By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes taken from the Subjects of the United Provinces subsequent to the Fifteenth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council for granting General Reprizals against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the said United Provinces.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Fifteenth Day of September last, We have ordered that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the United Provinces, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the said United Provinces, or any Persons being Subjects thereof, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the said United Provinces, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within our Dominions; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects, who may have lawfully seized any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last,

[Price Eighteen-pence.]

or who shall hereafter seize any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all such Ships and Goods as aforesaid, which, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September, 1795, have been, or hereafter, during the present Hostilities, shall be seized as aforesaid, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken as aforesaid, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or which shall hereafter be taken as aforesaid, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say, That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprizals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners aforesaid) may be sold and disposed posed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters and others to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprizal are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before. And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes, which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines and Soldiers on Board Our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture, and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows; the Whole of the neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts.

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on Board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on Board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Master on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such Physician be actually on Board at the Time of taking such Prizes.

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Boat-swains, Gunners, Purser, Carpenter, Masters Mates, Chirurgion, Pilot and Chaplain on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The Midshipmen, Captain's Clerk, Master-Sail-maker, Carpenter's Mates, Boat-swains Mates, Gunner's Mates, Master at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Cockswain, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters Mates, Chirurgion's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines, and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty and assisting on Board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them.

Provided that if any Officer being on Board any of our Ships of War at the Time of taking any Prize shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes, which, according to the above mentioned Distribution, shall belong to his superior Commission or Office. And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War taking any Prize, as soon as may be, to transmit, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others who were actually on Board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on Board, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster Books and annexed Lists, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War, and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them, (the said Commissioners) they shall give or cause to be given to the said Agents all such Lists from the Muster Books of any such Ships of War, and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce

Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part herein before mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers, who shall actually be on Board at the taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command: Secondly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command at Jamaica or elsewhere, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives at the Place to which he is sent, and actually takes upon him the Command. Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent out to reinforce a superior Flag Officer, at Jamaica or elsewhere, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer, before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the superior Flag Officer, and actually receive some Order from him. Fourthly, That a chief Flag Officer returning Home, from Jamaica or elsewhere, shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind to act under another Command. Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Sixthly, That when more Flag-Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth Part, and the other shall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided amongst the other Flag Officers. Seventhly, That Commodores with Captains under them shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief or serving under Command. Eighthly, That the First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Fifteen Ships of the Line of Battle (provided such last mentioned Fleet or Squadron shall be composed of His Majesty's own Ships,) shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be intitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further order, That in case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers, in the Manner herein before directed, in the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Master, or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be One on Board,) shall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three equal Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command. That the Share of the Chirurgon, or Chirurgon's Mate (where there is no Chirurgon,) Midshipmen, and Clerk and Steward, shall be One Eighth; that the Share of the Boatwain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeomen of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on Board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Vessel, without any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War being present or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in case any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War shall be present, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on Board such Cutters and Schooners, or Armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on Board His Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, December 3.

THE following Addresses having been delivered or transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons in Glasgow.

S I R E,

AS Friends to the Constitution of our Country, we come forward, with others of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the late audacious Insult and Attack upon your Majesty's Person, in the Execution of your Duty, when going to meet your Parliament. We trust the Legislature are taking Measures to prevent the like Outrage in future, and to check those tumultuous and seditious Meetings which for Years have disgraced our Land.

The Bills now pending in Parliament, in our Opinion, will be instrumental in securing the Peace of the Country. We pray that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved as a Blessing to these Realms.

Signed, by Order of the Faculty, and in their Presence, by their Preses and Visitor.

Peter Wright, Preses.

Archibald Young, Visitor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Incorporation of Candle-Makers of your ancient City of Edinburgh, deeply penetrated with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your mild Government, cannot resist our Inclination to approach the Throne, and to congratulate your Majesty and the Nation at large on the fortunate Escape made by your Majesty from the late daring Attempt on your sacred Person by a lawless and misguided Mob; assuring your Majesty that we are at all Times disposed, both in our corporate Capacity and individually, to protect your sacred Person and the Constitution of these united Kingdoms against all Enemies and Opposers whatsoever.

That your Majesty may long reign to bless a free and happy People, and that every Attempt of so diabolical a Nature and Design to subvert our happy Constitution, may be frustrated, is the sincere Desire and Prayer of your Majesty's most devoted and affectionate Subjects.

Signed for, by Authority and in Presence of said Incorporation, at Edinburgh, November 24, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbtery of Irvine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbtery of Irvine, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with that Respect and Esteem which we owe to the amiable Character of so good and gracious a Sovereign. Anxious for the Preservation of a Life so dear to your Royal Family, and of such high Importance to the Prosperity and Happiness of these Lands, we were justly alarmed at the daring Outrage which lately threatened your Majesty's Person, and eagerly seize the earliest Opportunity in our Power to express our strongest Abhorrence of these licentious Principles, manifested by some of your misguided Subjects, on that Occasion, and our most unfeigned Gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's providential Deliverance. Deeply sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Reign, we cease not to cherish in the People under our Charge those Sentiments of Loyalty which are due to the best of Sovereigns from a free and happy People; and it is with Pleasure we can assure your Majesty of their Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government. Deploing, with our Fellow Subjects, the Calamities of War, we look forward with earnest Hope to it's speedy Termination; in a lasting and honourable Peace, leaving it at the same Time to the Wisdom of your Majesty and your Majesty's Ministers to determine when and by what Means it shall be brought about and established.

That your Majesty's Reign over these Kingdoms may be long and prosperous, and terminate at last in the Possession of a Kingdom that cannot be moved, is the fervent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbtery of Irvine, met this Day.

Signed, in our Name and at our Appointment, by James Richmond, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Heritors of the County of Berwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, in General Meeting assembled, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring and wicked Outrages offered to your Majesty's sacred Person, when meeting your Parliament.

It is with the utmost Astonishment and Concern we observe that there are Persons so insensible to the Happiness of our Constitution and to the Mildness of your Majesty's Government, as to be guilty of so daring, atrocious and flagitious an Attempt; and we thank Almighty God for mercifully protecting your sacred Person, and preserving a Life so dear to us.

