WHEREAS it hath been represented to Us, That, immediately before the Opening of the present Session of Parliament, a great Number of Persons were collected in Fields in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, by Advertisements and Hand-Bills, and that divers inflammatory Discourses were delivered to the Persons so collected, and divers Proceedings were had, tending to create groundless Jealousy and Discontent, and to endanger the Publick Peace, and the Quiet and Safety of Our faithful Subjects: And whereas it hath been also represented to Us, That divers seditious and treasonable Papers have been lately distributed, tending to excite evil-disposed Persons to Acts endangering Our Royal Person: And whereas such Proceedings have been followed, on the Day on which the present Session of Parliament commenced, by Acts of Tumult and Violence, and by daring and highly criminal Outrages, in direct Violation of the Publick Peace, to the immediate Danger of Our Royal Person, and to the Interruption of Our Passage to and from Our Parliament: And whereas great Uneasiness and Anxiety hath been produced in the Minds of Our faithful Subjects, by Rumours and Apprehensions that seditious and unlawful Assemblies are intended to be held by evil-disposed Persons, and that such other criminal Practices as aforesaid are intended to be repeated: We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to use the utmost Diligence to discourage, prevent, and suppress all seditious and unlawful Assemblies: And We do specially enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, who shall have Cause to suspect that any such Assemblies are intended to be held in any Part of Our Kingdom, to give the earliest Information thereof to the Magistrates of the several Districts within which it shall be suspected that the same are intended to be held; and if such Assemblies shall, nevertheless, in any Case, be actually held, to be aiding and assisting, on being required thereto by the Civil Magistrate, in causing Persons delivering inflammatory Discourses in such Assemblies, and other principal Actors therein, to be forthwith apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law. And We have also thought fit, by and with the Advice aforesaid, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to be in like Manner aiding and assisting in bringing to Justice all Persons distributing such seditious and treasonable Papers as aforesaid.

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council.

IT is this Day ordered by their Lordships, that every Minister and Preacher, as well of the Established Church, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, as those of the Episcopal Communion, protected and allowed by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of Her late Majesty Queen Ann, Cap. 7. intituled, "An Act to prevent the disturbing those of the Episcopal Communion in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland in the Exercise of their religious Worship, and in the Use of the Liturgy of the Church of England, and for repealing the Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland, intituled, An Act against irregular Baptisms and Marriages," do, at some Time during the Exercise of the Divine Service in such respective Church, Congregation or Assembly, put up their Prayers and Thanksgivings to Almighty God for His late merciful Preservation of the King's Majesty from the daring Attempts against his Royal Person, as he passed to the Parliament House on Thursday the Twenty-ninth Day of October last.

St. James's, November 17.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Right Honorable the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh.

S I R E,

STRUCK with Astonishment, as we are, at the late audacious Insult committed on your Majesty's Person, which is, by our excellent Constitution, justly deemed sacred and inviolable, we now approach your Throne, eager to testify at once our Respect, our Esteem and Veneration for our beloved Sovereign, and the Detestation we feel of that sacrilegious Attempt which has been made on your Person and Authority.

Abhorrent, as we are, of the wicked but contemptible Hands who were the Instruments of that Insult, this Sentiment in our Breasts is feeble, when compared with the rooted Detestation we feel of those Men, unworthy of the Name of Britons, whose Principles and Doctrines, hostile to all good Government and civil Subordination, have a direct Tendency to inflame the Minds and poison the Felicity of a loyal, a well-affected, a free, and a most happy People. Of such it is our fervent Prayer that the malevolent Designs may ever be frustrated by the Wisdom of a good Providence and our own loyal and spirited Exertions.

Considering this nefarious Outrage as a Signal for all good Men to rally round that Constitution, thus attempted to be violated in the Person of it's First Magistrate, we devote, with true Patriotism, our Hearts, our Hands, our Property, and all we hold valuable as Members of Society, to the Preservation of that glorious Fabric, and, what we deem it's best Security, the Safety of your Majesty's life and the Maintenance of that Dignity and Respect justly annexed to your great Office.

