To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg.

May it please your Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Glenelg, met in Synod, beg Leave to present our most respectful and sincere Congratulations on the Marriage of your Royal Highness with a Princess of the illustrious House of Brunswick. It is with lively Satisfaction we learn that the Confort chosen by your Royal Highness is universally allowed to possess those Virtues, without which Rank or Splendour cannot confer Felicity, and which, while they enlarge the Circle of your domestic Happiness, will give the People of these Kingdoms the joyful Hope of seeing those private Virtues and that conjugal Affection, which they have been accustomed to view with Veneration and Complacency in the Life of your Royal Parents, continued in your Family.

Permit us to add our ardent Prayers for the Increase of your temporal Felicity and your daily Advancement in those Paths of Piety and Rectitude, which will conduct you to that Happiness which is subject to no Change.

This, in Name, Presence, and at the Appointment of the Synod of Glenelg, is signed by

A. Downie, Moderator.
