be employed on His Majesty's Service, and not otherwise, be charged with an higher Rate of Postage than the Sum of One Penny for the Conveyance of each such Letter, such Postage to be paid at the Time of putting the same into the Post-Office of the Town or Place from whence such Letter is intended to be sent by the Post.

Provided, that no such Letter shall be exempted from Postage unless there shall be written thereon in the Hand-Writing of and signed by the Commanding Officer for the Time being of the Ship or Vessel, or of the Corps, Regiment, or Detachment to which such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private shall belong, the Name of such Commanding Officer, and of the Ship, Vessel, Corps, Regiment or Detachment commanded by him.

No single Letter, directed to any such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private, upon his own private Concerns, only whilst such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private shall be employed on His Majesty's Service, and not otherwise, shall be charged with an higher Rate of Postage than One Penny for each such Letter, which Penny shall be paid at the Time of the Delivery thereof.

Provided, that no such Letter shall be exempted from the Rates of Postage chargeable upon Letters, unless every such Letter shall be directed to such Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman or Private, specifying the Ship, Vessel, Regiment, Troop, Corps, Company, or Detachment to which he may belong: And provided also that it shall not be lawful for the Deputy Postmaster of the Town or Place to which such Letter shall be sent to be delivered, to deliver such Letter to any Person, except to the Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private to whom such Letter shall be directed, or to any Person appointed to receive the same by the Commanding Officer of the Ship, &c. to which the Non-commissioned Officer, Seaman, or Private to whom such Letter shall be directed shall belong.

Every Packet or Cover containing therein, or having affixed thereto, one or more Paper or Papers, with Patterns, or one or more Pattern or Patterns of Cloth, Silk, Stuff, or other Goods, or one or more Sample or Samples of any other Sort of Thing, not exceeding together one Ounce in Weight, shall be charged with no higher Rate of Postage than as a single Letter, so as every such Packet or Cover shall be sent open at the Sides, and without any Letter or Writing in, upon, or with such Packet or Cover, other than the Name or Names of the Person or Persons sending the same, and the Place or Places of his or their Abode, and the Prices of the Articles contained therein, or affixed thereto.

The Act may be seen at every Post-Office.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
ANTHONY TODD, Sec.

HAIR POWDER TAX.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, May 5, 1795.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties, do, in pursuance of "An Act for granting to His Majesty a Duty on Certificates issued for using Hair Powder," which commences on the 6th Day of May instant, hereby give Notice to every Person using or wearing Hair Powder, that they have appointed the following Offices or Places for granting such Certificates, viz.

The Head Office in Somerset-Place, for Persons residing in the Parish of St. Mary-le-Strand, St. Clement Danes, St. Paul, Covent-Garden, St. Giles in the Fields, St. George, Bloomsbury, the Liberty of the Rolls, Lincoln's-Inn, and the Temple.

City District, at No. 30, Lombard-Street, London, for Persons residing within the City of London and the Liberty of St. Martin le Grand.

For the District of the Tower Hamlets, Liberties and Precincts thereof, with Bethnal-Green, and Parts adjacent, at No. 35, Wellclose-Square.

For the Westminster District, including the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, St. Margaret, St. John, St. James, St. Ann, Mary-le-Bone, St. George, Hanover-Square, and Paddington, at No. 3, Terrace, Spring-Garden, and No. 296, Oxford-Street, near Bond-Street.

For the Clerkenwell District, the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, at the Sessions House on Clerkenwell-Green, for Persons residing in the Parishes of St. James and St. John, Clerkenwell, St. Luke, St. Leonard, Shoreditch, the Liberty of Glafshouse-Yard, St. Andrew, Holborn, St. George the Martyr, Queen-Square, St. Sepulchre, St. Pancras, and Islington.

And the Distributor of Stamps for the adjacent Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent and Surry, have appointed an Office in most of the Towns or large Villages, in those Districts, for the Convenience of Persons residing beyond the said Limits, and within Ten Miles of the Head-Office in Somerset-Place.

N. B. On some visible Part of the Front of those Offices, the Words OFFICE APPOINTED TO GRANT HAIR POWDER CERTIFICATES will be painted for general Information.

At all which Offices or Places the Persons applying for the said Certificates will be furnished, gratis, with the proper printed Form of the Entry, required by the Act, to be filled up in Writing, and delivered in, previously to the issuing of any Certificates.

And the Commissioners do hereby give further Notice, that they have duly authorized the Head Distributors of Stamps in the different Counties of the Kingdom to execute this Business by themselves and their Deputies: The former of whom the Commissioners have directed to publicly advertise, as early as possible, an Account of the Offices and Places in their respective Districts, for the said Purpose, in the Newspapers usually circulated in the Neighbourhood thereof, with the Names of the Deputies the said Head Distributors have appointed: superintend the same.