We also assure your Majesty, that we will at all Times feel it to be our Duty, as well as Inclination, to defend your sacred Person and to support our happy constitutional Government by every Means in our Power; and we make no Doubt that your Majesty, with the Advice of your Parliament, will adopt such Measures as will effectually preserve and insure Peace and good Order over the whole of your Majesty's Dominions.

Signed, in Name and by Desire of the Meeting, at Greenlaw, the 13th Day of November, 1795.

HOME, Preses.

[Transmitted by Patrick Home, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of Turriff Presbytery, beg Leave to approach your Throne at this alarming Crisis, to present our heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the Violence of an unprincipled Multitude.

While we reprobate with Indignation the Attempts directed by foolish or designing Men against your sacred Person and Authority, we have the Pleasure to announce that the Hearts of that numerous People, whom Divine Providence has committed to our Care, are actuated by a sincere Regard for their King, and for the British Constitution.

Sensible, Sire, of the inestimable Privileges which we and our Fellow Subjects enjoy, it shall be our Study, as Pastors, to inculcate Veneration for your Majesty's Person, for our excellent Constitution, and for the Reign of genuine Liberty; and we fervently supplicate the King of Kings that your Majesty may be long preserved to sway with increasing Glory the British Sceptre, and to promote by the Energies of virtuous Government, the Prosperity and Honour of a grateful People.

Signed, in our Presence, and according to our Appointment, at Turriff, this 25th of November, 1795, by William Stuart, Moderator.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Wigton, in public Meeting assembled, having heard, with great Concern, of the audacious Outrage offered to your Majesty's sacred Person in your Passage to and from your Parliament, and by which our inestimable Constitution was violated, beg Leave to approach the Throne, at once to express our Feelings of Sorrow and Indignation at the nefarious Attempt, and to congratulate our respected and beloved Sovereign's Escape from Hands so daring, but, we are persuaded, most contemptible.

During a Reign so peculiarly mild, benevolent and paternal as your Majesty's, we did not imagine there existed in the Realm a Person capable of conceiving, much less of committing such flagitious Acts, which raised Horror and Alarm in the publick Mind.

We most ardently wish that your Majesty may continue to pursue such Measures as shall soon discover and bring to merited Punishment the wretched Authors and Abettors of the sacrilegious Violation of the Person of the King, who does reign and who wishes to reign in the Hearts of his People; and we put our Confidence in the Wisdom of Parliament to adopt such Regulations as may in future prevent similar Outrages, and disappoint the Designs of factious Men of every Description, Enemies to our wise Laws and glorious Constitution.

Signed, by Appointment of the Meeting, at Wigton, this 24th Day of November, 1795.

GALLOWAY, Preses.

[Transmitted by Earl Galloway.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Wigton, met at Wigton this 24th Day of November, 1795.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Wigton, take this earliest Opportunity of approaching your Majesty with the greatest Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on the Kindness of Providence in your late Escape from the Outrage offered to your Person and Dignity in going to and returning from your Parliament on the first Day of the present Sessions. We view with Abhorrence all Attempts against your Person and Government; we regret that there are any Persons within your Majesty's Dominions capable of such a daring Insult; and we entertain the warmest Gratitude to Almighty God for your late happy Preservation.

We lament the Necessity of the Continuance of the War, which is unavoidably attended with so many and so great Calamities; we ardently long for the Blessings of Peace, and we have the fullest Confidence in your Majesty, that you will not fail to take the most effectual Measures for bringing the War to a speedy and honourable Conclusion.

That Almighty God may bless your Majesty in your Person, Family and Government, and give you long to reign over a virtuous, free and happy People, is the earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Wigton.

Signed, in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, Andrew Donnan, Moderator.

St. James's, December 3.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth, having heard, with Astonishment and Indignation, of the wicked and daring Attempt made upon your Majesty's sacred Person, when proceeding, in the Discharge of your public Duty, to meet the Two Houses of Parliament, in order to give Effect to the Powers of that Constitution which has been so long and justly dear to Britons.

With sincere and heartfelt Satisfaction we humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations upon the providential Preservation of the Life of a Sovereign, whose private Virtues and whose public Conduct have so justly rendered him the Object of the Confidence and of the Affection of his People.

And we rely with Confidence upon the Wisdom of Parliament to adopt such Measures as may ultimately tend to prevent such atrocious Attempts in future, future, and as may be the Means of preserving internal Tranquillity, by framing and carrying into Effect such necessary, prudent and salutary Laws for the Preservation and Protection of your Majesty and of our happy Constitution and Government, which, in the present State of the Country, Circumstances may require.

ATHOLL, Prefers.

Perth, Nov. 24, 1795.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Atholl.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of your Majesty's Corps of Royal Perth Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Royal Perth Volunteers, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne and Person, deeply impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Affection and Loyalty. We feel the deepest Regret and Alienation that any of your Majesty's Subjects should be so insensible to the amiable Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, and the Blessings we have enjoyed under your mild and auspicious Government, as to attack, in so audacious a Manner, your Royal Person, while going to discharge, with your wonted Fidelity, the Duties of an affectionate Sovereign.

We feel the most ardent Gratitude to Heaven for that signal Interposition of Providence, by which your Majesty was protected against a most daring and wicked Attempt, to tear from us a Sovereign whose valuable Life has been uniformly and most anxiously employed in promoting the Happiness and Prosperity of his People.

That that Providence which hath raised up and hitherto preserved your Majesty as a Blessing to our Nation, may long continue its Protection over your Majesty's Person and Family, is our most fervent Wish.

James Sharp, Major Commandant,
Royal Perth Volunteers.

Perth, November 16, 1795.

[Transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Atholl.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of His Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Corps of Banffshire Volunteers.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Officers and Privates of your Majesty's most loyal Corps of Banffshire Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, in order to express not only our firm Attachment and Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, but more particularly our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of the late daring and treasonable Attempt made on your Majesty's sacred Person at the Opening of the present Session of Parliament.

