AT the Court at the Queen's House, the 3d of July, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the malignant and contagious Fever, of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since manifested itself at Baltimore in the State of Maryland, has ceased: His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine, laid by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the 12th Day of November, 1794, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods and Merchandize, now arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive from Baltimore, or any other Port or Place in the said State of Maryland, in the United States of America, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done, in case such Order of the 12th Day of November, 1794, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that the Masters or other Persons, having Charge of such Ships or Vessels respectively, do first make Oath, before the Custom-House Officer or Chief Magistrate as the Places respectively at which such respective Ships or Vessels have arrived, or shall arrive, that their Crews are free from all Infection.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of June, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers:

Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirtieth Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant June, to the Thirty-first Day of August next inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the East Riding of the County of York.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

We cannot reflect on the Happiness we have so long enjoyed under the mild and auspicious Government of Princes descended from the House of Brunswick, without considering the Union of the Heir Apparent of these Kingdoms with a Princess of that illustrious Family as a propitious Omen of his Affection for the People whom he may be destined by Providence to govern. May that kind Providence reward the Care and Anxiety which your Majesty has ever evinced for the Happiness of your Subjects, with a long Participation in the domestic Felicity of His Royal Highness and his illustrious Consort.

Given under our Common Seal the 8th Day of June, in the Thirty-fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign.
