

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 15, to Tuesday August 18, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of August, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, from and after the Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, until the 25th Day of December, 1795, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed, out of or from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be laden or laid on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever: His Majesty nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the same being carried Coastwise, under the usual Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, nor the Exportation of the same to Ireland, or to any other of His Majesty's Dominions, under the usual Conditions and Regulations, and upon Security being given by the Exporter and Two other Persons, (of whom the Master of the Vessel shall be one) by Bond, in such Penalty as shall be directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that the said Rock Salt shall be exported to some Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, and none other; and that a Certificate shall be produced within Six Months from the Date of the Bond, if such Rock Salt shall be entered out for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in Europe, and within Twelve Months if for any Port of His Majesty's Dominions in America or the West Indies, and within Eighteen Months if for any of the British Settlements or Factories in Asia or Africa, under the Hand of the Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place where such Rock Salt shall be so landed, and if there shall be no Officer of the Customs, then under the Hand of the Chief Magistrate of the Place, testifying that the said Rock Salt has been duly landed at the Port or Place for which the same was entered out: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissions of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of August, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner

Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should fo enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty first Day of this instant August; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant August, to the Thirty-first Day of October next inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

IN pursuance of the Directions of an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to repeal so much of Two Acts made in the Tenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament in the Manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other Provisions for the like Purposes;" I do hereby give Notice, that the Death of the Honourable Sir John Vaughan, K. B. late Member of Parliament for the Town of Berwick upon Tweed in the County of Northumberland, hath been certified to me in Writing, under the Hands of Two Members of Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the electing of a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Town, in the room of the said Sir John Vaughan, at the End of Fourteen Days after the Insertion of this Notice in the Gazette. Dated the Sixteenth Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

NOtice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to the Honourable House of Commons in the next Session of Parliament for Leave to bring in a Bill for laying an additional Tax on the Lands in the North Level, Part of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, and on Portland, otherwise Great Portland, in the County of Lincoln, for the further Support and Preservation of the Principal Banks and Works of the said North Level and Portland.

August 4, 1795.

NOtice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament the next Session for Leave to bring in a Bill to make a navigable Canal from Stella to Hexham, in the County of Northumberland, on the South of the River Tyne, and that the said Canal is intended to pass through the following Parishes, viz. Ryton in the County Palatine of Durham, Ovingham, Bywell, Corbridge and Hexham, in the County of Northumberland. Descriptive Plans, with Explanations, are lodged with the Clerk of the Peace for each of the said Counties.

Eau Brink Drainage and Navigation.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for Improving the Drainage of the Middle and South Levels, Part of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, and the Low Lands adjoining or near to the said Levels, as also the Lands adjoining or near to the River Ouze, in the County of Norfolk, draining through the same to Sea by the Harbour of King's Lynn, in the said County, and for altering and improving the Navigation of the said River Ouze from or near a Place called Eau Brink, in the Parish of Wiggennall Saint Mary, in the said County, to the said Harbour of King's Lynn, and for improving and preserving the Navigation of the several Rivers communicating with the said River Ouze," a yearly Tax of Four-pence per Acre is rated, taxed, charged and assessed upon certain Lands, Grounds and Commons, and also a Tonnage of Four-pence per Ton upon certain Goods, Wares and Merchandizes mentioned in the said Act, for the Term of Ten Years. And whereas the following Orders and Resolutions were made by the Honourable the House of Commons in the last Session of Parliament, (that is to say) "Veneris, 19^o Junii, 1795, Ordered, "That the Order of the Day for taking into further Consideration the Report which was made from the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Noblemen, and the humble Petition of the several other Persons, whose Names are thereunto subscribed, on Behalf of themselves and others interested in the Navigation of the River Ouze in the County of Norfolk, and Owners of Lands lying in and adjoining to the Middle and South Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, and of the Low Lands adjoining or near to the said Levels, and in divers other Lands adjoining or near to the said River Ouze, and draining through the same to Sea, was referred, be now read;
 "And the said Order being read accordingly,
 "The House proceeded to take the said Report into further Consideration.
 "And the said Report and Petition were again read.
 "Resolved, That, in Consideration of the special Circumstances stated in the said Report, all Persons who gave their Consent to the Bill for improving the Drainage of the Middle and South Levels, Part of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, and the Low Lands adjoining or near to the said Levels, as also the Lands adjoining or near to the River Ouze in the County,

