By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes taken from the Subjects of the United Provinces subsequent to the Fifteenth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council for granting General Reprizals against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the said United Provinces.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Fifteenth Day of September last, We have ordered that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the United Provinces, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the said United Provinces, or any Persons being Subjects thereof, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the said United Provinces, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within our Dominions; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects, who may have lawfully seized any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or who shall hereafter seize any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all such Ships and Goods as aforesaid, which, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September, 1795, have been, or hereafter, during the present Hostilities, shall be seized as aforesaid, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken as aforesaid, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or which shall hereafter be taken as aforesaid, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say, That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprizal, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners aforesaid) may be sold and disposed, posed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters and others to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprizals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before. And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes, which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines and Soldiers on Board Our said Ships and Vessels at the Time of the Capture, and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise.

The Distribution shall be made as follows; the Whole of the neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts.

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on Board at the Taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on Board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions and subject to such Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Master on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such Physician be actually on Board at the Time of taking such Prizes.

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns and Quarter-Masters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Boat-swains, Gunners, Purser, Carpenter, Masters Mates, Chirurgeon, Pilot and Chaplain on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The Midshipmen, Captain's Clerk, Master-Sail-maker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatswains Mates, Gunner's Mates, Master at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Cockswain, Quarter-Masters, Quarter-Masters Mates, Chirurgeon's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Sergeants of Marines and Land Forces on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them.

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines, and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty and assisting on Board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them.

Provided that if any Officer being on Board any of our Ships of War at the Time of taking any Prize shall have more Commissions or Offices than one, such Officer shall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes, which, according to the above mentioned Distribution, shall belong to his superior Commission or Office. And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War taking any Prize, as soon as may be, to transmit, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others who were actually on Board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on Board, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster Books and annexed Lists, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War, and, upon Request, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and dispose of such Prize; and also, upon Application to them, (the said Commissioners) they shall give or cause to be given to the said Agents all such Lists from the Muster Books of any such Ships of War, and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce

Produce of such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part herein before mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers, who shall actually be on Board at the taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command: Secondly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command at Jamaica or elsewhere, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there before he arrives at the Place to which he is sent, and actually takes upon him the Command. Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent out to reinforce a superior Flag Officer, at Jamaica or elsewhere, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer, before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the superior Flag Officer, and actually receive some Order from him. Fourthly, That a chief Flag Officer returning Home, from Jamaica or elsewhere, shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind to act under another Command. Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Sixthly, That when more Flag-Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth Part, and the other shall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided amongst the other Flag Officers. Seventhly, That Commodores with Captains under them shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief or serving under Command. Eighthly, That the First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Fifteen Ships of the Line of Battle (provided such last mentioned Fleet or Squadron shall be composed of His Majesty's own Ships,) shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be intitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further order, That in case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighths, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers, in the Manner herein before directed, in the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers: Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Master, or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be One on Board,) shall be One Eighth Part; to be divided into Three equal Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command. That the Share of the Chirurgion, or Chirurgion's Mate (where there is no Chirurgion,) Midshipmen, and Clerk and Steward, shall be One Eighth; that the Share of the Boatswain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeomen of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Master, and Quarter-Master's Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on Board, assisting in the Capture; shall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Vessel, without any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War being present or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in case any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War shall be present, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on Board such Cutters and Schooners, or Armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on Board His Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of December, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 3d of June last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 7th Day of this instant December: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 7th Day of this instant December, presume to transport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." — And the Right Honourable the Lord's Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of December, 1795.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 10th Day of June, 1795, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, will expire on the 10th Day of this instant December: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the said 10th Day of this instant December, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ, which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the

Entry

Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Westminster, December 1.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by Mr. Quarme, the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the making of Starch, Hair-Powder, and Blue, from Wheat and other Articles of Food; and for lowering the Duties on the Importation of Starch and other Articles made thereof.

An Act to prohibit the Exportation of Candles, Tallow, and Soap, for a limited Time.

St. James's, December 5.

