WHEREAS it hath been represented to Us, That, immediately before the Opening of the present Session of Parliament, a great Number of Persons were collected in Fields in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, by Advertisements and Hand-Bills, and that divers inflammatory Discourses were delivered to the Persons so collected, and divers Proceedings were had, tending to create groundless Jealousy and Discontent, and to endanger the Publick Peace, and the Quiet and Safety of Our faithful Subjects: And whereas it hath been also represented to Us, That divers seditious and treasonable Papers have been lately distributed, tending to excite evil-disposed Persons to Acts endangering Our Royal Person: And whereas such Proceedings have been followed, on the Day on which the present Session of Parliament commenced, by Acts of Tumult and Violence, and by daring and highly criminal Outrages, in direct Violation of the Publick Peace, to the immediate Danger of Our Royal Person, and to the Interruption of Our Passage to and from Our Parliament: And whereas great Uneasiness and Anxiety hath been produced in the Minds of Our faithful Subjects, by Rumours and Apprehensions that seditious and unlawful Assemblies are intended to be held by evil-disposed Persons, and that such other criminal Practices as aforesaid are intended to be repeated: We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to use the utmost Diligence to discourage, prevent, and suppress all seditious and unlawful Assemblies: And We do specially enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, who shall have Cause to suspect that any such Assemblies are intended to be held in any Part of Our Kingdom, to give the earliest Information thereof to the Magistrates of the several Districts within which it shall be suspected that the same are intended to be held; and if such Assemblies shall, nevertheless, in any Case, be actually held, to be aiding and assisting, on being required thereto by the Civil Magistrate, in causing Persons delivering inflammatory Discourses in such Assemblies, and other principal Actors therein, to be forthwith apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law. And We have also thought fit, by and with the Advice aforesaid, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to be in like Manner aiding and assisting in bringing to Justice all Persons distributing such seditious and treasonable Papers as aforesaid.

St. James's, November 14.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of the City of London, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of London, deeply interested in the Preservation of social Order, feel it their Duty at this Time to approach the Throne to express their Concern, Indignation and Abhorrence at the Outrages which were committed on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament, by which your Majesty's Royal Person became exposed to Insult, and even to Danger, and the Freedom of Parliament was grossly violated.

Sire, the Affection which all true-hearted Britons entertain for your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, manifested by their faithful Attachment under every Vicissitude of public Affairs, has hitherto added Lustre to the national Character.

The Merchants, Bankers, Traders and other Inhabitants of London upon a former Occasion in the most solemn Manner pledged themselves to the Support of the excellent Constitution of these Realms, and made a public Declaration that they would stand united in its Defence; their subsequent Conduct has testified to the World their firm Adherence to the Tenor of that Declaration. They beseech your Majesty that you will be pleased now to receive the Repetition of their Assurance that they will by their Example promote Obedience to the Laws; that they will uphold and maintain the Constitution of these Realms, established as it is in King, Lords and Commons; and that they will on every Occasion support and defend your Majesty's Royal Person and Authority.

It is their firm Reliance that in Sentiment and in Conduct the great Body of your Majesty's Subjects throughout the united Kingdoms will fully coincide; that such an Unanimity must secure the public Tranquillity, and will best enable your Majesty to effectuate your Majesty's declared Intentions of obtaining for your People the Blessings of such a Peace as will be consistent with the Glory, the Interests and the Safety of the Nation.

[Presented by Sir Richard Neave, Bart. Beeston Long, Esq; P. J. Thelluson, Esq; E. Forster, Esq; Alexander Aubert, and D. Giles, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants and Visitors of the City of Bath, impressed with the most lively Sense of the Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty on your late providential Escape from Assassination

Affassination, to testify our Abhorrence of the treasonable Outrage made on your sacred Person, and to express our firm Resolution to maintain and support with our Lives and Fortunes our free and happy Constitution.

