By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes taken from the Subjects of the United Provinces subsequent to the Fifteenth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council for granting General Reprizals against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the said United Provinces.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Fifteenth Day of September last, We have ordered that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the United Provinces, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the said United Provinces, or any Persons being Subjects thereof, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the said United Provinces, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within our Dominions; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects, who may have lawfully seized any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or who shall hereafter seize any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all such Ships and Goods as aforesaid, which, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September, 1795, have been, or hereafter, during the present Hostilities, shall be seized as aforesaid, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken as aforesaid, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or which shall hereafter be taken as aforesaid, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say, That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprizals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners aforesaid) may be sold and disposed posed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters and others to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprizals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before. And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes, which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines and Soldiers on Board Our said Ships, and Vessels at the Time of the Capture, and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows; the Whole of the neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts.

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on Board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on Board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Master on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such Physician be actually on Board at the Time of taking such Prizes.

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Boat-swains, Gunners, Purser, Carpenter, Masters Mates, Chirurgeon, Pilot and Chaplain on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The Midshipmen, Captain's Clerk, Master-Sail-maker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatswains Mates, Gunner's Mates, Master at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Cockswain, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters Mates, Chirurgeon's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines, and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty and assisting on Board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them.

Provided that if any Officer being on Board any of our Ships of War at the Time of taking any Prize shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes, which, according to the above mentioned Distribution, shall belong to his superior Commission or Office. And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War taking any Prize, as soon as may be, to transmit, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others who were actually on Board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on Board, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster Books and annexed Lists, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War, and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them, (the said Commissioners) they shall give or cause to be given to the said Agents all such Lists from the Muster Books of any such Ships of War, and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce

Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part herein before mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers, who shall actually be on Board at the taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command: Secondly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command at Jamaica or elsewhere, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives at the Place to which he is sent, and actually takes upon him the Command. Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent out to reinforce a superior Flag Officer, at Jamaica or elsewhere, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer, before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the superior Flag Officer, and actually receive some Order from him. Fourthly, That a chief Flag Officer returning Home, from Jamaica or elsewhere, shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind to act under another Command. Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Sixthly, That when more Flag Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth Part, and the other shall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided amongst the other Flag Officers. Seventhly, That Commodores with Captains under them shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief or serving under Command. Eighthly, That the First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Fifteen Ships of the Line of Battle (provided such last mentioned Fleet or Squadron shall be composed of His Majesty's own Ships,) shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be intitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further order, That in case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers, in the Manner herein before directed, in the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Master, or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be One on Board,) shall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three equal Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command. That the Share of the Chirurgion, or Chirurgion's Mate (where there is no Chirurgion,) Midshipmen, and Clerk and Steward, shall be One Eighth; that the Share of the Boatwain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeomen of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on Board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Vessel, without any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War being present or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in case any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War shall be present, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on Board such Cutters and Schooners, or Armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on Board His Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, November 25.

THIS Day his Grace the Duke of Portland, Chancellor of the University of Oxford, the Reverend Dr. Wills, Vice-Chancellor, Mr. Davis and Mr. Hutton, Proctors, Dr. Eveleigh, Provost of Oriel, and the Reverend Mr. Jackson, Regius Professor of Greek, together with Dr. Chapman, President of Trinity, the Honorable Dr. Wenman, Regius Professor of Civil Law, and Dr. Wall, Lord Litchfield's Chemical Professor, Mr. Best and Mr. Benson, Regent Masters, being the Delegates appointed by the University to attend on this Occasion, accompanied by his Grace the Archbishop of York, the Earl of Mansfield, Lord President of the Council, his Grace the Duke of Leeds, the Marquis of Titchfield, the Earls of Mount Edgumbe, Temple, Gower, the Lords Grenville, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, Hawkesbury, Auckland, Mendip, the Right Honorable William Wyndham, Sir William Dolben, Bart. and Francis Page, Esq; Members for the University, Sir J. Aubrey, Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Sir Joseph Banks, Sir Charles Morgan, Baronets, and several other Noblemen and Gentlemen who were educated at the University, waited upon the King to present the following Address of Congratulation upon His Majesty's happy Escape from the Danger to which His Royal Person has lately been exposed.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious-Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and with the profoundest Sentiments of Duty and Affection to congratulate your Majesty on escaping from the Danger to which your sacred Person hath lately been exposed. With particular Grief and Indignation we reflect that this wicked, ungrateful and traitorous Insult was offered to your Majesty at the very Time when your paternal Care was manifesting itself, in the Exercise of your high Office, for the Preservation and Happiness of your Subjects.

We abhor those pernicious Doctrines, which, disseminated under the Pretence of Reform, have produced this Violence and Outrage. We detest them as Principles of Sedition, no less dangerous to the Constitution of our Country than to the Life of your Majesty: But we humbly hope that the same good Providence, which hath preserved your Majesty from this Danger, will still preserve a Life so important to the Constitution, and so invaluable to your People, and will long continue to them the Blessing of your mild and equitable Government.

Given at our House of Convocation, this 17th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Receive with the greatest Pleasure this Mark of your cordial Attachment to My Person and Government.

The affectionate Sentiments expressed by My People on this Occasion leave Me only to lament that any of My Subjects should have been led to commit so violent an Outrage against the Laws and Constitution, for the Defence and Maintenance of which I shall never cease to use My utmost Exertions.

They were all very graciously received, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, November 28.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioner, the Officers, the Artificers, the Clerks, the Workmen, and the Seamen of Chatham Dock Yard and Ordinary, most humbly congratulate your Majesty from the Bottom of our Hearts upon the providential Escape from the recent unchristianlike Attempt upon your Majesty's Life.

We have the fullest Confidence that your Majesty, in Conjunction with the Two Houses of Parliament, will take the properest Measures for the Safety of your Majesty's Royal Person in future, for the Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects, and for the Good of the British Nation in every Respect.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioner, Officers, Clerks, Artificers and Workmen belonging to your Majesty's Dock-Yard and Ordinary at Plymouth, with the utmost Regard and Veneration for your Majesty's Person, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, in order to express our Concern and Indignation at the outrageous Assault made on your Majesty at the Time of your passing to and from Parliament, at the Opening of the present Session.

Highly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and beneficent Government, we cannot but feel the deepest Regret that any Person within your Majesty's Dominions should be found so daringly flagitious as to endanger the Safety of your Majesty's sacred Person.

And it is with the most unfeigned Gratitude to the Supreme Being that we congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from such wicked and traitorous Designs.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long, happy and prosperous is the unalterable Prayers of your dutiful and faithful Subjects.

The

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry,
Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, humbly approach your Majesty, to repeat our Assurances of our affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and of our Adherence to those Principles of Constitutional Liberty which seated your Family on the Throne of these Realms. We deplore and reprobate the atrocious Outrages by which your Passage to and from Parliament was impeded, and your Royal Person endangered, on the first Day of the present Sessions. That your Majesty, protected by the Energy of your People's Loyalty, may long reign in their Hearts and Affections, is our sincere and fervent Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, are desirous of offering to your Majesty our heartiest Congratulations on your providential Escape from the outrageous and daring Violence offered to your Majesty, on your Passage to and from your Parliament, at the Opening of the present Session.

We feel it likewise a Duty incumbent upon us to express our utmost Indignation that there should be found amongst our Fellow Subjects any Persons so insensible to the Blessings which the Kingdom has enjoyed under our excellent Constitution, and under your Majesty's mild Administration of those Powers with which you are invested for the Security and Happiness of your Subjects, as to endanger the very Existence of our Form of Government, by an Attempt upon your Majesty, and in the Exercise of one of your most solemn Duties, the free Communication with your Parliament.

We are sincerely thankful to Providence for the Happiness which we enjoy under the established Constitution of this Realm, and under your Majesty's constant and anxious Endeavours to secure the Peace, Happiness and Liberties of your People, by the temperate and wise Exercise of the Powers and Duties entrusted to you.

We therefore humbly entreat your Majesty to accept this Assurance of our most fervent Prayers, that you may long continue on a Throne, secured to you by the Loyalty, Affection and Gratitude of your Subjects; and we find ourselves called upon to declare our Detestation and Abhorrence of those execrable Opinions and Proceedings, by which the Perpetrators of this daring and outrageous Act have been induced to this Attempt on the Safety of our beloved King, and on the first and most sacred Principles of our invaluable Constitution.

Signed, by Order and in the Name of the Meeting, Acton Chaplin, Under Sheriff.

[Presented by the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.]

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the ancient and loyal Corporation of the Borough and Parish of Buckingham, and other Inhabitants of the same, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our strongest Detestation of the violent and daring Outrage lately committed on the Person of our gracious Sovereign, in the Exercise of the most solemn Function entrusted to him by our excellent Constitution.

