By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes taken from the Subjects of the United Provinces subsequent to the Fifteenth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council for granting General Reprizals against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the said United Provinces.

GEORGE R.

WHETHERAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Fifteenth Day of September last, We have ordered that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the United Provinces, To that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the said United Provinces, or any Persons being Subjects thereof, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the said United Provinces, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within our Dominions; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects, who may have lawfully seized any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or who shall hereafter seize any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all such Ships and Goods as aforesaid, which, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September, 1795, have been, or hereafter, during the present Hostilities, shall be seized as aforesaid, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken as aforesaid, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or which shall hereafter be taken as aforesaid, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say, That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprizals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners aforesaid) may be sold and disposed posed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters and others to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprizals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before. And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes, which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines and Soldiers on Board Our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture, and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows; the Whole of the neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts.

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on Board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on Board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Master on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such Physician be actually on Board at the Time of taking such Prizes.

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Comodoro's, with Captains under them, Boat-swains, Gunners, Purser, Carpenter, Masters Mates, Chirurgeon, Pilot and Chaplain on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The Midshipmen, Captain's Clerk, Master-Sail-maker, Carpenter's Mates, Boat-swains Mates, Gunner's Mates, Master at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Cockswain, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters Mates, Chirurgeon's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines, and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty and assisting on Board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them.

Provided that if any Officer being on Board any of our Ships of War at the Time of taking any Prize shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes, which, according to the above mentioned Distribution, shall belong to his superior Commission or Office. And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War taking any Prize, as soon as may be, to transmit, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others who were actually on Board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on Board, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster Books and annexed Lists, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War, and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them, (the said Commissioners) they shall give or cause to be given to the said Agents all such Lists from the Muster Books of any such Ships of War, and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce

Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part herein before mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers, who shall actually be on Board at the taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command: Secondly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command at Jamaica or elsewhere, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives at the Place to which he is sent, and actually takes upon him the Command. Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent out to reinforce a superior Flag Officer, at Jamaica or elsewhere, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer, before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the superior Flag Officer, and actually receive some Order from him. Fourthly, That a chief Flag Officer returning Home, from Jamaica or elsewhere, shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind to act under another Command. Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Sixthly, That when more Flag-Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth Part, and the other shall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided amongst the other Flag Officers. Seventhly, That Commodores with Captains under them shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief or serving under Command. Eighthly, That the First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Fifteen Ships of the Line of Batt (provided such last mentioned Fleet or Squadron shall be composed of His Majesty's own Ships,) shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be intitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further order, That in case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers, in the Manner herein before directed, in the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Master, or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be One on Board,) shall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three equal Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command. That the Share of the Chirurgion, or Chirurgion's Mate (where there is no Chirurgion,) Midshipmen, and Clerk and Steward; shall be One Eighth; that the Share of the Boatwain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeomen of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on Board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Vessel, without any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War being present or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in case any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War shall be present, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on Board such Cutters and Schooners, or Armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on Board His Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, December 1.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty at this critical Juncture, and to join the general Voice of your loving Subjects in expressing our sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late most daring and flagitious Attack on your Royal Person, and also to testify our Indignation and Abhorrence against the seditious Authors and Abettors of this horrid Outrage.

We humbly hope, that by a vigorous Exertion of legal Authority, the Guilty may be brought to speedy and condign Punishment, in order to prevent a Repetition of such atrocious Attacks, which strike at once again the King and Constitution.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under the mild and auspicious Reign of your Majesty, we feel the warmest Attachments of Duty and Loyalty to your sacred Person, as well as the firmest Determination to support and maintain our excellent Constitution, as by Law established.

Your Majesty having ever shewn yourself the steady Guardian of our Rights, civil and religious, our most earnest Prayers are offered to the Supreme Being, that your Majesty's sacred and valuable Life may be long preserved for the Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

Signed, at the unanimous Request of the Meeting,
MANCHESTER, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Liberties of the Tower of London, in Sessions assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the said Liberties, deeply impressed with great Concern to find that the Minds of any of your Majesty's Subjects should be so perverted from their Duty, and so forgetful of those Virtues which adorn your Royal Person, to become so desperately infatuated as to commit the late atrocious Outrage against your Majesty's sacred Person, in going to and returning from your Parliament.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Escape from an Attempt so criminally malignant, by which the invaluable Constitution of this Country was endangered; and to assure your Majesty that as Magistrates we will be vigilant and active to curb and suppress those dangerous and seditious Spirits, whose sole Wish is to poison the Minds of those who have a proper Sense of the Blessings of your Government, and hope to prosper in their nefarious Designs of introducing Anarchy and Confusion.

And being fully convinced that those Designs are as manifest as they are wicked, we, at this momentous Crisis, firmly rely upon the Wisdom of Parliament for enacting such Laws as will tend to secure your Majesty's Person and Government, and preserve the Peace, Happiness, and Safety of the Country.

Signed, by Order of the Court,
Dan. Williams, Chairman.

[Presented by Daniel Williams, Esq; Chairman of the Sessions for the said Liberties.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dover, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dover, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your late providential Escape from the daring Attack on your Majesty's Person, and to express our Horror and Abhorrence against the Authors and Instigators of so violent an Outrage.

Experiencing the Blessings which our happy Constitution afford, and impressed with a deep Sense of your Majesty's numerous and exalted Virtues, and of that paternal Regard which your Majesty has unceasingly shewn for the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, we cannot reflect on this atrocious Attempt without being filled with Sorrow and Astonishment that Persons could be found in this Kingdom so depraved and lost to every Sentiment of Religion and Allegiance as to be capable of committing it.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady and unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to the present Form of Government; and it is our fervent Prayer, that the Divine Providence may shield your Majesty from the Attacks of secret and open Enemies, and long preserve your Majesty's Life, to reign over a free, loyal, and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal the 16th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Thomas Mantell, Esq; accompanied by John Trevanion and Charles Small Pybus, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Town and Port.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corps of Volunteers of the Borough of Leeds,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Volunteers of the Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the malicious Attempts of a Band of Miscreants, and to express our Horror and Detestation of the Principles which could excite or encourage so wicked and desperate an Attack.

Enrolled under your Majesty's Sanction and Commission, for the Defence of our happy Constitution and it's Laws, we consider ourselves pledged to watch, with a jealous Eye, every Attempt to subvert them; and we cannot but view the late atrocious Insult offered to your sacred Person, when going processedly to consult with the other Branches of the Legislature for the publick Welfare, as a Blow aimed at the Constitution itself, which we have sworn to defend.