While we lament that Britons could be so depraved as treat the best of Sovereigns in that detestable Manner, we feel the most lively Gratitude to the Divine Providence, for having delivered your Majesty from the imminent Danger in which you was placed; and we humbly hope your Majesty, aided by the Wisdom of Parliament, will adopt such effectual Measures as shall finally conduce to the Safety of your sacred Person, and the Preservation of our inestimable Constitution, against all Attempts of your open or concealed Enemies.

We feel ourselves called upon to congratulate your Majesty on the late glorious Successes of your High Allies on the Continent against the common Enemy, and we trust these Advantages will be followed up with such Exertions as will enable your Majesty to put an End to the present War, and induce Time to restore the Blessings of Peace to your Kingdoms on just and honourable Foundations.

We have only farther to say, that your Majesty may at all Times command our best Services; and that your Majesty may reign long and happily is the fervent Prayer of this Corps.

Signed, in their Name and by their Appointment, Alexander Duff, Major-Commandant.

Banff, Nov. 20, 1795.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and Justices of Peace of the County of Banff, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty God for your Preservation in the late daring Attempt on your sacred Person.

We cannot help expressing our Surprise, that the Justice and Mildness of your Government at the Head of our glorious Constitution, with your religious and virtuous Example in private Life, did not only shield you from daring Insult, but secure you the Love and Duty of all your Subjects.

We congratulate your Majesty on the late Successes of your Allies.

FIFE, Prefers.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Banff.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of your Majesty's Burgh of Banff, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring and flagitious Insult offered to your Majesty's sacred Person on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament.

We want Terms strong enough to express the Indignation and Abhorrence which we feel against those deluded Wretches who instigated or committed the unprovoked Outrage.

While we truly execrate the Principles which lead to such atrocious Conduct, we beg Leave most respectfully to assure your Majesty of our cordial and unimpaired Affection to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

Permit us, gracious Sovereign, to embrace this Opportunity of felicitating your Majesty on the late important and splendid Successes of the Austrian Forces, in Alliance with your Majesty, over the Arms of the French; an Enemy whose Progress was marked with Desolation, and whose sanguinary System was manifest even on their Retreat.

That the over-ruling Providence of the Almighty may continue to preserve your Majesty from all the Designs

Designs of your Enemies, whether open or insidious, whether foreign or domestic, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed, in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment,

Geo. McKilligin, Provost.

[Transmitted by A. Brodie, Esq;

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Elgin.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Community of your Majesty's Burgh of Elgin, in Council assembled, having heard, with Surprise and Astonishment, of the Outrages offered to your Majesty's Royal Person, in your Passage to and from your Parliament, are eager to come forward and express the Feelings of Sorrow and indignation which such an atrocious Attempt has excited in the Breast of every loyal Subject.

While we truly execrate the Principles which lead to such atrocious Conduct, we beg Leave most respectfully to assure your Majesty of our sincere and unimpaired Affection to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

It is our earnest Wish that those Miscreants may speedily be discovered and suffer the Punishment due to their Crimes; and we trust that the Wisdom of Parliament will adopt such Measures as to prevent the Repetition of such daring and flagitious Outrages on any future Occasion.

Permit us, gracious Sovereign, to embrace this Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on the late important and brilliant Successes of the Austrian Forces, in Alliance with your Majesty, over the Arms of the French; an Enemy whose manifold Acts of Atrociousness are such as could only be perpetrated by Men lost to every Sentiment of Humanity.

Signed, in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting of Council, Geo. Brown, Provost.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of the Land-Tax for the County of Dumfries, met this Day, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of the late wicked and atrocious Attempt made upon your sacred Life, when proceeding to meet your Parliament, and to exercise the most important Function devolved upon your Majesty by the Constitution. The Insults and Outrages offered to your Majesty upon that solemn Occasion, we consider, as personal to ourselves, and to every Individual of your affectionate Subjects, convinced that the Prosperity of these Kingdoms and the Happiness of the People are inseparably connected with the Duration of your Majesty's mild and just Administration, under which we have long enjoyed all the Blessings that can be derived from our excellent Constitution. With grateful Hearts we humbly offer our Thanks to Almighty God, who was pleased to avert the Blow meditated against your Majesty, and, through you, against your People; at the same Time we comfort ourselves with the Belief that such flagitious Purposes are confined to a few desperate and wicked Persons, whose Intention it is, by overthrowing the Government, to introduce Confusion and Anarchy, and whom it is therefore the Duty of all, who wish well to their Country, to detect and bring to Punishment.

We, for our own Parts, take this Opportunity of renewing our Declaration often made, that we will, with our Lives and Properties, support your Majesty and your Government; and for that Purpose will employ every legal Measure to discourage Faction and Sedition, to strengthen the executive Government, and promote a loyal Unanimity among all Ranks of Men, as those appear to us to be the true Means for terminating the present War, and enabling your Majesty to conclude an honourable and lasting Peace, when the Government of France shall be so far settled and established as to render that great Object practicable and expedient.

Wm. M. Maxwell, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Renfrew, beg Leave to express our Astonishment and Indignation at the late daring and highly criminal Outrages committed against your Majesty's sacred Person; and to offer, with every Sentiment of Respect, Veneration and Affection, our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape.

Impressed with the most grateful Feelings for the Happiness and Security we have uniformly experienced during your Majesty's Reign, and anxious for their Continuance, we embrace this Opportunity of declaring our Approbation of the Bills brought into Parliament for the better securing the Liberty of your Majesty's Person and Government, and for the more effectually preventing seditious Meetings and Assemblies; and we look forward with Confidence to the Wisdom and Energy of the Legislature to adopt such Measures as may be necessary to preserve good Order and Tranquillity in every Part of the Kingdom, on which the real Interest and Welfare of the Nation materially depend.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and a happy People, attached to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, and grateful for the invaluable Blessings they enjoy, is our ardent Wish.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Renfrew.

S I R E,

WE beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne to express the Detestation and Horror we feel at the late alarming Assault committed on the Person

tion of your Majesty, and to congratulate your Majesty and our Country on so great and providential an Escape.

We take this Opportunity to express our Loyalty to our Sovereign and our firm Attachment to our most excellent Constitution; and we have the Satisfaction to assure your Majesty, that in this solemn Declaration we speak not as Individuals, but utter the unanimous Voice of the Community whom we have the Honour to represent.