And in this noble Purpose, Sire, it is our Pride and our Comfort to think that we speak not as Individuals, but utter the unanimous Sense of that large and respectable Community, the Metropolis of this Part of the united Kingdoms, whom we have the Honor to represent.

Signed and sealed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, this 6th Day of November, in the Year 1795.

James Stirling, Provost.

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the whole Gentlemen of the County and Town of Nairn, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, met this Day in Common Hall, finding it impossible to express in Words the Abhorrence and Indignation of our Feelings for the late Attack and Insult offered to your Royal Person, beg Leave thus to approach your Throne, and in the full Sincerity of Truth to assure your Majesty we are ready on all Occasions to support our glorious Constitution, and defend (in your sacred Person) our Father and King with our Lives and Property. We most fervently pray to Almighty God long to spare you to your People, in full Enjoyment of Health and Happiness.

Signed, in the Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, this 10th of November, 1795,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Ministers and Incorporated Societies of the Town of Leith, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most sincere Attachment.

We congratulate your Majesty on the providential Escape which your Majesty lately made from an audacious Attack on your Royal Person.

Entertaining a just Sense of the Respect due to the Office and to the Person of our most gracious Sovereign, and anxious for the Peace and Prosperity of the Nation, we deeply lament that there are Men, who, regardless of both, have wickedly dared to offer Violence to the best of Kings, who, during the Whole of his Reign, has shewed that the Welfare of his People is the Object nearest to his Heart.

Under these Impressions we trust that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to employ the most effectual effectual Means for bringing the Perpetrators of this atrocious Crime to an immediate and exemplary Punishment.

In supporting your Majesty in this and every Measure tending to maintain the Honour and advance the Happiness of the British Empire, your Majesty may rely on the Fidelity and Zeal of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed by the Magistrates, in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, the Seal of the Town being annexed, at Leith, the 7th of November, 1795.

*Rob. Strong, sen.
Alex. Shirriff.*

St. James's, November 17.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

At a Meeting of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, held upon the 12th of November, 1795, the Meeting unanimously voted the following Address to His Majesty, and authorised Charles Hay, Esq; Provost, to sign the same in his and in their Name, and thereafter transmit it to His Majesty's Secretary of State.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, entertaining the highest Veneration for the Virtues which distinguish your Majesty's sacred Person, and sensible of the Blessings which we enjoy under our present happy Constitution, felt the utmost Indignation from the disorderly and licentious Conduct of those who lately dared to offer such gross Insult and Violence towards your Majesty.

We beg Leave sincerely to congratulate your Majesty, that those Men, who have hitherto manifested themselves to be inimical to the Interests of our Country have been so strictly watched that all their wicked Attempts have been happily frustrated; and we hope that, instead of producing the mischievous Effects intended, such Attempts will only tend to unite the more firmly the Hearts of all good Men in repelling both foreign and domestic Enemies. As Britons, we deem it our Duty to come forward on this Occasion, and again publicly to declare our firm and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and our happy Constitution.

That your Majesty may long live happy, the Guardian of our Laws and the Father of your People, is the ardent Wish and Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar.

Cha. Hay, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the ancient City of St. Andrew's, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majesty's Escape from the Violence lately offered to your Royal Person. We heard of this wicked Attempt with the Indignation it deserves, and consider those concerned in it as unworthy of the Protection of that mild Government to which your Majesty has at all Times given such distinguished Support. By this unexampled Outrage the Enemies of our happy Constitution have given a fresh Proof of their being the Enemies of every Thing that is good, and add, if possible, to our Conviction, that the Continuance of your Majesty's invaluable Life forms the best Security for the Prosperity of the British Empire, and for the Happiness of all its Subjects.

Signed, in the Absence of the Earl of Breadalbane, our Lord Provost, by the Order and in the Presence of the Town Council.