We conceive, Sir, that if any Thing can aggravate the Crime we now deplore, it is the Perpetration of it during your Majesty's Progress to exercise the greatest of your regal Functions, the Meeting of your Parliament: The Attempt was the more audacious as it meant to controul the Proceedings of the grand Council of the Nation: Such a flagrant Violation of the Public Peace we reprobate in the strongest Manner; with the sincerest Hopes that the Authors and Abettors of it will be brought to condign Punishment; and that through the Wisdom of your Parliament all seditious and tumultuous Meetings, tending evidently to Anarchy and Confusion, may, by salutary Laws, be effectually suppressed.

Contemplating the miserable State of France, we are firmly resolved to rally round your Majesty's Throne as the best Safeguard of our Religion, Property and Laws.

Warmly impressed with such Sentiments, which we are satisfied are the Sentiments of the People at large, we implore the Throne of Grace to continue, as it has hitherto done, to shed its saving Influence over your Royal Person, to inspire those who have dared to raise their Hands against it with deep Contrition for their Crime, and every Subject of the Realm with Love and Affection for your Majesty, and with Submission to the Laws.

[Presented by James Moore O'Donnell, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled, thus by our Duty compelled, acknowledge the divine Deliverance of your sacred Person from seditious Stratagem and audacious Tumult; an Event momentous to Reflexion and auspicious from its Consequence!

In the Fullness of Detestation your loyal Subjects advert to the Malignity of insulting Faction; and execrate the Desperation of infatuated Delusion: In the Exultation of Gratitude they contemplate the Blessing of your Majesty's Safety, and direct the Repose of their Confidence to the supreme Source of all Protection.

Long may your Majesty abide in Vindication of the British Constitution, and firm Unanimity give Exemption from Danger and Disquietude. Thus shall your gracious Exertions secure the Excellence of our sacred Establishment, frustrate the Attempts of insidious Combination, and confer the Prosperity of your Kingdoms, as the happy Recompence of steadfast Fidelity.

Given under our Common Seal the 6th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Weymouth and the Master of the Rolls, Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, humbly to express our Abhorrence and Indignation at the late daring Insult and outrageous Attempt on your Majesty's Royal Person.

We lament, with the deepest Concern, the Depravity and Wickedness of the Instigators and Promoters of such vile Measures, as well as the Folly of those misguided Persons, who are so far deluded as not only to overlook the solid Advantages they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, but seek and endeavour, by the most insidious Means, to alienate the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects from their Allegiance, and to overturn and destroy our happy Constitution.

We sincerely hope, that the Authors and Abettors of Crimes so atrocious will be speedily discovered and brought to condign Punishment, and that others may be thereby deterred from all similar Attempts.

That your Majesty may long, very long, reign in the Hearts of all your People, and in the Enjoyment of Health, Peace and Happiness, is the sincere Wish and earnest Prayer of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol.

[Presented by the Marquis of Worcester and the Right Hon. Lord Sheffield, Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, at a General Meeting assembled at the Sessions House for the said County, on Friday the 6th Day of November, 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, truly sensible of the inestimable Blessings we, in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it is with equal Sorrow and Indignation we perceive that there are any of our Fellow Subjects so lost to every Sentiment of Loyalty, Virtue and Religion, as to be capable of perpetrating the late atrocious Act of Violence against your Majesty's Royal Person.

As Magistrates intrusted with the Exercise of Civil Authority within this opulent County, we desire particularly to express upon this Occasion our Abhorrence and Detestation of that heinous Violation of the public Peace, and Defiance of all legal Government; and we humbly intreat your Majesty to believe, that we will, in our individual as well as in our collective Capacities, exert our utmost Endeavours to discover, and bring to Punishment, the Exciters and Actors in this most horrid and detestable Outrage: That we will use our utmost Vigilance to repress every Attempt to disturb the Public Peace, and to enforce a due Obedience to the Laws, and to protect, as far as we are or may be authorized by Law, the Persons and Properties of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects within our Jurisdiction.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,
W. Mainwaring, Chairman.

