The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Field Marshal Sir George Howard was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

And His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Field Marshal Sir George Howard to be Governor of the Island of Jersey, he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governor of that Island.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of July, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the Thirteenth Day of February last, it was ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of

His Privy Council, in pursuance of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, and mentioned in the said Order, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until the Thirtieth Day of September next, no Person or Persons whatsoever should export, or lay on Board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export, from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, Indian Corn or Maize, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit or Malt made thereof, subject to the Proviso's and Exceptions in the said Order contained; and further, that it should be lawful, for the same limited Time, to import into any Port or Place of this Kingdom any Foreign Corn or Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for a longer Time; His Majesty therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export, or to lay on Board any Ship or

Vessel