St. Andrew's, November 12, 1795.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweedale, take the Opportunity of our meeting at this Time to address your Majesty, with all the Emotions of Loyalty and affection which the most dutiful Subjects owe to their beloved Sovereign.

We feel those Sentiments excited to an uncommon Degree, by the recent most audacious Attack on your Majesty's Person and Dignity, when proceeding to exercise one of the Prerogatives of the Crown, by opening a new Session of Parliament, the Frequency of whose Meetings is one of the greatest Privileges of the People, and one of the firmest Securities of their Liberties.

While, with heartfelt Gratitude to Almighty God, for his providential Care of your Majesty's precious Life, we render unto him our fervent Thanks, and, with the most unfeigned Joy, congratulate your Majesty on your Escape from such imminent Danger, we feel a just Abhorrence of that Spirit of Disloyalty and Seditious which leads Men to such atrocious Deeds.

We trust under God to that universal Love which your Majesty so deservedly possesses, and which must be raised, on this Occasion, to the highest Pitch in the Breasts of all your loyal Subjects, for the future Security of your Majesty's most precious Life: And we do assure your Majesty, that we shall continue unremitting in our Labours, among the People committed to our Care, to inculcate upon them such Principles of Religion and Loyalty, of Love to your sacred Person, and Attachment to the Constitution in Church and State, as may effectually guard them against all the Artifices of the Disloyal and Seditious.

That your Majesty may ever be under the peculiar Care of Almighty God; that He may ever guard your sacred Person from secret Machinations and open Violence; that He may be pleased to bless the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princesses of Wales; and that a Race of Kings descended from your Majesty may sway the Sceptre of these Lands to the latest Posterity, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful Subjects.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment,

Edinburgh, Nov. 11, 1795.

[Transmitted by the Lord Advocate.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Chesterfield in the County of Derby, with true Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and grateful Sense of the numerous Blessings we have uniformly enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and benevolent Government, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty on this special Occasion, to express our Detestation and Resentment of the Insult and Outrage recently offered to your Majesty on your Passage to and from your Parliament, when in the actual Exercise of your Majesty's Constitutional Powers, with the benevolent Intentions of effecting the Welfare and Prosperity of your People, as is evidently expressed in your Majesty's most gracious Speech on that Day delivered to both your Houses of Parliament.

We very feelingly lament that there exist Individuals amongst your Majesty's Subjects so abandoned as to cast off all Reverence and Respect for Human and Divine Laws, and Moral Duties: That there can be any Denomination of Subjects so insensible of the inestimable Blessings they daily experience from your Majesty's kind Protection and impartial Administration of the Laws of our most excellent Constitution, so blind to your Virtues and the Amiability of your Majesty's public and private Character, exhibits to us and to your good Subjects in general, the strongest Instance of their Ingratitude and Depravity.

At the same Time we humbly beg Leave to express our hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the Injuries offered to your sacred Person, and hope that your Majesty will bring to condign Punishment the Perpetrators and Abettors of Crimes so malignant and atrocious.

Signed by the Mayor, and given under the Common Seal of the Borough aforesaid, at the Council-House within the said Borough, the 11th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Alderney, assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the States of your Majesty's Island of Alderney, assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the highest Respect most humbly to express our Abhorrence and indignation at the daring Outrages lately offered to your sacred Person in your Majesty's Passage to and from your Parliament.

Enjoying, as we do, every Benefit under the mild and benignant Auspices of the British Constitution, we lament that a wicked and lawless Mob should have dared to commit so heinous an Infringement thereof; and we trust that the Authors and Abettors of these atrocious Crimes will be brought to condign and exemplary Punishments. At the same Time we offer to Almighty God our most sincere and fervent Thanks for his gracious Goodness in the Preservation of your Majesty's Person.