[Presented by William Mainwaring, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Middlesex.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, anxiously desire to assure your Majesty that we have received, with deep Concern and Indignation, the painful Intelligence of that Insult and Danger to which your Majesty has been most cruelly and most undeterredly exposed. We consider such atrocious Conduct as a melancholy Proof that no Extent of private or of public Worth can afford a full Security against the impious Excesses of Sedition and Treason. But we trust the Phrenzy of a Faction will not shake your Confidence in the Love of your People: We beseech your Majesty to form no unfavourable Inference, to our general Disgrace, from the Outrages of lawless and abandoned Individuals, Miscreants unworthy of the Name of British Subjects, disowned and detested by the Nation at large. We heartily deprecate from the English Character the Imputation of such guilty Deeds. Our general Prayers (we confidently affirm) are devoutly offered to the King of Kings for the long, very long, Continuance of your Majesty's just Power and bright Example upon the Throne of these Realms. As a Part, then, of that free and loyal Nation, in whose Hearts you reign, we earnestly intreat your Majesty, upon so alarming an Occasion, to believe and approve our Sense of Abhorrence and extreme Consternation at your Majesty's late Perils. Our Effusions of Gratitude for the Preservation of a Monarch so truly and so justly beloved; our ardent Wishes and vigilant Impatience to detect the mercenary Agents, and the still more criminal Abettors, of that horrid Design, which providentially has been defeated; and, finally, to accept our solemn Tender of Property and Life to defend the sacred Person of your Majesty and the glorious Constitution of our Country against every Enemy, whether open or secret, whether Foreign or Domestic.

[Presented by Sir John Mordaunt, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Tradesmen and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your happy and providential Escape from the late flagrant and daring Outrage offered to your Majesty's sacred Person, when proceeding to exercise the most solemn Act of Government, the Meeting of your Parliament on the great and important Interests of this Kingdom; and to express, in the most feeling Manner, our Indignation at an Attempt so manifestly tending to the Subversion of all Order in the State.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a happy and loyal People, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

[Presented by the Mayor and Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, in Common Council assembled, think it incumbent on us to express our Abhorrence of the late very alarming Attack made upon your Majesty's Person; an Attack which must have occasioned the greatest Concern in the Breast of every true Friend to your Majesty and the Constitution. Whilst, as dutiful and loyal Subjects, we offer our Congratulations upon your Majesty's Escape from personal Injury, we deem it a Part of the Duty we owe your Majesty, our Country, and ourselves, to beseech your Majesty to employ the most effectual Means to procure a speedy Termination of the present disastrous War; convinced, as we are, that under the Distresses of the Kingdom, the Blessings of Peace are essential to the Preservation and Permanence of our excellent Constitution, to the Happiness of your Majesty, and the Prosperity of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 4th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Rich. Metcalfe, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir W. M. Milner, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to express our utmost indignation and Abhorrence of the daring Outrages lately offered to your Majesty's Person, in your Majesty's Passage to and from Parliament, and our hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's Safety from Injury on this audacious and flagitious Behaviour towards your Royal Person. We beg Leave humbly to lay before your Majesty the earnest Wishes of us your faithful Subjects, that the Authors and Abettors of Crimes so atrocious may be discovered, and receive such Punishment as the Laws have wisely decreed; and also to add our sincere Prayers, that it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events ever to protect your Royal Person in all Safety, and that your Majesty may long reign over a People unanimous in every Effort for the Safety, Happiness and Glory of their beloved and revered Sovereign.

Given under our Common Seal, this 9th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Earl of Pembroke, High Steward of the City of New Sarum, accompanied by the Recorder and William Hussey, Esq; and the Hon. William Henry Bouverie, Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants and Common Council of your Majesty's antient and loyal Borough of Colchester in the County of Essex, in Common Hall assembled, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express our Abhorrence of the violent Outrage lately offered to your Royal Person by a wicked and deluded Mob, whose Insolence cannot be mitigated, unless we suppose it to have a Source in the restless and malicious Views of the known Enemies of our Country; but the less excusable, because, whilst it endangered your Royal Person, it was an Attempt not less dangerous to the Happiness of the whole Nation. Our Uneasiness is greatly augmented when we reflect that this atrocious Act was meditated in the Instant of discharging that high

high and important Function of assembling your Parliament, thereby violating the Privilege of Parliament itself. The uninterrupted Existence of which is indispensable to the Support of our Constitution, our Liberty and our Laws.