The Safety of the King and the Security of that Constitution are Objects equally dear to us, for they are inseparable; and we feel ourselves bound by every Principle of personal affectionate Attachment to your Majesty, and of Gratitude to Almighty God, for the many Blessings which we have enjoyed under your mild and temperate Government, to express our earnest Prayers, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over the Hearts of your Subjects; and to declare our firm Determination to support your Majesty in defending to the utmost that Constitution which we have seen attacked by the evil Machinations of wicked Men, to whose abominable Principles and Proceedings we attribute this daring Outrage on your Majesty's Person and on the happy Constitution of these Realms.

And we beg Leave to express our firm Confidence that the Wisdom of the Legislature will provide sufficient and immediate Measures for your Majesty's Safety, and for the Security of the Constitution, against those Attempts, which we have seen so openly avowed at Meetings, and by Publications, subversive of every Principle most dear to us.

[Presented by the Marquis of Buckingham, High Steward of the said Town, and Lord Lieutenant of the County thereof.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, beg to be permitted to testify to your Majesty our deep Concern at the scandalous Scene which has been exhibited in the Metropolis by a lawless and ferocious Rabble, whose unexampled Violence did not stop short of open Outrage to your Majesty's Person, in your Passage to and from your Parliament.

We must at the same Time express our heartfelt Congratulations on the Interposition of that Providence, which, in averting the Stroke of the Assassin, has preserved a Life inseparably connected with our common Welfare, and has spared this Country the Disgrace which the Commission of so foul a Crime must for ever have cast upon its Annals.

We should vainly look for the Principles of such Enormity in the genuine Character of a brave and manly Nation; but we consider them as immediately proceeding from those traitorous and seditious Assemblies, which, by weaning the Affections of the lower and less-instructed Orders of the Community from the true Sources of their Happiness, and by familiarizing their Minds with Crimes of Foreign Growth, aim at rendering them the Instruments of Attack upon the Liberties and the Constitution of their Country.

We therefore learn, with the highest Satisfaction, that your Majesty has, in Conjunction with the Legislature, taken Measures to secure your Royal Person from future Insults, and we trust that those Measures will operate to the total Suppression of all those those Seminaries of Treason and Disaffection, the Existence of which we deem to be incompatible with the Safety of the Realm.

We pledge ourselves in our several Capacities, at the Hazard of our Lives and to the Extent of our Fortunes, to enforce Obedience to the Laws, and to carry into Effect such Provision as the Wisdom of Parliament shall make for the Maintenance of the Public Tranquility.

We cease not to offer up our Vows to the King of Kings, that the Virtues which dignify your Majesty's private as well as public Life, may long continue to add Lustre to the first Throne in the World, a Throne which stands upon the Love and Veneration of a free and loyal People.

Signed, Philip Morshead, Sheriff,
in the Name and at the Request of the County of Devon.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on your Escape from the daring and flagitious Attack on your sacred Person, made at a Time when you were about to exercise one of the most valuable Privileges of Sovereignty in giving Activity to the Legislature, and Sanction to the Laws.

Perfused as we are that the Sentiments which actuated those atrocious Miscreants are held in Abhorrence by the great Body of your Majesty's Subjects, we cannot help fearing that the natural Effect of too free Speculations on the Nature of Government must, in the Giddiness of these Times of Anarchy and Confusion, tend to impel ignorant Minds to similar Attempts; we therefore venture to hope that such temporary Restraints as the Wisdom of the Legislature may think themselves justified by the Spirit of the Constitution to lay on the Conduct of private Persons, may be sanctioned by your Majesty's Approbation.

[Presented by George Nelthorpe, Esq; Sheriff, accompanied by Sir John Wadehouse, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Essex, zealously attached to the Constitution of our Country, of which your Majesty forms so important a Part, and duly sensible of the many public as well as private Virtues which have been uniformly exhibited in your Majesty's personal Character and Conduct through a long Reign, are anxious publicly to express the Gratitude which we feel to the Almighty Disposer of all Events, for the Protection which has been afforded to your Majesty from the daring and outrageous Attacks made upon your Royal Person on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament, whilst your Majesty was in the actual Exercise of the Functions of your Royal Character: By Means of which providential Interposition your Majesty has been preserved, and, we trust, will long be continued, to reign over a loyal and affectionate People.

Be assured, Sir, that the Inhabitants of the County of Essex view with Indignation and Abhorrence these most treasonable Attempts on your Majesty's Person and the Constitution of their Country; and that they will, on all Occasions, exert their united and most earnest Endeavours to preserve as well the one as the other safe and inviolate from all Attacks and Attempts whatsoever.

John Hanson, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Warwick, most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that it is with the utmost Degree of Concern and Indignation that we have heard of the late wicked and traitorous Attempt made on the Safety of your Majesty's Person.

Deeply impressed with the Conviction of the Excellence of our inestimable Constitution, and fully sensible how greatly your Majesty's Virtues have contributed to the Happiness of your People, we consider ourselves as bound by every Principle of Duty, Affection and Gratitude, to defend, at every Risk, the constitutional Rights of the Crown, and the Safety of your Majesty's Person, against the traitorous Designs of Enemies of every Description.

And we shall not cease to offer up our fervent Prayers to the Almighty Disposer of all Events for the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, which cannot but be considered as an Object of the greatest public Interest and national Concern, because it has ever been invariably employed in promoting the Welfare of your People and the general Prosperity of the Kingdom.

Will. Little, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County Monmouth.

DEIGN, most gracious Sovereign, to accept our humble, but most cordial Felicitation upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring and atrocious Insult offered to your Royal Person in going to and returning from the House of Parliament, at the Opening of the present Session, attended with Acts of Violence, which not only endangered your Majesty's most precious Life, but seemed to aim at the Extinction of all Order, and even at the Overthrow of the Constitution.

We beg Leave, upon this awful Occasion, to make a solemn Declaration of our unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Royal Family, and to assure your Majesty that we are penetrated with a grateful Sense of the Protection and true Liberty which this Country enjoys under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and are determined firmly to resist any Machinations or Attempts to so subvert or disturb the same.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, holding in the greatest Abhorrence the late outrageous and wicked Attack on your Royal Person, beg Leave to present our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape, and to add our hearty Prayers that Providence may never cease to watch over you, and that you may continue long to reign over a free and happy People.

Hugh Barlow, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Salop.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Salop, (by public Advertisement assembled) beg Leave to approach the Royal Presence with our most sincere and fervent Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the daring and criminal Attempt recently made upon your sacred Person, assuring your Majesty that we view, with the keenest Sentiments of Horror and Indignation, both the flagitious Instigators and atrocious Perpetrators of this unmerited Outrage; the Heinousness of which is (if possible) increased, by it's being executed at a Moment when your Majesty was about to exercise the most important as well as most august Function of your exalted Station, conjointly with the National Representation to legislate for a free and enlightened People.

Permit us also, Sire, to take this Opportunity of returning your Majesty our warmest Acknowledgments for the generous Communication to Parliament of your Royal Intentions to put a Stop to the present destructive and sanguinary War, as soon as such a Measure can be adopted, consistently with the Dignity of the Crown, the Interests of the State, and the general Safety of Europe: But conscious, as we are, that so desirable an Event can only be obtained by the most prompt and vigorous Preparations for War, we engage to co-operate with the Executive Government in every Mode that can give Energy to it's Exertions, and eventually command the Blessings of an honourable and advantageous Peace.

And, above all, we assure your Majesty, that we will ourselves practise and direct our most assiduous Attention to inculcate, and, if necessary, to enforce in our respective Neighbourhoods, that peaceful Demeanour and legal Subordination, which is the only solid Basis of public Strength and individual Prosperity.

Signed, for and on Behalf of the Meeting, by Henry Bevan, Sheriff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to express the Horror with which we were seized at the atrocious Attempt upon the Life of the best of Monarchs.

Thankful for that distinguished Prosperity which, under Providence, we owe to our excellent Constitution, and to the Fidelity and Firmness with which your Majesty has uniformly supported it, we feel ourselves bound, at every Hazard of Life and Fortune, to defend your Royal Person against all foreign Enemies, and the more dangerous Attempts of domestic Traitors.

Actuated by these Sentiments, we embrace this Opportunity of expressing our entire and hearty Approbation of the Measures now under Consideration of Parliament, tending more effectually to guard your sacred Person, and prevent those seditious Assemblies whose Proceedings have, for so long a Time, filled the Minds of your faithful Subjects with just Alarm, and threatened the Destruction of every Thing that is dear to us as Men or Britons.

It is our earnest Prayer that the same Providence which has shielded your Majesty from secret Danger, may continue to frustrate the Projects of seditious Men, and prolong your Life for the Happiness of a grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of the Island of Guernsey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and the States of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, assembled on this affecting Occasion to prostrate ourselves before (and devoutly to offer up our humble Thanks to) that almighty, adorable and invisible Power that guarded and preserved your Majesty's Life, (so precious and inestimable a Blessing to the Millions of your loyal Subjects) when, on the 29th of last Month, a Band of execrable Ruffians, dared, with impious Hands and unhallowed Tongues, to insult and assail the sacred Person of our beloved Sovereign in his Carriage, when passing to and from his Parliament, at the Opening of the present Session thereof.