THE following Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, has been presented to the King by the Rev. Dr. Douglas, Vice-Chancellor, accompanied by the Right Hon. William Pitt, High Steward, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said University, his Grace the Duke of Rutland, and several others of the Nobility, who are Members of the same; the Caput, viz. the Rev. R. Farmer, D. D. Dr. Joseph Jowett, Regius Professor of Law, Sir Isaac Pennington, Regius Professor of Physic, J. Burrell, M. A. and W. Hendry, M. A.; William Outram, M. A. J. Bridge, M. A. George Borlase, B. D. Registrar, and John Beverley, M. A. Senior Esquire Beadle, Delegates from the University, being introduced to the King by the Marquis of Salisbury. Lord Chamberlain; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, in full Senate assembled, think it our Duty to approach your Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to express our extreme Concern and Indignation at the late outrageous Attempt against the Life of a Sovereign, whose Virtues might disarm even Malice itself.

Deeply sensible as we are that the many Blessings we enjoy are owing to your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and that the Happiness of these Realms is closely connected with the Security of your august Person, we beg Leave to offer our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Deliverance from the most traiterous Design which the most abandoned of Men could devise.

In this Deliverance we acknowledge, with Hearts full of Gratitude, the Mercies of a gracious overruling Providence; and we fervently implore the Continuance of that Divine Protection, which has hitherto guarded and preserved your sacred Person from all the Dangers of these disastrous Times.

We trust in God that the desperate Assault, which is now to us the Subject of equal Grief and Abhorrence, will strengthen in the Minds of all the Obligations of Duty and Allegiance; and we feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us to assure your Majesty, that it will animate our Endeavours to guard against the Growth of evil Principles, to enforce Obedience to the Laws, and inculcate that Reverence for Authority, which is the Basis of all Order and good Government.

Sealed with our Seal, this Fourteenth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this very dutiful and loyal Address, and for the cordial Expressions of your Attachment to My Person and Government.

The Proofs I have received on this Occasion of the Loyalty and Affection of My People have afforded Me the most sensible Gratification. The during Outrage which has been committed demands My Attention principally as it affects the Laws and Constitution; for the Maintenance of which you may always depend upon My utmost Exertions.

St. James's, December 5.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitane Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy

Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury, impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to Almighty God, in whose Hands are the Issues of Life, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late daring Outrages of flagitious and desperate Men against your Royal Person, and the Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

We cannot sufficiently express our Horror and Indignation at an Attempt so atrocious. We recognize in it the malignant Character and Effects of those detestable Principles, which are the Scourge and Disgrace of the Age we live in, and which have been disseminated amongst your Majesty's Subjects, unhappily with too much Success, by ill-designing Men.

It is the natural Tendency of such Principles to create Disaffection against a Life which has uniformly been devoted to the best Interests of a civil Government, placed in a just Medium, unexampled among the Nations of the World, between the Extremes of despotic Power and popular Licentiousness, and including in it the Security of Life, of Freedom, of Property, of Religion, of every Thing that is dear to Man.

We are sensible that the Wickedness which we deplore is confined to a small Number of Persons; and we trust in God that the restless Endeavours of Sedition can never prosper in a Country blessed with such a Constitution, and amongst a grateful and loyal People, who know how to prize the Blessings which they enjoy from it. We should be as much wanting in our Affection to our Country, as in our Duty to your Majesty, if we did not earnestly pray for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign over us, and that you may long see the good Effects of your mild, just and conscientious Administration of a legal Government.

May God's good Providence preserve your Majesty; and may the Influence of his Holy Spirit aid and direct you in your Exertions to employ the Powers entrusted to you for the Security and Happiness of your People.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, beg Leave to express the deep Affliction that we have experienced, in consequence of those daring Outrages which have lately taken Place, to the actual Danger of your Majesty's Person.