That every Attempt to injure your Majesty may prove abortive, and that your Majesty may long live to reign over a free, loyal and happy People, is our most earnest Prayer.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, having learned, with equal Concern and Astonishment, the Outrages offered to your Majesty's sacred Person on your Way to and from Parliament, are anxious to come forward and express the Feelings, which such a diabolical Attempt has excited in our Breasts.

The Mildness of your Majesty's Government, and the paternal Affection, which you have, on all Occasions, manifested towards your People, had, we flattered ourselves, so gained their Affections, that not one of your Majesty's Subjects could have been found capable of such a flagitious Attempt.

That these Wretches, and their unprincipled Instigators, may be speedily discovered, and brought to condign Punishment, is our most anxious Wish; and we rely on the Wisdom of Parliament for adopting such Measures as will in future prevent the Repetition of Outrages of a similar Nature.

And also for taking such Steps as will put a Stop to tumultuous and seditious Assemblies, which cannot fail to be attended with the most fatal Consequences.

Signed by the Præses, by Appointment and in Presence of the Meeting, at Hamilton, the 24th Day of November, 1795 Years.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Clackmann, humbly beg Leave to lay at the Feet of your Majesty our heartfelt Detestation and Abhorrence of the outrageous Insult offered by a despicable Mob to the sacred Person of your Majesty, in passing to and from your Majesty's Royal Residence and the House of Parliament; an Outrage no less tending to degrade the Laws and Constitution of this Realm, than to endanger the Life of a Sovereign so justly dear and valuable to us and every other Person who has truly and sincerely the Good of his Country at Heart.

We humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations on the providential Escape of your Majesty, and to express our Hopes that the execrable Villains who made so nefarious an Attempt may be discovered, and brought to condign Punishment.

Permit us, Sire, to reiterate our dutiful Assurances to your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be ready to contribute every Thing in our Power to support your Majesty's sacred Person and Government inviolate from all your Majesty's foreign and domestic Enemies.

That it may please God long to continue the Reign of your Majesty over a free, happy and contented Nation, and to shower down Blessings of every Description on your Majesty and all the Branches of the Royal House of Hanover, is the sincere Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and devoted Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Margate and Saint Peter's associated Companies of Volunteer Infantry.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Margate and Saint Peter's associated Companies of Volunteer Infantry, humbly approach the Throne, to declare our Abhorrence of the late daring Attack upon your Majesty's Royal Person.

Suffer us to congratulate your Majesty upon your providential Escape from the Violence of intemperate and misguided Men; and, conscious of the many Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Government, permit us, Sire, to express our most affectionate Loyalty to our Patriot King, and a firm and zealous Attachment to the present happy Constitution; a Constitution which it is our ardent Wishes that your Majesty, enthroned in the Hearts of your People, may long live to vindicate and maintain.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Jedburgh.

S I R E!

IT is with the greatest Horror and Detestation that we have heard of the late daring Outrage made against your Majesty's Person; and we consider it our Duty as faithful and loyal Subjects to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape.

Impressed with a due Sense of the Importance of your Majesty's Life, and of the many inestimable Privileges we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will devote our Lives and Fortunes for your Majesty's future Safety, as well as for the Preservation ervation of our happy and excellent Constitution. And we most heartily concur in the Measures now taking by both Houses of Parliament to suppress such illegal and unconstitutional Meetings as, no Doubt, led to the late Attack made upon your Majesty's sacred Person.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a free and happy People is our most earnest Prayer to Almighty God.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Auchterarder.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Auchterarder, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, to express our Abhorrence at the late Insults offered to your Majesty's Royal Person, and the lively sorrow we felt that the Life of so gracious a Sovereign should be endangered by the unprovoked Outrages of any of his Subjects. As we have rendered sincere Thanks to Almighty God for the merciful Interposition of his Providence in your Majesty's Behalf, so we beg Leave to offer your Majesty our hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape.

It gives us Pain to think there should be Men in this Kingdom so void of all Sense of Duty and Allegiance as to be guilty of such Attempts, and we hope due Means will be employed to bring the Authors to condign Punishment.

That your Majesty may continue to be the Object of the Divine Care and Protection, and may reign long and happily over a free, loyal, and virtuous People, is the sincere Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most obedient Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Auchterarder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Loyal Forfar Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Loyal Forfar Volunteers, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Indignation and Abhorrence at the daring Insult offered to your Majesty's Royal Person in your going to and returning from your Parliament.

We cannot reflect, without Concern, that there should be found within your Majesty's Dominions any Persons so insensible of the Happiness which all your Subjects derive from your just and mild Government, and of the Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Character, as to be capable of those flagitious Acts.

And we beg Leave humbly to lay before your Majesty our earnest Wishes that you will be graciously pleased to direct the most effectual Measures to be taken to discover the Authors and Abettors of Crimes so atrocious.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, enrolled in the Second or Ilminster Troop of Somerset Yeomen Cavalry, humbly implore your Majesty's Permission to express our Horror and Indignation on the late daring, violent and diabolical Insult shewn to your Royal Person, and our heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Protection of the Omnipotent against such wicked Designs.

From a crafty and subtle Set of People, who are in the Habits of holding Societies and misrepresenting Affairs to their Followers, by which the Weak and Unwary are misled, proceed those Outrages and unprovoked Insults, with a View to injure the best of Kings, subvert the best Government, and destroy the most happy and glorious Constitution now existing under the Heavens.

Impressed with the Happiness we now enjoy beyond all other Nations, by your Majesty's parental Care and Attention to your People, we profess ourselves attached to the present Constitution, the Protection of your Majesty's Person, Crown and Dignity, and ever ready, to the best in our Power, to support and preserve the Peace and Quiet of our Country.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

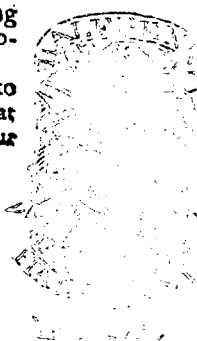

The Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace and Heretors of the County of Inverness.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace and Heretors of the County of Inverness, approach your Majesty with sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the execrable Attempt lately made on your sacred Person by some insatuated Miscreants, who, unworthy of the Blessings of our glorious Constitution, and incapable of enjoying them, envy their more virtuous Fellow Subjects, and by aiming at the Life of our beloved Monarch, endeavoured to introduce that Anarchy and Confusion in which alone Men of their Dispositions can delight, and from which only they can derive any Hope.