Permit us therefore, Sire, under the Impulse of an ardent Affection for your Royal Virtues, a respectful Gratitude for your gracious Government, and a zealous Attachment to our rational and legal Freedom, known only unto British Subjects, thus to declare our firm and united Resolution to support (to the utmost of our Abilities) your Majesty's Person, Crown and Dignity, to assist the Civil Power in the Execution of their Offices derived from your Authority, and to protect our Fellow Subjects in the peaceable Enjoyment of their Properties and dearest Rights from the Machinations of the Seditious, the Rapine of the Lawless, and the Outrage of the Licentious.

Signed at the unanimous Request of the Corps.
Thomas Lloyd, Lieutenant-Colonel Commandant.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Helston, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and humbly to offer warmest and most sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the horrid and atrocious Attack made upon your sacred Person by wicked and seditious Men, whose Designs have been most happily frustrated by that Almighty Power, which we trust will continue to be your Majesty's Defence and Support against all your open and secret Enemies.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, at the Guildhall, the 14th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by Charles Abbot, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Alderman, Burgesses and Inhabitants in general of your Majesty's ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of your ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham, beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Escape from the traitorous and villainous Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person, a Circumstance we look to with the greatest Abhorrence and Indignation.

Permit us to assure you, most gracious Sire, of our most faithful Attachment to your Royal Person, that we shall be ever attentive, with our utmost Vigilance and Exertions; to preserve and defend it, and to support and maintain inviolate that noble Edifice our Constitution, reared by the Wisdom and Perseverance of our Ancestors, and now the Pride and Boast of every true Englishman; and any Attempt that may be made to subvert or overturn it we are determined to discountenance and resist to the last Extremity.

[Presented by R. A. Neville, Esq; High Steward of the said Corporation.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Falmouth, impressed with a due Sense of the Blessings we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, enjoy from the just and admirable Constitution and Laws of this Kingdom, and from your Majesty's mild and indulgent Administration thereof, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to express our Abhorrence of the recent wicked Attempt made upon the Person of your Majesty, with a Design to terminate, by one dreadful Act of the blackest Turpitude, not only your Majesty's most valuable Life, ever dear to all true Englishmen, but that Constitution and those Laws, the Result of the Wisdom of Ages, by which we and our Forefathers have been so long happily governed, and which have made us the Envy and the Admiration of the World.

We trace this infamous Attempt to the Industry with which Doctrines of the most seditious Nature are publicly disseminated, calculated to dissatisfy the Minds of the People with the Laws of their Country, and to stir them up to Acts of Treason and Rebellion. We therefore trust that effectual Measures will be speedily taken for enforcing the existing Laws against Practices of such a dreadful Tendency, and in case they shall not be sufficient, that Laws may be enacted for the Prevention of this public Evil, and for the Protection of your Majesty's Royal Person.

Permit us, Sire, to renew our most solemn Assurances of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, and our fixed Determination to support, by every Means in our Power, your Majesty's Person and the glorious Constitution of this Kingdom; as by Law established. And we earnestly hope, from the Union of all good Men in this Sentiment, that the Anarchy, Confusion and Destruction of Property (so evidently the Wish of the seditious Persons who have excited this Attempt) will, by the Blessing of God, be frustrated.

We implore the Divine Providence to protect your Majesty against all Attempts of your Enemies, and to preserve you for many Years to reign over us, and to remain a Pattern of Virtue and Goodness both in public and private Life.

By Order of the Meeting,

James Tippet, Town-Clerk.

[Presented by Sir John Wodehouse, Bart. Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Lancaster, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Sentiments of the sincerest Respect and Attachment.

Attachment, to present our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the premeditated Attack of a lawless Faction, when you were proceeding to exercise a most essential Part of your Prerogative, the Meeting of your Parliament, and to express our utter Detestation of the Principles that actuated these misguided People to offer such a treasonous Indignity to your sacred Person,

We also beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, as it is our bounden Duty, so it is our Inclination, to use the best Means in our Power to repress that daring innovating Spirit, whose Object is the Overthrow of our happy Constitution, the introduction of Anarchy, and the Subversion of all regular Government.

That this Kingdom may be blessed by a long Continuance of your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, is the sincere Wish and ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Presented by Sir George Warren, K. B. and John Dent, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Servants, the Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Borough of Gosport and Parish of Alverstoke, do most humbly presume to offer our Tribute of Congratulation on your Majesty's late providential Deliverance from the Hands of a desperate Banditti of Assassins.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we view with peculiar Horror and Detestation the Insults which have been offered to your Royal Person, and that we will on all Occasions exert our utmost Endeavours to support your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and to defend your sacred Person against all those who dare to weaken the Foundations of the one, or to hurt or injure the other.

Most humbly adoring the Goodness of Almighty God in graciously rescuing your Majesty's Person from Blood-thirsty Hands, and admiring the Wisdom of Legislature in taking such Measures for the Protection of your Majesty in future as those wherein both Houses of Parliament are now engaged, we beg Leave to lay ourselves, with all Humility, at your Majesty's Feet, as your dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Presented by Thomas Curry, Esq; one of His Majesty's Justices of Peace for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeves, Clergy, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton, whose Names are under written.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, Clergy, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your late happy Deliverance, under Divine Providence, from the malicious Designs of Assassins against your Majesty's Person.

The late unprincipled and seditious Meetings, to which may be imputed the recent Attempt against your Majesty's Life, call upon us to give your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our Fidelity and Allegiance, and of our inviolable Attachment to the present Government, as established by Law in these Kingdoms.

That your Government should at any Time be disturbed by those who are protected by it gives us great Concern, but particularly at this Conjunction when we are at War with France, that some of your Majesty's Subjects should have concerted such a diabolical Scheme in order to involve their native Country in Anarchy and Confusion, with a View to destroy British Liberty, fills us with Horror, and we want Words sufficiently to express our Detestation of it.

For ourselves we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that, with the utmost Abhorrence of such rebellious Behaviour, and with the warmest Zeal for our holy Religion, we shall most affectionately join with our loyal Fellow Subjects in Defence of your sacred Person and Government, and are determined to accompany them in their most vigorous Efforts for the Support and Protection of their Liberty and Country, and to suppress all unlawful and seditious Meetings, calculated only to introduce Anarchy and Confusion, and subvert all Order and Government.

Permit us also to return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for your Intention to effect a general Peace whenever the Situation of Things in France shall afford reasonable Ground to hope for Security and Permanency of the Blessings attendant on such a Measure.

Given under our Hands, at the Chapel of St. Lawrence, within the said Borough, this 11th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by Robert Mackreth, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to address your Majesty for the Purpose of expressing our utter Detestation and Abhorrence at the very daring and outrageous Attack made upon your Majesty's Royal Person in going to and returning from opening the present Session of Parliament.

