

an Empire in the Hearts of a loyal People; and deeming ourselves competent to form a right Notion of the superior Excellence of the British Constitution over all others that in human Wisdom have ever been contrived, or may by modern Reformers be devised, feel ourselves at the present Moment animated with more than our ordinary Zeal to repeat those Declarations of Loyalty and Service, which, upon many previous Occasions, have been tendered by the Inhabitants of this Town and Neighbourhood at the Foot of your Majesty's Throne. For we behold with Concern, Sire, a turbulent and factious Spirit predominant in the Hearts of certain ill-designing Men, who, with a restless Anxiety, are continually endeavouring how to turn aside from their Allegiance the lower Orders of your Majesty's Subjects, and to insil into their weak and unguarded Minds Prejudices against your Royal Person. To such nefarious Machinations is the daring Outrage to be ascribed, which was irreverently and ungratefully levelled against your sacred Majesty, in your Passage to the House of Lords, tending to the Dishonour of the Royal Dignity of the chief Branch of the Legislature, to the Subversion of the civil and religious Ordinances of the Realm, and to the indecorous Infraction of the high Privileges of Parliament. While we view and lament this Corruption in the Hearts of certain insatuated and misguided Men, we are resolved, as far as lies in our Power, to look forward with a watchful Eye to the Preservation of the several Branches of the Legislature, and to sacrifice our Lives and our Fortunes in maintaining the Unity of a Constitution, which may be justly deemed the Bulwark of British Freedom, and the Englishman's truest Glory.

[Presented by Alexander Popham, Esq; and Sir Benjamin Hothel, Kut. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

S I R E,
WE, the Bailiffs, Principal Burgeses, Common Council, Free Burgeses and Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Town and Borough of Eye, in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation at the Perpetrators of the late violent and daring Outrage committed against your Majesty's Person, and most fervently pray the Supreme Disposer of all Events to protect, and long, very long, continue to us the mild and beneficent Government of the most gracious and best of Princes.

We take the Liberty to assure your Majesty, that upon all Occasions we shall be ready to give the most indubitable Proofs of the purest Zeal and Duty which the most faithful Subjects can manifest, and will strenuously discountenance any seditious Assemblies, calculated, by the artful Misrepresentation of dangerous and designing Men, to excite Discontent in the Minds of the less-informed Part of the Community, but from which we can state, with Pride and Pleasure, that this Town and Neighbourhood are happily free.

Given under our Common Seal the 7th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Brome, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's loyal Borough of Wallingford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Wallingford, truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Government, feel ourselves impelled by Humanity, Affection, Gratitude, and the Sense we entertain of our own particular and the general Weal, so greatly depending on your Majesty's Life and Health, to approach your Throne to express our firm Attachment to the present Constitution, our Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attack on your sacred Person, in the Discharge of so important a Part of the high Duties of your Station, and our humble Trust, that the same Providence, which has so frequently and signally preserved you, will continue his Protection to yourself, to your Family, and your Kingdoms.

[Presented by Sir Francis Sykes, Bart. and Francis William Sykes, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, in the County Palatine of Chester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, beg Leave, with all Respect and Deference, to present our very sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late outrageous and wicked Attack made upon your Royal Person, in your Way to and from the Parliament House, and to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of so daring an Insult offered to your Majesty, and, through you, to the happy Constitution of these Realms; a Constitution which we conceive to be the best calculated for ensuring the Welfare and Happiness of the People, of any which the World has yet experienced, and the Value and Superiority of which have been never more clearly illustrated and evinced than when contrasted with the Anarchy and Confusion arising from that ferocious Democracy, which has been the Scourge of a neighbouring unhappy Nation, and the Introduction of which into this Country there is too much Reason to apprehend the late atrocious Outrages were designed to favour.

We feel it our Duty to give this public Testimony of our Sentiments on the present Occasion, and to assure your Majesty of our firm Determination, in our several Capacities, and to the utmost of our Power, to support the present Constitution as by Law established, and to use our constant Endeavours for the Preservation of Peace and good Order.

May your Majesty long enjoy the Blessings of this Life, safe from the Machinations and Malevolence of your and your Country's Enemies, and may our excellent Constitution be perpetuated under the Auspices of your illustrious Family.

[Presented by the Master of the Rolls and Sir George Warren.]