We beseech you, Sire, to believe, that as no Part of your Majesty's extensive Dominions (in Proportion portion to its Population) contains more loyal Subjects than this happy Island, protected, foisted and favoured with unequalled Privileges, under your mild and propitious Government: These good Subjects, faithfully and immutably attached your Majesty's Royal Person and illustrious Family, are ready to sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in Defence of these invaluable Pledges, and to preserve pure and unaltered the matchless Constitution of Britain.

We are fully confident that no Sovereign existing can be more affectionately revered by his Subjects than the present virtuous and exalted Monarch of the British Empire, possessed as he is of every benignant and engaging Quality that can adorn the human Mind.

Struck with Astonishment and Abhorrence on receiving a Report of the recent abominable Attempt, we earnestly pray the Continuance of a divine and graciously interposing Providence for your Majesty's Preservation, and in pronouncing our bitterest Maledictions against the detested Monsters that have thus alarmed us for your Majesty's Safety; and excited our just Indignation and Horror. We with equal Fervency pray, the accursed Treason may be fully detected, and the Traitors condignly punished.

These, most gracious Sire, are the earnest Prayers and heartfelt Wishes of your Majesty's most faithful and devoted Subjects and Servants.

In the Assembly of the States of Guernsey, this 14th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Liverymen, Freemen and others, Inhabitants of the City of London, whose Names are undersigned, deeply impressed with unfeigned Sentiments of Affection for the Father of his People, as well as a Sense of the great Importance of your Majesty's Safety to the Happiness and Prosperity of your Subjects, as forming an essential Part of our glorious Constitution, think it our indispensable Duty to express to your Majesty our Indignation and Abhorrence at the late most atrocious Outrages and malignant Insults offered to your Royal Person in going to and returning from Parliament.

With extreme Concern we have to deplore, that the Minds of any of your Majesty's Subjects should be so infatuated and desperately criminal as to imagine and contrive any Mischief, by which the sacred Person of your Majesty, and therein the invaluable Constitution of these Realms, should be endangered.

Feeling, as we do, that we cannot trace back such nefarious Attempts to any other Source than those dangerous and seditious Meetings and Publications which have multiplied in the Metropolis and its Vicinity, and poisoned the deluded Minds of a Multitude, till a proper Sense of the Blessings of the Government under which they live has been nearly extinguished: We cannot too gratefully own the paternal Care of your Majesty, in your late most gracious Proclamations, and we confidently rely on the Wisdom of the united Branches of our excellent Constitution, in the present Crisis, to apply such wholesome Measures for its own Security and Permanency as will long ensure the Safety of your Majesty's Person and Government, the Privileges of both Houses of Parliament, and consequently the Happiness of a free and loyal People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens of the Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of your ancient City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to shew our Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and the Constitution as by Law established, by expressing our Abhorrence and Detestation of the late daring and dreadful Outrage offered to your Majesty's Royal Person, in the Exercise of your invaluable Duties as the Head of the Legislature, and by the Eagerness we express in being amongst the first of our Fellow Subjects to join in congratulating your Majesty with heartfelt Gratitude for your late providential Escape from the most infamous and traitorous Attacks, and the consequent Preservation of a Life so valuable to your People. We are well aware, that your Majesty now is, as you ever have been, the Father of your People, and that you have nothing more at Heart than their Welfare and Prosperity.

Believe, Royal Sir, that you have not any Subjects more loyal and attached to you than the Citizens of Lincoln; and permit us to add our earnest Prayers that your Reign may continue long and prosperous over free and happy Subjects, united to defend their King and excellent Constitution.

Given at the Guildhall of the said City, under our Common Seal, the 14th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795, and in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Hearts deeply impressed with Gratitude to the Divine Being for his great Goodness in protecting your Royal Person from the premeditated Schemes and wicked Attempts of an outrageous and unprovoked Mob. We cannot view the Conduct of such Persons but with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence; and truly sensible, as we are, that the Fabric of our happy Constitution depends upon the Safety of your Majesty, we sincerely lament that any of your Subjects should have Hearts so depraved as even to offer such daring and unwarrantable Insults to your sacred Person. With these Sentiments, we humbly beg Leave to express our firm Attachment to your Majesty, assuring you that we will, to the utmost of our Power, suppress all Measures that may tend to the Injury of your Royal Person or to the Subversion of our glorious Constitution in Church and State.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of your ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, humbly approach your Majesty at this Crisis to assure your Majesty, that at a Time when the Nation, alarmed at the horrid Outrage committed against your Royal Person in the Exercise of one of the most important Functions of your exalted Station, is anxious to testify its Abhorrence of the Act which might have endangered your Majesty's personal Safety: We should think ourselves highly deficient in Duty and Gratitude if we did not regret, as we most cordially do, that there should be among your Majesty's Subjects an Individual so detestable and so unworthy the Name of Englishmen as to violate the Constitution of his Country by impeding your Majesty's Progress to your House of Parliament, or by using the least Degree of Violence to your Majesty's sacred Person.

We cannot conclude this Address without the strongest Assurances of Zeal for the Support of your Majesty's Welfare and Government, and our earnest Hopes that your Majesty may long continue to enjoy the Affection and Confidence of a free and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, this 17th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by George Gipps and Sir John Honeywood, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY affected with the late atrocious Attack upon your Majesty's Person, in the Exercise of your highest Regal Function, we, Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and other Inhabitants of the City of Norwich, esteem it our Duty at this Time to assure your Majesty of the grateful Sense we entertain of your mild and equitable Government, and the Interest we take in the Safety of your Royal Person; and to express our deep Abhorrence of those wild and destructive Theories, that have caused such Crimes and Miseries in a neighbouring Country, have been artfully and industriously disseminated among your Subjects of this Realm, and been the Source of the late daring Violation of the Royal Dignity and the Public Peace.

Anxious for the Preservation of our excellent Constitution, and of those high and valuable Privileges through which this Nation has enjoyed such perfect

Freedom and Felicity; but, aware that particular Periods may call for particular Exertions, if, from the unruly Temper of the Times, the Laws existing are become incompetent to the Protection of the State, we firmly confide in the Wisdom and Integrity of Parliament for such wise and temperate Restraints as shall at once prevent any violent Attempts against the established Order of Government, and preserve intire the just Rights and Liberties of a loyal and affectionate People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Citizens, Clergy and Inhabitants of the City and Clofe of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Citizens, Clergy and Inhabitants of the ancient City, and the Clergy and Inhabitants of the Clofe of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, feeling an unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty, with whose personal Safety the Government of these Kingdoms is so happily connected, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the daring Outrages lately committed against your Majesty's sacred Person by factious and deluded People, and to express our Indignation and Abhorrence at so ungrateful a Return for your Majesty's private and public Virtues, and for the uniform Mildness of your Majesty's Government, assuring your Majesty of our Support in whatever Constitutional Measures the Legislature may think proper to prevent a Repetition of so dangerous an Offence.

We sincerely unite in our hearty and fervent Prayers to the Almighty King of Kings that He will afford to your Majesty a long and happy Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the City of Bristol, warmly interested by every Motive of Affection and Gratitude, as well as of Duty, in your Majesty's Welfare, humbly presume to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Deliverance from the late violent Outrage offered to your Majesty's Person, and to express our warmest Abhorrence of the Principles and Practices of these misguided and infatuated Men, who could be intigated to such an atrocious Attack on the Constitution of the Country in the Person of it's supreme Head. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall at all Times be ready to stand forth in Defence of your Majesty's most sacred Person, and in Support of that glorious Constitution, which we have the Happiness to enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

[Presented by the Marquis of Worcester and the Right Hon. Lord Sheffield, Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Venturers in the City of Bristol.

PERMIT, most gracious Sovereign, the Master, Wardens and Commonalty of Merchant Venturers to approach your Throne, and to express their Abhorrence of the Violence lately offered to your Majesty's Person in your Passage to your Parliament.

Sensible of the Happiness we derive from our excellent Form of Government, and gratefully attached to your illustrious Family under whom it has so long flourished, we consider the unprincipled Outrage, not only as a Violence offered to your Majesty's Person which we love and revere, but as a daring Attack of the Head of that Constitution, which we consider as the Origin of all our National Happiness and Honor.

