

APPRENTICE DUTY INDEMNITY.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, May 16, 1795.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for Managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, That by a Clause in an Act of the present Session of Parliament, it is enacted, for the Relief of all Persons who have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given paid or contracted for, with Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, and also who have omitted to insert and write in Words at Length in Indentures or other Writings relating to the Service of any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or contracted for, with or in relation to every such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, that, upon Payment of double the Rates and Duties upon the Monies, or such Part of the Monies, so omitted or neglected to be paid, and also so omitted to be inserted and written in such Indenture or Writing, on or before the 19th Day of December next, to the proper Officer, and tendering the same to be stamped at this Office every such Indenture or other Writing shall be good and valid, and the Persons so offending be excused from any Penalty incurred by the Omission thereof; except those against whom any Prosecution shall be now depending.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Secretary.

THE Commissioners named and authorized in and by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, "An Act for enabling His Majesty to settle an Annuity on His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales during the joint Lives of His Majesty and of His said Royal Highness; for making Provision out of his Revenues for the Payment of any Debts that may be due from His Royal Highness; for preventing the Accumulation of Debts in future, and for regulating the Mode of Expenditure of the said Revenues," do hereby give Notice, that, pursuant to the Provision of the said Act, no Claim or Demand of any Creditor or Creditors of His Royal Highness is to be received by the said Commissioners after the 1st Day of September, 1795, unless it should be made appear to the said Commissioners that there is reasonable Cause to enlarge the Time for delivering in any such Claim or Account, And that no Security, by Way of Debenture, can be granted by the Commissioners to any Creditor or Creditors of His Royal Highness on Account of any Debts, nor can any Creditor be entitled to any Part or Share of the Funds established for the Payment of the said Debts, unless a Claim be made by such Creditor, and an Account, in Writing, of such Debt be delivered to the Commissioners on or before the 1st Day of September, 1795, and unless the Creditor shall submit to be examined touching his Debt, if the Commissioners shall see Cause to require him so to be. The Creditors of His Royal Highness are therefore required to send in an Account, of the Claims or Demands to Henry Hodgson, Esq; the Secretary to the said Commissioners, at his House in New Palace-Yard, Westminster, before the said 1st Day of September next.

Signed by Order of the Commissioners,
Henry Hodgson, Secretary.

Exchequer Bill-Office, August 15, 1795.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have given Directions for paying off the Sum of 2,000,000*l.* in Exchequer Bills, issued pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for raising a certain Sum of Money by Loans or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year 1794, and charged on the Aids of the present Year; and that the Principal and Interest on such Bills shall be paid at the Exchequer Bill-Office, in St. Margaret's-Street, between the Two Palace-Yards, Westminster, on Saturday the 29th Day of this instant August; and Attendance will be given on Monday the 17th Instant, and every succeeding Day until Wednesday the 26th Instant, inclusive, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon (Sundays and Holidays excepted) for that Purpose; and for the greater Dispatch the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring Lists thereof, containing the Numbers in numerical Order, Times of Commencement of Interest, with the principal Sums and Interest due on such Bills, to be computed at Three-pence by the Day on every 100*l.* from the Time of Commencement to the said 29th Day of August instant; on which Day the Interest on the said Exchequer Bills will cease: And they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and indorse their Names on the Back of the said Bills.

And such Persons as are desirous of having new Exchequer Bills of the present Year, in Part of Payment, upon mentioning the same at the Bottom of their Lists delivered on or before the said 26th Instant, will be accommodated with new Bills of 100*l.* each, carrying an Interest of Three-pence a Day to the Amount of the Principal of the Bills by them delivered up; which new Bills will bear Date the 29th Day of August, 1795, and will be delivered on Thursday the 30th Day of September next, and on the following Days at the said Office.

Notice is hereby given, that the Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of His Majesty's Army will be paid their Pension and Bounty due the 31st of July last, at No. 69, Mount-Street, Grosvenor-Square, by Thomas Gilbert, Esq; Pay-Master of the said Charity, viz. the Widows of Captains, Lieutenants and Masters, on Thursday the 27th of this instant August; the Widows of Boatswains and Gunners, on Friday the 28th; and the Widows of Carpenters, Purgers, Surgeons and Second Masters, on Saturday the 29th; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the Hours of Ten and Twelve. And the Widows who inhabit London and the Parts adjacent are to take Notice, that their Pension or Bounty will not be paid unless they come in Person to receive the same, or that their Attornies do bring a Certificate from the Minister and Church-Wardens of the Parish they belong to, shewing the Cause of their Inability.

And in order to discourage and deter any Women who may endeavour to defraud the said Charity, under the Pretence of being the Widows of Officers, or within the Circumstances required, when they are not really so, the Governors have thought fit to order a Reward of Fifty per Cent. upon what shall be saved by the Detection of such Frauds, which shall be paid to any Person who shall discover and detect the same.

Leigh, August 21, 1795.

ALL Persons having any Claim or Demand for Salvage or otherwise on the Ship Fraw Maria, Joes Atmussen Hoeg, Master, from Copenhagen, and lately stranded on the West Knock, in the Port of Leigh in the County of Essex, are hereby required to take Notice, that the Magistrates acting in and for the said County will assemble at the Hotel at South-End, in the County aforesaid, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon of Saturday the 29th Instant, to hear and determine the same.
