At the Court at St. James's, the 15th of July, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most-Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is of the greatest Importance, at the present Moment, that the Rice which may have been hitherto imported, or which may hereafter be brought into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, should be secured and retained therein for the Consumption of the People of this Kingdom: And whereas there is Reason to believe that large Quantities of Rice are now on Board various Ships for Exportation: His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby ordered, that no Person or Persons whatever shall, until further Order, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed, any Rice out of or from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be loaded or laid on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, any Rice, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain. His Majesty hath, nevertheless, thought fit to order, and doth hereby order, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prohibit any Ships or Vessels, having Rice on Board, which may have been entered Outwards for Foreign Parts at any Port in Great Britain, and which, although within Port, may have been regularly cleared in the Custom-House, previous to the said Publication of this Order, from proceeding on their respective Voyages, provided the Quantity of Rice on Board each respective Ship or Vessel shall not exceed the Quantity of Two Barrels; nor to prohibit any Person or Persons to ship or put on Board any Rice to be carried Coastwise, that is to say, from any Port, Creek, Member or Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain to any other Port, Creek or Member of the same, having such or the like Coast Cocket or Suffrance for that Purpose, on such or the like sufficient Security being first given for the landing and discharging of the same in some other Port, Member, Creek or Part of the said Kingdom, and returning a Certificate in Six Months, as is required by Law in Cases where Goods, which are prohibited to be exported from Great Britain to Foreign Parts, are carried Coastwise from one Port of Great Britain to another; nor to prohibit such or so much Rice from being exported or carried out in any Ships or Vessels in their Voyages Out and Home, as shall be necessary for the Sustainance of the Persons on Board of such Ships or Vessels only, not exceeding the Quantity of Two Barrels for each Ship or Vessel; nor for victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War or other Ships in His Majesty's Service, or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, Forts or Garrisons.— And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at the Queen's House, the 3d of July, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the malignant and contagious Fever, of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since manifested itself at Baltimore in the State of Maryland, has ceased: His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine, laid by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the 12th Day of November, 1794, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods and Merchandize, now arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive from Baltimore, or any other Port or Place in the said State of Maryland, in the United States of America, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done, in case such Order of the 12th Day of November, 1794, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that the Masters or other Persons, having Charge of such Ships or Vessels respectively, do first make Oath, before the Custom-House Officer or Chief Magistrate as the Places respectively at which such respective Ships or Vessels have arrived, or shall arrive, that their Crews are free from all Infection.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, July 18.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of the Island of Guernsey, assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of your Island of Guernsey, humbly beg Leave to approach your sacred Person, and with humble and heartfelt Satisfaction to express our warmest Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick; an Event that forebodes an Addition to your Majesty's domestic Happiness, and affords unfeigned Joy to all your loyal Subjects.

Permit us, Sire, to assure your Majesty, that as no Part of your extensive, free and flourishing Dominions can enjoy the Blessings of your benign Government more amply than the Inhabitants of this happy Island, none can (in Proportion to their Population) contain a greater Number of Subjects more faithfully and firmly attached to your Royal Person and august Family, or can be more sensible of the inestimable Advantages they derive from the unequalled Constitution of Great Britain, the Seat of your Empire.

And whilst we adore that omnipotent and unerring God, who guides the Hearts of Kings, watchfully guards, and preserves unencroached and unencroaching the Powers that have solemnly been delegated to these his sacred Viceregents on Earth, we most devoutly pray for a Continuance of the marked Diffusion of Blessings enjoyed by the numerous Islands and Territories under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

And, as the Summit of our Wishes, and the surest Means of these manifold Blessings being handed down to future Generations undiminished, we conclude in humbly imploring that Divine Providence may insure to us this most interesting Boon, that the British Throne may ever be filled, and its Sceptre swayed to the End of Time, by succeeding Princes of the most renowned and illustrious House of Brunswick: So shall the British Name and Power continue (as it is now) the Dread and Envy of surrounding Nations.

These, most gracious Sire, are the fervent and sincere Prayers of your Majesty's most faithful and devoted Servants.

Government House, Guernsey,

May 4, 1795.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Lord Amberst, Governor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemsters of your Majesty's Island of Mann, in Tynwald assembled, animated with Sentiments of purest Loyalty and warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Government and Family, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with our most sincere Congratulations on the auspicious Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, with an amiable and accomplished Princess of the most illustrious House of Brunswick.

Though distant our local Situation, yet most gratefully sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under the mild and beneficent Reign of your Majesty, we ardently rejoice in common with the rest of our Fellow Subjects in an Event which, whilst it increases the domestic Happiness of your Majesty, a Wish ever most near to our Hearts, gives an additional and powerful Security to your People, for the Permanence of their most happy Constitution and Government.

With the rest, then, of our Fellow Subjects, and with Ardor equal to any, however circumstanced, wherever wherever placed, we earnestly pray, that the Prince and Princess of Wales may ever enjoy purest Felicity; that your Majesty may long, very long, continue to reign over and in the Hearts of a free, loyal and united People; and that the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty may, to latest Posterity, continue to flow to these Realms from Princes of the Royal House of Brunswick, Inheritors of the Virtues, as lineal Descendants, of your Majesty.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Keys, Representatives of the People of your Island of Man, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to express the great Satisfaction we feel on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick, by which Union your Majesty's Throne is strengthened by a fresh Tye of the most endearing Kind.

Deeply impressed with Sentiments of devoted Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and most truly sensible of the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's benign and paternal Care, our ardent Hopes and Wishes are that so interesting and auspicious an Event may prove a Source of unceasing Happiness to your Majesty, your Royal Consort, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and the whole of your extensive Empire.

By Order of the House,

John Taubman, Speaker.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Burntisland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of your Burgh of Burntisland, always willing to testify our Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and convey to the Ear of our most gracious Sovereign those Sentiments of heartfelt Satisfaction which the auspicious Event of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales did afford us, and was so conspicuously evidenced by every Demonstration of Joy amongst all Ranks of People in this your Burgh.

Regarding, as all good Subjects must do, the Prosperity of this Empire, as necessarily attached to your Majesty's most illustrious House, we anticipate in Prospect the Continuance, to future Ages, of every Blessing which these Nations have enjoyed under your Majesty's most beneficent and virtuous Government in this Alliance with a Princess of the Line of Brunswick; and, as we participate in the general Joy of the Nation on this happy Event, we sympathize in those Emotions which the warm Testimony of your People's Affection must convey to your Royal Breast and that of your excellent Queen.

We trust that the bright Example which your Majesty has given of the Union of the domestic Virtues, with the Care of your People, and unceasing Attention to the great Interest of the Empire, will furnish to that illustrious Prince, who already possesses our Attachment and Esteem, a noble Object of Emulation, which must lead to a Conviction in the Minds of all British Subjects, that the Welfare of a People is only to be found in their cheerful Subjection to the Government of a patriot King.

Signed and sealed in our Presence; and by our Appointment,

Per James Campbell, Provost.