We regret that any Persons could be found capable of so wicked an Attempt; and we fervently pray that the same gracious Providence, which hitherto has had your Majesty under its Protection, will frustrate the Designs of all foreign and domestic Enemies, and will extend to a very distant Period, your Majesty's Reign over a free and grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster, crave Permission to lay ourselves at your Royal Feet, to express what Words can express of the Part that we take in the general Joy upon your Majesty's late Escape from the dark Designs and outrageous Attempts of Treason. We reflect with Grief and Horror that there should exist in this Country Hearts to meditate and a single Hand that would execute the atrocious Design. With your invaluable Life, had the horrible Attempt succeeded, the Happiness of our Country had been extinguished, your Royal Throne overturned, our Constitution subverted, and our national Church laid in Ruins. Our Hearts overflow with Gratitude to God that in the Preservation of your Majesty He has averted these dreadful Mischiefs, and our Prayers shall daily ascend to the Almighty that He would continue to watch over your Majesty for Good, and over your Enemies for Evil; that He would bring their Plots and Conspiracies to Light, and their Persons to the Vengeance of their Country's Justice; that your Majesty's own Reign may be long, secure and happy, and the Prosperity of your Royal and illustrious House perpetual.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians, in London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians, in London, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with a Declaration of the Sentiments of Abhorrence which we entertain on the violent Outrage lately committed against your Majesty's Person and Dignity.

Believing the execrable Attempt to have received Intigation from Principles and Doctrines maliciously diffused by Men of some Education, and of Talents suited to better Purposes, whose Example, for that Reason, may be the more pernicious, we, as a Society dedicated to a learned and useful Profession, think that it behoves us to testify our sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Veneration of our excellent and happy Constitution, trusting that by the Wisdom of the Legislature the same may be preserved to our latest Posterity. And it would be Matter of the greatest Satisfaction to us, if we could presume to hope that our Example may influence such as have been seduced by artful Misrepresentation, to attend to their peaceable Duties, to honour their King, and obey Laws to which they owe both their Protection and their Liberty.

We congratulate your Majesty and the Nation on the timely Interposition of Providence, manifested in your Majesty's Preservation; and we pray, that your Life, which at no Time was more essential to the publick Welfare than at the present, may be a Life of Health and Felicity, and of long Continuance. In this Wish the Interests of all Orders of the Community are comprehended. In this Wish we shall have the Concurrence of all your Majesty's Subjects who have not abandoned the Love of their Country.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Master, Governors and Commonalty of the Art and Science of Surgeons of London, beg Leave, with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to approach the Royal Presence, and most respectfully to congratulate your Majesty on your signal Deliverance from the traitorous and impious Attacks of misguided and dangerous Men.

We lament exceedingly that there should exist Persons capable of Designs so atrocious; and while we rejoice in the merciful Interposition of Providence in Favour of your Majesty and these Realms, we cannot but express our Hope that the national Honour, which has been injured and insulted on this disgraceful Occasion, will in some Degree be vindicated by the exemplary Punishment of Criminals who are capable of committing such Enormities, and by the Adoption of such further Measures, as, by stopping the Progress of Faction and Sedition, the Wisdom of Parliament shall think best fitted for the the Preservation of your sacred Person, and in that Preservation the Security of these Kingdoms.

We offer up our fervent Prayers that the same Providence, which has hitherto been manifested in the Preservation of your Majesty's invaluable Life, may long, very long, continue to these Realms a Sovereign so justly dear to his People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, Tradesmen and other Inhabitants of the Town of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, beg Leave most cordially to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your happy Escape from the late desperate Attack upon your Majesty's Person.

Considering the dreadful Consequences of Riots of all Kinds, we have seen with deep Regret, and lamented that so many ungrateful Subjects, living under a Constitution which is the Admiration of the whole World, should be guilty of the daring Outrages which for some Time past have disgraced this happy Island. We want Words to express our Abhorrence of the late most horrid Attempt upon your Majesty's sacred Person; but we trust and hope that the Promoters and Perpetrators of this most wicked Deed will meet with their just Punishment, and that Europe may see that the Subjects of our beloved King will for ever protect and defend him from every Insult.

That you, Sire, may continue to reign over us many, very many Years, enjoying Peace and every Blessing the Almighty can bestow, is the earnest and fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Assistants of your Majesty's Borough of Leeds, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the violent and atrocious Attack made on your Royal Person.

Sincerely attached to the excellent Constitution of this Country, and happy in the mild Administration of your Majesty's Government, we should rejoice in the Discovery and condign Punishment of those who have attempted the Injury of your Majesty's Person, and have thereby endangered the Tranquillity of these Kingdoms.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ever ready in our respective Stations to maintain and encourage, to the utmost of our Power, a ready Obedience to the Laws, and a cordial Veneration for your Majesty's Person and Government.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Corporation of Hedon, in the County of York, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your late providential Escape from a most violent and wicked Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Person, in going to open the present Session of Parliament.

We ardently pray that the Almighty may preserve your Majesty from all Dangers, and grant you a long and happy Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Pontefract, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most heartfelt Congratulations on your late Escape from the daring Attempts of some of your deluded Subjects. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Fidelity and Loyalty, and our Abhorrence of such desperate and heinous Designs. We want Words to express our Sense of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, and observe with Satisfaction that our Legislators are about to adopt Measures for the Suppression of such tumultuous and seditious Meetings as have a Tendency to obtrude it.

With these Impressions we humbly implore that gracious Providence which has, upon many Occasions, manifested its Protection of these Kingdoms, and particularly in this late Instance of your Royal Person, to vouchsafe to us the Continuance of the great Blessing of your Majesty's Life, so essential to the Welfare of our most excellent Constitution, and the Happiness of all your Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring Attack on your Majesty's Royal Person, an Attack marked with peculiar Audacity, as directed against you your Majesty in the Exercise of one of the most important Functions of the Kingly Office, that of meeting the Lords and Commons of Great Britain in Parliament.

We cannot consider this Attempt levelled solely at the Life of our Sovereign, endeared to us by his many publick and private Virtues, but at the Existence of Monarchy itself; and while we abhor such dastardly though desperate Assassins, we feel the most anxious Alarm at the Danger which threatens the internal Peace and Welfare of the Country; but we trust, and sincerely hope, that our happy Form of Government will ever find Protection against mischievous or misguided Men, who, by Anarchy and Confusion, may aim at the total Overthrow of all Order and Government, and the Annihilation of every Blessing we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign.

And we pray the Disposer of human Events, that your Majesty may long continue in Health and Glory to reign over a loyal People, ever happy in the Enjoyment of Peace, when the same can be secured to them consistent with the Honour and Dignity of their Country, and ready to support and defend the Rights of your Majesty's Crown and that excellent Constitution which for Ages has been the Source of their own Happiness, and the Envy of surrounding Nations.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants and Commonalty of the Company of Cutlers, in Hallamshire, in the County of York; the Collector for the Town of Sheffield, in the said County, and his Assistants; the Free Burgesses and Trustees; the Twelve Capital Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and Parish of Sheffield; the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and other respectable Inhabitants of that Town and Neighbourhood, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, beg Leave, in the most affectionate Manner, to approach your Royal Person, and with Sentiments suitable to the Importance of the Occasion, to humbly assure your Majesty of the Abhorrence and Indignation which we feel at the atrocious and wicked Attack which was lately made on your sacred Person, at the very Instant of passing to your Parliament to exercise one of the necessary Functions belonging to the Crown.

Whether we reflect on this nefarious Attempt as an Invasion of that private Happiness to which the uniform Tenor of a virtuous and exemplary Life affords your Majesty so just a Claim, or as a daring Outrage more immediately offered to your sacred Person as Guardian of the Laws, and as forming an integral Part of the Legislature of this Kingdom; whether we consider it an unparalleled Insult to both Houses of your Majesty's Parliament, assembled and waiting to be opened by your Majesty for the Dispatch of weighty and momentous national Business, or as a most desperate Attack on the Laws, Government and happy Constitution of this Kingdom, and consequently implicating every Thing which has a Relation to the Security of the Lives, the Liberty or Property of your Majesty's Subjects; in whatever Point of View we place this highly criminal Act, we are impelled to look upon it as the most ferocious Degradation of human Nature, totally derogatory from the national Character, and every Way unworthy of Britons.

But whilst we rejoice with the Kingdom at large, and unite with all your Majesty's loyal Subjects in the most heartfelt Congratulation on your Majesty's happy Escape from personal Injury, we humbly beg to be permitted to express our grateful Thanks for your Majesty's late most gracious Declaration to your Parliament on the Subject of Peace, "That should the present Crisis of Public Affairs in France terminate in any Order of Things compatible with the Tranquillity of other Countries, and affording a reasonable Expectation of Security and Permanence in any Treaty which might be concluded, the Appearance of a Disposition to negotiate for a general Peace on just and suitable Terms, would not fail to be met by your Majesty with an earnest Desire to give it the fullest and most effectual Effect."

We most ardently pray to the Supreme Disposer of all Events that He may soon be pleased to direct your Majesty to carry this your Majesty's gracious Declaration into Effect, and that the Peace may be restored so remote when your Royal Breast will be filled with the Satisfaction of restoring to your People the Blessings of all national Blessings, a secure, permanent and honorable Peace.