We assure your Majesty that we will at all Times be ready to support your Majesty against all Attempts that shall be made against your Person, Crown, and Dignity, and heartily give our Support to any Measure that shall be adopted for the better Security thereof.

With sincere Happiness we observe that Part of your Majesty's most gracious Speech in which you mention your Intention of taking the earliest Opportunity of negotiating for Peace as soon as there is a Prospect of its being permanent and honourable. That the same may be speedily accomplished is the sincere and hearty Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Presented by George Fludger and James Dawkins, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, the Recorder, the Aldermen, and Common Council of your ancient Borough of Doncaster, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on your late happy Escape from the wicked and atrocious Attack made upon your Royal Person, by a Set of daring, deluded and unprincipled Men, when your Majesty was going to perform one principal Part of your Royal Office, that of Opening the present Sessions of Parliament.

We are truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government; and we most humbly beseech the Giver of all Good to extend to your Majesty his Protection, and to grant you a long and happy Reign, and to your People the Continuance of those Blessings they now enjoy under our most excellent Constitution; and that He will be pleased to guard this Land from the Designs of the Factions, and from the Evils ever attendant on Political Licentiousness.

Given under our Common Seal, this 19th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1795.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring Attack made on your sacred Person, and at the same Time to express our Indignation and Abhorrence at so outrageous an Offence; and we earnestly hope that the Steps that have been taken will be the Means of detecting and bringing to Punishment the Persons concerned in so criminal an Act.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Comburgesses, Burgeses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's Borough of Grantham in the County of Lincoln, and others residing in the Vicinity of the said Borough, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Sentiments full of Abhorrence of the alarming Attack made upon the Life of your Majesty and upon our happy Constitution, in your Approach to the Houses of Parliament, for the Exercise of the most sacred Office of the Crown of these Kingdoms; and, amidst the general Voice of your People, we desire to join our own most hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the horrid Attempt on both.

We are deeply sensible of the peculiar Blessings with which Divine Providence hath long favoured this Nation above all others in the Enjoyment of civil and religious Liberty, and of the Continuance of those Blessings under your Majesty inviolate; and therefore we desire to express our thankful Acknowledgments of that salutary Provision which your Majesty, in your Wisdom and paternal Care of your People, has made against the growing Evils with which the late seditious Assemblies threatened the Peace of Government and the Happiness of all; and to assure your Majesty of our ardent Prayers, that the same Providence which has delivered your Royal Person from open Violence may protect your Majesty from all secret Conspiracies, and for your long and prosperous Reign over a free and happy People.

[Presented by George Sutton and Simon Yorke, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of Horror and Indignation at the late most atrocious Attack on your Majesty's Royal Person.

Whilst, as loyal Subjects to your Majesty and sincere Friends to our Country, we congratulate both on your providential and happy Escape from personal Injury, we earnestly hope your Majesty will succeed in procuring for us the Blessings of Peace, essential, in our humble Opinion, to the Happiness and Prosperity of this Kingdom, and the Permanence of our most excellent Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, this 18th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by the Honorable Horatio Walpole, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Portemouth.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Portemouth, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the daring and wicked Attack lately made on your most sacred Person; and it is our anxious Hope that a due Exertion of the Laws will bring the Offenders to condign Punishment.

To the Constitution of our Country, and to the Person of your Majesty and your Royal Family, we beg Permission to assure your Majesty of our warm and sincere Attachment.

Our earnest and constant Prayer shall be, that the same Providence which has hitherto baffled all Attempts against your Majesty's Person may continue to be your sure Protection through a long and happy Reign.

[Presented by the Mayor and the Recorder, accompanied by Sir Harry Fetherstonhaugh, Bart. and the Hon. Thomas Erskine, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Assistant Justices, Capital Burgesses and Burgesses of the Common Council of the ancient Borough of Bury St. Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, esteem it an indispensable Duty to express our Abhorrence of the daring Outrage lately offered to your Majesty's Person; to testify our Joy on your providential Escape, and our ardent Hopes that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of the Benefits which we have reaped under your Majesty's Reign, we will earnestly endeavour to promote and enforce Obedience to the Laws, from a thorough Conviction that a strict Observance of them can alone secure and perpetuate the Welfare of your Majesty's affectionate People, and we rely upon your Majesty's well-known Benevolence in procuring the Blessings of Peace, whenever it can be obtained with Honour to your Crown and Safety your Kingdoms.

Given under the Seal of the Borough, this 19th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord. 1795.

Joseph Maulkin, Alderman.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Charles Fitzroy, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bailiffs, the Corporation, and the Inhabitants of the Town of Ludlow, under the deepest Impressions of Detestation and Horror at the late atrocious and traitorous Attempt of a daring Assassin, beg Leave to approach your sacred Person with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape; at the same Time to assure your Majesty of our strong and cordial Attachment to your Person and Government, and of our determined Resolution, at the Risk of every Thing we hold dear, to protect our present happy Constitution, so wisely adapted to all the Exigencies of State, in its utmost Purity; that we will, in our several Stations, as much as in us lies, suppress all treasonable and seditious Assemblies, and be ever ready to support the Civil Power in the Preservation of the Public Peace. That your Majesty's Reign over a loyal and affectionate People may be long and prosperous, and that the Divine Disposer of all Human Events may graciously continue that Protection He has hitherto eminently vouchsafed to your Royal Person, are our sincere and ardent Prayers.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

*Tho. Owen, }
Edw. Baugh, } Bailiffs.*

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being Inhabitants of the Town of Selby and the Places adjacent, beg Leave to approach you, Sire, with our most humble Address and Congratulations on your sacred Person having been so providentially preserved from the Insults and Dangers offered by the Hands of the most wicked and daring Assassins, in which Escape we feel not only for ourselves, but for the Peace and Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects, the greatest Satisfaction. And it is with the deepest Concern we observe that there are any of your Majesty's Subjects so wicked as to make such horrid Attempts; but it can only be attributed to the evil Tendency of those Clubs and irregular Societies, so evidently calculated to disturb the Peace of your People. Convinced as we are of the Blessings we enjoy under the present mild and benignant Reign, it gives us infinite Pleasure to take this Opportunity of manifesting our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty, and our firm Determination to support that Government, which has made this Kingdom the Admiration of all the World.

Done at Selby the 7th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Whitchurch, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the late most flagitious Attempt upon your Majesty's sacred Person.

We wish to express our Abhorrence of the outrageous Insults offered to a Sovereign, from whose mild and beneficent Government we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, have received so many Blessings, during so considerable a Number of Years.

At the same Time we cannot but declare our Astonishment that any Arts should seduce any Portion of your Majesty's Subjects, however small, from the Duty which they owe to your Majesty, by Law not more than by Gratitude, for your Majesty's paternal Care and Tenderness.

