AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of July, 1795.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the Thirteenth Day of February last, it was ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of

His Privy Council, in pursuance of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, and mentioned in the said Order, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until the Thirtieth Day of September next, no Person or Persons whatsoever should export, or lay on Board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export, from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, Indian Corn or Maize, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit or Malt made thereof, subject to the Provisoos and Exceptions in the said Order contained; and further, that it should be lawful, for the same limited Time, to import into any Port or Place of this Kingdom any Foreign Corn or Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition to export, and the said Permission to import, should be continued for a longer Time; His Majesty therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers given by the said Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export, or to lay on Board any Ship or Vessel with Intent to export, any Corn or Articles as aforesaid, subject to the Provisoos and Exceptions in the said Order contained, and that the said Permission to import Foreign Corn and other Articles as aforesaid, and to take the same out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever, shall continue and remain in Force until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.