And, to prevent Mistakes, the Commissioners think it right to apprize the Publick, that a Duty of ONE POUND AND ONE SHILLING ONLY is to be paid for each Certificate; which Sum will be expressed by a Stamp on each Certificate; and that NO MORE IS TO BE DEMANDED OF ANY PERSON upon taking out a Certificate for using or wearing of Hair Powder, upon any Pretence whatever, except where there are more than Two unmarried Daughters in a Family; in which Case a double Certificate, stamped with Two Stamps of One Pound One Shilling each, is required to be taken out.

Daily Attendance will be given at the above Offices, till further Notice, from Ten o'Clock till Three.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Brettell, Sec.

N. B. IN ADDITION TO THE ABOVE Notices, the Commissioners think it expedient to caution the Public, that every Person who, since the 5th Day of May instant, has worn Hair Powder, IS LIABLE TO THE DUTY OF ONE GUINEA, and required to take out a stamped Certificate of that Value; at the Expiration of one Month from that Day, a PENALTY of Twenty Pounds will attach upon every Person who shall use and wear Hair Powder, without taking out a Certificate for the same; and that if Informations are then tendered against Offenders, the Commissioners cannot, consistently with their Duty, refuse to receive them, and to direct Prosecutions accordingly.

To prevent which, and that Persons may be accommodated with the least Inconvenience and Delay, it is earnestly recommended to such as require Certificates, to provide themselves therewith immediately, by applying at such of the Offices above mentioned as are respectively appointed for Persons residing within those different Districts; and if the Parties applying could make it convenient, previously to furnish themselves with the Forms of Entry, which are issued, gratis, at the said Offices, and deliver them in properly filled up, it is presumed that it would greatly facilitate the Business of taking out Certificates, by shortening the Time of Waiting, and preventing that Embarrassment, which, from the numerous Applications that may be expected to be made for them towards the Close of the Month, will otherwise unavoidably occur.

APPRENTICE DUTY INDEMNITY.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, May 16, 1795.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for Managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, That by a Clause in an Act of the present Session of Parliament, it it is enacted, for the Relief of all Persons who have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given, paid or contracted for, with Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, and also who have omitted to insert and write in Words at Length in Indentures or other Writings relating to the Service of any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or contracted for, with or in relation to every such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, that, upon Payment of double the Rates and Duties upon the Monies, or such Part of the Monies, so omitted or neglected to be paid, and also so omitted to be inserted and written in such Indenture or Writing, on or before the 19th Day of December next, to the proper Officer, and tendering the same to be stamped at this Office, every such Indenture or other Writing shall be good and valid, and the Persons so offending be excused from any Penalty incurred by the Omission thereof; except those against whom any Prosecution shall be now depending.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Brettell, Secretary.

Navy-Office, June 4, 1795.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that, on Thursday the 18th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to supply His Majesty's Yard at Plymouth with Ship Chandlers Wares on a standing Contract, to commence immediately.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock, nor any noticed unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

Navy-Office, June 4, 1795.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Thursday next, the 11th Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for the Land Carriage of between from Walsbam Forest to Ilford, both in the County of Essex; and for the Water Carriage thereof from Ilford to His Majesty's Yard at Deptford. The Timber will be ready about the 20th of July next.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock, nor will any be noticed unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

Navy-Office, May 30, 1795.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy to pay Six Months Interest on all Bills which bear Interest registered on the Course of the Navy, between the 1st and 31st of October, 1794; and it is recommended to all Persons possessed of such Bills to bring the same to the Treasurer's Office in Somerset-Place as soon as possible, in order that the Payment may take Place before the Expiration of June next, when the List, containing an Account of the same, assigned on the Treasurer, must be closed, for the Purpose of passing his Monthly Accounts with this Office.

Such Bills as are not brought in during that Period will be paid the full Interest upon them, together with the Principal, when they become due.

Navy-Office, May 27, 1795.

THERE being a Want of Surgeon's Mates to serve in His Majesty's Ships, the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice to such Gentlemen as are willing to serve therein, that they will, on Application at this Office, receive Letters for Examination before the Surgeon's Company, and have Warrants according to their Qualifications.

They shall receive Two Months Pay in Advance in the Ships to which they shall be appointed, before they proceed to Sea, and Conduct-Money on their first Appointments, at the Rate of Three-pence per Mile from London to the Ports where the Ships they are appointed to lay; the same to be paid by the Clerk of the Cheque of the Yard on their joining their Ships.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty has been pleased to direct that their Pay shall be increased; the Particulars of which may be known by Application at this Office.

Vitallising-Office, May 30, 1795.

THE Commissioners for Vitallising His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to pay Six Months Interest on all Bills which bear Interest registered in the Course of the Vitallising between the 1st and 31st of October last.

All Persons possessing such Bills are therefore recommended to bring them to the Treasurer's Office in Somerset-Place as soon as possible, in order that the Payment may take Place before the Expiration of the Month of June next, when the List, containing an Account of the same, assigned on the Treasurer, must be closed for the Purpose of passing his Monthly Accounts with this Office.

Such Bills as may not be brought in during that Period will be paid the full Interest upon them, together with the Principal, when they become due.