It is our most earnest Wish and Prayer, that such Measures may be taken as may prevent the Repetition of Crimes so dangerous to the Peace and Happiness of this Country, and that your faithful Subjects may be effectually secured from the Calamities which must inevitably ensue from the Perpetration of so horrid a Crime.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough this 19th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Middleton, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln; and of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of Stamford Baron, in the County of Northampton.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Gentlemen Clergy, and Inhabitants of Stamford aforesaid, and, also, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of Stamford Baron aforesaid, beg Leave thus to approach your Majesty with warmest Congratulations on your providential Escape in your Passage to and from your Parliament: And we further beg to assure your Majesty of our Abhorrence of the evil Principles from which the very daring and atrocious Attempts proceeded, and of our Thankfulness to the Great Disposer of Events for the Preservation of a Life so dear to all good Subjects, and so essential to the Welfare and Prosperity of these Kingdoms.

Given at the Town-Hall of the said Borough, under Common Seal, the 16th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorset, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late audacious and wicked Attempt against your Royal Person, and to express our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence at such atrocious Conduct.

We most ardently hope that the execrable Agents and Abettors of this horrid Design may be discovered, and brought to condign Punishment; and that your Majesty, preserved from the Attacks of foreign Enemies and domestick Traitors, may long continue to reign over a loyal and grateful People.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting, by

[Presented by the Hon. Thomas Fane, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Faversham in the County of Kent, beg Leave to offer our most unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the wicked Attempt lately made upon your Majesty's Royal Person; and whilst we declare our Abhorrence at the Flagitiousness of the Act itself, we cannot but express our Astonishment that there should be found a Description of Persons, however few in Number, capable of conceiving so horrid a Design against your Majesty, whose private Virtues demand the utmost Veneration, and whose public Actions, as the Father of your People, call for the warmest Tribute of Affection.

That a Crime of this Nature should have existed, we can attribute only to the seditious and inflammatory Doctrines but too successfully propagated among us by those violent Spirits, who, having no Hopes of accomplishing their Purposes of Ambition and Self-Interest but by the Introduction of Anarchy and Confusion, deemed it expedient to destroy the Protector of our Laws and Liberties, in order to establish their own Power and Consequence on the Ruin of all that is dear to us.

The Safety of your Majesty including in it the Support of those Laws and Liberties, and the Protection of our Lives and Property, we have the strongest Motives to return our most grateful Thanks to the Great Disposer of Events for the gracious Interference of His Providence, so often manifested in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life from the various Dangers it hath experienced.

May that Life long be continued to us, and Loyalty to your Majesty's just and equitable Government be the Pride, as it is the Duty, of every true Lover of our inestimable Constitution.

[Presented by Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Kent.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury aforesaid, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, viewing with the utmost Abhorrence the late traiterous Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, cannot but express our sincerest Satisfaction at its Failure; and at the same Time we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm Resolution to support our excellent Constitution against all its Enemies.

Done at a Common Hall, held the 18th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by William Holbech, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Portreeve, Aldermen and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Swansea, beg to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your happy Escape from the dangerous Attack made on your sacred Person, when going to discharge one of the most important Duties of your exalted Station, in meeting your Parliament.

We cannot sufficiently lament the imminent Danger which the best of Sovereigns hath been exposed to from the Heinousness of the Attempt; and we consider the Outrage so offered to an essential and the most dignified Part of the Constitution, as proceeding from a direct and manifest Intention of the Perpetrators of it, to destroy that noble Fabrick, the Work of Ages, and under which these Kingdoms have flourished, in unexampled Happiness and Prosperity, the Envy of surrounding Nations.

The Blessing of Peace which your Majesty hath been pleased to hold out from the Throne, affords us an additional Cause of Gratitude to those we have already felt, for the anxious and paternal Solitude, and the unwearied Endeavours your Majesty hath constantly bestowed, in seeking the Honour and Welfare of your People on every Occasion; and until that desirable Object can be obtained with Dignity to your Crown, and Security to these Realms, your Majesty will not find us the most backward amongst our Fellow Subjects to hazard every Thing that is dear to us in supporting the Means of effecting it.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Montrose, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Montrose, beg Leave to express our Concern at the late daring Attack on your Majesty's Person.

With our Acknowledgements to Divine Providence for your Majesty's Escape from personal Injury, we must express our Confidence in the Wisdom of Parliament that such Measures will be adopted as may put a Stop to the Growth of those Principles which lead to the Commission of such illegal and atrocious Acts.

Signed and sealed by our Appointment, the 17th Day of November, 1795.

Tho. Webster, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Free Burgesses and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Maldon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on your providential Escape from the wicked Attempts against your Majesty's Life, and the Indignity offered to your Royal Person in your Passage to and from Parliament at the Opening of the present Sessions.

We feel with deep Concern and just Resentment that there should be found among your Majesty's Subjects Men so wicked and so abandoned to offer Violence to a Sovereign, whose only Wish and Endeavour through his whole Reign has been to make his People prosperous and happy.

We pray that your Majesty may long reign over us, and we pledge ourselves at all Times with Zeal and Firmness to defend your Majesty's Royal Person, and to support our happy Constitution against all traitorous and seditious Persons whatsoever.

Town Hall, November 23, 1795.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Strutt and Charles Callis Western, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on your Safety and Preservation from the daring and atrocious Attack on your Person; an Attempt, against which we feel the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation, being evidently levelled at the Subversion of our present happy Constitution and Government, from its Commission whilst in the Exercise of your Royal Function, in meeting with the Two other Branches of the Legislature in Parliament,

As we cannot entertain a Doubt that the Proceedings of seditious and tumultuous Meetings have been instrumental in inflaming and corrupting the Minds of certain of your Majesty's Subjects, and preparing them for the Attempt, we trust such Measures will be adopted as Parliament shall deem necessary for the Suppression of these Meetings.

That your Majesty's Government, so uniformly mild in every Part of its Administration, may long continue inviolable, and your Majesty long live as the Father of your People, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed, by Order and in Presence of the Town Council,
Adam Gordon, Provost.

[Presented by Major-General Balfour.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, in the County of Chester, beg Leave to express our serious Concern at the late outrageous Attack made on your Majesty's Person, and to declare our unfeigned and most decided Abhorrence of the Principles from which it proceeded, Subordination and Order being the Life and Security of all civil Society.

Impressed as we are with a Love and Reverence for your Majesty, under whose mild Government we enjoy all the Blessings of Freedom, we humbly offer our Congratulations to you on your late providential Escape; and declare it to be our Prayer, and trust that the Almighty will continue to be your Shield and Defence against all your Enemies, foreign and domestic.

