

Joy and Congratulations that your Majesty's sacred Person remains uninjured from an Attempt that human Wisdom or Power could not prevent, for which Blessing we fervently pour forth our Gratitude to Heaven. At the same Time we must humbly beg Leave to offer ourselves to resist, with every Exertion in our Power, any open Attack that may be made against your Royal Person, Crown, or Dignity; and we hope, though few in Number, that your Majesty will look upon us as an efficient Portion of your Majesty's Safety and Protection in every Case that can call forth the true Energy and Sacrifice of the Lives and Property of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

[Presented by Captain Lamb.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaster, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere and cordial Congratulations on your happy and providential Escape from the late daring and abominable Outrage and Attack upon your Majesty's sacred Person: Permit us to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of those wicked Principles which could instigate the Perpetrators.

That it may please Heaven to bless your Majesty with a Continuance of Health and Happiness, and that your Majesty long may reign in the Breasts of a loyal and affectionate People, is our fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, this 10th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Thomas Doncaster, Mayor.

[Presented by Orlando Bridgeman, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Tradesmen and Inhabitants at large of the Town of Wigan, in the County of Lancaster, viewing, as we do, with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, the late atrocious and diabolical Attack upon your Majesty's sacred Person, humbly beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the intended Assassination.

Happy it is that the Views of the few deluded Wretches, who thus daringly and outrageously assailed your Majesty, fell short of Consummation, and we trust that equal at least, if not superior Disappointment will ever attend the Schemes of those wicked Miscreants and their vile Supporters, which have for their Object similar Consequences.

For our own Parts, we declare it to be our most ardent Wish, that during the Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, which we sincerely hope will be long and prosperous, unspeakable Happiness may ever await you; and it is our firm and determined Resolution at all Times to stand forward, to the utmost of our Power, in the Protection of a Sovereign so justly admired by all his well-principled Subjects, and in Support of that admirable Constitution, which a few unprincipled Villains only seem wilful to overturn.

By the unanimous Order of a public Meeting.

Thomas Doncaster, Chairman.

[Presented by John Cotes, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough and Neighbourhood of Lymington, in the County of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late outrageous Attack on your Majesty's most sacred Person; and it is the fervent and earnest Prayer of us, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, that you may enjoy a long, prosperous, and happy Reign in the Affections of your People.

[Presented by Colonel Sir Harry Burrard, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Horsham, in the County of Sussex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Horsham, in the County of Sussex, beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we feel extremely indignant at the diabolical and infamous Attack made on your Royal Person on Thursday the Twenty-ninth Day of October last, in going to and returning from the House of Parliament.

At the same Time also we assure your Majesty we felt extremely happy to find your Royal Person was not injured; and we sincerely thank that great God, the Ruler of all Events, for having prevented a Blow, which would have been so severely felt by all your Majesty's Subjects.

We trust and hope your Majesty will be able to find out the Authors and Abettors of this infernal Plot, and punish them with such Severity as their Infamy deserves and so loudly calls for.

Permit us to add that we will on all Occasions, as far as in our Power, protect and support your Majesty's sacred Person and Government and the Constitution of the Kingdom as by Law established, and that we most ardently wish your Majesty may live many, many Years to reign over us, who, with all due Submission, beg Leave to subscribe ourselves your Majesty's most devoted Servants.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Lord William Gordon, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Taunton, being sensible of the inestimable Blessings we derive from the mild Influence of the best of Kings, who, with paternal Rule, holds
