

Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be taken, and to hear and determine the same; and, according to the Course of Admiralty, and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels and Goods as shall belong to the United Provinces, or their Vassals and Subjects, or to any others inhabiting within any of the Countries, Territories and Dominions of the aforesaid United Provinces; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents: And they are likewise to prepare, and lay before His Majesty at this Board, a Draught of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Foreign Governments and Plantations, for their Guidance herein; as also another Draught of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes aforementioned.

AT the Court at Weymouth, the 15th of September, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 15th of July last to order, That no Person or Persons whatever should, until further Order, directly or indirectly, export, transport, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed, any Rice out of or from any Port or Place in Great Britain; or load or lay on Board, or cause or procure to be loaded or laid on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, any Rice, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, (except as in the said Order is excepted): And whereas it has been represented by the Merchants, Importers of Rice from South Carolina, That the various Dealers in the Article of Rice, for Home Consumption, being amply supplied, the said Importers can no longer find Sale for considerable Quantities which remain on Hand, and that they are apprehensive, if the said Prohibition continues, that a very small Portion of the new Crop of Rice will be brought to this Kingdom; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That the said Prohibition, laid by His Majesty's said Order in Council of the 15th Day of July last, be taken off, and that the Exportation of Rice be permitted and allowed, upon the same Conditions, and under the same Restrictions, as before the issuing of the said Order of the 15th Day of July last, and as if such Order had not been made; any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.
