The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the Thirteenth Day of February last, it was ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, and mentioned in the said Order, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until the Thirtieth Day of September next, no Person or Persons whatsoever should export, or lay on Board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export, from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, Indian Corn or Maize, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit or Malt made thereof, subject to the Proviso's and Exceptions in the said Order contained; and further, that it should be lawful, for the same limited Time, to import into any Port or Place of this Kingdom any Foreign Corn or Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for a longer Time; His Majesty therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export, or to lay on Board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export, any Corn or Articles as aforesaid, subject to the Proviso's and Exceptions in the said Order contained, and that the said Permission to import Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and to take the same out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, shall continue and remain in Force until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament. Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Twenty-fifth Day of this instant July: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-fifth Day of this instant July, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or ship or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa; or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles, for the Purposes of Trade, to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards; and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Hotham, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships in the Mediterranean, to Mr. Nepean, dated Britannia, at Sea, July 14, 1795.

S I R,

YOU will be pleased to inform their Lordships, that I dispatched on the 4th Instant, from St. Fiorenzo, the Ships named in the Margin*, under the Orders of Captain Nelson, whom I directed to call off Genoa for the Inconstant and Southampton Frigates that were laying there, and to take them with him, if, from the Intelligence he might there obtain, he should find it necessary.

On the Morning of the 7th I was much surprized to learn that the above Squadron was seen in the Offing, returning into Port, pursued by the Enemy's Fleet, which, by General De Vins's Letter, (the latest Account I had received) I had Reason to suppose were certainly at Toulon.

Immediately on the Enemy's Appearance, I made every Preparation to put to Sea after them; and notwithstanding the unpleasant Predicament we were in, most of the Ships being in the Midst of watering and refitting, I was yet enabled, by the Zeal and extraordinary Exertions of the Officers and Men, to get the whole of the Fleet under Weigh that Night, as soon as the Land Wind permitted us to move; from which Time we neither saw or heard any thing of the Enemy till the 12th, when being to the Eastward, and within Sight of the Hieres Islands, Two Vessels were spoken with by Captain Hotham of the Cyclops and Captain Boys of La Fleche, who acquainted them they had seen the French Fleet, not many Hours before, to the Southward of those Islands: Upon which Information I made the Signal before Night to prepare for Battle, as an Indication to our Fleet that the Enemy was near.

Yesterday, at Day-Break, we discovered them to Leeward of us, on the Larboard Tack, consisting of Twenty three Sail, Seventeen of which proved to be of the Line: The Wind at this Time blew very hard from the W. N. W. attended with a heavy Swell, and Six of our Ships had to bend Main-Top-sails, in the room of those that were split by the Gale, in the Course of the Night.

I caused the Fleet, however, to be formed, with all possible Expedition, on the Larboard Line of Bearing, carrying all Sail possible to preserve that Order, and to keep the Wind of the Enemy, in the Hopes of of cutting them off from the Land, from which we were only Five Leagues distant.

At Eight o'Clock, finding they had no other View but that of endeavouring to get from us, I made the Signal for a general Chace, and for the Ships to take suitable Stations for their mutual Support, and to engage the Enemy as arriving up with them in Succession; but the baffling Winds and vexatious Calms, which render every Naval Operation in this Country doubtful, soon afterwards took Place, and allowed a few only of our Van Ships to get up with the Enemy's Rear about Noon, which they attacked so warmly, that, in the Course of an Hour after, we had the Satisfaction to find one of their Sternmost Ships, viz. L'Alcide, of Seventy-four Guns, had struck; the Rest of their Fleet, favoured by a Shift of Wind to the Eastward, (that placed them now to Windward of us) had got so far into Frejus Bay, whilst the major Part of our's was becalmed in the Offing, that it became impossible for any thing further to be effected; and those of our Ships which were engaged had approached so near to the Shore that I judged it proper to call them off by Signal.

If the Result of the Day was not so compleatly satisfactory as the Commencement promised, it is my Duty to state, that no Exertions could be more unanimous than those of the Fleet under my Command; and it would be Injustice to the general Merit of all to select individual Instances of Commendation, had not Superiority of Sailing placed some of the Ships in an advanced Situation, of which they availed themselves in the most distinguished and honourable Manner; and amongst the Number was the Victory, having Rear-Admiral Man on Board, who had shifted his Flag to that Ship upon this Occasion.

I am sorry to say that the Alcide, about Half an Hour after she had struck, by some Accident caught Fire in her Fore-Top, before she was taken Possession of, and the Flames spread with such Rapidity that the whole Ship was soon in a Blaze; several Boats from the Fleet were dispatched as quickly as possible to rescue as many of her People as they could save from the Destruction that awaited them, and Three Hundred of them were in consequence preserved, when the Ship blew up with the most awful and tremendous Explosion, and between Three and Four Hundred People are supposed to have perished.

Inclosed herewith is a List of the Killed and Wounded on Board the different Ships that were engaged, by which their Lordships will perceive our Loss has not been great; and I have the Pleasure to add, that the Damages sustained by those Ships have been such as can easily be remedied.

Had we fortunately fallen in with the Enemy any Distance from the Land, I flatter myself we should have given a decisive Blow to their Naval Force in these Seas; and although the Advantage of Yesterday may not appear to be of any great Moment, I yet hope it will have served as a Check upon their present Operations, be they what they may.

I am, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

W. HOTHAM.