We do most cordially assure your Majesty that we are ready at all Times to hazard our Lives and Properties in Defence of your Royal Person and Authority in Support of the Laws, and in guarding against the mischievous Delusions of factious Innovators.

That God may long preserve your Majesty to reign over a free, loyal and united People, and that your your Descendants, following your illustrious Example, may rule these Kingdoms to the latest Ages, is the earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace and Heretors of the County of Inverness.

THE following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sessions Grand Jury of the City of Dublin.

Loving and Beloved and Father,

IF it were possible to address your Majesty in a more affectionate Manner, we the Quarter Sessions Grand Jury of the City of Dublin would adopt it, particularly at this Time when we have heard, with the deepest Concern, that your Majesty has been insulted on your Passage to open the Parliament of England, by a misguided and daring Mob, and thereby endangering the Life of a Monarch deservedly venerated by us, as well as by all good Men.

We rejoice, and are thankful to that Divine Providence, who has been so watchful over your Royal Person as to render their base Intentions ineffectual; and we pray that He will turn the Hearts of all wicked and designing Men the Moment they shall conceive a Thought of depriving your Majesty of Life, or us of so good a King.

That the same God of Wisdom, and of Peace, may direct and strengthen all your Councils at this critical Period; that your Majesty may live long to support our excellent Constitution, and to be the Comfort and Happiness of your Royal Consort and your numerous Offspring, as well as that of your People, is our most hearty and fervent Prayer.

Grand Jury Room, November 20, 1795.

St. James's, December 3.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter's, Westminster, together with the Lord High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, Chief Burgesses, Burgesses, High Constable, and Burgesses Assistants of your ancient City and Liberty of Westminster, humbly beg Leave to express our most lively Congratulations on the providential Escape of your Majesty from the daring Outrage offered to your Majesty's Person within this City and Liberty on your Passage to and return from your Parliament the first Day of this Session.

We are deeply sensible of the many inestimable Blessings which we enjoy under our excellent Constitution in Church and State, and we feel the warmest Indignation that there should be found any of our Fellow Subjects insensible to them, or to the just and mild Government administered by your Majesty, or to those personal Virtues which command the Respect, Attachment, and Gratitude of your People.

With these Impressions we cannot but connect this violent and alarming Outrage with the many seditious and tumultuous Assemblies held within this City, Liberty, and its Vicinity, and with the abominable Principles openly avowed there, and disseminated with the greatest Industry, tending to alienate the Affections of the People from the Person of your Majesty, and from the Constitution as by Law established.

Under the Apprehension that the existing Laws may be found inadequate to the Emergency of the present alarming Crisis, and to the Suppression of Evils of so atrocious a Nature, not only affecting the Security of your peaceable and loyal Subjects, but striking at the very Existence of our Laws and Liberties; and animated by the most dutiful Sentiments of Gratitude and Affection to your Majesty by the most sincere Reverence and Attachment to our Constitution, Sentiments which we share in common with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects; but feeling ourselves peculiarly called upon to express our Apprehension for the Tranquillity and Security of this great City, we hope that the Wisdom of Parliament will, with all convenient Dispatch, make further Provision for the Security of your Majesty's Person, and for the repressing and punishing seditious and tumultuous Meetings.

Given under our Common Seal, this 28th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by the Bishop of Rochester, Dean of Westminster, and the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord High Steward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Noblemen, Gentry, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Oxford.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentry, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Oxford, having heard, with the utmost Concern and Indignation, the very atrocious Outrage which has lately been offered to your Majesty's Person by an audacious and desperate Banditti, evidently seduced for that Purpose by the Arts and Machinations of the Enemies of this Country,

We beg Leave, in the strongest Manner, to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of such an Attempt; and we most sincerely congratulate your Majesty, ourselves, and our Country, that it hath pleased Almighty God to render their Plans ineffectual, and to deliver your Majesty from the Attack of those daring and abandoned Ruffians.

We most sincerely hope that the Measures your Majesty hath directed to be taken will lead to the Discovery and Punishment of the Perpetrators, Promoters and Abettors of this most flagrant Attack upon your Majesty's Person and the Constitution; and and we humbly hope, that if the Laws now in Being are not sufficient to restrain the Causes of such atrocious Offences, your Majesty, in conjunction with your Parliament now assembled, will enact such wholesome Provisions as shall deter and prevent the Repetition of them in future.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most faithful and inviolable Attachment, and that we are so truly sensible of the Blessings this Nation enjoys under your Majesty's Government and the Constitution as by Law established, that we shall at all Times be ready to come forward with our Lives and Fortunes to repel every Aggression upon either, whether from foreign or domestic Enemies.

We most devoutly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign with Satisfaction and Glory over the free and loyal People of this happy Country.

Signed, in the Name and on the Behalf of the County, by Order of the General Meeting, Strickland Freeman, High Sheriff.

[Presented by Strickland Freeman, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Volunteer Cavalry of Gentlemen and Yeomen, Freeholders and others, of the County of Stafford, beg Leave to offer our warmest and most sincere Congratulations on your happy Escape from the violent and atrocious Attack lately made on your Royal Person; an Attack which involves the Violation of our constitutional Security in every Branch, and which, when we reflect upon your personal Virtues, and the mild Administration of the Laws, by which your Reign is distinguished, impresses us with the utmost Detestation against the Authors and Abettors of so wicked an Outrage; and your Majesty may depend that we are ever ready to stand forth in Defence of your Person and Government.

We implore Divine Providence to guard and protect you from all open Violence and secret Conspiracy, and to accept our most ardent Prayer for the long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, a Blessing so essential to the Welfare and Tranquillity of these Kingdoms.

Signed by Order of a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Volunteer Cavalry of Gentlemen and Yeomen, and others of the County of Stafford, held at Stafford, on Thursday the 19th Day of November, 1795.

Thomas Swinnerton, Sheriff.