The Safety of that Person we know to have been always Matter of anxious Concern to all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, and we lament that the eminent Display of your Majesty's public and private Virtues should not have prevented such Insults and Attempts, as have filled the Mind of every Well-wisher to this Country with Grief and Apprehension:

We are, we trust, duly thankful, that the good Providence of God protected your Majesty in the Hour of Assault and Danger; and it is our fervent Prayer, that the Almighty Disposer of all Events may extend his Protection to your sacred Person; that your Majesty may long reign over a People, sensible of the Value of true Civil and Religious Liberty; and may thus continue to manifest to all the World the most mild and upright Administration of Executive Government under the Powers of that excellent Constitution which it is our Glory and our Happiness to possess.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the President and Fellows of Sion College, within the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President and Fellows of Sion College, (the Incorporated Clergy of the City of London) entertaining the highest Sense of the inestimable Blessings derived to the People of these Kingdoms from that paternal Care and those mild Virtues, which, during the whole of a long Reign, have uniformly distinguished your Majesty's personal Character and Conduct, we reflect upon the late outrageous insult offered to your sacred Person, whilst in the Exercise of that Part of your Royal Function so peculiarly grateful to the Feelings of Britons, not with more Horror than Astonishment: So that, in contemplating the Atrocious of the Offence, we are led to impute it, if not to the premeditated Design or immediate Intigation of a deep Confederacy, entered into by desperate and evil-minded Men against the Peace, the unexampled Prosperity of this Realm, and the Permanency of its unrivalled Constitution, at least to the fatal Operation of those Doctrines, subversive of every Principle, religious, moral, and political, which have been for some Time past by every possible Means disseminated with incredible Industry and mischievous Zeal among your Majesty's Subjects, and which are evidently calculated to excite, concentrate, and call into Action the natural Restlessness and worst Passions of Mankind.

Under these Impressions, we have thought it our indispensable Duty, in common with the great Body of our Fellow Subjects, to come forward, in order to testify, in the most unequivocal manner, our unfeigned and steady Attachment to the Constitution of our Country as by Law established, and our sincerest and warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the daring Assaults of those traitorous and deluded Persons.

We have already returned our humble and hearty Thanks to Almighty God, the Sovereign Disposer of Events, for His manifest Interposition in the Preservation of a Life so extremely necessary at this important Period to the quiet and uninterrupted Possession of our Religion and Liberties. Nor as Ministers of the Gospel can we ever cease to supplicate a long Continuance of His especial Care and Favour to a gracious, revered and pious Sovereign; whose cordial and unremitted Study it has ever been, not only only to protect by every constitutional Exertion, but devoutly to attend upon the Offices of our most holy Religion, and eminently to adorn it's Precepts by illustrious Example. Nor will we neglect in our respective Missions to inculcate, by every due Method and Argument in our Power, a profound Reverence and animated Love of God; an affectionate Allegiance to your Majesty; a dutiful Obedience to the Civil Magistrate; and an ardent and inviolable Regard for a Constitution, under the wise Contrivance and benign Influence of which all good Subjects and virtuous Citizens are enjoying a more extensive and genuine Equality of Civil Rights, a more general Diffusion of Happiness and Prosperity than has or ever could have been experienced by any other Nation whose History has reached our Times.

Given under our Seal this 1st Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by the Rev. Mr. Gilbank, Dean, and the Rev. Mr. Barton, Assistant.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, again approach the Throne, to lay before your Majesty, with due Reverence, our Sentiments on a Subject deeply interesting to all your People.

The Calamities of War, the Scourge of Nations! must ever be deplored by those who cherish the Feeling of Humanity; but whilst we are filled with Regret at the Events which have covered a great Part of Europe with Desolation and Bloodshed, we cannot be too thankful to the Divine Providence, which has so long sheltered this Land from the hostile Sword.

It must afford true Consolation to your Majesty to reflect, that a War so distressing in it's Consequences was not undertaken, on the Part of your Majesty, upon Views of Conquest and Aggrandisement, but, from the hostile Aggressions of your Enemies, was rendered necessary to the Preservation of the Liberties, the Commerce, and the Independence of these Realm's.