County of Norfolk, draining through the same to Sea by the Harbour of King's Lynn in the said County, and for altering and improving the Navigation of the said River Ouze from or near a Place called Eau Brink, in the Parish of Wiggenshall Saint Mary's in the said County to the said Harbour of King's Lynn, and for improving and preserving the Navigation of the several Rivers communicating with the said River Ouze, which was depending in this House in the Session of Parliament 1794, and which Consent was directed, by a Resolution of this House of the 9th Day of May, 1794, to be carried forward and made applicable to the Bill for the like Purposes which was brought into this House in the present Session of Parliament, and which afterwards passed into a Law, shall be deemed and taken to be consenting to such Bill as in the said Petition and Report is referred to, if any such Bill shall be applied for in the next Session of Parliament, so far only as such Bill shall relate to the Extension of the Term during which the Taxes on the Lands and the Tonnage on the Goods and Merchandize were granted by the said Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, and to the better securing and repaying of the Money by the said Act authorized to be raised on the Credit of the said Taxes and Tonnage, unless such Persons shall, by themselves or Agents, attend the Committee to whom such Bill may be committed, and express their Dissent, or shall give Certificates or other Evidence of their Dissent, to be proved to the Satisfaction of such Committee.

Resolved, That in case it shall be thought expedient to apply to Parliament in the next Session for the specific Purposes mentioned in the last Resolution, this House will deem general Notices of such intended Application, inserted in the London Gazette and the different County Papers, as directed by the first Standing Order of the 7th Day of May, 1794, relating to Navigations, and given at the different Quarter Sessions of the Peace, in the Manner therein directed, to be sufficient Notices to the Parishes, Townships or Places concerned, so far as such Bill shall relate to the Extension of the Term mentioned in the said last Resolution."

Now, in pursuance of the above Resolutions of the Honourable the House of Commons, Notice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session for an Act to enlarge and extend the Term and Powers of the said recited Act; that is to say, to continue the said Tax of Four-pence per Acre on the Lands, Grounds and Commons, and the said Toll of Four-pence per Ton on the Goods, Wares and Merchandizes granted by the said Act, for a further Term, not exceeding Five Years, to commence at the Expiration of the said Term of Ten Years, for the better securing and repaying of the Money authorized by the said Act to be raised or borrowed on the Credit of the said Taxes and Tonnage. Dated this 6th Day of August, 1795.

William Lemmon, Clerk to the Commissioners under the said Act.

Exchequer Bill-Office, August 15, 1795.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have given Directions for paying off the Sum of 2,000,000*l.* in Exchequer Bills, issued pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for raising a certain Sum of Money by Loans or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year 1794, and charged on the Aids of the present Year; and that the Principal and Interest on such Bills shall be paid at the Exchequer Bill-Office, in St. Margaret's-Street, between the Two Palace-Yards, Westminster, on Saturday the 29th Day of this instant August; and Attendance will be given on Monday the 17th Instant, and every succeeding Day until Wednesday the 26th Instant, inclusive, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon (Sundays and Holidays excepted) for that Purpose; and for the greater Dispatch the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring Lists thereof, containing the Numbers in numerical Order, Times of Commencement of Interest, with the principal Sums and Interest due on such Bills, to be computed at Three-pence by the Day on every 100*l.* from the Time of Commencement to the said 29th Day of August instant; on which Day the Interest on the said Exchequer Bills will cease: And they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and indorse their Names on the Back of the said Bills.

