AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d of June, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 3d of December last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 7th Day of this instant June; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 7th Day of this instant June, presume to transport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:"—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Carlton House, June 9.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, beg Leave, with unfeigned Joy, to congratulate your Royal Highness on the auspicious Event of your Nuptials with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We earnestly wish with your Royal Highness and your august and most amiable Consort the highest Degree of domestic Happiness; and we trust that whenever it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events to call your Royal Highness to the Throne of these Kingdoms, you will, during the Course of a prosperous Reign, find the Hearts of all your Subjects constantly united in Attachment to your Person, and in Defence of our present glorious and happy Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey, in the said City, the 11th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, 1795.