Your Majesty has graciously expressed to your Parliament your Readiness to enter into Negotiations for Peace upon such Terms as may consist with the future Security and Happiness of your People. We implore the Disposer of all Events to hasten that happy Period; and we trust that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, the decided Superiority of your Naval Forces, and, above all, that the Unanimity of your People (more firmly cemented by the late wicked Attempts to disturb their internal Tranquillity) will enable your Majesty to accomplish and accelerate that desirable Purpose.

[Presented by Sir John Frederick, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, deeply sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just, mild and equitable Government, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and hearty Congratulations on your late providential Escape from an Attack on your sacred Person, when about to exercise the most important Function of your Regal Authority.

We beg Leave at the same Time to express the utmost Indignation at the Conduct of the insatuated Wretches who were the Promoters and Actors in the horrid Transaction which is the Occasion of our now presenting to your Majesty this Mark of our Duty Respect and Attachment to your Majesty, and which we intreat may at the same Time be considered as a Proof of our Veneration for the Constitution of this Kingdom, which has been so happily protected and preserved by your Majesty and your Ancestors of the Brunswick Line.

By Direction and on Behalf of the Meeting of the said County, holden at the Castle of Winchester on Thursday the 26th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Witber Brampton, Sheriff.

[Presented by Witber Brampton, Esq; High Sheriff, accompanied by Sir William Heathcote, Bart. and William Chute, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, Inhabitants of the County of Rutland, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most cordial Congratulations on the late Escape of your sacred Person from the daring Assaults and Outrages of a Band of Ruffians and Traitors on your Passage to and from your Parliament.

With grateful Hearts we desire to thank the Divine Providence, to whose matchless Care we are indebted for the Preservation of a Life so dear to us, because it has been so singularly useful and exemplary.

From Principles of unshaken Loyalty we view with Indignation and Resentment the Atrocity of the Attempt on your Royal Person: From Sentiments of Piety we contemplate with Horror and with Pity the Depravity of Minds who could lift up their Arms against the Sovereign, whose sole Study has been the Welfare of his Subjects, and whose Actions have been uniformly directed to extend their Felicity.

But, in an Alarm so affecting to us and to all your Majesty's attached Subjects, we share with them in this great Consolation, that while the Divine Providence has protected your sacred Person amidst such imminent Danger, it has furnished to the World new Proofs of your Magnanimity to your Subjects new Confidence in them, and to your Royal Mind new Assurances of their Affection, Attachment and Love.

Gilbert Pleathcote, High Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Lord Sherard and Colonel Edwards, Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, anxious to express our Horror and Indignation at the atrocious Attempt lately made against your Majesty's

Royal

Royal Person, beg Leave to offer your Majesty our sincere and cordial Congratulations on your recent Deliverance from those wicked and treasonable Assaults. We are unfeignedly grateful to Divine Providence for the Preservation of a Sovereign to whom we are equally bound by Duty, Affection and Interest; and we solemnly assure your Majesty that we will, as much as in us lies, and at the Risk of our Lives and Fortunes, if necessary, be vigilant in guarding against all such Proceedings in future as may tend to disturb your Majesty's just Government and endanger our excellent Constitution.

William Waldron, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Hon. Edward Foley and William Lygon, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Aldermen, Common Council and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the daring and wicked Attempts made on your Royal Person going to and from the House of Lords, on your Majesty's opening the present Session of Parliament.

We cannot sufficiently express our Abhorrence and Indignation at such atrocious and wicked Attempts by Miscreants who would subvert all Order and Government, and whose Delight is in Anarchy and Confusion.

We beg Leave to return your Majesty our sincere and hearty Thanks for your most gracious Proclamation for discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Insults and Attempts upon the Life of your Royal Person.