[Presented by Earl Gower and Sir Edward Littleton, Bart. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Brecknock.

May it please your Majesty,

WE have learnt, with the utmost Concern and Astonishment, the late most outrageous Insult and Violence offered to your Royal Person, in your Majesty's Passage to and from Parliament; an Event of which we cannot think but with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence, whether we regard your Majesty's personal Safety or the Blow aimed at the Government and happy Establishment of this Country.

Permit us, Sire, in common with all your loyal Subjects, to assure your Majesty, that we are duly sensible of the Happiness we have long experienced under the Protection of your Majesty and of your Royal Progenitors; and that we shall at all Times be ready, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to stand forth in the Defence of your Majesty's Person, and for maintaining the present Constitution inviolate.

[Presented by Henry Skrine, Esq; High Sheriff, and Sir Charles Morgan, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Nobility, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Escape from an Attack of the most daring and flagitious Nature.

From whatever Causes this Outrage proceeded, whether from the Misrepresentation of ambitious and designing Men operating upon weak Minds, or from the Malevolence of a few misguided Individuals, we are convinced that the great Body of the People are steadily attached to your Majesty's Person, and that they will be ready to stand forth in Defence of our excellent Constitution, of which the hereditary Monarchy, settled by Law in your Majesty's illustrious House, forms an essential Part.

We consider the Safety of your Majesty, as the Guardian of the Laws, essential to the Security of the Liberty and Property of every Individual, and should regard any Outrage of this Sort as a Crime of the most heinous Description, at whatever Time it might be attempted; but we cannot help considering the Offence as greatly aggravated by the Moment chosen for it's Commission, when your Majesty was engaged in the Exercise of the highest Functions of the Royal Office.

At the same Time, therefore, that we are thankful to Divine Providence for the Preservation of a Life so important to the public Welfare, we cannot but admire the Magnanimity of those Expressions in your Majesty's Answer to both Houses of Parliament, "That you have too much Reason to be assured of the affectionate and steady Attachment of your People at large to have felt any other Sentiment upon the Occasion than that of Concern at so high a Violation of the Laws."

Animated with these Sentiments, and relying on your Majesty's acknowledged Benevolence, we sincerely and anxiously pray that your Majesty will be soon enabled to give Effect to your beneficent Intentions of opening a Negotiation for Peace, upon Terms consistent with the Stability of the Constitution and the permanent Interest of your People.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting held the 25th Day of November, 1795, at Cambridge, Thomas Quintin, Sheriff.

[Presented by Major-General Adeane, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Chester, assembled at a Meeting publicly convened by the Sheriff of the said County, on the 26th Day of November, 1795.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Fidelity and Regard to your Person and Government, beg Leave to offer you our most heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's late happy Escape from the Violence offered to your Person on the Day of the Meeting of your Parliament.

Sensible of the intimate Connection which subsists between your Majesty's personal Safety and the Preservation of that Form of Government under which we have, by the Blessings of Providence, enjoyed so much Happiness during your Reign, we consider every Violation of the Duty and Allegiance which your Majesty is entitled to receive from all your Subjects as the greatest Infringement of our free Constitution, and regarding the Perpetrators of Crimes of such Enormity with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, we hope the most effectual Means will be taken to bring them to condign Punishment, and to prevent the Commission of similar Offences for the future. And we earnestly pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a faithful and affectionate People, secure from all Attempts against your Person or Government, which we shall at all Times respect and support with the utmost Loyalty and Attachment.

James Hugh Smith Barry, Sheriff, on the Behalf and by the Order of the Meeting.

[Presented by Sir Robert Cotton, Bart. and John Crewe, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Armed Yeomanry of the County of Bucks, considering those Duties which we owe to established and excellent Constitution, in common with the rest of our Fellow Subjects, increased by the Confidence reposed in us by the Voice of our County, at whose Request your Majesty has permitted us to array ourselves in Arms, for the Protection of all that is dear to us, beg Leave to express to our beloved Sovereign the Indignation and Horror with which we heard of the daring Outrage offered to your Majesty on the first Day of this Session of Parliament.

We have cheerfully submitted to the Fatigue and Inconvenience of Military Duties, very foreign to our general and usual Habits of Life; but we have done so in the humble Hope that our Exertions might tend to repress those execrable Opinions and Proceedings, which, by striking at your Majesty's Safety and at the established Constitution, call for the marked Detestation of every good Subject.

We therefore humbly request your Majesty to permit us to renew, on this Occasion, and in this marked Manner, our solemn Engagements for the Protection of your Majesty's Person and of our excellent and invaluable Constitution, both which, with our latest Breath, we will defend.

[Presented by the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant and Commandant.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Lancaster, humbly entreat your Majesty graciously to accept our sincere Congratulations on the late providential Deliverance of your Royal Person from the late providential Deliverance of your Royal Person from the horrid Attack of audacious and ill-disposed Persons.

We cannot call to Mind the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under a mild and equitable Government and a Patriot King, without considering the possible Loss of such a Sovereign as one of the severest Calamities with which this Country could be afflicted, and an Event which, in Times like these, would be particularly disastrous.

We cannot, without Astonishment and the deepest Regret, consider that this Land of Happiness and Freedom should foster in its Bosom Miscreants who are capable of attacking the Life of a Sovereign, whose public and private Virtues are the Subject of universal Praise, and worthy of general Imitation; but we trust and are confident, that the general Detestation which your Majesty's Subjects will be forward to express on this important Occasion will not only tend to counteract that dangerous Spirit of Anarchy and Intubordination which unhappily prevails amongst a few misguided Individuals, but afford to your Majesty the pleasing Consolation that your Majesty still possesses the Affections, and will most assuredly meet with the Support of a loyal and an enlightened People.

With great Pleasure we embrace this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government.

By Order of the Meeting, holden at Preston in the said County on the 26th Day of November, 1795, pursuant to the Sheriff's public Advertisement.

Robinson Shuttleworth, Sheriff, and Chairman.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers and Volunteers of Rochdale in the County Palatine of Lancaster, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the said Town and Neighbourhood, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations on happily escaping the atrocious Insult upon your sacred Person.

Sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and equitable Administration, and convinced that the Continuance of these Blessings depends upon the Preservation of your Majesty, we cannot cannot express, in Terms sufficiently strong, our Horror and Detestation at this infamous Attempt.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments we most cordially wish your Majesty a long Series of Years, each happier than the former, and that Providence may bestow upon your Majesty those Gifts which it reserves for the best of Kings.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County of Lancaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Blackburn in the County Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our just Indignation and Abhorrence excited by the late Attempts of wicked and seditious Men to traduce your Majesty's Royal Person and Safety.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Congratulations on your Majesty's late most providential Escape are the more sincere, when we reflect on the Purity and Rectitude of those Principles which have uniformly directed your Majesty's publick and private Conduct, and on the numerous and unexampled Blessings we have hitherto enjoyed under your Majesty's Civil Administration.—Blessings at this Time to powerfully contrasted with the Miseries and Horrors of Anarchy experienced in a neighbouring Nation.

Conceiving our own personal Security and Happiness to be very closely and essentially connected with those of your Majesty, we feel ourselves led to raise our Hearts to the Great Ruler of the Universe, in whose Hands alone are the Issues of Life and Death, gratefully acknowledging his late providential Interposition, and humbly imploring a Continuance of his Care and Protection of your Majesty's Life and Person.

Under the Influence of these Sentiments, we entertain a well-grounded Confidence that your Majesty's Royal Person and Dignity will be defended from every Assault of domestick and external Enemies; and that your Majesty will continue to reign long in the Hearts, as well as over the Persons, of a free, loyal and happy People.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Bolton le Moors and its Vicinity, being anxious to join in the national Congratulations upon your Majesty's late Escape from the horrid Outrage of an unprincipled Rabble, beg Leave to approach your Throne with unfeigned Expressions of Attachment to your sacred Person, and to that Form of Government which is the Veneration and Envy of surrounding Nations. We are deeply sensible that whenever Monarchy is insulted, the Constitution is violated; we therefore feel the most lively Indignation at the treasonable Attempts of those wicked Men, whereby your Majesty was endangered in the Way to your Parliament, and in the Exercise of the most important Function of your Kingly Office.

While we wish to reprobate with every Mark of Abhorrence such criminal Proceedings, we cannot but sympathize in that Concern which must have disturbed your Royal Bosom, in reflecting that there were any of your Majesty's Subjects so ungrateful and depraved as not to be won to their Duty by the mild and amiable Virtues of your Reign, or not awed into Obedience by your august Character as their Sovereign. In an Age so disgraced with political and moral Guilt, as the present has been, we, your loving Subjects, look forward with fearful Solitude for your Majesty's future Safety, and the consequent Tranquillity of these Kingdoms; and as we are impressed with the painful Conviction that coercive Measures, fully adequate to the Magnitude of the Evil, and most decisive in their Effect, can alone repress these alarming Attacks upon Magistracy and established Government, we trust that the Discretion and Firmness of the Legislature will make such wholesome Provisions, that, with the Blessing of Almighty God upon their Endeavours, your Majesty's Person may be henceforth secured from secret Conspiracies and open Violence, and that our Constitution may remain, to the latest Generations, an undoubted Monument of legal and religious Wisdom. We are, may it please your Majesty, with inviolable Fidelity, your Majesty's most loyal and obedient Subjects.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley and John Blackburne, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The unanimous and dutiful Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Aldermen and Inhabitants at large of your Majesty's ancient City of Chichester, assembled in the Town Hall of the same City on Monday the 23d Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE have learnt with Indignation the atrocious Insults that were offered to your Majesty at the Opening of this Session of Parliament.

We know that your Majesty's Attachment to this happy Constitution, under which all your Subjects derive so many Blessings, made your Majesty feel less Concern for the Danger to which your Royal Person was exposed on that Occasion, than for this daring Attack on the Constitution itself, in the Person of the first Guardian of our Liberties.

We see it, Sir, in the same Light; as an Attempt of the most desperate Men, encouraged by Meetings of the most dangerous Tendency to overturn our present happy Government. We feel and resent it as an Attack upon ourselves and all that is most dear to us. It is our own Cause, Sir, that is at Stake. We trust and believe that the Number of those who, for their own ambitious Purposes, would draw on this happy Island all the Miseries which a neighbouring Country has experienced, are but few, and that their indefatigable Attempts to seduce others by false Ideas of a Liberty incompatible with one of its first Objects, the Security of Property, will be rejected by by the good Sense of the People of England, who know how to value Religion and a Government for Laws. But should such Men be ever so successful, and the deluded Multitude ever so great, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are ready, and so, we trust, are a great Majority of your Majesty's Subjects, to stand forth for the Preservation of our Constitution, and to save it or fall with it.

These Sir, are our Sentiments in viewing the late Outrage in a public Light; but we should be wanting to ourselves in that Respect and Veneration we feel for your Majesty, if we did not express our Abhorrence that this Attempt on our Liberties should have been made through your Majesty's Person, and that Wretches could have been found so devoid of every generous Sentiment as to lift a Hand against that Life which, from its public and private Virtues, has obtained the Love and Affection of Mankind.

But, Sir, it is those very Virtues that expose you to the Enemies of the British Constitution. They know how beloved you are by your Subjects, and that your Courage and Firmness will defend them against all the Machinations of Faction.

May God, therefore, long preserve your Majesty to reign over a happy and affectionate People.

[Presented by his Grace the Duke of Richmond, High Steward, and the Right Hon. Thomas Steele, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, accompanied by the Right Hon. Lord Selkirk and others.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Sussex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with renewed Professions of Loyalty and Affection, at a Time when we feel ourselves called upon to express our Abhorrence and Indignation at the Insult lately offered to your Majesty's sacred Character in the Exercise of one of the most important Functions of the Constitution.

