The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 10th Day of December, 1794, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, is about to expire: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the Date hereof, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had, and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot Ashes or Pearl Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot Ashes or Pearl Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." Given under our Common Seal at the City of Hereford, the 21st Day of May, 1795.

Warmly and deeply interested as we must ever be in a Matter which so nearly relates to your Royal Highness's own immediate Felicity, as well as to the future Happiness, Welfare and Prosperity of the British Empire, we cannot but rejoice at your Royal Highness's Union with a Princess, who, by her Descent from an illustrious Line of Ancestors, zealously attached to the Protestant Religion, and her many Virtues and amiable Qualifications, was most worthy to engage your Royal Highness's Esteem and Affection, and most likely to add further Strength and Stability to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

We beg to unite in one ardent Wish, that your Royal Highness may enjoy a clear uninterrupted Course of conjugal Felicity, and when you are called to ascend the Throne of the British Empire, that, like your Royal Father, you may reign a Patriot King, at the Head of an united People.
