

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 29, to Tuesday September 1, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of August, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, That no Person or Persons whosoever, shall, from and after the Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, until the 25th Day of December, 1795, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed, out of or from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be laden or laid on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever: His Majesty nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the same being carried Coastwise, under the usual Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, nor the Exportation of the same to Ireland, or to any other of His Majesty's Dominions, under the usual Conditions and Regulations, and upon Security being given by the Exporter and Two other Persons, (of whom the Master of the Vessel shall be one) by Bond, in such Penalty as shall be directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that the said Rock Salt shall be exported to some Port or Place in His Majesty's

Dominions, and none other; and that a Certificate shall be produced within Six Months from the Date of the Bond, if such Rock Salt shall be entered out for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in Europe, and within Twelve Months if for any Port of His Majesty's Dominions in America or the West Indies, and within Eighteen Months if for any of the British Settlements or Factories in Asia or Africa, under the Hand of the Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place where such Rock Salt shall be so landed, and if there shall be no Officer of the Customs, then under the Hand of the Chief Magistrate of the Place, testifying that the said Rock Salt has been duly landed at the Port or Place for which the same was entered out: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissions of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Whitehall, August 29, 1795.

IT is His Majesty's Pleasure, that all the Officers of the Regiments specified in the Margin hereof, who are now in this Country on Leave of Absence, either from His Majesty, or the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, do immediately join their Regiments, on Pain of being superseded.

PORTLAND.
