AT the Court at St. James's, the 31st Day of October, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent MAJESTY,

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,

His Royal Highness the Duke of York,

Lord Chancellor,

Lord President,

Lord Privy Seal,

Duke of Portland,

Lord Chamberlain,

Earl of Westmorland,

Earl of Jersey,

Earl Spencer,

Lord Grenville,

Lord Osslow,

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer,

Mr. Vice Chamberlain,

Mr. Villiers,

Field Marshal Sir George Howard,

Master of the Rolls,

Mr. Secretary Dundas.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N, G E O R G E R.

W H E R E A S on the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant Month of October, divers Persons, riotously assembled and stationed in different Places in Our City of Westminster, proceeded to commit certain daring and highly criminal Outrages, in gross Violation of the Publick Peace, to the actual Danger of Our Royal Person, and to the Interruption of Our Passage to and from Our Parliament; We, therefore, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, in pursuance of an Address from Our Two Houses of Parliament, do hereby enjoin all Magistrates, and all other Our loving Subjects, to use their utmost Endeavours to discover and cause to be apprehended the Authors, Actors and Abettors concerned in such Outrages, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: And We do hereby promise, That any Person or Persons, other than those actually concerned in doing any Act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give Information, so as that any of the Authors, Actors or Abettors concerned in such Outrages as aforesaid, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, shall receive a Reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, to be paid on Conviction of every such Offender; which said Sum of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly. And We do further promise, that any Person or Persons concerned in such Outrages as aforesaid, other than such as were actually concerned in any Act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give Information

[ Price Eighteen-penc. ]

Information, so as that any of such Authors, Actors or Abettors as aforesaid shall be apprehended and brought to Justice, shall, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, receive Our most gracious Pardon.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Thirty-first Day of October, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

Westminster, October 29.

THIS Day, His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is a great Satisfaction to Me to reflect, that, notwithstanding many Events unfavourable to the common Cause, the Prospect resulting from the general Situation of Affairs has, in many important Respects, been materially improved in the Course of the present Year.

In Italy, the threatened Invasion of the French has been prevented, and they have been driven back from a considerable Part of the Line of Coast which they had occupied: There is also Reason to hope that the recent Operations of the Austrian Army have checked the Progress which they had made on the Side of Germany, and frustrated the offensive Projects which they were pursuing in that Quarter.

The Successes which have attended their military Operations in other Parts of the Campaign, and the Advantages which they have derived from the Conclusion of separate Treaties with some of the Powers who were engaged in the War, are far from compensating the Evils which they experience from its Continuance. The Destruction of their Commerce, the Diminution of their maritime Power, and the unparalleled Embarrassment and Distress of their internal Situation, have produced the Impression which was naturally to be expected; and a general Sense appears to prevail throughout France, that the only Relief from the increasing Pressure of these Difficulties must arise from the Restoration of Peace, and the Establishment of some settled System of Government.

The Distraction and Anarchy, which have so long prevailed in that Country, have led to a Crisis, of which it is as yet impossible to foresee the Issue; but which must, in all human Probability, produce Consequences highly important to the Interests of Europe. Should this Crisis terminate in any Order of Things compatible with the Tranquillity of other Countries, and affording a reasonable Expectation of Security and Permanence in any Treaty which might be concluded, the Appearance of a Disposition to negotiate for general Peace, on just and suitable Terms, will not fail to be met, on My Part, with an earnest Desire to give it the fullest and speediest Effect. But I am persuaded you will agree with Me, that nothing is so likely to ensure and accelerate this desirable End, as to shew that We are prepared for either Alternative, and are determined to prosecute the War with the utmost Energy and Vigour, until We have the Means of concluding, in Conjunction with Our Allies, such a Peace as the Justice of Our Cause and the Situation of the Enemy may entitle Us to expect.

With this View I am continuing to make the greatest Exertions for maintaining and improving our Naval Superiority, and for carrying on active and vigorous Operations in the West Indies, in order to secure and extend the Advantages which We have gained in that Quarter, and which are so nearly connected with Our commercial Resources and maritime Strength.

I rely with full Confidence on the Continuance of your firm and zealous Support, on the uniform Bravery of My Fleets and Armies, and on the Fortitude, Perseverance, and Publick Spirit of all Ranks of My People.

The Acts of Hostility committed by the United Provinces, under the Influence and Control of France, have obliged Me to treat them as in a State of War with this Country.

The Fleet which I have employed in the North Seas has received the most cordial and active Assistance from the Naval Force furnished by the Empress of Russia, and has been enabled effectually to check the Operations of the Enemy in that Quarter.

