WHEREAS it hath been represented to Us, That, immediately before the Opening of the present Session of Parliament, a great Number of Persons were collected in Fields in the Neighbourhood of the Metropolis, by Advertisements and Hand-Bills, and that divers inflammatory Discourses were delivered to the Persons so collected, and divers Proceedings were had, tending to create groundless Jealousy and Discontent, and to endanger the Publick Peace, and the Quiet and Safety of Our faithful Subjects: And whereas it hath been also represented to Us, That divers seditious and treasonable Papers have been lately distributed, tending to excite evil-disposed Persons to Acts endangering Our Royal Person: And whereas such Proceedings have been followed, on the Day on which the present Session of Parliament commenced, by Acts of Tumult and Violence, and by daring and highly criminal Outrages, in direct Violation of the Publick Peace, to the immediate Danger of Our Royal Person, and to the Interruption of Our Passage to and from Our Parliament: And whereas great Uneasiness and Anxiety hath been produced in the Minds of Our faithful Subjects, by Rumours and Apprehensions that seditious and unlawful Assemblies are intended to be held by evil-disposed Persons, and that such other criminal Practices as aforesaid are intended to be repeated: We, therefore, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to use the utmost Diligence to discourage, prevent, and suppress all seditious and unlawful Assemblies: And We do specially enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects, who shall have Cause to suspect that any such Assemblies are intended to be held in any Part of Our Kingdom, to give the earliest Information thereof to the Magistrates of the several Districts within which it shall be suspected that the same are intended to be held; and if such Assemblies shall, nevertheless, in any Case, be actually held, to be aiding and assisting, on being required thereto by the Civil Magistrate, in causing Persons delivering inflammatory Discourses in such Assemblies, and other principal Actors therein, to be forthwith apprehended, in order that they may be dealt with according to Law. And We have also thought fit, by and with the Advice aforesaid, to enjoin and require, and We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects throughout Our Kingdom, to be in like Manner aiding and assisting in bringing to Justice all Persons distributing such seditious and treasonable Papers as aforesaid.

G O D save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 4th of November, 1795.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the Thirteenth of March, 1793, an Embargo was laid on all Ships or Vessels laden or to be laden in any of the Ports of Great Britain, with Salted Provisions of any Kind whatsoever, and also upon all Ships and Vessels laden or to be laden with Butter and Cheese, Pease, Beans, Rice, Hay, Straw, or Forage of any Kind whatsoever, and with Hides or Leather manufactured or unmanufactured; and it was ordered that the said Embargo should continue and remain upon all such Ships and Vessels until further Order; but it was by the said Order declared to be His Majesty's Pleasure, that the said Embargo should not extend (amongst other Things) to any Ships or Vessels, being British Ships and Vessels, navigated according to Law, which may be employed in carrying any of the said Articles above-mentioned to any Country in or out of Europe, in Amity with His Majesty: And whereas His Majesty judges it expedient to prohibit the carrying any such Articles of Provision as aforesaid to Countries in Amity with His Majesty, it is hereby ordered, that notwithstanding any Thing in the said Order of the Thirteenth of March, 1793, contained to the contrary, the said Embargo shall, from and after the Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, extend