Deeply impressed with Gratitude to Almighty Providence for your Majesty's personal Safety, we are desirous of offering our humble Thanks to your Majesty for your gracious Attention to the Happiness and Welfare of your People, and to the Preservation of our excellent Constitution, by your wise and seasonable Proclamation. We feel an honest Pride in declaring, that so dark and sinister an Attack is inconsistent with the Manliness and Generosity of the British Character, and we could never have imagined that the Veneration due to the Person of a Sovereign, so justly dear to all his Subjects, would have been suppressed in the Breasts of Englishmen by any Artifices or Designs whatsoever. We cannot however conceal our Alarm, when we consider that so flagitious and daring an Attempt to involve this Country in all the Horrors of Anarchy and Confusion, must necessarily have arisen from the Progress of those dangerous Principles which are so industriously disseminated by seditious Meetings, Societies, and Publications. To prevent similar Outrages, we rely on the Wisdom of the Legislature for such further Provisions as may at once secure to your loyal and faithful Subjects their invaluable Privilege of Petition and Remonstrance both to your Majesty and to the Two Houses of Parliament; and at the same Time controul the licentious Abuse of that Privilege, and repress those Proceedings by which Sedition and Disaffection to our happy Constitution have been encouraged and promoted for the Purpose of subverting all Security both of Person and Property. It is the ardent and universal Wish of your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects of the County of Sussex, that your Majesty may long reign over a happy and grateful People, and continue to support a Constitution eminently distinguished for the Equality and Lenity of its Laws, and forming the best practical System for encouraging the uncontrouled Exercise of all useful Talents, and promoting the general Happiness of Mankind.

Francis Newbery, Sheriff.

[Presented by Francis Newbery, Esq; High Sheriff, attended by his Grace the Duke of Richmond, the Hon. Thomas Pelham, the Right Hon. Lord Sheffield, Earl of Aylburnham, Right Hon. Lord Selkirk, — Sargent, Esq; Captain Shiffard, Colonel Newson, and — Herbert, Esqrs.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Glamorgan, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with the most affectionate Respect, and to express our Indignation at the most daring Outrage offered to your Majesty, when about to fulfil one of the most important Functions of your Kingly Office.

We, with Sentiments of the highest Gratitude to the Great Disposer of all Events, do congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from such traitorous Attacks, in Violation of our glorious Constitution, of which your Majesty forms so important a Part; and we most heartily pray that we, with our Fellow Subjects, may long continue to experience those Blessings derived from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

[Presented by Thomas Wyndham, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, Clergy, Gentry and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon.

WE, the Mayor, Corporation, Clergy, Gentry and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon, with all Humility, approach your Majesty's Throne to testify to your Majesty our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the late wicked and daring Attack on your Majesty's Royal Person, in going to and returning from Parliament, as also of that Spirit of Faction and Discontent which we cannot but suppose gave Rise thereto. We beg Leave further to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape, and to assure your Majesty that we will upon all Occasions support, maintain and defend the Sovereignty of your Majesty and your illustrious House over these Kingdoms with our Lives and Fortunes.

[Presented by Colonel Rolle, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravefend and Milton, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravefend and Milton, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Hearts equally impressed with profound Veneration and Love for your Majesty's Person and Government, and with Horror and Indignation at the late Attempt to give, by a daring Attack on the one, a deep and fatal Stab to the other.

Base and deluded as the Wretch must be, who, forgetful of his Allegiance, could at any Time meditate Violence to the sacred Person of your Majesty: Yet the chosen Moment for this atrocious Outrage adds much, in our Minds, to the Criminality of the Design; a Moment when, in the benevolent Exercise of the sovereign Functions, your Majesty was graciously proceeding to enforce the most salutary and effectual Means of alleviating those Inconveniencies, which all must seriously lament, but which Tumult and Disorder are least calculated to remedy or remove. When we reflect on this, we are filled with an Amazement and Indignation, equalled only by our Gratitude to God, for his Divine Interposition, whereby the diabolical Attempt has been frustrated.

It is with unfeigned Sincerity we assure your Majesty, that no Exertions on our Part, either in our collective or individual Capacities, shall be wanting, to give full Effect to those Measures, which the State of the Country may require, and the Wisdom of Parliament adopt.

Given under our Common Seal this 23d Day of November, 1795, and signed, by Order of Court. Evans and Son, Town-Clerks.

[*Presented by Lieutenant-General Sir William Farwell,
K. B. Governor of Gravefend and Tilbury Fort.*]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Wilts, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the Attack of a daring and misguided Mob, whilst your Majesty was in the Exercise of one of the most important Duties attached to your Regal Office.

We feel the utmost Abhorrence at an Act which has not only endangered the Life of a Monarch endeared to us by his manifold private Virtues, and by the mild and beneficent Exercise of his Royal Functions, but which might also have affected the very Existence of our Constitution and Form of Government. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, as well for the Protection and Preservation of the one as for the Support and Defence of the other, your Majesty's loyal County of Wilts are ready to stand forth with their Lives and Fortunes,

And we earnestly pray, that Heaven will preserve your Majesty, long to reign over a loyal and united People.

Signed at the unanimous Request, and on the Behalf of the Meeting of the County,
J. Montagu, Sheriff.

[Presented by Henry Penruddock Wyndham, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

N. B. Several more Addresses have been received, which will be inserted as soon as possible.

Whitehall, November 20, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that late on the Night of Thursday the 12th Instant, or early in the Morning of Friday the 13th Instant, Two Guns, loaded with Slugs or other Pieces of Lead, were, by certain evil-minded Persons, fired into a Bedchamber of the Dwelling-House of — Pyrke, Esq; a Magistrate for the County of Gloucester, situate at Littledean in the said County, with Intent him the said Mr. Pyrke to murder and kill; which said Slugs or other Pieces of Lead passed close to a Bed which was in the said Chamber, and in which the said Mr. Pyrke usually sleeps.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring
and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more the said Offenders; (except the Person or Persons who actually so fired the said Two Guns or either of them) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accompllices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty does hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon Conviction.

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King,
that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Instant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, was passing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently assaulted by Three Men, who were unknown to him, and stabbed in his Right Leg, and cut across the Calf thereof with some sharp Instrument, of which said Stab and Cut he now lies dangerously maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to seize the Man by whom he believed he was so wounded and cut, the others again assaulted him, and rescued the Person whom he had so seized.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring
and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders; (except the Person who actually gave

gave the said Stab and Cut, who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the said Regiment to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, so as that he or they may be convicted thereof.