We are, may it please your Majesty, with the most profound Devotion, your Majesty's most affectionate, most faithful and most loyal Subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Wakefield, humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late atrocious Attack upon your sacred Person on the 29th of October last; which Escape we consider as the Effect of an immediate Interposition of Divine Providence. We now rely with Confidence that such Measures will be adopted by the Wisdom of the Legislature as may most effectually preserve your sacred Person, and (by the total Suppression of all seditious Meetings, which have a Tendency to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Dominions,) continue to your Majesty's loyal Subjects that

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder and Freemen of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Kingston upon Thames, in the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston upon Thames, beg Leave, with all Humility, to join in the universal Congratulations of your Majesty's faithful Subjects upon the providential Deliverance of your Majesty from the late most daring Assault and flagitious Outrage offered to your Majesty's most sacred Person. Highly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy, in common with our Fellow Subjects, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, it is with the most sincere Concern we lament that any Person could be found within your Majesty's Dominions so evil-minded and so daringly wicked; but whilst we reflect, with the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation, on a Conduct so atrocious, we acknowledge, with Reverence and Gratitude, the Divine Goodness in the Preservation of a Life so justly dear and valuable to your People, and on which the Safety and Happiness of these Realms depend.

Permit us, Sire, on this Occasion, to assure your Majesty of our Duty, Regard and Affection for your Majesty's sacred Person and Family.

May you long, very long reign over a free, flourishing, and affectionate People; and may your future Life be unclouded with Health, Prosperity, and every earthly Comfort.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Warrington.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Warrington, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express our warmest Congratulations on your Escape from the late daring and wicked Outrage offered to your Royal Person, at the Time when your Majesty was in the Exercise of your Royal Function, and fulfilling your Part of our most excellent Constitution. With sincere Pleasure we embrace every Opportunity of expressing our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, but at the present Moment we feel peculiar Satisfaction in approaching the Throne, to declare our Abhorrence of those Principles which have led to the Enormities we deplore.

When we contemplate the many Virtues which adorn your Majesty's private Character, we cannot help considering this outrageous Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person as an Attack, not only on the Person of our King, but, through him, upon the Constitution of our Country; not only upon the Monarch on the Throne, but on the Monarchy itself. And while with Sorrow we lament that there should be any Person in your Majesty's Realms who could devise or attempt an Act, combining, in the full Measure of its Atrociousness, the Violation of the most sacred Rights of Nature with the Destruction of social Order, we at the same Time declare our firm Resolution to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majesty's mild and equitable Government.

Convinced, as we are, that there can be no Security to your Majesty's Subjects, unless your Majesty, the Guardian of the Laws, is in Safety, we see, with heartfelt Satisfaction, the Measures now taking by your Majesty's Two Houses of Parliament for the Protection of your Person and Government, and for the Suppression of all seditious Societies.

That your Majesty may long, very long, reign in the Hearts of all your People, and in the Enjoyment of Health, Peace and Happiness, is, and shall continue to be, our sincere Wish and earnest Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, and others, Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, and others, Inhabitants of the said Borough of Dorchester, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Expressions of our utter Abhorrence of the diabolical Attack lately made on your Majesty's most sacred Person, and with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the Hands of a mischievous and lawless Rabble. It is with peculiar Satisfaction that we behold the Wisdom of Parliament already employed in taking such Measures as, we hope, will prevent a Repetition of such daring Outrages in future: But considering the Insufficiency of all human Means, and feeling how intimately connected our dearest Interests are with the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, we most ardently pray that the same Almighty Power which has secured it hitherto, will, in his great Goodness, continue it to a long and distant Period, for we are entirely persuaded that the sole Object of your Majesty's Government is to promote the Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

We remain your Majesty's most faithful, most dutiful, and most obedient Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Agent and Captains of the Packets employed in your Majesty's Service on the Falmouth Station, approach your Majesty to express our Grief for the daring and highly criminal Outrages that were lately committed, to the Danger of your Majesty's sacred Person, and to the Interruption of your Majesty's Passage to your Parliament. We most humbly congratulate your Majesty, and are thankful to Almighty God for the Preservation of a Life, on which the Safety and Happiness of these Realms, and in the present Crisis the Welfare of all Europe, materially depend.

We shall ever be ready to take an active Part in defending your Majesty's Life and Dignity against the seditious and treasonable Combinations of those who by insidious Pretences endeavour to delude your Subjects into Acts as detestable in themselves as they are unworthy of a brave and honourable People; fully persuaded that nothing we possess, neither our Liberty or our Property, can be safe, unless your Majesty, the Guardian of the Laws, be in Safety.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Kinghorn, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of your ancient Burgh of Kinghorn, beg Leave upon this Occasion, to approach your Throne with a Mixture of Joy and Regret: We regret that there should be found amongst your Majesty's Subjects an Individual so profligate as even to imagine an Insult to your Royal Person; but we exult in joining our Fellow Citizens in the Congratulations which your Majesty is now receiving, on escaping from a lawless Rabble, who were so daring as to offer it. We trust the Actors in this Outrage shall soon be discovered and punished; and that the Bills now depending in Parliament, for suppressing seditious Meetings, will effectually check those unlawful Combinations, that are so destructive to the Peace and Welfare of Society.

In the mean Time we pray that a kind Providence may long continue to preserve your Majesty's precious Life, not only for a Blessing to these Realms, but for promoting the general Happiness of Europe.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chairman, Directors and Members of the Chamber of Commerce and Manufactures of Edinburgh, deeply sensible of the Value of that Constitution under which we enjoy so many Blessings, cannot look back on a late Attack on your sacred Person, and Insult to your Royal Dignity, without Surprise and Indignation.

Trusting that the Wisdom of Parliament will adopt such Measures as will effectually prevent a Repetition of such wicked Attempts, we beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majesty that we will be at all Times ready to stand forth in Support of your Person and Government; and we most fervently beseech the Almighty Disposer of all Events to protect your Majesty from secret Conspiracy and open Violence.

That your Majesty may long reign over a grateful, free and happy People is the ardent Wish of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chairman, Directors and Members of the Chamber of Commerce and Manufactures of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dunblane, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to congratulate your Majesty upon your Deliverance from a late imminent Danger.

Deeply sensible of the manifold Blessings which we and all your Majesty's Subjects enjoy under the Auspices of your Majesty's benign Reign, we have beheld with Astonishment that there should be, in your Majesty's Dominions, any Persons so wicked, as, by a daring Attack upon the Person of their gracious Sovereign, to commit an Act of Treason against the British Constitution.

Grateful to Divine Providence for prolonging a Life dear to all good Men, we shall continue our utmost Exertions to impress upon the Minds of all committed to our Care, a Love of Order and good Government, a Hatred of every Thing which may disturb the Peace of Society, and a sacred Regard for your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

That Almighty God may ever keep your Majesty under His Holy Protection, that the British Sceptre may, through latest Ages, be swayed with Glory and Renown, by Princes of the illustrious House of Hanover; and that your Majesty's Endeavours to promote the Happiness and Welfare of these Realms, may ever be gratefully acknowledged by a loyal and dutiful People, are the earnest Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dunblane.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Society of Constables for the Peace of the City of Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne at this important Crisis, to express our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Feelings of Sorrow and Indignation at the daring Insults offered to your sacred Majesty, in going to and coming from Parliament, at the Opening of this Session, by a lawless Banditti, under the Influence of the most wicked and pernicious Principles, entirely subversive of all good Order and Government.

Selected from amongst our Fellow-Citizens, as Guardians of the Peace of this City, we have had an Opportunity of being fully convinced of the wicked Intentions and dangerous Machinations of a Set of Men, who, under various Pretexts, endeavoured to delude the Ignorant and Unwary into unlawful Combinations against your Majesty and our happy Constitution. In Proportion, however, as their Vices have been developed, Numbers of those who have been deceived by them have returned to a Sense of their Duty; and we have the Happiness of assuring your Majesty, the Influence of their seditious Principles has in this Place rapidly declined; and we are fully confident that the late Attack on our happy Constitution, in the Person of your Majesty, will tend more fully to disclose their wicked Purposes, and to unite your Majesty's Subjects in unshaken Principles of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, under whose happy Government we have enjoyed so many Blessings; and we also humbly hope that your Majesty's Parliament will adopt such Measures as may effectually prevent such Abuses in future, and tend to the Suppression of every Attempt to overturn the Constitution of our Country.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Edinburgh, the 18th Day of November, in the Year 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Berwick Loyal Volunteer Corps.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Officers and Privates of your Majesty's Corps of Berwick Loyal Volunteers, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, with the most profound Respect, and with the most perfect Sentiments of Loyalty and Veneration, to express our Horror at the most daring Assault and Outrage offered to your Majesty, in your late Passage to and from your Parliament.

We are unable, in adequate Terms, to express our heartfelt Concern, that any Person within your Majesty's Dominions should be found so truly wicked as to hazard, by such atrocious Violence, the Safety of your sacred Person, and thereby the Happiness of the Country.

It is, therefore, with the most profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Ruler of all Events, that we have to congratulate your Majesty on your very providential Escape from such traitorous and flagitious Attacks, so dangerous to the public Tranquillity, and in Violation of our happy Constitution, of which your Majesty forms so important a Part.

