

A Son Altesse Royale le PRINCE de GALLES.

MONSEIGNEUR,

LES Ministres et Anciens de l'Eglise Helvétique viennent offrir humblement à votre Altesse Royale leurs Voeux, et ceux de leurs Compatriotes établies à Londres, pour que toutes les Bénédictiones du Ciel couronnent l'auguste Union que vous venez de former avec une Princesse, qu'il a ornée de ses Dons les plus précieux, et que tout ce qui vous rend cher aux Espérances de cette Nation soit pour vous une Source inepuisable de Bonheur.

[Presented by David Chauvet, Esq;]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

May it please your Royal Highness,

HIS Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, in General Session assembled, most humbly presume to offer to your Royal Highness their hearty Congratulations on your Marriage with a most amiable and accomplished Princess of the House of Brunswick, a Family dear to every Englishman and to every Friend of our excellent Constitution.

That your Union may prove a Source of uninterrupted Happiness to your Royal Highness, and give additional Stability and Duration to the British Empire under the mild Government of our most gracious Sovereign and his illustrious Family, is the ardent Wish of your Royal Highness's dutiful and faithful Servants.

Signed at the Request of the Justices in General Sessions assembled, May 21, 1795,

W. Mainwaring,

Chairman of the Sessions.

[Presented by William Mainwaring, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To Their Royal Highnesses the PRINCE and PRINCESS of WALES.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke, Natives of your Principality, beg Leave to present to your Royal Highnesses our warmest Congratulations on your Nuptials, and to add our sincere Wishes that you may long enjoy every Felicity in the married State, and that your mutual Descendants may never cease to sway the British Sceptre.

Given under our Common Seal this 13th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1795, Nicholas Dunn, Mayor.

[Presented by Hugh Barlow, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

S I R,

INFLUENCED by the most respectful Regard, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Highness with most unfeigned Congratulations upon the late auspicious Event of your Royal Highness's Nuptials.

Whilst we feel deeply interested that this happy Circumstance should be the Means of continuing the Succession to the Throne of these Realms in the illustrious House of Hanover, we rejoice at the Prospect it affords of additional domestick Happiness to your Royal Highness.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the 15th of May, 1795.

CASSILLIS, Prefes.

[Presented by the Earl of Eglintoune.]

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

WE, the Magistrates and Common-Council of the Royal Borough of Rothefay, as Administrators of a Community which has the Honour to give a Title to your Royal Highness, feel ourselves peculiarly called upon to offer our Congratulations on the Alliance which your Highness has formed with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

We trust an Event from the personal Virtues and Accomplishments of the Princess, likely to add so much to the Happiness of your Highness, may be also considered in strengthening the Royal House of Hanover, as giving an additional Security to these Kingdoms for the Continuance of that civil and religious Liberty which we trust will long distinguish its Government over them.

Signed in Name, Prefence, and by Appointment of Council, by Archibald Moore, Baillie.

Council Chamber, Rothefay,

May 27, 1795,

[Presented by John Campbell, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Bute, an ancient Part of that Principality of Scotland which stands in the Person of your Highness as Heir to the Throne of these Kingdoms, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on that auspicious Alliance which your Highness has formed with Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

Interested in whatever concerns the Happiness of your Royal Highness, and strengthens the illustrious House of Hanover, we cannot but feel the highest Satisfaction in an Event which we consider as not less favourable to both, than it must be grateful to the paternal Feelings of a Sovereign whose Royal Virtues we sincerely hope and wish may transmit with his Crown, at whatever Time your Highness or your Descendants may be called to ascend the Throne of these Kingdoms, and may prove, as it has done to His Majesty, the best Means of insuring their own Happiness, and that of their Subjects.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting.

Wm. Macleod Bannetyn.

Rothefay, May 25, 1795.

[Presented by John Campbell, Esq;]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

WE, the Free Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Maldon, offer our most hearty Congratulations on your Nuptials with her Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We pray that your Royal Highness and your illustrious Consort may ever enjoy domestick Happiness, in as great a Degree as has been experienced by our gracious King and beloved Queen.

[Presented by Joseph Holden Sturt, and Charles Calvert, Esqrs; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]