That your Majesty and your illustrious House may ever adorn the Throne of these Realms in Happiness and Prosperity to yourselves, and dispensing the same to a dutiful, grateful and free People, is the fervent Wish and Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Hands and Common Seal, the 19th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by the Hon. Edward Foley and William Lygon, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Worcester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bromsgrove, in the County of Worcester, convened by public Advertisement, at the Town Hall in Bromsgrove, on Tuesday the 17th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, Inhabitants of the above Town and Neighbourhood, with Hearts replete with Loyalty and affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government, beg Leave thus publicly to express our utter Abhorrence of the late Attack on your Majesty's Person; an Attack atrocious in the highest Degree, unlawful, unprovoked, and unmerited.

Happy in the Enjoyment of the Blessings resulting from our present excellent Constitution, under your Majesty's benign Administration, we revere the Divine Providence that hath averted the Arrows of the Assassin, and protected the Father of his People from the malicious Attempts of wicked and unprincipled Men. We assure you, Sire, that we will at all Times (as far as in our Power) not only discourage, but counteract the evil Machinations of the Desperate and Disaffected, no less the Enemies of their Country than their King. And we trust that the Judgments awaiting the Perpetrators of the late daring Outrage will deter others from committing or abetting the like Excesses in future, and teach them to reverence those Laws which administer Justice to, and protect the Persons and Properties of, all its Members, equally alike from the Prince to the Peasant.

That our beloved Monarch may long reign in the Hearts of his faithful Subjects, and over these Realms in Peace and Happiness, is the sincere and hearty Prayer of, most gracious Sire, your loyal and affectionate Subjects and Servants.

[Presented by the Honourable Edward Foley and William Lygon, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Worcester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, of the Town and Neighbourhood of Dudley, cannot refrain from expressing our Detestation of the late violent Outrage committed against your Royal Person, and of the Principles by which it was instigated: We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape, and are sincerely thankful to the Supreme Disposer of all Events for preserving a Life so essential to the Welfare and Happiness of these Realms: We entreat you, Sire, not to let the Disaffection of a few diminish your paternal Confidence in the great Body of your Majesty's faithful People, who must consider this atrocious Attack on the Sovereign as an Attack on the Constitution of the Country, and which has served but to strengthen (if it were possible) their Veneration and Attachment to the best of Kings. We therefore solemnly pledge ourselves to support your Majesty, at the Risk of our Lives and Fortunes, against all illegal and seditious Attempts to subvert our present happy Form of Government.

[Presented by the Hon. Edward Foley and William Lygon, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Worcester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, assembled in the Shire Hall at Carnarvon, on Thursday the 26th Day of November, 1795.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to express our sincere Concern at the criminal and malignant Outrages lately lately attempted against your Majesty's Royal Person, in the Exercise of one of your constitutional Functions.

We beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of such disloyal and seditious Attempts upon your Majesty and your Government, and of the Principles and Motives which gave Rise to them.

We have contemplated with infinite Grief, the alarming Progress of Designs for destroying and undermining the fundamental Principles of our Religion, of our happy Constitution, and of all the Ties of social Order and Virtue; and we sincerely hope, that the extreme Lengths to which ill-disposed or misguided People have gone, will awaken all your Majesty's loyal Subjects to a due Sense of the Happiness they now enjoy, and to a steady Determination to maintain the Constitution at the Risk of their Lives and Fortunes.

We hope the happiest and best Consequences may arise from a Bill now under the Consideration of your Parliament to strengthen the Law against seditious Meetings of all Descriptions; for we have observed, with deep Regret, that the Mildness of the existing Laws has hitherto rather encouraged than suppressed the Efforts of those who have on so many Occasions of late manifested the strongest and most enthusiastic Bias to the Introduction of French Principles and Confusion into this Country.

We thank Divine Providence for His gracious Interposition in preserving a Life so justly dear to us and to all Europe, and we offer up our fervent Prayers, that Heaven may vouchsafe for many Years to continue the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and beneficent Government.

Signed, by Order of the General County Meeting,
Wm. Jones, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack on your Royal Person, at the Moment when your Majesty was engaged in one of the most solemn and important Functions of the Sovereign of these Realms.