Permit us, Sire, to express our great Satisfaction respecting the Bill about to be passed by your Parliament, for the greater Security of your Majesty's sacred Person, as aiming only at such Men as are dangerous to Society, and unworthy the Protection of your Majesty's mild and happy Government. With the most perfect Veneration, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, (that your Majesty's Berwick Loyal Volunteers are unanimously disposed, on all Occasions, to sacrifice their Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Inverness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of your antient Borough of Inverness, beg Leave, with the most lively Sentiments of Affection, Respect and Veneration, to express our sincere Sorrow and Regret that under the benign Influence of the best of Kings and the happiest Government any Persons should be found so flagitiously wicked as to stir up a riotous and lawless Mob to offer Insult and Outrage to your Majesty on a late Occasion, in going to and returning from meeting your Parliament.

Deeply impressed with the warmest Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, we sincerely congratulate you on your happy Escape from the daring Attack made on your Royal Person.

We return to the Supreme Disposer of all Events our grateful Acknowledgments that he has been pleased, as a valuable Addition to our other Mercies, to preserve your Majesty's Life, which we earnestly pray may be continued in Health and Prosperity, and that you may long reign in the Hearts of a loyal, grateful and happy People.

To promote, by the Favour of Heaven, these desirable Ends, we assure your Majesty that we are determined by every Means in our Power to protect and support your Majesty's sacred Person and Government against all foreign and domestic Enemies.

Signed, in our Presence and by our Appointment,
John Mackintosh, Provost.

Town Hall, Inverness, November 16, 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth, duly assembled, humbly desire to approach your Majesty, to express the Feelings of our Hearts upon Occasion of the late daring Outrage offered to your Majesty's Person.

We do not cease to render our sincerest Thanks to Almighty God, who, by a great Deliverance, hath been pleased to save your Majesty's most precious Life from the atrocious Attempts of turbulent and wicked Men: And we deeply lament that any of your Majesty's Subjects should have been so far destitute titute of a Sense of their Duty to God and to your Majesty, as to offer Violence to your Royal Person.

Our most earnest Prayer to God is, that your Majesty may long be preserved, for a Blessing to the Kingdoms over which you reign; and that all who follow seditious or treasonable Practices may be detected and put to Shame.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, in the County of Ayr, most humbly request Permission at this Time to present to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's fortunate Escape from the late diabolical Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person, and to express our utmost Detestation of a Crime, attempted by wicked and mislead Assassins, at which Humanity shudders.

Impressed with a just Sense of the many and signal Blessings, which Britons enjoy under your Majesty's Government, our greatest Desire shall ever be to conduct ourselves as your Majesty's affectionate and loyal Subjects.

That the Life of our beloved and gracious Sovereign may be long preserved; and that your Majesty's Reign may continue to be happy and prosperous, is the sincere and fervent Prayer of this Community.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Lanark, and Deacons of Crafts thereof, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Lanark, and Deacons of Crafts thereof, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with this our unanimous Address, to express our Gratitude for those manifold Blessings which we enjoy, in common with all our Fellow Subjects, under your mild, just and legal Government.

Being thus sensible of our own Happiness, it is with equal Sorrow and Surprize that we find ourselves called upon to express our Horror and Indignation at the most daring Assault and Outrage offered to your Royal Person, in your Majesty's Passage to and from your Majesty's Parliament, when about to exercise the sacred Duties of the Crown, and to fulfil your Part of our most excellent Constitution.

We sincerely lament that a Period has arrived when any Person within your Majesty's Dominions should be found so daringly wicked as to hazard, by such atrocious Violence, the Safety of your Royal Person, and therein the Happiness of a whole Country.

It is therefore, with the most profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Events, that we have to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from such treacherous Attacks, dangerous at once to the public Tranquillity, and in Violation of the glorious Constitution, of which your Majesty forms so important a Part.

Permit us, Sire, to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for your gracious Intention to give the fullest and speediest Effect to a Declaration for a general Peace, on just and suitable Terms; whenever an Order of Things shall arise most compatible with the Tranquillity of our Kingdoms. In the mean Time a vigorous Exertion of the Power of Great Britain appears to us to be the only Means by which this important End can be accomplished.

That Almighty God may bless your Majesty's Councils, give Success to your Arms; that a speedy Peace may take Place, and the further Effusion of Human Blood be prevented; that you may have a long and prosperous Reign over a free and happy People, is our sincere Prayer.

At a Meeting of the Dunbar Royal Volunteers, held in the Town Hall, Dunbar, on Monday the 16th of November, 1795, the following Address was unanimously voted to His Majesty, and Christopher Middlemass, Esq; Major Commandant of the Corps, was requested to sign and transmit the same to the Marquis of Tweeddale, Lord Lieutenant of the County, in order that his Lordship might forward the same to His Majesty's Secretary of State.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Dunbar Royal Volunteers, impressed with the same Sentiments of Veneration, and steady Attachment to your sacred Person and Governments that induced us to request Permission to take up Arms in Defence of what is dear to every Lover of his Country, our Liberties, as secured to us by our glorious Constitution, deem it our Duty again to declare our Readiness to contribute our Share, as far as the Sphere of our Power extends, to promote a dutiful Submission to the Laws; and while we rejoice that your Majesty was preserved from a late imminent Danger, we cannot help expressing our Indignation and Abhorrence at those daring and wicked Insults that were offered to your Royal Person by a Set of Men who have so often endeavoured to embroil their Country, and excite in the public Mind a Spirit of Distrust and Dissatisfaction towards the Government. Anxious for the Support and Preservation of our Constitution, whose Importance and Value appear more conspicuous from the Conduct of those who vilely endeavour to destroy it, we trust that those Disturbers of due Order will be watched with such Vigilance that their wicked Hands will continue to be bound up, and that their pernicious Schemes will only serve to cement the more firmly the Hearts of all who love their Country, and cause them strain every Nerve to strengthen the Hands of those who are appointed to administer the Laws, and promote our Interests.

Zealous for the Preservation of our Rights and Privileges, sacred and civil, and sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild, equitable, and paternal Administration, we hope that the same Providence, which has hitherto been your Preserver, will continue to protect your Majesty against all the evil Designs of the Turbulent and Seditious.

That your Majesty may long reign happy in the Enjoyment of every Blessing, happy in possessing the Confidence and Affection of a virtuous and loyal People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Dunbar Royal Volunteers.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corps of Volunteers for the internal Defence of the City of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Volunteers of the City of York, implore Permission to approach the Throne with our sincere and fervent Congratulation on the late providential Deliverance of your Majesty's sacred Person from the Violence of disaffected and traitorous Men, who, with a Purpose to introduce Confusion and Anarchy, have aimed a Blow at the invaluable Life of a Sovereign, under whose mild and constitutional Government the Blessings of Law and Order have long been enjoyed by a free and happy People.

Embodied as we are, under your Majesty's most gracious Sanction, permit us here to renew to your Majesty that Engagement by which we stand bound in our Persons to maintain, and to the Extent of our Influence to promote Respect and Obedience to the Constitution and Laws of our Country, a due and grateful Sense of your Majesty's paternal Administration of those Laws, and consequently the most dutiful and affectionate Attachment and Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of Maybole, deeply affected at that daring Insult and atrocious Outrage lately offered to the sacred Person of our beloved Sovereign the Father of his People, beg Leave, we trust, in Accord with the united Sentiments and Voice of the British Nation, humbly to offer up our hearty Congratulations for the providential Delivery of your Majesty out of the Hands of wicked Men, hired, it would seem, by no less execrable Leaders.

On this Occasion permit us to express our earnest and constant Wish, that it may please God to prolong for many Years your Majesty's Life, for a Blessing to your People, and for the Maintenance of that happy Constitution under which they enjoy the secure Possession of their Property, and all their Rights and Privileges both civil and religious.

May the wicked Designs of factious Men, concerted against your Majesty, prove at all Times abortive, and serve only to bring on themselves that Punishment and Infamy which they justly deserve, is, may it please your Majesty, the sincere Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful, affectionate, and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of Maybole.

May it please your Majesty

TO accept the sincere Congratulations of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Officers and Volunteers forming the first Company of Cinque Ports Infantry within the Town of Faversham, in the County

County of Kent, upon the providential Deliverance of your Majesty from the nefarious Attempts of an abandoned Set of Miscreants, who, lost to every Sense of Feeling, and unmindful of the sacred Station which your Majesty holds in the Constitution of these Realms, have dared to attempt the Life of your Majesty, and even at the Time when your Majesty was about to discharge the Duties of your high Office in Parliament.

