AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of July, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in-Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the Thirteenth Day of February last, it was ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, and mentioned in the said Order, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until the Thirtieth Day of September next, no Person or Persons whatsoever should export, or lay on Board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export, from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, Indian Corn or Maize, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit or Malt made thereof, subject to the Provisoes and Exceptions in the said Order contained; and further, that it should be lawful, for the same limited Time, to import into any Port or Place of this Kingdom any Foreign Corn or Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for a longer Time; His Majesty therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export, or to lay on Board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export, any Corn or Articles as aforesaid, subject to the Provisoes and Exceptions in the said Order contained, and that the said Permission to import Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and to take the same out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, shall continue and remain in Force until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

Admiralty-Office, August 4.

THE following are Extracts of Letters from Admiral Sir John Laforey, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Barbadoes and the Leeward Islands, to Mr. Nepean, bearing the Dates against each expressed.

Fort Royal, Martinique, June 23, 1795.

Lieutenant-General Sir John Vaughan having signified to me on the 18th Instant the Necessity of withdrawing the Garrison of St. Lucia with all possible Haste, I dispatched directly such Ships as I could collect upon the Spot to cover and protect their Embarkation; but the Occasion pressing exceedingly, Captain John Barrett, commanding His Majesty's Ship Experiment, who was stationed at the Mouth of the Carenage to co-operate with the Garrison, at the Desire of General Stewart, embarked the Whole in his own Ship and a Transport, to the Amount of 1200, between the Hours of Twelve at Night and Five in the Morning, and got them safe out of Gun-Shot, except some Sick and some Women, who were too distantly situated to benefit by his Endeavours for them. The latter were, however, sent over to us the next Day.

St. Pierre's, Martinique, June 26, 1795.

SINCE my Letter of the 23d Instant, His Majesty's Brig the Drake has arrived, whose Commander parted from the West India Convoy in Lat. 42. 52. North, and Long. 11. 47. West, in a very hard Gale of Wind, which he thinks must have greatly dispersed the Whole.

Since the Drake left Barbadoes, I have received a Letter from Governor Ricketts, informing me of the Arrival at that Island of a Part thereof, and of the Capture of some, a List of which I inclose. I am hastening forward Two Frigates, One of which I will send with all possible Dispatch to Windward of Defeada, and the other off Bartholomew's, where the Enemy send most of their Prizes, to recover as many of the Captures as may be.

List of Vessels captured.

Blenheim, with Troops.
Betsey, Ditto.
Hambury, with Government Stores.
Aurora, Merchantman.
Vintress, Ditto.
Montserrat, Packet.

St. Pierre's, Martinique, June 30, 1795.

THE Packet which came here Yesterday, brought me a Letter from Captain Charles John Moore Mansfield, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Andromache, who is arrived at Barbadoes, acquainting me that about 40 Sail of the Convoy have reached that Island. He confirms the Account of the Captures made by the Enemy, of which a List is inclosed, in my Letter of the 26th Instant.

The Matilda Frigate, which I had stationed off Basseterre, Guadalupe, returned to me Yesterday. Her Commander informed me that he had, on the 28th, fallen in with Nine Sail of Ships going into that Port, Three of which were large Frigates, and chased him off. These must be the same that have been cruising to Windward of Barbadoes, with the Prizes they have made.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Caldwell, late Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Barbadoes and the Leeward Islands, to Mr. Nepean, dated at Spithead the 29th of July, 1795.

Captain Otway, of His Majesty's Sloop Thorn, informed me, that, on the 25th of May, he captured a French Ship of War called the Courier National, of 18 Nine and Six Pounders, and 119 Men. That on his coming up with her he immediately laid her on Board, and, after an Action of Thirty-five Minutes, (during which Two Attempts were made to board the Thorn) the Enemy struck. The Thorn had only 5 Men wounded, and the French Ship 7 killed and 20 wounded. From Captain Otway's Report too much Praise cannot be given to his Officers and Sloop's Company for their spirited Conduct.

Rear-Admiral Thompson returned to Martinique on the 13th of June, after seeing the Convoy in Safety to 24 Deg. 8 Min. North, and on his Way back captured the Perdrix, a French Ship of War of 24 Guns.

Admiralty-Office, August 4.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was Yesterday received from Admiral Hotham, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean.

Britannia, Myrtillo Bay, June 30, 1795.

S I R,

IT is with peculiar Satisfaction I transmit to you, for their Lordships Information, the inclosed Letter, which I received this Evening by the Fox Cutter, from Captain Towry, of His Majesty's Ship the Dido, giving an Account of a most gallant and spirited Action, which took place on the 24th Instant, between that Frigate, in Company with the Lowestoffe, Captain Middleton, on their Way to reconnoitre off the Hieres Islands, and the Two French Frigates named in the Margin*, the Termination of which Contest by the Capture of La Minerve, when the great Superiority of the Enemy's Force is considered, reflects the highest Honour on the Captains, Officers and Crews of the Dido and Lowestoffe.