Our Concern for so extraordinary an Instance of Violence is still further heightened, scarcely conceiving it possible that the same Men, whose Endeavours were used to excite Tumult and Disorder, would have had the Audacity to disguise their Wickedness by a Pretence of seeking Peace.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, which we trust are equally felt by our Countrymen at large, we beg Leave humbly to offer our unfeigned Congratulations, that the Goodness of the Almighty happily interposed to protect your Majesty from your Enemies; assuring your Majesty, that our sincere Prayers are also offered that the Great Creator and Preserver of all Men will continue his Blessings by giving Safety to your Royal Person, inspiring those who have dared to raise their Hands against it with a due Sense of their Crimes, and a deep Contrition for the same, and every Subject of the Realm with that Affection for your Majesty, and Submission to your Government, absolutely necessary to maintain our Constitution in full Force, and the mutual Happiness of your Majesty and your Subjects.

Given under our Great Seal, at the Moothall in the said Borough, the 9th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by Sir George Jackson, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Bridgemasters and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Maidenhead, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Bridgemasters and Burgesses of your ancient Corporation of Maidenhead, with Impressions of grateful Remembrance for the happy Escape of your Majesty from the late violent and most daring Attack made on your Royal Person, humbly beg Leave to express our Indignation and Abhorrence of such atrocious Conduct, and we desire to join our sincere Congratulations to the general Voice of your loving Subjects.

That your Majesty may long enjoy, in uninterrupted Peace and Tranquillity, a Life so important to the Welfare and Happiness of us and all your Subjects, and that the choicest Blessings may ever attend your Family, is our fervent and earnest Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of your ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, humbly approach your Majesty with our heart-felt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from a Danger arising from a gross and violent Outrage to your Majesty's sacred Person, as well as to the Laws and Constitution of these Kingdoms. Impressed as we are with the strongest Sentiments of Duty and Attachment to your Majesty, and of Veneration for the Form of Government under which it is our Happiness to live, we cannot reflect on an Attempt so atrocious without Astonishment and Horror; but whilst we are truly thankful to the Supreme Disposer of Events that it has proved abortive, we are gratified by a thorough Conviction that it will be an Occasion of affording your Majesty the Satisfaction, the most congenial to your gracious and paternal Feelings, of receiving renewed and additional Proofs of the unshaken and unalterable Loyalty and Affection of all Classes of your Majesty's Subjects.

That it may please Heaven to preserve your Majesty and these Kingdoms from foreign Enemies and domestic Traitors, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, a loyal and grateful People, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal the 9th Day of November, in the Thirty sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of Council,

Samuel Adlam, Mayor.

[Presented by Joshua Smith, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Stratford upon Avon, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late outrageous and wicked Attempt against your sacred Person.

We feel so sensibly the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, and are so deeply impressed with the Benefits arising from our happy Constitution, that we cannot omit this Opportunity of humbly entreating your Majesty to take the most effectual Measures for bringing to condign Punishment the Authors and Abettors of the late impious Attack on your Majesty's Royal Person. And we further most humbly implore your Majesty, as the principal Means of maintaining the Blessings we enjoy, to suppress all seditious Societies and Clubs, which tend only to the Support of Irregularity and Disorder, and to the Subversion of your Majesty's good and gracious Government; and in this Hope we are satisfied we shall be seconded by all your Majesty's loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, this 6th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by his Grace the Duke of Dorset.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Volunteer Cavalry of the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and grateful Subjects, the Volunteer Cavalry of Gentlemen and Yeomen of the County of Surrey, have have heard, with Horror and Indignation, of the atrocious Attempt made by a Number of desperate Traitors on your Majesty's sacred Person. We congratulate ourselves and our Country on so great and providential a Deliverance. In the Preservation of your Royal Person we look for the Preservation of every Thing valuable to us as Englishmen, as Christians, and as Men. We know that your Majesty, far from being the Author of any Invasion of our Laws, has been uniformly the zealous and steady Guardian of our Rights and Liberties, Religious and Civil. We have but too much Reason to apprehend that this nefarious Attempt is one of the wicked Doctrines authoritatively taught and systematically embodied into a practical Scheme, in the Territories occupied by the Enemies of your Crown and Kingdom. The same Doctrines, with Associations formed to regulate, and Correspondences formed to spread them, have, with the most criminal Industry, been disseminated in several Parts of your Majesty's Dominions; and although we and a very great Majority of your Majesty's Subjects are totally averse to these Doctrines and Practices, yet we are not insensible to the Mischiefs which may arise from the Adoption of impious and traitorous Principles, even by a small Number of daring and desperate Men.