We further humbly intreat your Majesty to be assured, that we will on every Occasion, according to our Power, exert ourselves with Zeal and Alacrity in Defence of your Majesty's Dignity, so essential to our present happy Form of Government, and in Support of our Laws, Religion, and unrivalled Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock and Parish of Stoke Damerell, most humbly approach your Throne with sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the most violent and daring Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person, on the first Day of the Session of Parliament. Regarding the Laws of our Country with a reverential Awe, we cannot look upon such a flagrant Violation thereof without the utmost Indignation and Abhorrence.

An Offence so highly criminal can scarcely admit of Aggravation; but if any Thing could add to the Heinousness of the Crime it would be the Time chosen for the Perpetration of it, when your Majesty was passing to and from your faithful Parliament in the full Exercise of your Regal Authority.

We avail ourselves of this Occasion to renew our Testimony of Affection and Attachment to your Majesty and all the Branches of your Royal Family, to avow our Resolution of exerting ourselves to suppress all tumultuous and seditious Meetings, and to assist the Magistracy to the utmost of our Power in enforcing Obedience to the Laws of this Country; and also to assure your Majesty that we shall be at all Times ready to stand forth with our Lives and Properties erties in Defence of your Majesty's Person and the British Constitution.

We earnestly pray that the Almighty may continue to protect your Majesty from all evil Machinations, and that your Subjects may long enjoy the Blessings of your Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Tradesmen and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Wrexham, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to express our unfeigned Abhorrence of the late wicked and most daring Outrage against your sacred Person, and to request that the Legislature would, in their Wisdom, devise some speedy and adequate Means to secure your Majesty from similar Attempts in future, particularly by suppressing those seditious Assemblies, which, under Pretence of redressing Grievances, evidently aim at the Ruin of our happy Constitution.

[Presented by Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Bart. Lord Lieutenant of the County of Denbigh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Yeomen Cavalry of the Town and Vicinity of Wrexham, voluntarily associated, under your Majesty's Authority, for the internal Defence of the County and Support of the Laws and Constitution, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to testify our unanimous Abhorrence of the late most insolent and flagitious Attack upon your sacred Person, and humbly to petition that the Legislature would speedily devise some effectual Means for your Majesty's future Preservation, and for curbing that licentious Spirit, which, under Pretence of reforming Abuses, evidently tends to inflame the Minds of the People, endanger the Public Peace, and eventually overthrow our excellent Form of Government.

[Presented by Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Bart. Lord Lieutenant of the County of Denbigh.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, together with the Clergy, and others Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Wootton Bassett, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, together with the Clergy and others Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Wootton Bassett, humbly intreat your Majesty's most gracious Acceptance of our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Safety from the late atrocious Attempt against your sacred Person.

We have beheld with Veneration and Gratitude the Hand of Almighty Providence continually extended to guard your Majesty's most precious Life; and we look up with Confidence to the same Power to support your Majesty and your most illustrious House in the Government of these Kingdoms, on which we are well convinced the Preservation of our just Rights, our Liberties, and our Possessions entirely depends.

We hold in the utmost Detestation those fallacious and destructive Principles from whence have originated the most cruel Attacks on the Safety of our Sovereign, the Permanency of our Constitution, and our own Happiness; and we consider all those who by any Means endeavour to disseminate or encourage such Principles among our Fellow Subjects, as the Enemies of public and domestic Peace.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will at all Times be ready to stand forth in Defence of your Majesty and our excellent Establishment in Church and State against their Violences to the utmost Extent of our Lives and Properties.

[Presented by the Right Hon. J. C. Villiers, Esq; Clerk of the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Capital Burgesses, Recorder, Common Councilmen, Town Clerk, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Capital Burgesses, Recorder, Common Councilmen, Town Clerk and other Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Southmolton, humbly approach your Throne with sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape; (under the Direction of Providence,) from the daring Outrages offered to your Majesty's most sacred Person at the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament; and also to express the warmest Assurance of Attachment to your Majesty and the Constitution which you have so faithfully protected.

It is with Abhorrence we behold the continued Attempts of malicious and evil-disposed Persons to disturb the Peace and Tranquillity of the Kingdom; and, looking forward with fearful Apprehension to the fatal Consequences of that destructive Poison which has been infused into the Minds of some of the lower Classes of your Majesty's Subjects, by the Dispersion of insidious and seditious Writings, as well as the tumultuous assembling together of ill-advised and ill-intentioned Men, we further beg Permission to declare our firm and determined Resolution to enforce whatever Measures your Majesty shall, in your Wisdom direct, to suppress the one and defeat the evil Designs of the other.

When we reflect on the perilous Consequences which might have been produced by this daring Attempt to violate the highest constituted Authority, we cannot but feel, with a stronger sense of Attachment, the many Blessings which we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Government.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that those deluded Wretches, who have daringly attempted to violate your sacred Person, may be discovered, and meet with that Punishment which the Atrocities of their Crimes so loudly call for, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects.

[Presented by Colonel Rolle, and J. B. Bastard, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Devon.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital and Free Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Liskeard, impressed with the greatest Duty and Respect for your Majesty's Person and Government, approach to congratulate your Majesty and the Kingdom at large on your Escape from the Hands of desperate Assassins, assembled for the Execution of a daring Attempt on your Majesty's Person, and the Subversion of the Government of this free Country. These Attempts have hitherto proved fruitless; and it is our earnest Prayer that they may ever prove so; and we flatter ourselves with the Hope, that through the Measures now under the Consideration of your Majesty's Two Houses of Parliament, aided by the Zeal and Activity of every good and loyal Subject, the Torrent of Sedition, fed and encouraged by a few evil and designing Men, will be effectually checked, and that your Majesty will soon enjoy the Blessing of beholding the Ill-informed returning with Duty to your Majesty, and with Submission to every legal Order of Government.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply and Heirors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright assembled, beg Leave humbly to express to your Majesty our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of the late daring Attempt upon your Majesty's most sacred Person, and our most cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape. We trust your Majesty will consider it as the Act of a few wicked and deluded Men, for we are sensible that no King ever reigned more universally over the Love and Affections of his People.

With fervent Prayers for the long Continuance of your Majesty's most valuable Life, we remain your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Forfar, in Public Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Forfar, in Public Meeting assembled, having heard with Astonishment of the Outrages offered to your Majesty's Royal Person, in your Passage to and from your Parliament, are eager to come forward and express the Feelings of Sorrow and Indignation which such an atrocious Attempt has excited in the Breat of every loyal Subject.

We had only imagined that the peculiar Mildness of your Majesty's Government, and the paternal Affection which you have on all Occasions manifested towards your People, had so won all their Hearts, that not a single Individual could have been found among them capable of conceiving, much less of committing, such flagitious Acts.