The voluntary Services which we have cheerfully embraced; comprehending not merely a Defence against the common Foe, but also the Suppression of Tumults and seditious Practices, we cannot, at this important Crisis, restrain our ardent Desire to express, in the strongest Terms, our Detestation of the Principles which actuated the Minds of those who formed the horrid Design against your Majesty's Life; and although happy in the Reflection that in our Situation we perceive Loyalty to your Majesty to be the universal Sentiment, yet, ever mindful of the Purpose of our Institution, we will, whenever called upon, support the glorious Constitution, of which your Majesty forms so essential a Part, and with our Lives defend it against the Attacks of open Force and interested Malevolence.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, in the County of Westmorland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your loyal Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, humbly beg Leave to express our Concern and Indignation at the Violence lately offered to your sacred Person, on your going to and returning from your Parliament; and always firmly attached to your illustrious Family and our most excellent Constitution, we beg that your Majesty will accept of our sincere Congratulations on your happy Escape.

We beg Leave to present to your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your gracious Intention of giving the fullest and speediest Effect to a Negotiation for a general Peace, whenever it can be done with a reasonable Expectation of Security and Permanence to any Treaty which may be concluded.

We sincerely pray the Supreme Disposer of all Events that your Majesty's Reign may be long and happy; and that your Posterity may continue to reign over a free, happy and united People to the latest Period of Time.

The humble Address of the Loyal Volunteer Corps of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerset.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects and Servants, the Loyal Volunteers of Bridgwater, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express our Horror and Indignation at the atrocious Insult lately offered to your sacred Person, at a Moment when your Majesty, anxious for the Welfare of your People, was about to discharge an important Trust, committed to your Majesty by that great and glorious Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live.

That Constitution, and especially your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, we are inviolably bound by Duty and Inclination, to the utmost of our Power, to support and defend, as well against such daring Disturbers of the public Peace, as those foreign Enemies, whose Doctrines and Example have unfortunately been too prevalent.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to embrace this Opportunity to assure your Majesty of our firm Dependence on Divine Providence, and the experienced Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, for repelling the Insults, and defeating the Attempts of the Enemies of your Majesty's Crown and Kingdom; and that in due Time your Majesty will be thereby enabled to bring to an happy Issue the Contest in which we are engaged, and restore to your faithful People the Blessings of an honourable and permanent Peace.

S I R E;

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dover Cinque Port Companies of Volunteer Infantry, associated and embodied for the Defence of this ancient and loyal Town, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late atrocious and malignant Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person, and to express our Abhorrence of so detestable an Attempt, proceeding from Doctrines infiduously instituted into the Minds of your Majesty's deluded Subjects, tending to overthrow all social Order, and to subvert our happy and glorious Constitution.

Suffer us, most gracious Sovereign, to add our warmest Wishes for the Prolongation and Support of your Majesty's mild and happy Government, a Government securing to your Subjects that Felicity and Protection which renders it most deservedly envied.

And allow us, Sire, with our ardent Wishes for the Continuation of your Reign, to offer those Services to yourself and our Country, for which you have been graciously pleased to permit us to arm; with full Assurance of our unshaken and unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty and present Government; and that we will employ those Arms with Zeal and Firmness against all sacrilegious Assassins, their Counsellors and Abettors, if, unhappily, the Exigencies of the Times compel us to resort to coercive Measures.

WE, the Undersigned, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, and of the Borough Borough of Gateshead, (who to the Characters we respectively hold in Civil Life have united a Military one in Support of Order and good Government) beg Leave to approach your Majesty to express our Grief and Indignation for the unmanly and criminal Outrages which were lately offered to your Majesty's Person. We humbly congratulate your Majesty, and are thankful to the great Disposer of all Events for the Preservation of your Life, a Life the Preservation of which at this Period most materially concerns not only the Safety and Happiness of these Kingdoms, but the Welfare of all Europe. We trust that your Subjects, animated by the Zeal and Attachment which your Majesty's many personal Virtues must necessarily inspire them with, and also viewing with Detestation these nefarious Attempts, will at this Crisis stand forward with that Courage and Determination which Britons have ever evinced in Defence of the Constitution of their Country.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemsters of the Isle of Mann.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemsters of the Isle of Mann, beg Leave thus to approach your Majesty, to express our Horror and Consternation at the daring and atrocious Attacks made upon the most sacred Person of your Majesty, in passing lately to and from your Parliament. It is indeed with Astonishment also, equalled only by our Concern, we find, what before we could not have conceived possible, that in your Majesty's Dominions there could exist Persons capable of Crimes so deeply flagitious, so subversive and destructive of all Law and Order, and of every Thing nearest and dearest to the Hearts of all good Men; that such Crimes could for a Moment be even imagined, far less attempted by any of your Majesty's Subjects; Men who in the constant Experience of the many amiable, princely and patriotic Virtues of your Majesty, have had such ample and just Cause to rejoice under a Government and Reign, the great or sole Objects of which have invariably and obviously been, as far as within the Power of human Wisdom, aided by best Intention, to promote, with true Liberty, the Peace, Prosperity, Happiness, and Glory of the Empire.

We also beg Leave, most gracious Sovereign, to offer our unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential and happy Escape from these Outrages, perpetrated against your Majesty and our Constitution, to express our most ardent Wish, that the Authors and Abettors of Crimes so deeply atrocious may be soon discovered, and, loaded with the just Execration of all good Men, be brought to that exemplary Punishment such Crimes so richly deserve; and that your Majesty may long, very long continue to reign over and in the Hearts of a free, grateful, and happy People, ever including your Majesty's most faithful Subjects the Inhabitants of the Isle of Mann.

House of Keys, November 18, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and County of Poole, beg Leave to express our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence of the Outrages offered to your Majesty's Person in your Majesty's Passage to and from Parliament, and our sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from Injury. We earnestly hope the Authors and Abettors of so atrocious a Crime will be discovered, and receive the just Punishment of the Laws; and add our sincere Prayers that it will please Divine Providence to protect your Royal Person, and permit your Majesty long to reign in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful, and affectionate People.

When we reflect on the Happiness which all your Majesty's Subjects derive from your Majesty's mild Government, and at the same Time consider that there are Persons who are insensible of it, and have dared to offer such Insult, we are filled with the deepest Concern and Regret.

We also beg Leave to profess our firm Attachment to your Majesty, and pray that your Majesty may long live and reign over your free and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address and Congratulation of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberdeen, in Presbytery assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberdeen, beg Leave with all Humility and Respect to approach your Majesty's Throne; and with that unfeigned Affection, which we owe to the best of Sovereigns, to assure your Majesty of our sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Animated with these Sentiments, we could not without deep Concern hear of the audacious and wicked Attacks so lately made upon your Majesty's sacred Person in going to and returning from your Parliament.

We lament the Infatuation of those, who, insensible to the Benignity and Virtue of a truly Patriot King, to the Mildness and Clemency of his Reign, and to the Excellence of a Constitution by which we enjoy Liberties and Privileges, in other Countries unknown, could have dared by such an Outrage to expose these Realms to the Danger of losing a Monarch so deservedly beloved, and perhaps of exchanging, for the Horrors of Anarchy and Irreligion, all that free-born Britons can regard as dear.

Happy in being able to assure your Majesty that Sentiments of Loyalty and a Love of Order prevail among the People committed to our Charge, with the most devout Gratitude to Almighty God we congratulate your Majesty that the Supreme Disposer of all Events, who hath so often by signal Interpositions of his Providence preserved from imminent Danger the Religion, the Laws, and the Liberties of these Realms, hath at this Time saved the inevitable Life of a Prince, whom under him we justly regard as the fatherly Protector of them all.

That God may be graciously pleased to turn the Hearts of the Disaffected, to diffuse the Principles of Loyalty and Virtue over all these Kingdoms, and to preserve your Majesty's most valuable Life, for a Blessing to your People: That the Descendants of your Majesty's illustrious House may sit on the British Throne, as faithful Guardians of the Civil and Religious Liberties of the Nation to the latest Posterity; and that your Majesty, after a long and prosperous Reign over a free and happy People, may at last, through the Merits of Jesus Christ our Lord, enter into those Regions where pious Princes shall receive an un fading Crown, are, and ever shall be, the most fervent Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberdeen.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Justices of Peace, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Selkirk, having heard of the late daring and most outrageous Attack made on your Majesty on your Way to and from Parliament, beg Leave to express our Detestation at the Insult, our Abhorrence of the Perpetrators and our Thankfulness to Almighty God for the Preservation of your Majesty's Life and the Safety of your Royal Person.

Situated at a Distance from the Capital, we are removed from the Knowledge of many of those Attempts used by the Seditious to inflame the Minds of the Ignorant, the Unwary and the Idle; but with great Satisfaction we perceive the Two Houses of Parliament have turned their Attention to the Framing of Regulations, which we trust will be brought to Maturity, and prove an effectual Bar to the evil Designs of the Enemies of the Constitution of Great Britain.

We earnestly hope that those who have been concerned in the Violence offered to your Majesty may speedily be discovered and made to suffer the Punishment due to the Enormity of their Guilt.