Forming a Part of your Majesty's hereditary Dominions, and by our Laws more immediately depending on your Royal Rule and Governance, we gratefully acknowledge, that, fostered by that paternal Regard, that warm and active Solitude, which your Majesty ever bears to all your Subjects, this Island continues increasing in Wealth, Population and Happiness; and in offering up our Prayers to the Supreme Disposer of Events for the Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, we devoutly add, that our ancient and unshaken Loyalty may be fully inherited by our latest Posterity.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty the Sentiments of Detestation and Abhorrence which the Accounts of the late daring Insults offered to your Majesty, when passing to and from Parliament, have excited in our Minds.

The well known Moderation and Equity of your Majesty's Government; the personal Virtues which adorn your Character; the unspeakable Advantages possessed by your Majesty's Subjects; the Protection of equal Laws; the mild Administration of Justice, public and private, with an Impartiality, perhaps, unequalled in any other Country, and certainly exceeded in none; the Enjoyment of every rational Liberty, sacred and civil, joined with Security in the Possession of every Right to all, without Exception, who keep within the Fence of the Laws; these Blessings, so substantial and so important, by which, through the Goodness of Providence, this Nation has long been distinguished, but never more eminently than during your Majesty's Reign, might, we should think, have ensured the present Generation from witnessing such an Outrage as reflects Dishonor on the Age and Country, and calls loud for the Interposition of Law.

It is with inexpressible Concern we observe, that, through the Infatuation of the Times, the very best Names, as those of Liberty and Virtue, are perverted into Charms for decoying the Ignorant, the Weak, and the Wicked, into Situations the Reverse of those which the Names were intended to express. By the bewitching Term Liberty, Men are ensnared into the vilest Despotism and Anarchy; and by the Word Virtue, as by a magical Spell, they are lured into Atheism and the utmost Atrocities of Guilt. Whilst we highly condemn, we most sincerely pity, the deluded Wretches themselves. It might have been thought, that before now, Time itself, considering the Events it has produced, would have wrought a Cure. May God himself dispel the strong Illusion; may He open the Eyes of the People, and restrain them from throwing away the Substance in Pursuit of the Shadow, and from being seduced by empty Names to overlook Things of the last Consequence.

That God may bless your Majesty with a long and prosperous Reign, than which nothing can conduce more to the Happiness of your People, to whom you have always proved a Father, is our most sincere and ardent Prayer.

Signed, in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Provost, Magistrates and City Council of Aberdeen, in Council convened, and the common City Seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 9th Day of November, in the Year 1795, by

George Mare, Provost.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Perth, in Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to express the great Detestation and Horror we feel at the late daring Insult offered to your Majesty's most sacred Person. We congratulate your Majesty on your providential Deliverance from the Attack of wicked and seditious Men, and embrace this Opportunity to declare our zealous Attachment to your Majesty's most sacred Person, and our firm Resolution to support the mild and equitable Government and Constitution under which we live.

The Happiness and Prosperity we have enjoyed since your Majesty ascended the Throne, calls forth our warmest Gratitude, and excites us earnestly to beseech the Almighty to prolong your Majesty's most valuable Life, and to grant that your Majesty and your most illustrious Family may long enjoy his choicest Blessings.

Signed, in Presence of the Council, at Perth, the 12th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Ayr.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient and loyal Burgh of Ayr, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most respectful and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to offer our sincerest Congratulations on the late Escape, so fortunate for the Nation, that your Majesty has experienced from the atrocious Attempts of a daring and profligate Band of Miscreants, which, whether stimulated by the abandoned Depravity of their own Dispositions, or set on by a wicked and disappointed Faction, we equally reprobate and deplore; and unite in our fervent Prayers to the Almighty, that you may long be preserved an incalculable Blessing to these Kingdoms.

We farther beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that having the fullest Confidence in your paternal Affection for your People, we submit with Cheerfulness to the unavoidable Difficulties incurred by the Prosecution of the present just and necessary War, under the firmest Reliance that your Majesty's Goodness will, at a proper Time, pursue such Measures as may procure us the Blessings of a permanent and honourable Peace.

Signed in our Presence, by Appointment, Ayr, Nov. 7, 1795. Chas. Macey, Provost.

[Transmitted by John Campbell, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING.