It is our earnest Wish, that those Miscreants may speedily be discovered and suffer the Punishment due to their Crimes; and we hope and trust that the Wisdom of Parliament will adopt such Measures as to prevent the Repetition of similar Outrages on any future Occasion.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Forfar, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to express the deep Sense of Sorrow and Concern which we feel from the Accounts of the late daring and atrocious Outrages offered to your Royal Person, in your Majesty's Passage to and from your Parliament at the Opening of the present Session.

Considering the mild Tenor of your Majesty's Government, and the Blessings which your Subjects derive from the best of Constitutions, it was little to be expected that any of your People would have discovered such a Spirit of Depravity as to be capable of offering so audacious an Insult upon your Majesty, one of the Branches of that Constitution.

With Hearts full of Loyalty, and execrating the Attempts made by those Miscreants, we sincerely wish that they may be brought to the Punishment due to the Magnitude of their Crimes; and that in the Wisdom of Parliament such Measures may be adopted as may effectually prevent such Outrages from being in future committed.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign in Happiness, and in the Hearts of a free, a prosperous, and united People, and that your Throne may descend through many Generations, with undiminished Lustre, to the Princes of your illustrious Family, is our earnest Wish and Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Officers and others of the Plymouth Volunteer Corps, with Hearts full of Love, Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty, and with the moſt zealous Attachment, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty, and to teſtify our Abhorrence at the late outrageous and diabolical Attack on your Royal Perſon, and that too at a Moment when going to perform one of the greateſt Functions of the Legiſlature.

That your Majesty's Virtues and general Love for all your Subjects ſhould not be more known and reſpected is much to be deplored; but it ſhould ſeem, (and we are inclined to think this daring Outrage was) the momentary Reſult of a deluded Mob, ariſing from the baſe Inſinuations and evil Deſigns of the Turbulent and Faſtious.

Having, with your Majesty's Royal Permiſſion, voluntarily armed for the Defence of our Town againſt all Deſigns of the Enemy, and in Support of public Tranquillity, we alſo feel it our Duty (as well as from Inclination) that we ſhould, and we do moſt heartily and ſincerely declare, and aſſure your Royal Majesty, that we are and ever ſhall be ready to lay down our Lives in the Defence and Protection of your moſt ſacred Perſon againſt every traitorous Attempt whatever, and in Support of the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the glorious Revolution.

WE, your Majesty's Corps of Penryn Volunteers, aſſociated for the Protection of our King and Conſtitution, and for the internal Defence of our Country, Country, feeling a loyal Pride in claiming to rank with the most dutiful and affectionate of your Majesty's Subjects, as well in our Civil as in the Military Capacity your Majesty has graciously permitted us to add thereto, beg Leave, at this momentous Crisis, to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, and to express our unfeigned Sorrow and Indignation at the late daring and atrocious Attack made on your Majesty's most sacred Person, in your Passage to and from your Parliament, at the Opening of the Session.

Animated with the warmest Wishes and Affection for the Safety and Happiness of an amiable and beloved Sovereign, we most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on the manifest Interference of Providence in your Protection.

After so wicked an Attempt, we consider it not more our bounden Duty to repeat, that the most inviolable Sentiments of Zeal, Attachment and Loyalty are deeply engraven in our Hearts towards your Majesty's Royal Person, than we also deem it incumbent on us, at such a Period, to renew the Declarations made at our first Association: "That we will, at all Times, readily and cheerfully assist the Civil Power in the Suppression of all riotous, tumultuous, seditious, and illegal Assemblies, and all traitorous Conspiracies and Rebellions against the Laws and Constitution of our Country."

[Presented by B. Higgins, Esq; Captain Commandant.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers and Privates of your Majesty's East Devon Yeomanry Light Dragoons, most humbly request your Royal Permission to approach your gracious Throne with the Offer of our most sincere and loyal Congratulations on your Majesty's late happy and providential Escape from the dark Designs of the traitorous and misguided Few, who so atrociously dared to assault your Majesty's Royal Person in your Majesty's Passage to the House of Lords.

Permit us, gracious Sire, to acknowledge the high Sense we, as your Majesty's loyal Subjects, entertain of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and benignant Reign; and as we, with Confidence, look up to your Majesty as the Protector of all those invaluable Rights which our happy and unrivalled Constitution so fully conveys to every Class and Description of your Majesty's Subjects, we view with Eyes of jealousy every Measure that can, in the smallest Degree, affect the Happiness or Interests of your Majesty or your most Royal House; and as, by your Majesty's gracious Permission, we boast the Honor of being, in some Degree, the Military Guardians of your Majesty's Person and the Interests and Security of our Fellow Subjects, allow us, gracious Sire, to assure your Majesty of our most firm Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, your Royal Consort, and all the other Branches of your Majesty's most illustrious House.

J. W. De la Pole, Captain.

[Presented by Sir John William De la Pole, Bart. Captain.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Troop of Huntingdonshire Volunteer Cavalry.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Huntingdonshire Volunteer Cavalry, early associated for the internal Defence of the Kingdom and the Protection of its established Laws, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your late providential Escape from the atrocious Attempt of deluded Assassins against your Majesty's most sacred Person.

We contemplate with the utmost Horror and Indignation an Attack, levelled equally at the Life of our Sovereign and at that happy Constitution of which he is the illustrious Head.

Convinced, as we are, of the dangerous Tendency of those Harangues, by which seditious Demagogues have of late endeavoured to irritate and mislead the Public Mind, permit us, Sire, with all due Humility, to express our Satisfaction at the Measures proposed by the Wisdom of your Parliament for the Suppression of an Evil so alarming; Measures which can only be reprobated or feared by the Abettors of such insidious Revolutionists.

Long may your Majesty reign the benignant Father of a loyal, united and happy People, who know how to value and protect a Constitution which ensures to them the full Enjoyment of every Blessing social Man can have.

Signed, for and at the Request of the whole Troop, by John Richards, Captain.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Halifax Volunteers, being impressed with the most zealous and affectionate Regard for your Majesty, and feeling the utmost Abhorrence at the late most daring and wicked Attack upon your Majesty's Person, beg Leave to offer this our humble Address, to express the Satisfaction we feel at your Majesty's happy and providential Deliverance; and at the same Time to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to step forwards with our Lives and Fortunes to support your Majesty, and in Defence of the Laws and Constitution under which we so happily live.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's Royal Wakefield Corps of Volunteers, with Sentiments of unalterable Loyalty to your Majesty and affectionate Veneration for the Constitution of this Kingdom, humbly offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late Escape from the nefarious Attempt of insidious Traitors on your Majesty's sacred Life.