And such Persons as are desirous of having new Exchequer Bills of the present Year, in Part of Payment, upon mentioning the same at the Bottom of their Lists delivered on or before the said 26th Instant, will be accommodated with new Bills of 100*l.* each, carrying an Interest of Three-pence a Day to the Amount of the Principal of the Bills by them delivered up; which new Bills will bear Date the 29th Day of August, 1795, and will be delivered on Thursday the 3d Day of September next, and on the following Days, at the said Office.

THE Commissioners named and authorized in and by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling His Majesty to settle an Annuity on His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales during the joint Lives of His Majesty and of His said Royal Highness; for making Provision out of his Revenues for the Payment of any Debts that may be due from His Royal Highness; for preventing the Accumulation of Debts in future, and for regulating the Mode of Expenditure of the said Revenues," do hereby give Notice, that, pursuant to the Provision of the said Act, no Claim or Demand of any Creditor or Creditors of His Royal Highness is to be received by the said Commissioners after the 1st Day of September, 1795, unless it should be made appear to the said Commissioners that there is reasonable Cause to enlarge the Time for delivering in any such Claim or Account, And that no Security, by Way of Debenture, can be granted by the Commissioners to any Creditor or Creditors of His Royal Highness on Account of any Debts, nor can any Creditor be entitled to any Part or Share of the Funds established for the Payment of the said Debts, unless a Claim be made by such Creditor, and an Account, in Writing, of such Debt be delivered to the Commissioners on or before the 1st Day of September, 1795, and unless the Creditor shall submit to be examined touching his Debt, if the Commissioners shall see Cause to require him so to be. The Creditors of His Royal Highness are therefore required to send in an Account, of the Claims or Demands to Henry Hodgson, Esq; the Secretary to the said Commissioners, at his House in New Palace-Yard, Westminster, before the said 1st Day of September next.

Signed by Order of the Commissioners,

Henry Hodgson, Secretary.

MARTIN-WIGHT,—Northamptonshire.