I am, &c.

WM. HOTHAM.

Evan Nepean, Esq;

Dido, Port Mabon, June 27, 1795.

S I R,

THIS Day dispatch the Fox Cutter to communicate to you, that, in the Execution of your Instructions of the 22d Instant, with His Majesty's Ship Lowestoffe under my Orders, being, at Daylight of the 24th, in Latitude 41 Deg. 8 Min. and Longitude 5 Deg. 30 Min. E. we discovered and chased Two French Frigates; after some manœuvring they stood towards us, and, at a Quarter before Nine, A. M. the Dido, leading down, commenced a close Action with the headmost of the Enemy's Ships, which falling twice on Board, was at an early Period much disabled from the Loss of her Bow-sprit, Fore-mast, and Main-top-Mast; our Mizzen-mast being shot away, Fore and Main-top-sails perfectly useless, we no longer kept-to, at which Time the Lowestoffe opened a well-directed Fire; the Enemy's second Frigate then passing, and exchanging the opposite Broad-sides, His Majesty's Ships were kept on the same Tack till she went about, when fearing she might stand to the Assistance of the dismantled Ship, the Lowestoffe was sent in Chase; the French Frigate escaped by superior Sailing, leaving her Friend to be raked, in a very judicious Manner, on the Return of the Lowestoffe, to whose Fire she surrendered about Noon. The Dido having cleared the Wreck of the Mizzen-mast, and bent new Top-sails, joined in securing the Prize, La Minerve, a new Ship, of 42 Guns, Eighteen-Pounders, on the Main Deck, and 330 Men, a remarkably fast sailer. Her Companion we learnt to be L'Artemise, of 36 Guns.

Having given a Detail of the Action, it becomes as much my Duty as it is my Inclination to acknowledge the very able Support of His Majesty's Ship Lowestoffe, and to testify, that by Captain Middle-

* La Minerve, L'Artemise.

101's good Conduct the Business of the Day was, in a great Measure, brought to a fortunate Issue. I must at the same Time, pay the just Tribute of my warmest Gratitude to the Officers and Ship's Company I have the Honor to command; and it is with deep Regret I add, that Lieutenant Buckol, (First of the Dido) a most active Officer, is among the wounded, I fear severely, though he never quitted the Deck; Mr. Douglas, the Boatswain, a deserving Man, is killed. Captain Middleton's Report of the Conduct of the Officers and People of the Lowestoffe is also highly flattering.

I have the Honor to enclose a List of the Killed and Wounded. Having received Information from the Prisoners that the French Fleet were actually at Sea, the State of the Ships obliged me to run for this Port, where I propose fitting Jury-Masts in the Prize, and proceeding to Ajaccio. Circumstances are, I hope, sufficiently strong to plead my Excuse for not fully executing your former Orders. I remain with Respect, Your's, &c.

G. H. TOWRY.

P. S. We cannot exactly estimate the Loss in the French Ship, but imagine it to be about 20. L'Artemise was also much hulled.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness GEORGE Prince of WALES.

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of the Island of Guernsey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of His Majesty's Island of Guernsey assembled on this interesting Occasion, humbly beg Leave to offer your Royal Highness our unfeigned Congratulations on your auspicious Marriage with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick; an Event that forebodes solid Happiness to the faithful Subjects of our gracious King in this happy Island, whose Breasts are filled with joy and much elated at the bright Prospect afforded to them by an Union that renders your domestic Happiness, Sir, as perfect as their sanguine Wishes have led them hope for; a Prince whose distinguished Virtues, splendid Talents and fascinating Manners have long endeared him to the brave and loyal Nations that, under the wise, the mild and fostering Government of his Royal Ancestors, have now, for near a Century, been happy, free and flourishing beyond all former Example.

The Epoque of your Royal Highness's Marriage will be quoted as one of the most pleasing and producing the most universal Satisfaction of any in the Annals of the British History.

The Beauty and Accomplishments of your Royal Consort have been long reported, and often described to us in such Terms that we therefrom form a pleasing Prefage of your mutual and lasting Happiness, which cannot fail to influence the Minds, and produce solid Comfort to the many Millions of Britons, who contemplate with heartfelt and animating Satisfaction the cheering Prospect, that Heirs from your illustrious Race, to the End of Time, will fill the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

That Heaven's best Blessings may be bountifully poured down on your Royal Head, is the ardent Prayer of your Royal Highness's most faithful and devoted Servants.