The humble Address of the University of Glasgow.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Vice-Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculties and Professors of your University of Glasgow, in Senate assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the providential Escape from the Danger to which your Royal Person was lately exposed in your Majesty's Passage to and from your Parliament, and to testify our Abhorrence of the traitorous Designs from which such an atrocious Attempt must have proceeded.

Though desperate and unprincipled Persons, regardless of the Good of Mankind, and Enemies of all Order and Peace, sometimes arise in every Country, yet we are convinced that your Majesty reigns in the Heart of your Subjects, and that there are very few among them who do not sincerely join with us in praying that your Majesty may long sway the Sceptre over a free and happy People.

It shall always be our earnest Study to train up the Youth entrusted to our Care in Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person, and in an inviolable Attachment to that happy and excellent Constitution of Government, under which we have long enjoyed the most important Blessings.

Done in Senate House this 9th Day of November, 1795, and subscribed, in our Name and by our Appointment, by

*Arch. Davidson, Vice-Chancellor.
Pat. Cumin, Clerk of Senate.*

St. James's, November 17.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, are anxious to be amongst the Foremost to express our Abhorrence of the daring Insults which have lately been offered to your Majesty and to the Laws.

We lament that, whilst all Orders of your People are in general fully sensible of and grateful for the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's Government, it should be in the Power of wicked, and desperate Men to raise Tumults, which endanger the Safety of your Royal Person, so intimately connected with the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects.

Impressed with this Sentiment, we earnestly hope that the Wisdom of Parliament will provide the Means of preventing for the future those seditious Meetings, which evidently lead to Acts of Tumult and Violence, and tend to lessen that Reverence and Affection which Englishmen feel for a free Constitution.

In the mean while we anxiously hope, that (under the Divine Providence) the unshaken Firmness of your Majesty, and the watchful Zeal of your faithful Subjects, will prevent a Repetition of the late atrocious Proceedings.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the 9th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Charles Townshend, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of St. Andrew's, met at St. Andrew's this 6th Day

Day of November, embrace the early Opportunity which our Meeting affords us of approaching the Throne with our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's Escape from a late imminent Danger.

Convinced that Subordination is essential to Liberty, we lament that a Spirit subversive of the British Constitution has appeared at this interesting Crisis in a daring Outrage against the established Government. We are filled with Astonishment that any Persons, who enjoy the many Blessings which your Majesty's benign Reign extends to all Orders of Subjects, should be capable of forming the atrocious Design by a direct Act of Treason against the sacred Person of their gracious Sovereign. And we bless the all-ruling Providence of God which interposed to defeat their desperate Wickedness, and in the Preservation of a Life dear to all good Men has given us a Pledge of the Continuance of our Prosperity.

That it may please Almighty God to keep your Majesty at all Times under his holy Protection; that your Majesty's unceasing Cares for their Welfare may ever be gratefully acknowledged by a free and happy People; and that Princes of the illustrious House of Hanover may to latest Ages sway with Felicity and Renown the British Sceptre, are the warmest Prayers of may, it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of St. Andrew's.

David Williamson, Moderator.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunfermline, beg Leave humbly to express those Sentiments of Affection which we feel for your Majesty's Person, and our Attachment to the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, which it is our earnest Prayer your Majesty may long continue to wear in the full Enjoyment of Health and Prosperity, to your own Glory and the Happiness of your People.

It was therefore with equal Regret and Indignation that we beheld the late wicked and atrocious Attack made on your Royal Person; a Deed which, in our Opinion, demands the most pointed Marks of Abhorrence from every Friend to the Government and Constitution of this Country. A Crime of such Magnitude will not, 'tis to be hoped, pass without it's Reward. The Orders your Majesty has been pleased to issue for discovering the Guilty will, we are persuaded, be attended with the desired Success, and the wretched Perpetrators receive that Punishment from the offended Laws of their Country which their Crime so justly merits.

