From Saturday July 18, to Tuesday July 21, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of July, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is of the greatest Importance, at the present Moment, that the Rice which may have been hitherto imported, or which may hereafter be brought into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, should be secured and retained therein for the Consumption of the People of this Kingdom: And whereas there is Reason to believe that large Quantities of Rice are now on Board various Ships for Exportation: His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby ordered, that no Person or Persons whatever shall, until further Order, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed, any Rice out of or from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be loaded or laid on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, any Rice, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain. His Majesty hath, nevertheless, thought fit to order, and doth hereby order, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prohibit any Ships or Vessels, having Rice on Board, which may have been entered Outwards for Foreign Parts at any Port in Great Britain, and which, although within Port, may have been regularly cleared in the Custom-

House, previous to the said Publication of this Order, from proceeding on their respective Voyages, provided the Quantity of Rice on Board each respective Ship or Vessel shall not exceed the Quantity of Two Barrels; nor to prohibit any Person or Persons to ship or put on Board any Rice to be carried Coastwise, that is to say, from any Port, Creek, Member or Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain to any other Port, Creek or Member of the same, having such or the like Coast Cocket or Suffurance for that Purpose, on such or the like sufficient Security being first given for the landing and discharging of the same in some other Port, Member, Creek or Part of the said Kingdom, and returning a Certificate in Six Months, as is required by Law in Cases where Goods, which are prohibited to be exported from Great Britain to Foreign Parts, are carried Coastwise from one Port of Great Britain to another; nor to prohibit such or so much Rice from being exported or carried out in any Ships or Vessels in their Voyages Out and Home, as shall be necessary for the Sustainance of the Persons on Board of such Ships or Vessels only, not exceeding the Quantity of Two Barrels for each Ship or Vessel; nor for victualling or providing any of His Majesty's Ships of War or other Ships in His Majesty's Service, or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, Forts or Garrisons.— And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, July 21.

THE following Address having been transmitted by the Lord Provost of Edinburgh to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the General Convention of the Royal Burghs of Scotland, assembled in their annual Meeting according to the ancient Statutes of this Realm, embrace the earliest Opportunity, which our annual Meeting affords, of humbly approaching your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Zealously attached to our free and happy Constitution, we rejoice in an Event which, while it brings to your Majesty's Family so great an Accession of domestic Happiness, affords to the British Empire an additional Security for the Continuance of the Blessings it has so long enjoyed under the Government of the House of Hanover. And it is our most earnest Wish that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that your Majesty's publick and private Virtues may be transmitted with your Crown to the latest Posterity.

Signed in our Presence and by our Appointment at Edinburgh, the 16th of July, in the Year 1795.

James Stirling,

Lord Provost of Edinburgh, and
Preses of the Convention.

St. James's, July 21.

THE following Address has been presented to the Queen; which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemsters of the Island of Mann, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, and, by our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, evince the Joy we participate on an Event wherein the domestic Happiness of your Majesty, the Security of our Constitution, and the hereditary Succession to the Crown of these Realms, are most happily centered and united.

That your Majesty may long, very long, continue to view, in your illustrious Son and his amiable Consort, the happy Effects of the bright Example your Majesty, in your Royal Person, has held forth to the World, of all the amiable Virtues and endearing Dispositions which constitute domestic Felicity, is the ardent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and devoted Servants.

Carlton-House, July 21.

THE following Address having been transmitted by the Lord Provost of Edinburgh to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the Prince of Wales; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

The humble Address of the Convention of the Royal Burghs of Scotland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the General Convention of the Royal Burghs of Scotland, assembled at their annual Meeting according to the ancient Statutes of this Realm, embrace the earliest Opportunity which our annual Meeting affords of humbly offering our sincere Congratulations on the Marriage of your Royal Highness with Her Serene Highness the Princess Caroline of Brunswick.

We feel ourselves deeply interested in an Event which is so propitious to the domestic Felicity of your Royal Highness and to the Continuance of that Prosperity which the Nation has so long enjoyed under the Princes of your illustrious House.

It is our earnest Prayer that these may ever be united, and that Providence may bless and prosper your Royal Highness both in public and in private Life.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Edinburgh, the 16th of July, in the Year 1795.

James Stirling,

Lord Provost of Edinburgh, and
Preses of the Convention.