I have concluded Engagements of Defensive Alliance with the Two Imperial Courts; and the Ratifications of the Treaty of Commerce with the United States of America, which I announced to you last Year, have now been exchanged.—I have directed Copies of these Treaties to be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

It is Matter of deep Concern to Me, that the Exigencies of the Publick Service will require further Additions

Additions to the heavy Burthens which have been unavoidably imposed on My People.—I trust that their Pressure will, in some Degree, be alleviated by the flourishing State of Our Commerce and Manufactures, and that Our Expences, though necessarily great in their Amount, will, under the actual Circumstances of the War, admit of considerable Diminution in Comparison with those of the present Year.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have observed for some Time past, with the greatest Anxiety, the very high Price of Grain, and that Anxiety is increased by the Apprehension that the Produce of the Wheat Harvest in the present Year may not have been such as effectually to relieve My People from the Difficulties with which they have had to contend. The Spirit of Order and Submission to the Laws, which, with very few Exceptions, has manifested itself under this severe Pressure, will, I am sure, be felt by you as an additional Incentive to apply yourselves, with the utmost Diligence, to the Consideration of such Measures as may tend to alleviate the present Distress, and to prevent, as far as possible, the Renewal of of similar Embarrassments in future. Nothing has been omitted on My Part that appeared likely to contribute to this End; and you may be assured of My hearty Concurrence in whatever Regulations the Wisdom of Parliament may adopt, on a Subject so peculiarly interesting to My People, whose Welfare will ever be the Object nearest My Heart.

Downing-Street, October 28.

The Ratifications of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, between His Majesty and the United States of America, signed the 19th of November last, were this Day exchanged by Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with William Allen Dias, Esq; Chargé d'Affaires from the United States.

Herse-Guards, October 31.

A Dispatch, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Vice-Admiral the Honorable Sir G. K. Elphinstone, K. B. dated on Board His Majesty's Ship Monarch, Simon's Bay, Cape of Good Hope, August 18, 1795.

I HAD the Honor of informing you, in a former Dispatch, that the Dutch were entrenched in a strong Position at Muyfenbergh, and well furnished with Cannon, having a steep Mountain on their Right and the Sea on the Left, difficult of Approach on Account of shallow Water, with high Surf on the Shore, but which the absolute Necessity of the Post rendered it requisite that we should possess, and made it obvious to Major-General Craig and myself that it ought to be attempted.

For this Service I secretly prepared a Gun-Boat, and armed the Launches of the Fleet with heavy Cannonades, landed Two Battalions of Seamen, about One Thousand, under the Command of Captains Hardy of the Echo, and Spranger of the Rattlesnake, and sent Ships frequently around the Bay, to prevent Suspicion of an Attack, when any favourable Opportunity might offer.

On the 7th Instant a light Breeze sprung up from the North-West, and at Twelve o'Clock the preconcerted Signal was made; when Major-General Craig, with his accustomed Readiness and Activity, instantly put the Forces on Shore in Motion, and, at the same Moment, Commodore Blankert, equally zealous, in the America, with the Stately, Echo and Rattlesnake, got under Weigh, whilst the Gun-Boat and armed Launches preceded the March of the Troops about Five Hundred Yards, to prevent their being interrupted.

About One o'Clock the Ships, being abreast of an advanced Post of Two Guns, fired a few Shot, which induced those in Charge to depart; and, on approaching a second Post of One Gun and a Royal Mortar or Howitzer, the Effect was the same. On proceeding off the Camp the Confusion was instantly manifest, although the Distance from the Ships was greater than could have been wished, but the Shallowness prevented a nearer Approach.

The Echo led, commanded by Lieutenant Tod of the Monarch, and anchored in Two and a Half Fathoms, followed by the America, which anchored in Four and a Half, then the Stately and Rattlesnake, anchoring nearer, in Proportion to their lesser Draughts of Water, off the Enemy's Works, which began to fire, and the Fire was returned by the Sloops; but an Increase of Wind prevented the large Ships from acting until they had carried out heavy Anchors. This Duty was performed by the Commanders with great Coolness, much to their own Honour and their Country's Credit.

In a few Minutes after the Fire opened, which obliged the Dutch to abandon their Camp with the utmost Precipitation, taking with them only Two Field-Pieces, and at Four o'Clock the Major-General took Possession of it, after a fatiguing March over heavy sandy Ground. To him I beg Leave to refer for the Particulars of what was taken therein, as the Sea ran so high that no Person from the Ships or Gun Boats could venture to land.