We feel much Pleasure in receiving your Majesty's most gracious Assurance of your Desire to procure for your People the Blessings of a safe and honorable Peace. May your Majesty's Endeavours be crowned with Success, and may the Spirit of the Nation be exerted in seconding your Majesty's Measures for the Attainment of so desirable an Object.

Your Majesty's Recommendation to Parliament to take into their serious Consideration the present alarming Price of Provisions affords us great Satisfaction. We hope the Wisdom of Parliament will be employed in fully investigating the Source of this serious Evil, and in pointing out the proper Remedy, from an accurate and comprehensive View of a Subject, which in its Nature and Consequences must have the most interesting Effects on the Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty's Dominions.

Signed in Name and in Presence of the Town Council by

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Common Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Rutherglen, in Council assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty, and to offer our thankful Congratulation on your Majesty's providential Escape from the base and daring Outrages lately committed against your Majesty at the Meeting of Parliament.

We assure your Majesty that we bear the most unshaken and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and to our excellent Constitution, from which we and all your Majesty's Subjects enjoy the ineffable Blessings of complete Protection and Security in our Persons, and in our Rights and Liberties, Civil and Religious, under your Majesty's wise and just Government; that we view with Detestation and Abhorrence every Attempt to injure your Majesty's Person or to disturb your Government, and sincerely hope that the Offenders will be discovered and brought to that Punishment which their depraved and wicked Conduct merits; declaring it to be our firm Determination to abide by your Majesty's Person and Government upon all Occasions, and to support and protect the same to the utmost of our Power.

Signed by our Appointment, in our Name and Presence, by Robert Park, Esq; Provost of the said Burgh, this 7th Day of November, 1795 Years.

Robert Park.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Bridgnorth, humbly beg Leave to present our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the daring and black Attempts lately made upon your sacred Person.

Deeply sensible of the many Blessings which this Nation enjoys under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we heard with Horror and Astonishment that there were to be found in this favoured Country Wretches so vile and impious as to entertain evil Designs against the best of Princes. We earnestly hope, in common with all good Citizens, that the Measures your Majesty has seen fit to adopt for the Discovery of the Offenders will produce the desired Effect, that such abandoned Miscreants may be rooted out from amongst us.

At the same Time that we are truly thankful to the Almighty for his great Goodness in having hitherto preserved the valuable Life of our beloved Sovereign, we fervently pray, that He would mercifully continue to protect your Majesty from all secret Conspiracies and open Violence.

May your Majesty live long, very long, to reign over a grateful and affectionate People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeffes and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeffes and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude for your Majesty's providential Escape from the Violence and Fury of wicked and misguided Men.

We sincerely deplore the horrid Infatuation with which they appear to have been actuated, and we utterly detest and abhor, and will at all Times to the utmost of our Power resist, such atrocious Principles, as tend to subvert all Subordination and Government.

We do in the most solemn Manner assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Zeal and Attachment to your Person and Government, which we will defend, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, against all your Enemies, whether foreign or domestic. That the Crown of these Realms may long flourish on your Royal Head, and that the Blessings of a mild and auspicious Government may be perpetuated to a grateful and loyal People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Guildhall, Barnstaple, Nov. 4, 1795.

[Presented by John Cleveland and Willim Dewaynes, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, the Corporation and Inhabitants of the Town of Shrewsbury, being moved with Horror and Indignation at the atrocious Attempts lately made by the Emissaries of a detestable and traiterous Faction to violate the sacred Person of your Majesty, beg Leave to offer our sincere and cordial Congratulations to your Majesty on your recent Deliverance from their treasonable Assaults; and to express our unfeigned Gratitude to the Divine Providence, which hath preserved to us a Prince to whom his Subjects are equally attached by Duty, by Affection, and by Interest; and our earnest Wishes that Heaven may be pleased to continue for many Years to your faithful People the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and beneficent Government. And we solemnly assure your Majesty that we will, as much as in us lies, keep a watchful Eye upon the Proceedings of all Persons within the Sphere of our Observation, whom we may have Reason to suspect of Designs hostile to your Majesty's Person or Government, and hold ourselves ready, if necessary, to repress, Force by Force, and to resist, at the Risque of our Lives and Fortunes, all Attempts that may be made by wicked and malevolent Men against your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, or against the Peace of your loyal and faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of Newcastle upon Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of Newcastle upon Tyne, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late traiterous Outrage against your Royal Person. We behold, with Astonishment and Horror, the execrable Wickedness of Men, who, despising alike the Duties of Humanity, Allegiance, and Religion, have dared to lift their Hand against a Sovereign so eminently distinguished for every publick and private Virtue; and we thankfully acknowledge the Goodness of that gracious Providence which has hitherto preserved your Majesty's invaluable Life, and delivered us from the malicious Designs of the Enemies of our happy Constitution.