We can with the utmost Sincerity assure your Majesty that we remain uncorrupted in our Loyalty, unshaken in our Attachment to the true Principles of the Constitution, and determined on every Occasion to shew forth the Sentiments of Respect and Affection which we bear to your Majesty, to your Government, and to your illustrious Family.

That your Majesty may long reign over us, that your Government may be undisturbed, and that all your People may be convinced, as we are, of the Happiness derived from the Mildness of your Administration, is the united Wish of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of the County of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Kirkcudbright, beg Leave to congratulate your your Majesty on your providential Escape from the imminent Danger with which your Majesty's Person was lately threatened.

Whilst we devoutly acknowledge the Interposition of Heaven in the Protection of your Royal Person, we do at the same Time sincerely lament that there should be found in any Part of your Majesty's Dominions some Individuals, who, unawed by the Dignity of your Royal Character, and regardless of the Blessings of our happy Form of Government, should dare to insult your sacred Person, and thereby endanger the Safety of our excellent Constitution.

It affords us however the highest Satisfaction, that we can assure your Majesty that a Spirit of Loyalty to your Person and Attachment to the Constitution universally prevail amongst all Ranks of our People.

Your faithful Subjects, who are committed to our Care, feel with us the deepest Sorrow and Indignation at the late horrid and unprovoked Attack upon your Majesty's Person, and cordially join in offering Prayers to Almighty God that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved for a Blessing to these Realms.

Signed, in our Name, and by our Appointment, this 21st Day of November, 1795 Years.

Robert Muter, D. D. Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Moderator of the Presbytry.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corps of Loyal Greenock Volunteers.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Loyal Greenock Volunteers, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the sincerest Congratulations on your Escape from the late flagitious Attack on your Majesty's most sacred Person.

We hold in the utmost Abhorrence the Instigators and Perpetrators of the daring and wicked Attempt on your Majesty's Life.

We trust in the Wisdom and Firmness of the Legislature to enact such Laws as will effectually restrain that Spirit of Sedition already too prevalent. And we highly disapprove of the Conduct of those Men, who appearing insensible of the Dangers arising from such a Spirit, may thereby be the Authors of much Mischiefs.

Permit us to assure your Majesty that our Efforts to secure the Safety of your Royal Person, and to maintain the Respect due to your Majesty's Character, Dignity and Government, shall not cease but with our Lives.

That your Majesty may long reign over these Lands, blessed in your Person, Family and Government, is the earnest Prayer of your most dutiful Subjects, the Loyal Greenock Volunteers.

Signed, at the unanimous Desire of the Corps.

Arch. Campbell, Major-Commandant.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Head Quarters of Marshal Clerfaye's / Mayence, November 3, 1795

Army

My Lord,
I Have the Honor to inform your Lord Marshal Clerfaye's advanced Guard followed up the brilliant Victory of the much Vigour, that they have taken Pieces of Artillery in Addition and Six mentioned in my last R

ship, that s have fol-29th with fo-en Forty-three to the Hundred sport. They have

found the Remains of great Quantities of Ammunition Waggon that had been blown up; Stores of all Sorts, partly damaged, partly serviceable; and wherever their March has been directed they have perceived evident Traces of the most precipitate and disorderly Flight. General Schaal's dispersed Army has gone towards the Moselle.

Marshal Clerfaye has occupied Bingen and Kreuznach, and placed a Corps in each Position behind the Nahe Rivulet as to cut off all direct Communication between Generals Jourdan and Pichegru. He has also a Corps at Alzey, whose advanced Posts extend nearly to Worms. Part of his Troops have returned from the Lahn, and the main Army is now collected, and encamped in Front of Mayence behind the Seltz Rivulet.

On the 30th of October the Austrian General Boros surpris'd and made Prisoners Seven Hundred Infantry who occupied the Nieder Wert, an Island on the Rhine near Neuwied. And on the 31st the Enemy evacuated the strong Works that they had erected to cover their Bridge at that Place, upon finding that the Austrians were preparing to storm them.

Every Day fresh Instances come to our Knowledge of Outrages and Cruelties exercised by General Jourdan's Troops in their Retreat. The Inhabitants were driven to Despair in many Places, and fell upon the Enemy with Forks, Scythes, and such other Weapons as they could procure.

Head Quarters of Marshal Clerfaye, Bechtheim, Nov. 9, 1795.

My Lord,

I Have the Honour to inform your Lordship, that an advanced Corps of Marshal Clerfaye's Army, under the Command of General Naundorf, obtained an Advantage over the Enemy on the 3d Instant, between Alzey and Kirkheim; and on the 4th the Marshal marched from his Camp before Mayence, on the 5th he arrived at this Place, which is about Eight English Miles from Worms.

General Wartenleben encamped the same Day with a considerable Corps in the Neighbourhood of Alzey, being covered by Two advanced Guards, One under the Prince of Hohenloe at Bingen, the other under General Naundorf, who occupied Kreuznach, and masked the Enemy's Post at Kirkheim. The advanced Guard of the main Army, commanded by General Kray, encamped near Pfedersheim, upon the Pfim Rivulet, drawing it's advanced Posts from the Rhine till they formed those of General Naundorf.

On the 6th Instant General Naundorf marched with Part of his Troops to take Possession of the principal Pass that leads from Kreuznach to Kaiserlautern. He attacked the Enemy at Rockenhäusen, who, after being dislodged from a very strong entrenched Post at that Place, abandoned Falkenstein, and retired in great Confusion behind Winweiler.

The Loss of the Austrians on this Occasion was not great. The Enemy had about Two Hundred taken Prisoners, and left about Three Hundred dead on the Field.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

C. CRAUFURD.

Admiralty-Office, November 24.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir John L'Etang, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Leeward Islands, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Majestic, Martinica, October 8, 1795.

ON the 30th Ult. the Vanguard, cruizing to Windward of Desada, took a Frigate belonging to the Convention of France, called the Superbe, mounting 22 Guns, and 106 Men, the rest having been put into Prizes, Two of which she had with her, viz, a Guineaman, which escaped, and a Brig from Barbadoes, bound for Newfoundland, which was retaken.

Admiralty-Office, November 24.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Peyton, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Downes, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated November 22, 1795.

S I R,

YOU will please to acquaint their Lordships, that His Majesty's Sloop Ferret returned here this Morning from cruizing to the Westward, and has brought in with her a small French Lugger Privateer of Four Guns, Four-Pounders, and Swivels, with Thirty Men.

I understand the said Privateer left Calais on Thursday Morning last, and was taken by the Ferret the same Night, off Blackness.

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Instant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, was passing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently assaulted by Three Men, who were unknown to him, and stabbed in his Right Leg, and cut across the Calf thereof with some sharp Instrument, of which said Stab and Cut he now lies dangerously maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to seize the Man by whom he believed he was so wounded and cut, the others again assaulted him, and rescued the Person whom he had so seized.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders, (except the Person who actually gave the said Stab and Cut,) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the said Regiment to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, so as that he or they may be convicted thereof.

Ross and Ogilvie, Argyle-Street, Agents.

Whitehall, November 20, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that late on the Night of Thursday the 12th Instant, or early in the Morning of Friday the 13th Instant, Two Guns, loaded with Slugs or other Pieces of Lead, were, by certain evil-minded Persons, fired into a Bedchamber of the Dwelling-House of — Pyrke, Esq; a Magistrate for the County of Gloucester, situate at Little-sean in the said County, with Intent him the said Mr. Pyrke to murder and kill; which said Slugs or other Pieces of Lead passed close to a Bed which was in the said Chamber, and in which the said Mr. Pyrke usually sleeps.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more the said Offenders, (except the Person or Persons who actually so fired the said Two Guns or either of them) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty does hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon Conviction.

Navy-Office, November 26, 1795.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Tuesday the 1st of next Month, at One o'Clock, they will put up to Sale, at their Office in Somerset-Place, now lying at Deptford; where any Person may have the Liberty of viewing her during the common Working Hours of the Yard till the Day of Sale.

Inventories and Conditions of Sale may be had here and at the Yard.

APPRENTICE DUTY INDEMNITY.

Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, May 16, 1795.

HIS Majesty's Commissioners for Managing the Stamp Duties do hereby give Notice, That by a Clause in an Act of the present Session of Parliament, it is enacted, for the Relief of all Persons who have omitted to pay the several Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given paid or contracted for, with Clerks, Apprentices or Servants, and also who have omitted to insert and write in Words at Length in Indentures or other Writings relating to the Service of any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or contracted for, with or in relation to every such Clerk Apprentice or Servant, that, upon Payment of double the Rates and Duties upon the Monies, or such Part of the Monies, so omitted or neglected to be paid, and also so omitted to be inserted and written in such Indenture or Writing, on or before the 19th Day of December next, to the proper Officer, and tendering the same to be stamped at this Office, every such Indenture or other Writing shall be good and valid, and the Persons so offending be excused from any Penalty incurred by the Omission thereof; except those against whom any Prosecution shall be now depending.

By Order of the Commissioners,

John Brettell, Secretary.