We deplore with Indignation, and execrate such atrocious Purposes, and beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's Crown and Person, and of that substantial and happy Form of Government which British Subjects have so long enjoyed.

May the Great Disposer of all Events long continue to us the Blessing of your Majesty's Life, and preserve, to our latest Posterity, the Happiness of the British Constitution.

Wakefield, Nov. 16, 1795.

[Presented by John Smyth, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioned, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Penzance Volunteer Company, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person, in passing to and from your Parliament; an Attempt planned by the most wicked and executed by the most deluded of your Majesty's Subjects.

We view with the utmost Horror and Indignation the Proceedings of lawless and seditious Men, who, forgetful of the Duty they owe to the best of Sovereigns, and the manifold Blessings which they, in common with all other of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoy under your mild and equitable Reign, and in Defence of the Laws which alike protect all Persons in the Enjoyment of Life, Liberty and Property, seek to destroy the one and to subvert the other.

We earnestly hope that your Majesty, with the Advice and Assistance of Parliament, will speedily devise effectual Means to restrain and suppress those daring Assemblies and Meetings, where Sedition is openly promulgated, and the most inflammatory Libels against your Majesty's Person and Government are industriously circulated, with a View to produce Anarchy and Confusion, and to destroy our most valuable Constitution.

Forming an armed Association, under your Majesty's Permission, for the Defence of this Town and Neighbourhood against external Foes, we are no less prepared and ready to defend your Majesty's Person and Government, and to support the due Execution of the Laws against internal Enemies and domestic Traitors whenever and wherever your Majesty shall think proper to direct us, being your Majesty's most loyal, dutiful and obedient Subjects.

Penzance, November 17, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Loyal Langport Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Major Commandant, Officers, and Corps of the Loyal Langport Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most heartfelt Congratulations on the Preservation of your Majesty's Person, by the Aid of Divine Providence, from one of the most violent and outrageous Attempts that ever disgraced this Kingdom, or any well regulated Community. When we contemplate this horrid Design, open yet malicious, daring and yet insidious, originating from the violent Harangues and artful Misrepresentations of the Enemies of Order and Government, and instilled into the Minds of a profligate Set of Wretches for the Destruction of your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Subversion of our Constitution, we are struck with Horror at an Attempt so nearly accomplished, and cannot but feel a Resentment proportionate to the Insult on your Royal Person, and the Wound given to the British Character. Having long viewed the Progress of dangerous and factious Principles disseminated among your Majesty's Subjects, we feel, at this alarming Crisis, no small Degree of Pleasure in the reasonable and judicious Interposition of the Legislature, to stem the Torrent of Treason threatening to break down the Bounds which Policy, Law, and Nature have prescribed for the Preservation of Kings and established Communities. When we look around us and view all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects armed for the Defence of the best of Princes, and most happy Establishment, we are convinced that such Enemies and such Attempts will but rouse the Spirit of Englishmen, and rally around the Standard of Royalty all your Majesty's loyal Corps, proud to assert themselves the invariable Friends of the House of Brunswick, and determined to preserve, or perish with, their King and Constitution. That your Majesty may through a long Series of Years and prosperous Events still enjoy the pleasing Gratification of being beloved and adored by all Ranks and Orders of the Community, is the Prayer of your Majesty's Loyal Corps of Langport Volunteers.

Signed, at the unanimous Request, and on Behalf of the Corps.

J. Chambers, Major Commandant.

St. James's, December 1.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply for the Shire of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr, publickly assembled on the Occasion, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's fortunate Escape from the late daring and most atrocious Attempts against your Majesty's sacred Life, and to express the strong Indignation we feel at the unprincipled Insults offered to your Majesty on your Way to meet your Parliament.

The uniform Mildness of your Majesty's Reign, so peculiarly marked with a paternal Tenderness and Love for your People, we fondly hoped might have secured your sacred Person from Danger and your Royal Character from Insult; and we deeply regret that a Period should ever have arisen which must tend to cloud Confidence with Distrust.

In these extraordinary Times, Sire, we beg Leave to take the respectful Liberty of expressing to your Majesty the Satisfaction we feel at the Measures at present pursued by the Legislature for securing to these Kingdoms the Blessings of their constitutional Monarchy, and we rely with Confidence for their Completion on the Wisdom of Parliament.

Deeply impressed with a high Sense of Gratitude to Divine Providence for protecting your Majesty in the Hour of Danger, our most ardent Prayers to Heaven are, that your Majesty may long reign over a free, loyal and happy People; that those execrable Villains, their Accomplices and Instigators, if any such can exist, who offered Violence to your Majesty's sacred Person may speedily be brought to the condign Punishment they deserve; and that no Repetition of similar Crimes may ever endanger or disgrace this Nation.

Signed by our Preses, in our Presence, and by our Desire, at Ayr, the 20th of November, 1795.
EGLINTOUNE, Preses.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, who in former Wars have had the Honour to assist in defending our King, Country and Government, and who by Nature of that Service are now favoured by your Majesty with the Freedom of exercising our Trades in the Royal Burgh of Perth, and who are formed into a Society under the Appellation of the Perth Friendly Society of King's Freemen, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with the most unfeigned Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment.

While we in this Country, under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, enjoy Blessings and Happiness unknown in other Nations, we lament, with the deepest Sorrow, that any of your Subjects should be so far lost to the Principles of Humanity as to make an Attempt upon the Life of a Sovereign, whose Reign has been distinguished by the most unexampled Affection and Regard for his People. We hold in the utmost Abhorrence such daring and atrocious Attempts, and the Principles which lead to them; but when at the same Time we consider how unsuccessful such a daring Attempt has proved, we are led to express our Gratitude to Heaven for that signal Interposition of Providence; and that that Providence which hath raised up, and hath hitherto preserved your Majesty as a Blessing to our Nation, may long continue it's Protection over your Majesty's Person and Family, is our most fervent Wish.

Signed, in Name and by Appointment of a General Meeting of the Society, by James Geddes, Preses of the Friendly Society of King's Freemen, Perth.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Master, Assitants and Members of the Company of Merchants of the City of Edinburgh, incorporated by Royal Charter, ratified in Parliament, being truly sensible of the great Blessings and Happiness which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, feel ourselves called upon to express the Sentiments of Horror and Indignation with which our Minds are filled by the daring and atrocious Attempt which was made by evil and designing People against your sacred Person, when going to meet your Parliament.

We shall ever remember with the most sincere Gratitude the Goodness of Almighty God in delivering you from the Perils of that Day; and we trust the same kind Providence will, for the Happiness and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, long preserve your Majesty to reign over a loyal, free and happy People.

We humbly hope that your Parliament will adopt such Measures as may appear to their Wisdom best suited for preventing in future whatever may lead to Attempts of so wicked and criminal a Nature; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will on every Occasion be ready to stand forth in Defence of your Royal Person and Government.

