Downing-Street, November 11, 1795.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received from Lieutenant-Colonel Craufurd by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Head Quarters, Weilmunster, Oct. 18, 1795.

My Lord,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that since the 13th Instant the advanced Guards of the Austrian Army, under Generals Boros, Kray and Haddick, have been in constant Pursuit of the Enemy on all the Roads leading across the Lahn between Weilburgh and Nassau. General Warneck with the Reserve marched towards Limbourg, as a central Point, from which he could support the advanced Guards to his Right or Left, according to Circumstances, whilst the main Army advanced to the Camp of Weilmunster, between Usingen and Weilbourg, ready to cross the Lahn at the latter Place, and attack the Enemy's Left if they should attempt to maintain a Position on that River.

The Marshal has taken every Step that he judged best calculated to distress their Army, but their Retreat has been so precipitate, and the Country through which they marched so extremely intersted with Woods and deep Vallies, that he has only been able to bring on some Affairs with the best Troops of the Rear Guards of their different Columns. In these the Austrians have taken several Cannon, a great many Ammunition Waggons, and between One and Two Thousand Prisoners, besides having killed and wounded considerable Numbers.

[Price Four-pence Halfpenny.]

It is expected that the Enemy will raise the Siege of Ehrenbreitstein To-day, and they seem determined to pass the Rhine, with the principal Part of their Army, at Neuwied, (where they have Bridges) as expeditiously as possible. Their Left Column is directing it's March towards Cologne.

The Austrian advanced Guards, supported by the Reserve, are still in Pursuit.

The Enemy have destroyed a great Quantity of Powder and other Stores, which they had not Time to send away,

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. CRAUFURD.