Permit us, Sire, to assure your Majesty, that we are deeply impressed with the most grateful Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Protection, which we earnestly pray may be continued to us through many Years of Happiness to your Majesty, and of Prosperity to the British Nation.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this 6th Day of November, 1795.

Rich. Chambers, Mayor.

[Presented by Charles Brandling, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Councilmen of the Town of Liverpool, (in special Council assembled) ever anxious for the Safety of your Majesty's Royal Person, and the Preservation of our glorious Constitution, feel ourselves called upon to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the wicked and traiterous Attack upon your Majesty's sacred Person, upon the Day you were graciously pleased so affectionately to express your Solicitude for the Happiness of your People, and the Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

We lament there should exist Characters so abandoned as to harbour even the slightest Wish or Inclination to violate the Person of a Sovereign, under whose mild and beneficent Reign his Subjects have enjoyed the Advantages of a Constitution the Boast of every enlightened Mind, and the Envy of surrounding Nations.

We most sincerely hope that the vile Authors and Perpetrators of this wicked Outrage will be consigned to the Punishment they so justly merit; and we early beseech the wise Disposer of all Events to protect your Majesty from any similar Attempts in future, and to grant you, Sire, many happy Years to be the Blessing of your Country, and the Father of your People.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of this Town of Liverpool to be hereunto affixed, the 7th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by Peter Baker, Esq; Mayor, attended by the Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Affiliats, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the ancient Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, beg Leave sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence in preserving your Majesty's Royal Person from a wicked and atrocious Assault, lately made by a daring Party of evil-minded and designing Men.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we, with the rest of our Fellow Subjects, enjoy under the Protection of your Majesty's Government, and warmly attached as we are to your Royal Person and Virtues, we most earnestly hope that the Measures, which your Majesty has directed to be taken, will effectually secure your sacred Person from such Outrages in future; and we most heartily join in earnest Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majesty may continue to reign with uninterrupted Felicity, in the Hearts of a faithful and affectionate People, to the utmost Extent of Years and Glory.

Given under our Common Seal, this 5th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Mr. Pitt.]

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen and Free Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, in Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen and Free Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the late most daring and infamous Attempt upon your Royal Person. We deeply lament that there are any People, however few, so lost to the Blessings this Country enjoys under your Majesty's mild and just Government; but this alarming Outrage and the Attempts to sow the Seeds of Sedition, which have been so notoriously practised, too plainly evince that there are such. We rely upon your Majesty's parental Care for the Safety and Happiness of your loyal Subjects that such Measures will be taken as may be deemed most adviseable to prevent a Repetition of this atrocious Attempt, and effectually to guard against the Evils we now so strongly deprecate. We beg Leave to repeat our Assurances, that we shall always feel most strongly interested in whatever concerns the Safety, Honour and Dignity of your Majesty, convinced that our own Happiness and that of our Posterity is implicated in them. We also, Sire, most solemnly declare it shall be our constant Prayer, that you may long reign over us, happy in continual Proofs of the Loyalty and Regard of your People, and that the World may see your Majesty has the Felicity of governing a People, justly sensible of the great Blessings they enjoy under their happy Constitution, and, above all others, affectionately attached to the Person of their Sovereign.
