

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES.

The humble Address of the Vice-Presidents and Governors of the Lying-in Charity for delivering poor married Women at their own Habitations, instituted 1757.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Vice-Presidents and Governors of this Charity, which has been honoured with your Royal Highness's Patronage from your Infancy, and under your Influence so greatly and beneficially extended, embrace this Opportunity to testify their Gratitude in your amiable Comfort following your benevolent Example by becoming Patroness of this Institution.

At the same Time they beg Leave to offer their sincere Congratulations on your Royal Highness's Marriage with her Serene Highness the Princess of Brunswick; an Event so propitious to the Happiness of these Kingdoms they cannot but feel with the greatest Pleasure.

It is their Prayer that your Royal Highness and your beloved Comfort may long enjoy every Blessing possible to be attained; and that this Union may strengthen the Bonds of Loyalty and Affection, and perpetuate the Happiness of a great and generous People.

Carlton House, June 9.

THE following Addresses have been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales; which Address Her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To Her Royal Highness the PRINCESS of WALES,

The humble Address of the Vice-Presidents and Governors of the Lying-in Charity for delivering poor married Women at their own Habitations, instituted 1757.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Vice-Presidents and Governors, who have now the Honor to approach your Royal Highness, desire to express their high Sense of your Goodness in honoring this Charity with your gracious Protection.

A Charity which has flourished for so long a Period under the Countenance of His Royal Highness the Prince, they have a Right to say, cannot but reap additional Benefits from the Patronage of so amiable a Princess.

Allow them also, Madam, to take this Opportunity of offering their Congratulations on your Royal Highness's auspicious Marriage; an Event which they in general feel with their Fellow Citizens as highly interesting to the Happiness of the British Nation.

[ Presented by the President, Vice-President and Governors. ]

To Her Royal Highness the PRINCESS of WALES,

The humble Address of the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh, humbly offer our sincere Congratulations on the Nuptials of your Royal Highness with a Prince, whose exalted Station is adorned by a Character so universally respected and beloved.

We contemplate with the most lively Interest your Royal Highness's known and amiable Virtues; we have in particular observed those condescending Marks of Benevolence towards the British Nation which your Royal Highness has already manifested, and we consider them as the surest Pledges of the Happiness of your Royal Comfort, and of the Continuance of those Blessings which these Kingdoms have so uninterruptedly enjoyed ever since the Accession of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

By the Appointment, and in the Name of a general Meeting of the Barons, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Landholders of the County of Roxburgh, held at Jedburgh this 30th Day of April, 1795.

[ ANCRAM. ]

[ Presented by Sir George Douglas, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County. ]

A Son Altesse Royale la PRINCESSE de GALLES. MADAME,

LES Ministres et Anciens de l'Eglise Helvétique, unis à leurs Compatriotes établis à Londres, presentent humblement à votre Altesse Royale les Voeux et les Prières qu'ils adressent à l'Être Suprême pour qu'il répande ses Graces les plus éclatantes et les plus intimes sur votre auguste Personne, & sur celle du Prince Royal votre auguste Epoux; et que toujours environnée de Respect et d'Amour, vous parcouriez toute la Catrière de vos grandes Destinées en n'ayant à offrir au Ciel que Actions de Graces.

[ Presented by David Chauvet, Esq; ]

St. James's, June 9.

On Friday last Their Majesties removed to Windsor, to reside there during the Summer. Their Royal Highnesses the Princesses are also removed to that Residence.

The King has been pleased to grant to Richard Bempde Johnstone-Vanden Bempde, of Hackness Hall, in the North Riding of the County of York, Esq; Representative in Parliament for Weymouth and Melcombe-Regis in the County of Dorset, and his Wife, His Royal Licence and Authority to resume the Surname of Johnstone, and bear the Arms of Johnstone in the first Quarter; provided such Arms be first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office:

The King has also been pleased to grant unto Adrian Lernoult Vaux, of Bushy in the County of Hert, Esq; His Royal Licence and Authority that he and his Issue may, out of Respect to the Memory of his Great Uncle John Drigue Lernoult, late of the Parish of St. George, Hanover-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq; deceased, take and use the Surname and bear the Arms of Lernoult; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office:

And also to order that these His Majesty's several Concessions and Declarations be registered in His College of Arms.