Conscious of the Value of Morality, Law and good Government, we have voluntarily, but under your Majesty's just Authority, been armed and arrayed to defend ourselves, our Families and Fellow Subjects against all Attempts to overturn social Order and our glorious Constitution. We here solemnly engage ourselves to your Majesty, and to one another, that we shall employ our Arms with Zeal and Firmness, if unhappily we should be compelled to resort to them, against all such sacrilegious Assassins, and all their Counsellors, Abettors and Encouragers.

Sir, your Majesty's Magnanimity, and your just Confidence in the Affections of the incomparably greater Part of your happy and grateful Subjects, have perhaps neglected too much some of those prudent Precautions which have been used by great Personages on whose Lives the Felicity of Nations has depended; but we trust that the same Principle of Love to your People, which has been the Characteristic of your Majesty's Government, will induce your Majesty to attend to the Wishes of your faithful Subjects in guarding against the malignant Phrenzy of some desperately wicked Persons, from the Intermixture of whom the best disposed People can never promise themselves to be wholly free, nor the best conducted Governments wholly secure; and we pour forth our ardent Prayers to that Omnipotent Being by whom Kings reign, that He will long preserve your Majesty in perfect Satisfaction, Security and Honour, to diffuse Happiness over a People who shall shew themselves deserving to be ruled by such a Sovereign.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Lord Leslie.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, comprizing the Shropshire Troop of Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry, being impressed with the most zealous and affectionate Regard for your Majesty, and feeling the utmost Abhorrence at the late most daring and wicked Attack upon your Majesty's Person, beg Leave to offer this our humble Address to express the Satisfaction we feel at your Majesty's happy and providential Deliverance, and at the same Time to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to step forward with our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majesty, and in Defence of the Laws and Constitution under which we so happily live.

[Presented by Captain Cladde.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Sixth Western Division of Somerset Yeomen Cavalry, who have united to the Character which we hold in Civil Life a Military one in the Defence of your Majesty, in Support of Order and good Government, cannot refrain from expressing our Indignation at the Insult lately offered to your Sacred Person, and most humbly congratulate your Majesty, and are thankful to Almighty God for the Preservation of a Life on which the Safety and Happiness of these Realms, and the Preservation of our Constitution depend: We shall ever be ready to fight in Defence of your Majesty as Part of that Constitution, and trust that Providence will ever continue to protect your Majesty's Sacred Person.

[Presented by Major Somerville.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of East Lothian, in our General adjourned Sessions assembled, BEG Leave to express to your Majesty our Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring Outrages offered to your Majesty's sacred Person, when meeting your Parliament. It is with the utmost Concern we find that there are Persons within your Majesty's Dominions so insensible to the Happiness of our Constitution, and to the Mildness of your Majesty's Government, as to be guilty of so atrocious and flagitious an Attempt. While with unfeigned Loyalty we congratulate your Majesty and your People on your providential Escape, we beg Leave to express our Gratitude to Almighty God, the wise Disposer of Events, for mercifully shielding and protecting your sacred Person, and preserving a Life so dear to us in the Hour of Danger. Permit us also to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times feel it our Duty and our Inclination, by every Exertion in our Power, to defend your sacred Person, and to support our Constitutional Government; and we trust that your Majesty, with the Advice of your Parliament, will adopt such Measures as will effectually insure and preserve Peace and good Order over the Whole of your Majesty's Dominions.

Signed in the Presence and by Order of the Meeting. TWEEDALE, Prefes.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and loyal Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, in Conjunction with

with the universal Voice of an affectionate People, with Sentiments of the most unshaken Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and with our sincere and heart-felt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late most atrocious and violent Outrage offered to your Majesty's sacred Person, as well as to the Laws and Constitution of these Kingdoms; an Outrage which we cannot reflect upon without the utmost Horror and Astonishment. Thankful as we are to Divine Providence that such a daring Attempt has proved abortive, we are gratified by the Conviction that it will afford your Majesty the Satisfaction of receiving additional Proofs of the unalterable Loyalty, Affection and Attachment of every Class of your Majesty's Subjects to your Majesty's Person and Government.