In Testimony of these being our unanimous and heartfelt Sentiments, this Address is signed, by Order and in Presence of the Meeting, by Samuel Anderson, Master.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted by his Excellency Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild of All Saints or Goldsmiths of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sire,

IMPRESSED with the most lively Affection to your Majesty's illustrious Person, Family and Government, and earnestly solicitous for your Safety and Happiness, we feel with the deepest Concern and Indignation Indignation the late violent Insult and Ostrage offered to your Majesty's most sacred Person; and animated with an unalterable Loyalty to your Majesty and Zeal to our unrivalled Constitution, the Labour of Ages and the utmost Effort of human Wisdom, we are grateful to Divine Providence, who has blessed us with a Sovereign by whose mild and just Government we enjoy the Blessings of that Constitution, and look with Confidence to transmit it pure and unimpaired to Posterity.

Filled with these Sentiments, we beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most heartfelt Congratulations upon your late most happy Deliverance; and, highly sensible of this eminent Favour and Blessing of Providence, we shall continue to solicit that Exercise of Power to prosper and protect your Royal Person, your illustrious Family and Government.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Seal of our Corporation to be hereunto affixed this 17th Day of November, 1795.

Joseph Jacison, Master.
William Osborne,
Edward Rice, } Wardens.
William Keene, }

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Mayo, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your Escape from the late outrageous and wicked Attempt on your sacred Life, and to entreat your Majesty that the whole Energy of the Government may be called forth to punish an Attack not only on your Majesty's Life, but also against the Peace, Happiness, and Prosperity of your Dominions. We beseech your Majesty to believe that we are penetrated with just and lively Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your mild and firm Government; that your Majesty may confidently rely on our unfeigned Zeal and unshaken Loyalty; that the Attempts to disturb your Majesty's Government, we have heard of with Abhorrence and Indignation; and that we shall ever be ready to manifest our most devoted and inviolable Attachment in Defence of your Majesty's Person, and in Support of your Government, against all internal as well as external Enemies.

St. James's, December 1.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Town Clerk, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Town Clerk, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Inhabitants of your ancient Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, cannot refrain from expressing our Grief and Indignation at the Violence recently offered to your sacred Person, and our Abhorrence of the Principles by which it was instigated. We most humbly congratulate your Majesty, and are thankful to Almighty God for the Preservation of a Life on which the Safety and Happiness of these Realms, and, in the present Crisis, the Welfare of all Europe materially depend.

We cannot help considering this outrageous Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person as an Attack not only on the Person of our King, but, through him, upon the Constitution of our Country; not only upon the Monarch on the Throne, but on the Monarchy itself. Your Majesty may therefore rely, that your Subjects will stand forth in your Defence, not only with all the Zeal and Attachment which your Majesty's personal Character and many Virtues must inspire, but also with all that Energy and Determination with which Britons will at all Times stand forward in Defence of the Constitution of their Country.

It will always be our Pride to take an active Part in maintaining the Laws which protect our Fellow Subjects, and in defending your Majesty's Life and Dignity against the seditious and treasonable Combinations of those who, by insidious Pretexts, endeavour to delude your Subjects into Acts as detestable in themselves as they are unworthy of a brave and honourable People. We humbly intreat your Majesty to accept these our Congratulations, through the Medium of our Mayor and Justice.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Renfrewshire Corps of Yeomanry, have heard with the utmost Horror and Indignation of the atrocious Attempts made on your Majesty's sacred Person by the Emisaries of a detestable and traitorous Faction.

We beg Leave to offer our sincere and cordial Congratulations to your Majesty and our Country on so great and providential a Deliverance, and at the same Time to assure your Majesty, that, armed and disciplined under just Authority to evince our Loyalty to our Sovereign, our Attachment to our invaluable Constitution, and to preserve good Order in the County where we reside, we are determined to employ those Arms with Zeal and Firmness for the Purposes we were entrusted with them, and against all such cowardly Assassins, and their Abettors and Encouragers.

We sincerely pray to Almighty God, that your Majesty may be long preserved to diffuse Happiness over a People grateful for the Blessings they enjoy.

Signed, by Appointment of the Corps, at Paisley, this 19th Day of November, 1795 Years.

S I R E

IMPRESSED with the truest heartfelt Gratitude to Almighty God for his great Mercy to this Nation in the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Life from a late most daring and detestable Outrage, a Loyal Troop of Yeomanry humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty their hearty and sincere Congratulations on your happy Escape from such horrid Insults, and to assure your Majesty of their their Abhorrence of the diabolical Principles which incited them. Firmly attached to your Person and Government they are determined to support that Cause for which they are united, and to defend to the utmost of their Power the present happy Constitution, and the Life of the best of Kings.

Signed on Behalf of the Fifth Troop of Somersetshire Cavalry, November 27, 1795.

May it please your Majesty,

WEL, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Town of Greenock, in Special Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your Escape from the treasonable Fury of a Band of Miscreants, who dared to assault your Royal Person in a most base and flagitious Manner.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of the profound Horror which we, in common with your other loving Subjects, have felt at the Atrocity of that Outrage, and earnestly hope for the speedy Detection of the Authors of so foul a Crime, that they may be brought to condign Punishment.

That the great Disposer of Events may preserve your sacred Person from a Repetition of similar Attempts; and that your Majesty may very long continue to sway the Sceptre over a free, loyal, and happy People, is the most earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed in the Presence and by Appointment of said Magistrates and Council, by our Chief Magistrate, at Greenock, the 24th Day of November, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that late on the Night of Thursday the 12th Instant, or early in the Morning of Friday the 13th Instant, Two Guns, loaded with Slugs or other Pieces of Lead, were, by certain evil-minded Persons, fired into a Bedchamber of the Dwelling-House of — Pyrke, Esq; a Magistrate for the County of Gloucester, situate at Littledean in the said County, with Intent him the said Mr. Pyrke to murder and kill; which said Slugs or other Pieces of Lead passed close to a Bed which was in the said Chamber, and in which the said Mr. Pyrke usually sleeps.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more the said Offenders, (except the Person or Persons who actually so fired the said Two Guns or either of them) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty does hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon Conviction.

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Instant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, was passing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently assaulted by Three Men, who were unknown to him, and stabbed in his Right Leg, and cut across the Calf thereof with some sharp Instrument, of which said Stab and Cut he now lies dangerously maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to seize the Man by whom he believed he was so wounded and cut, the others again assaulted him, and rescued the Person whom he had so seized.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders, (except the Person who actually gave the said Stab and Cut,) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the said Regiment to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, so as that he or they may be convicted thereof.