In transmitting to you the Proceedings of the Fleet under my Command, I shall at all Times feel great Satisfaction in doing Justice to the Merits of the several Officers. To their Judgment and good Conduct in the present Instance is to be attributed the immediate Success which attended the Attempt; it is therefore my Duty to recommend to His Majesty's Notice Commodore Blankett, Captain Douglas, Lieutenant Tod of the Monarch, commanding the Echo, and Lieutenant Ramage, also of the Monarch, commanding the Rattlesnake, and Mr. Charles Adam, of the Monarch, Midshipman, who commanded the Gun-Boat. I am sensibly obliged to them, each individually, for their steady and correct Discharge of my Orders.

I must further beg Leave to add, that it is universally agreed the Echo's Fire was superiorly directed and ably kept up; and particular Acknowledgements ledgements are also due to the Officers and Men for the general Zeal and Activity which appeared every Countenance, of which I was enabled to judge with more Precision as the Commodore obligingly permitted me to accompany him, and to visit the other Ships employed under his Direction upon this Service.

The America had Two Men killed and Four wounded, and One Gun disabled, being struck by a Shot; the Stately One Man wounded. Some Shots passed through the Ships, but did not materially injure them.

I am fearful the Major-General will not be able to write by this Conveyance, a Genoese Ship, which intends touching at St. Helena, as he is now at Muysenberg.

I have inclosed a List of the Dutch Ships detained in this Bay.

List of Dutch Ships detained in Simon's Bay, August 18, 1795.

Carlton-House, September 24, 1795.

Office for managing the Affairs of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

BY Order of the Earl Cholmondeley, Notice is hereby given, that every Creditor of His Royal Highness, whose Demand shall accrue after the 5th Day of July, 1795, is to deliver into this Office a Particular in Writing, containing the Nature and Amount of such Demand, signed by him or her, within Ten Days after the Expiration of the Quarter of a Year in which such Demand shall accrue; and all Debts or Demands, of what Nature or Kind soever, which shall not wholly have accrued within the preceding Quarter of a Year, or which shall not be presented as aforesaid, and within the Time limited as aforesaid, are not, under any Pretence or Colour of Authority whatever, to be paid, satisfied, or discharged, nor any Part thereof, but are barred both at Law and in Equity; and all Bonds, Bills, Notes, or other Securities for Money, given or made in Consideration of any Debt or Demand, whereof the Particulars in Writing are not delivered as aforesaid, are, to all Intents and Purposes, null and void.

See the Act of the 35th of His present Majesty, for settling an Annuity on His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and other Purposes, Cap. 129. Sec. 32.

Tim. Brent, Secretary.

AS an Advertisement lately appeared in the London Gazette and Glasgow Newspapers, that a Bill was to be brought into Parliament, in the Course of the ensuing Session, for making a Canal from Riccarton Bridge, near Kilmarnock, to the Troon, upon the Firth of Clyde, in the County of Ayr, Notice is hereby given, that a Bill is at the same Time to be brought into Parliament for improving the Town of Kilmarnock in the said County of Ayr, by widening some of the old Streets and making new Streets within the said Town. Plans of which are lodged with Mr. Charles Shaw, Writer, in Ayr, Clerk of the Peace for the said County, for the Inspection of all concerned.

Whitehall, October 6, 1795.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of the 3d, or early in the Morning of the 4th of August last two Custom-House at Sittingbourne in the County of Sussex, was feloniously broke open by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, who removed the Dests of the Collector, and various other Officers belonging to the said Custom-House, and feloniously took and carried away out of the Desk of the said Collector the Sum of 40l.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Breach aforesaid, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

PORTLAND.

As a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

APPRENTICE DUTY INDEMNITY.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, May 16, 1795.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for Managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, That by a Clause in an Act of the present Session of Parliament, it is enacted, for the Relief of all Persons who have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given, paid or contracted for, with Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, and also who have omitted to insert and write in Words at Length in Indentures or other Writings relating to the Service of any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or contracted for, with or in relation to every such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, that upon Payment of double the Rates and Duties upon the Monies, or such Part of the Monies, so omitted or neglected to be paid, and also so omitted to be inserted and written in such Indenture or Writing, on or before the 19th Day of December next, to the proper Officer, and tendering the same to be stamped at this Office, every such Indenture or other Writing shall be good and valid, and the Persons so offending be excused from any Penalty incurred by the Omission thereof; except those against whom any Prosecution shall be now depending.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Brettell, Secretary.
