P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent MAJESTY,

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,

His Royal Highness the Duke of York,

Lord Chancellor,

Lord President,

Lord Privy Seal,

Duke of Portland,

Lord Chamberlain,

Baron of Westmorland,

Earl of Jersey,

Earl Spencer,

Lord Grenville,

Lord Onslow,

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer,

Mr. Vice Chamberlain,

Mr. Villiers,

Field Marshal Sir George Howard,

Master of the Rolls,

Mr. Secretary Dundas.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS on the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant Month of October, divers Persons, riotously assembled and stationed in different Places in Our City of Westminster, proceeded to commit certain daring and highly criminal Outrages, in gross Violation of the Publick Peace, to the actual Danger of Our Royal Person, and to the Interruption of Our Passage to and from Our Parliament; We, therefore, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, in pursuance of an Address from Our Two Houses of Parliament, do hereby enjoin all Magistrates, and all other Our loving Subjects, to use their utmost Endeavours to discover and cause to be apprehended the Authors, Actors and Abettors concerned in such Outrages, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law: And We do hereby promise, That any Person or Persons, other than those actually concerned in doing any Act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give Information, so as that any of the Authors, Actors or Abettors concerned in such Outrages, as aforesaid, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, shall receive a Reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, to be paid on Conviction of every such Offender; which said Sum of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly. And We do further promise, that any Person or Persons concerned in such Outrages as aforesaid, other than such as were actually concerned in any Act by which Our Royal Person was immediately endangered, who shall give

Information

Information, so as that any of such Authors, Actors or Abettors as aforesaid shall be apprehended and brought to Justice, shall, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, receive Our most gracious Pardon.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Thirty-first Day of October, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to Us, That, immediately before the Opening of the present Session of Parliament, a great Number of Persons were collected in Fields in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, by Advertisements and Hand-Bills, and that divers inflammatory Discourses were delivered to the Persons so collected, and divers Proceedings were had, tending to create groundless Jealousy and Discontent, and to endanger the Publick Peace, and the Quiet and Safety of Our faithful Subjects: And whereas it hath been also represented to Us, That divers seditious and treasonable Papers have been lately distributed, tending to excite evil-disposed Persons to Acts endangering Our Royal Person: And whereas such Proceedings have been followed, on the Day on which the present Session of Parliament commenced, by Acts of Tumult and Violence, and by daring and highly criminal Outrages, in direct Violation of the Publick Peace, to the immediate Danger of Our Royal Person, and to the Interruption of Our Passage to and from Our Parliament: And whereas great Uneasiness and Anxiety hath been produced in the Minds of Our faithful Subjects, by Rumours and Apprehensions that seditious and unlawful Assemblies are intended to be held by evil-disposed Persons, and that such other criminal Practices as aforesaid are intended to be repeated: We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to use the utmost Diligence to discourage, prevent, and suppress all seditious and unlawful Assemblies: And We do specially enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, who shall have Cause to suspect that any such Assemblies are intended to be held in any Part of Our Kingdom, to give the earliest Information thereof to the Magistrates of the several Districts within which it shall be suspected that the same are intended to be held; and if such Assemblies shall, nevertheless, in any Case, be actually held, to be aiding and assisting, on being required thereto by the Civil Magistrate, in causing Persons delivering inflammatory Discourses in such Assemblies, and other principal Actors therein, to be forthwith apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law. And We have also thought fit, by and with the Advice aforesaid, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to be in like Manner aiding and assisting in bringing to Justice all Persons distributing such seditious and treasonable Papers as aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fourth Day of November, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th of November, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirteenth of March, 1793, an Embargo was laid on all Ships or Vessels laden or to be laden in any of the Ports of Great Britain, with Salted Provisions of any Kind whatsoever, and also upon all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden with Butter and Cheese, Pease, Beans, Rice, Hay, Straw, or Forage of any Kind whatsoever, and with Hides or Leather manufactured or unmanufactured; and it was ordered that the said Embargo should continue and remain upon all such Ships and Vessels until further Order; but it was by the said Order declared to be His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Embargo should not extend (amongst other Things) to any Ships or Vessels, being British Ships and Vessels, navigated according to Law, which may be employed in carrying any of the said Articles above-mentioned to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majesty: And whereas His Majesty judges it expedient to prohibit the carrying any such Articles of Provision as aforesaid to Countries in Amity with His Majesty, it is hereby ordered, that notwithstanding any Thing in the said Order of the Thirteenth of March, 1793, contained to the contrary, the said Embargo shall, from and after the Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, extend extend to all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, laden or to be laden in any of the Ports of Great Britain with Salted Provisions of any Kind whatsoever, or with Butter, Cheese, Hay, Straw or Forage of any Kind whatsoever, and which Ships or Vessels shall be employed in carrying any of the Articles above-mentioned to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majesty. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th of November, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 6th of May last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pot-Ash or Pearl-Ash (except as in the said Order is mentioned) will expire upon the 7th Day of this instant November: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months from the 7th Day of this instant November, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any Pot-Ash or Pearl-Ash, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

London, November 10.

On Sunday last William Curtis, Esq; Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

Yesterday the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pennants, to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the new Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed; and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Friars, and from thence in Coaches, with the usual Solemnity, to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present His Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, several of the Foreign Ministers, the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, the Judges; and many other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

St. James's, November 10.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, have heard, with Abhorrence and Indignation, of the late traitorous Attempt upon your Majesty's Life, and we eagerly embrace this Occasion humbly to approach your Majesty with reiterated Assurances of Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

When we contemplate the Calamity, which an Action so atrocious might have produced, we are naturally led to reflect, with increasing Gratitude, upon the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Dominion; and those Ties of Loyalty, of Duty, and of Affection, which bind us to your Majesty, are thereby rendered, if possible, more sacred and indissoluble.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; that the wicked Designs of your Majesty's Enemies, Foreign and Domestic, may prove abortive; and that Punishment and Disgrace may be the Lot of the Guilty, is the earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed, in Presence and by Appointment of the said Magistrates and Council, and the Common Seal of the said City is appointed to be hereto affixed, by me, the said Lord Provost, at Glasgow, the 4th Day of November, 1795 Years.

John Dunlop, Provost.

St. James's, November 10.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, by James Furlong, Esq; Moderator, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Glasgow, firmly attached to our excellent Constitution, and full of Gratitude to Almighty God for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty on the present affecting Occasion. While we lament that any of your Majesty's Subjects should have been so wicked as to make the late daring and atrocious Assault on your Majesty's sacred Person, we congratulate your Majesty on the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence, in delivering you from imminent Danger.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may continue to protect your Majesty; that your

Reign may be long and prosperous over a free, loyal and happy People; and that He may afterwards receive you into his heavenly Kingdom and Glory, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in the Presbytery of Glasgow.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by our Appointment, at Glasgow, the 5th of November, 1795, by James Furlong, Moderator.

Dublin Castle, November 5.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, in the Morning the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower; at Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; after which his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a Squadron of Horse, went in Procession round the Statue of King William. On his Excellency's Return to the Castle the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in College Green. And at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy.
