Fortunately, by General Seton's Exertion, and that of the Navy under Captain Skinner of the Zebra, with the spirited Behaviour of the Garrison and Inhabitants, they were beaten from a Post they occupied over Kingston, with the Loss of their Chief: And the Arrival of the 46th Regiment has enabled the Governor again to attack them, which he did on the 10th Instant, and succeeded in driving them from their Positions, with considerable Loss on their Side, and but small upon our's.

The Colony, from their Devastations, is reduced to a very distressed Situation.

Extract of a Letter from General Sir John Vaughan, K. B. to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated Martinique, April 25, 1795.

I HAVE just received an Account from St. Lucia, that Brigadier-General Stewart, after taking Possession of Vieux Fort and Neighbourhood, had proceeded to attack the Enemy's principal Place of Strength at Souffriere. He was attacked by the Enemy upon his March on the 20th Instant, who had formed an Ambuscade. The Flank Companies of the 9th Regiment, and the Black Corps under Captain Malcolm, were the Troops engaged. The Enemy, after a severe Conflict, were driven back. Captain Malcolm and Captain Nesbitt of the 9th, were wounded, after behaving in the most gallant Manner. The Troops continued their March upon Souffriere, near to which, upon the mountainous Ground, our Attack was made, on the 22d Instant, by Brigadier-General Stewart; and, notwithstanding there appears to have been the greatest Exertions made by His Majesty's Forces, they were unsuccessful in their Object. Both Sides appear to have suffered considerably; but, as I have not yet received any Account from Brigadier-General Stewart, I cannot be accurate. I have, however, Reason to believe, that our Killed and Wounded, exceed 200, with several Officers.
