WHEREAS it hath been represented to Us, That, immediately before the Opening of the present Session of Parliament, a great Number of Persons were collected in Fields in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, by Advertisements and Hand-Bills, and that divers inflammatory Discourses were delivered to the Persons so collected, and divers Proceedings were had, tending to create groundless Jealousy and Discontent, and to endanger the Publick Peace, and the Quiet and Safety of Our faithful Subjects: And whereas it hath been also represented to Us, That divers seditious and treasonable Papers have been lately distributed, tending to excite evil-disposed Persons to Acts endangering Our Royal Person: And whereas such Proceedings have been followed, on the Day on which the present Session of Parliament commenced, by Acts of Tumult and Violence, and by daring and highly criminal Outrages, in direct Violation of the Publick Peace, to the immediate Danger of Our Royal Person, and to the Interruption of Our Passage to and from Our Parliament: And whereas great Uncasiness and Anxiety hath been produced in the Minds of Our faithful Subjects, by Rumours and Apprehensions that seditious and unlawful Assemblies are intended to be held by evil-disposed Persons, and that such other criminal Practices as aforesaid are intended to be repeated: We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to use the utmost Diligence to discourage, prevent, and suppress all seditious and unlawful Assemblies: And We do specially enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, who shall have Cause to suspect that any such Assemblies are intended to be held in any Part of Our Kingdom, to give the earliest Information thereof to

St. James's November 6.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, with the following Address: Which was read by Sir John William Rose, the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the most affectionate Sentiments of Veneration and Respect, to express our Horror and Indignation at the most daring Assault and flagitious Outrage offered to your Majesty in your Majesty's Passage to and from your Parliament, at the Moment of your Majesty's exercising the sacred Duties of the Crown, and fulfilling your Part of our most excellent Constitution.

Gratefully as we enjoy every Blessing derived to us in common with our fellow freeborn Subjects from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we are unable, in adequate Terms, to express our Concern that a Peril has arrived when any Person within your Majesty's Dominions should be found so daringly wicked as to hazard, by such atrocious Violence, the Safety of your Royal Person, and therein the Happiness of a whole Country.

It is, therefore, with the most profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Events that we have to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from such traitorous Attacks, dangerous at once to the Public Tranquillity, and in Violation of the glorious Constitution, or which your Majesty forms so important a Part.

Permit us, Sire, to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for your gracious Intention to give us the fullest and speediest Line to a Negotiation for a general Peace on just and suitable Terms, whenever an Order of Things shall arise in France compatible with the Tranquillity of other Countries, and affording a reasonable Expectation of Security and Permanency in a Treaty to be concluded.

Convinced as your Majesty's faithful and loyal Citizens of London are that nothing will be so likely to bring about such a Peace as firm and vigorous Measures in the Prosecution of the War, we feel it not more our bounden Duty than our steady Determination to contribute every Thing in our Power to that desirable End, and to support your Majesty's sacred Person and Government inviolate from all your foreign and Domestic Enemies.

Signed by Order of Court,

R I X.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this recent Proof of the uniform Affection and Attachment which has been for me by My faithful City of London. The Persuasion that the Sentiments you have expressed on this Occasion are in common with the rest of My People, leaves Me only to regret, on My Part, the Outrage which has been committed against the Law and Constitution, for the Defence and maintenance of which you may always rely upon My utmost Exertions.

Your Determination to contribute every Thing in your Power to support the vigorous Exertions I am making for the Prosecution of the War, as affording the most effectual Means of enabling Me to conclude a just, honorable and permanent Peace, and your Assurance to support My Person and Government against all foreign and Domestic Enemies, cannot but be highly satisfactory to Me.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on Richard Glode, Esq; one of the Sheriffs.

St. James's, November 7.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, the Dean and Canons of your Majesty's Free Chapel of Saint George within your Castle of Windsor, beg Leave humbly to express to your Majesty our Concern and Indignation at the Outrage offered to your sacred Person in your late Progress to Parliament.