That Heaven may preserve your Majesty and these Kingdoms from foreign Enemies and domestic Traitors, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, loyal and grateful People, are the sincere and fervent Prayers of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough, Town and Manor of Bideford, in the County of Devon, and it's Neighbourhood.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough, Town and Manor of Bideford, in the County of Devon, and it's Neighbourhood, beg Leave to offer our most heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Preservation from the daring Attack of wicked and misguided Men, and thankfully to acknowledge the signal Providence of God in frustrating their Attempts; and at the same Time to declare our Detestation and Abhorrence of those villainous and atrocious Designs which were formed against your sacred Person.

And we also take this Occasion to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, which we will defend with our utmost Power, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, against all your Enemies, foreign or domestic.

Guildhall, Bideford, Nov. 5, 1795.

[Presented by J. Clewiana, Esq;]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Chancellor, Rector, Principals and Masters of the University of St. Andrew's, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's Deliverance from a late alarming Danger.

We feel the highest Indignation at the violent Outrage committed against your Majesty's sacred Person, and the daring Insult thereby offered to the supreme Legislative Authority of these Kingdoms. When we reflect that the Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, the Administration of your Government, and the Example of your amiable Virtues, have constantly and harmoniously united to secure the Prosperity and Happiness of all your Subjects, we are filled with Astonishment that any Persons should be found so lost to all Sense of Virtue, and so ungrateful for the inestimable Blessings they enjoy, as to conceive the atrocious Design, which, by a gracious Interposition of Divine Providence, was happily defeated.

Entrusted as we are with the important Charge of directing the Education of Youth, it shall, at all Times, be our Study and Endeavour to instil into the Minds of those committed to our Care such Sentiments of Loyalty to the best of Sovereigns, and such a Veneration for our happy Constitution, as, by the Blessing of God, may prove instrumental in disseminating over this Part of your Majesty's Dominions a just Abhorrence of all Sedition and Conspiracy, and an unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment,
by Henry Dundas, Chancellor.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the East Riding of the County of York, assembled in Common Council the 4th Day of November, 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impressed with Gratitude for the invaluable Blessings we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of Beverley, cannot forbear to express our Grief and Indignation at the late daring and felonious Attack on your Majesty in that Exercise of your Royal Function which forms so essential a Part of our happy Constitution.

Permit us, however, Sire, to offer our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your providential Escape from the Violence and Outrage of a misguided Populace.

Anxious as we must feel for the Safety of your Majesty, on which the Welfare of your People so much depends, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty we shall ever most strenuously support and defend your Person and Government; and that it is our most fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may long continue to be the Object of the Divine Favour and Protection.

St. James's, November 14.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Heretors of the County of Fife, in a General Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Heretors of the County of Fife, deeply impressed with a just Sense of the Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's benign Reign, humbly approach the Throne to express, in the strongest Manner, our Indignation at the late diabolical Attempts of a profligate and lawless Zanditti against your Majesty's Person.

We sincerely congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from personal Injury; an Escape in which your Majesty's Dominions at large are so deeply interested; and we cordially sympathize in those Feelings which must have arisen in your Majesty's Breast upon your meeting with so foul and unmerited an Attack.

We pledge ourselves to support the Legislature as far as our Situation will admit; and we trust that those Means, which our excellent Constitution has provided, will be exerted with Vigour for the Purpose of bringing the Offenders to speedy Justice.

We humbly and sincerely hope that both Houses of Parliament will take into their most serious Consideration, and use what Methods may seem to them in their Wisdom fit for suppressing those daring and illegal Meetings so frequently held of late in and around the Metropolis, which can tend to no Good, moral or political; but, on the contrary, originate from the base Machinations of a few designing Men, who, having nothing to lose, and little to fear, mean, by imposing upon the Ignorance of the lowest Orders of your Majesty's People, to subvert all regular Government, and to prey upon the Property of the more respectable Classes of your Majesty's Subjects.