Whereas Henry Wight, late of Blakeley Hall, in the Parish of Blakeley, in the County of Northampton, Esquire, made his last Will and Testament, in Writing, bearing Date the 22d Day of February, 1785, and proved at London the 16th Day of October, 1793; and after reciting that, by the Settlement made previous to his Marriage with Susannah his Wife, he had settled upon her, as a Jointure, a yearly Rent-Charge of Three Hundred Pounds, for her Life, charged upon his Estates in Surry and Essex, he did, by his said Will, ratify and confirm the said Settlement, and gave and devised unto Susanna his Wife, his Mansion House, Manors and Estates in or near Blakeley aforesaid, with the Appurtenances, for her Life; and after her Decease unto his Sister Dame Elizabeth Harington, Widow, her Heirs and Assigns, for ever; and gave to Elizabeth Wates, then or then late of Blakeley Hill aforesaid, Spinster, One Annuity or clear yearly Sum of Twenty Pounds, for her Life; and unto his Servant, Thomas Fornace, One Annuity or clear yearly Sum of Fifteen Pounds, for his Life; and charged his Estates in the Counties of Essex and Surry with the Payment of the said Annuities: And gave and bequeathed all his Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, in the said Counties of Essex and Surry, subject to the said yearly Rent-Charge of Three Hundred Pounds, and the said Annuities of Twenty Pounds and Fifteen Pounds, and also all his Tenements and Hereditaments, in the City of London, and all other his Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments whatsoever and wheresoever, (except the Manors, Mansion-House and Premises therein first devised) unto his said Sister Dame Elizabeth Harington, for her Life, and after her Decease gave and devised One Moiety of his said Hereditaments and Premises in the said Counties of Essex and Surry, (chargeable as aforesaid) and in the City of London and elsewhere (except as aforesaid) unto Elizabeth White, then of Edward-Street, near Cavendish Square, in the County of Middlesex, Widow, for her Life; and from and after her Decease gave the said Moiety unto John Wight, of the Parish of St. Nicholas at Guildford, in the County of Surry, Esquire, for his Life; and after the Decease of the Survivor of them gave the said Moiety unto his (the said Testator's) right Heirs: And gave the other Moiety of the said several Hereditaments and Premises in Essex and Surry (chargeable as aforesaid) and in London (except as aforesaid) from and immediately after the Decease of the said Dame Elizabeth Harington, unto Trustees, to the Use of William Martin, Son of William Martin, then of Blacksmiths Hall, London, then deceased, and his Assigns, for his Life, without Impeachment of Waste; Remainder to Trustees to preserve contingent Remainders; and from and after the Decease of the said William Martin the Son, to the Use of all and every the Child and Children of the said William Martin the Son, as well Daughters as Sons, lawfully begotten, or to be begotten, equally to be divided between or amongst them, (if more than one such Child) Share and Share alike; and they to take as Tenants in common, and not as joint Tenants, and the several and respective Heirs of their respective Bodies, issuing and failing Issue, of any of the said Children, then as to the Share and Shares, as well accruing as original of such Child and Children where Issue should fail, to the Use of all and every other such Child and Children, equally to be divided between or amongst them, if more than one, as Tenants in common in like Manner, and the several and respective Heirs of their respective Bodies issuing; and in case all such Children, save one, should die without Issue, or if there should be but one such Child, then to the Use of such one or only Child, and the Heirs of his or her Body issuing, with Remainders over. And the Testator further willed, in the Words, or to the Effect following, (that is to say,) "And in regard the said William Martin the Son went Abroad several Years ago, and hath not since been heard of, and it is uncertain whether he be living or dead, and also whether he left any Issue, I do hereby direct and declare my Will to be, that in case neither he, nor any Issue of his Body lawfully begotten, shall be heard of in the Life-Time of my said Sister Dame Elizabeth Harington, and known to be alive at the Time of her Decease, an Advertisement shall be inserted Ten Times in the London Gazette, importing the Benefit hereby intended him and them, and requiring him or them to make his or their Claim thereto within the Space of Twelve Calendar Months next after the Publication of the first of the said Advertisements in the London Gazette; and in case neither the said William Martin the Son, nor any Issue of his Body lawfully begotten, shall make his or their said Claim accordingly within the said Twelve Months, then I hereby revoke and make void all the Uses, Estates and Limitations herein contained for his and their Benefit; and declare that the same shall be null and void; and then, and in such Case, my Will is, and I do hereby direct and declare, that from and immediately after the Decease of the said Dame Elizabeth Harington the last mentioned Moiety of the said Hereditaments and Premises shall go and remain, and be considered as going and remaining to such Person and Persons; and for such Estate and Estates, and in such Course, Order and Manner as the same would have gone and remained in case the said William Martin the Son had been then dead, without Issue, any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding." And whereas the said Dame Elizabeth Harington and Elizabeth White are both dead; and neither the said William Martin the Son, nor any of his Issue, have been heard of in the Life-Time of the said Dame Elizabeth Harington, and were not known to be alive at her Decease, Notice is, in compliance therefore with the Directions of the said Testator, hereby given, that the said William Martin the Son, if he be now living, or the Issue of his Body lawfully begotten, (if any) is and are hereby required to make his or their Claim to the Benefit by the said Will intended him and them, within Twelve Calendar Months next after the first Time of the Publication of this Advertisement in the London Gazette, otherwise the Uses, Estates and Limitations in the said Will contained for his and their Benefit, will be revoked and made void; and the said Moiety of the said Hereditaments and Premises will go and remain, and be considered as going and remaining to such Person and Persons, and for such Estate and Estates, and in such Course, Order and Manner as the same would have gone and remained in case the said William Martin the Son were now dead without Issue. Dated this 24th Day of July, 1795.

Susanna Wight,
of Berkeley-Street, Piccadilly, or Blakeley-Hall, only surviving Executrix of the said Will.