We trust your Majesty is convinced that no Subject of the British Empire, capable of appreciating your Majesty's Virtues, or calculating the Blessings derived to your People from your Government and Example, can be so blind to the Public Weal, so lost to his own Interest, as not to feel the utmost Abhorrence from the atrocious Transactions of that Day.

It would ill become us, Sirs, the Members of a Chapter, who enjoy the Opportunity of observing your Majesty's constant Discharge of every religious Duty, to neglect, for a Moment, to implore the Almighty for the Security of a Life so important to the Interests of Religion and Virtue; a Life, in which the private Happiness of your Majesty's Family, who have the justest Claim on our most dutiful and affectionate Attachment, is not more intimately involved, than the Welfare and Prosperity of a great and loyal People.

[Presented by the Dean and Chapter.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Masters of your Royal College of Eton, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence with our most sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late outrageous Attack on your most sacred Person.

Conscious of the many Blessings we enjoy, in common with all our Fellow Subjects, under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and more particularly sensible of your gracious Attention to this Seminary of Learning, we cannot reflect without the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation on the nefarious Attempts of such evil-minded Persons; presuming however to hope, that the same indulgent Providence, which has hitherto preserved a Life so dear to all good Subjects and good Men, will, in its abundant Kindness, continue to secure this Blessing to us, so essential to the real Welfare and Prosperity of these Kingdoms.

Dated in the College of Eton this 3d Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Town-Clerk of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Town-Clerk of the Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, beg Leave to approach your Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our unsigned and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's most sacred Person, the Author and Abettor of which we devoutly hope will meet that Punishment so justly due to their Crime.

We fervently hope that your Majesty may enjoy a long, prosperous and happy Reign in the Affections of a free and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Guildhall within the same Borough, the 3d Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Rob. Blunt, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Reading.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Reading, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our warmest Congratulations on your late Escape from the violent and atrocious Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person by some of the most unprincipled of your factious and deluded Subjects.

Permit us at the same Time to express, in the strongest Terms, our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence of the Conduct of those Men who either joined in or were privy to this Insult; the Heinousness of which, (were it capable of Aggravation) was increased by its being committed at a Time when your Majesty was in the Exercise of that Part of your Royal Function, which it is the peculiar Happiness of Englishmen to witness and boast of, that of meeting the Two other Branches of the Legislature in Parliament.

That the Almighty King of Kings may continue to be your Defence against all your open and secret Enemies; that He may not only protect your Person, but direct and bless your Counsels, so that, during the Remainder of your Reign (which we ardently wish may be long and happy) we may have nothing to dread either from Foreign or Domestic Foes, is the fervent and earnest Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Presented by Francis Annesley and Richard Aldworth Neville, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Light Horse Volunteers of the Cities of London and Westminster, who have been permitted to unite to the Characters which we respectively hold in Civil Life, a Military One, in Defence of your Majesty and in Support of Order and good Government, cannot refrain from expressing our Grief and Indignation at the Violence recently offered to your sacred Person, and our Abhorrence of the Principles by which it was instigated. We most humbly congratulate your Majesty, and are thankful to Almighty God for the Preservation of a Life, on which the Safety and Happiness of these Realms, and, in the present Crisis, the Welfare of all Europe, materially depend.

We cannot help considering this outrageous Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person as an Attack not only on the Person of our King, but, through him, upon the Constitution of our Country; not only upon the Monarch on the Throne, but on the Monarchy itself. Your Majesty may therefore rely that your Subjects will stand forth in your Defence not only with all the Zeal and Attachment which your Majesty's personal Character and many Virtues must inspire, but also with all that Energy and Determination which valiant Britons will at all Times stand forward in Defence of the Constitution of their Country.

It will always be our Pride to take an active Part in maintaining the Laws which protect our Fellow-Subjects, and in defending your Majesty's Life and Dignity against the seditious and treasonable Combinations of those, who, by insidious Pretences, endeavour to delude your Subjects into Acts as detestable in themselves as they are unworthy of a brave and honorable People.

Dated at London, November 3, 1795.

Signed, by Order of the Corps,
Thomas Rowcroft,
Chairman of the General Meeting,
[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Herries.]