Signed, in Name and by Appointment of the said General Meeting, by MORTON, Præses.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Morton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, humbly request Permission to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Escape from the daring Outrages offered to your Person.

We deeply regret, that neither the Comforts which all your Subjects experience from your just and mild Government, nor the exalted Virtues which adorn your private Character, have sufficient Power to disarm the lawless Assassin; but we devoutly pray and firmly trust, that the same Almighty Being, who has hitherto, in several Instances, preserved you from the wicked Attempts of your Enemies, will still frustrate all their evil Designs, and continue to shield you with his Divine Protection. And we sincerely hope that the Measures adopted by your Majesty for the Discovery of the Offenders will be the Means of bringing them to condign Punishment.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Minister and Inhabitants of the Parish of St. Mary Magdalen, in the Town of Launceston, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to present our very sincere Congratulations on your happy Escape from the late most atrocious Act of Violence and Outrage levelled at your sacred Person.

We want Words to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the villainous Authors and Abettors of it. It is our most ardent Prayer, that the same protecting Hand of Providence may attend your Majesty through every succeeding Period of your Reign, and that you may long live to be (what you have hitherto been) a Blessing to the Nation over which you preside.

And, as Peace appears to us to be essentially necessary to the Well-being of the Kingdom, in general, we rely on the Goodness of your Majesty's Heart, that you will embrace the first favorable Opportunity of effecting that desirable Event.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Taunton Loyal Volunteers, inrolled for the Purpose of assisting in the Defence of your Majesty's Dominions from Foreign Invasion or Internal Commotion, humbly request to express our sincere Abhorrence of the Principles which produced and the Persons who were guilty of the late daring and unprovoked Attack on your Majesty's Royal Person, equally to be detested as a most ungrateful Return to your Majesty's mild and beneficent Conduct in your high Office, and a most traitorous Breach of the Laws and Constitution of these Kingdoms. We most heartily congratulate your Majesty, and consider it as a Matter of Congratulation to the Nation at large, that your Majesty so happily escaped the threatened Danger; and earnestly pray, that, should your Majesty's Enemies dare in future to make any similar Attack, it may be as providentially averted. At the same Time we beg to assure your Majesty, that, as we have hitherto done every Thing in our Power towards the Preservation of Peace and good Order in this Neighbourhood, without adding any Thing to those heavy Expences in which the Pressure of Affairs must necessarily involve your Government, so (although we, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, ardently desire the Restoration of Peace in your Majesty's Dominions, yet) we will continue to use our utmost united Exertions in the Internal Defence of this Kingdom until a Peace can be obtained on so firm and solid a Basis as shall equally ensure the future Safety of your Majesty's Realms and the Honor of the British Name.

Signed, at the Request and on Behalf of the Corps, by Wm. Corfield, Major-Commandant.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corps of Royal Glasgow Volunteers.

SIR!

WITH the utmost Horror and Indignation the Royal Glasgow Volunteers have heard of the late atrocious Attack upon your Majesty's sacred Person.

Person. This daring Outrage they consider as the desperate Effort of a few infatuated Men, incapable of truly prizing those manifold Blessings which they might enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Care, and undeserving of the Rights and Privileges which are secured to them by those Laws they have violated, and by that Government which they have wickedly attempted to subvert.

Inspired with Sentiments of the most ardent Loyalty to your Majesty, and of the most determined Attachment to the Constitution, the Royal Glasgow Volunteers presume to assure your Majesty, that the Arms which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to confide to them are in the Hands of Men who are animated with one Spirit, and who feel themselves bound, by the sacred Principles of Honour and of Duty, to hazard Life and Fortune in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government.

That Almighty God may take your Majesty under His special Protection; that every Design hostile to your Majesty may prove abortive, and that merited Punishment may speedily overtake the Guilty, is the earnest Prayer of,

S I R E,

Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Private Gentlemen of the Royal Glasgow Volunteers.

Signed in the Presence of, and by Appointment of, the Corps, this 7th Day of November, 1795.

That your Majesty may long live to reign over a free, loyal and happy People, is our most earnest Prayer.