An Outrage of such transcendent Enormity against the Person of our Monarch, under Circumstances of such unparalleled Aggravations, not only calls forth our utmost Indignation against those who have planned or perpetrated so horrid a Crime, but must excite in our Minds the most alarming Apprehensions from the Growth and Progress of that execrable System which aims at the Extirpation of Monarchy itself, which threatens to loosen all the Bands of civil Society, to subvert all legitimate Government, and to subject our Lives and Property to the lawless and savage Violence of popular Despotism.

We rely on the Wisdom of the Legislature to check the Progress and avert the fatal Consequences of those nefarious Doctrines and Projects, and effectually to provide for those most important Objects, the Security of your Majesty's Person and Government and the preventing those seditious Meetings and Assemblies, in which we trace the Source and Origin of every Danger which threatens your Majesty and the Nation.

It is our fervent Prayer that, under the Protection of the Divine Providence, your Majesty may triumph over all your foreign and domestic Enemies, and that you may long continue to dispense to a loyal, affectionate and grateful People the Blessings which we experience under your mild and equitable Administration of those Powers which are vested in the Crown, as an essential and vital Part of our free and happy Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre, in the County of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Daventre, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the highest Veneration for and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We feel the greatest Indignation at the Violence and Insult offered to your Majesty in your Passage to and from your Parliament; and the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of the Principles of all Clubs and Societies of wicked and designing Men, who, unmindful of the Advantages which all your Subjects enjoy under your Majesty's mild Administration and Government, are endeavouring by all Means in their Power to subvert the Constitution of this Country.

We congratulate your Majesty upon your Escape from the Danger which threatened your Royal Person; and we assure your Majesty, that we shall, at all Times, and upon all Occasions, be zealous in proving (not in Words only) our Fidelity and Affection to your Majesty, and our inviolable Attachment to the Constitution of our Country.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Gloucester and its Vicinity, humbly present unto your Majesty our most sincere and ardent Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late unnatural Outrage offered to your Person and Government.

We beg Leave to express our deepest Regret that there should exist among your Majesty's Subjects a Set of Men so unthankful for the Blessings of a Reign peculiarly distinguished for its Mildness and Equity, and so daringly hostile to the dearest Interests of their Country, as to be capable attempting, through this atrocious Act of Treason, the Subversion of the most perfect System of Civil Liberty that ever was framed for the Benefit of Mankind:

kind: We feel, however, a peculiar Satisfaction at this momentous Crisis in considering the unbounded Declarations of Loyalty and Affection made by your Majesty's Subjects, as an auspicious Demonstration of their firm Purpose to unite in the Defence of just and legal Authority, the only Security of our Lives, Liberty and Property; and we trust that the laudable Spirit, so generally manifested in this Kingdom, will decidedly prevail over the ferocious Efforts of those infatuated Persons, whose chief Grievance seems to be the salutary Restraint imposed upon the Licentiousness and Turbulence of unprincipled Individuals.

At the same Time we rest in the assured Expectation that, as the Prevention of Practices which threaten the Existence of our most excellent Constitution, is the wisest Conduct of Government, and the Excesses of the present Time loudly call for vigorous Restraints, such Regulations will be adopted, without Delay, as may give Energy to the Civil Power, and invest it with those constitutional Means which will effectually check the growing Evils of Disaffection and Sedition, and protect the Welfare of the whole against the mischievous Machinations of the few.

Fully sensible how much the Peace and Order of Society depend upon your Majesty's Safety, the Guardian of its Rights and Interests, we implore the Almighty to continue his watchful Care over your sacred Person, and long to preserve your Majesty a Blessing to an affectionate and loyal People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Honiton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WERE it possible that the outrageous Violation of Public Order, which hath lately taken Place in your Majesty's Royal Presence, could fail to excite our Indignation, or the imminent Danger to which your Majesty's sacred Life was then exposed, to fill our Minds with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence, we should be deficient in our Duty to the best of Kings; we should be wanting in Gratitude to the Father of his People; and we should conceive ourselves to disgrace the Character of Britons.

With the purest Satisfaction do we congratulate your Majesty, on your Majesty's narrow Escape from the perfidious Designs of vile Assassins!—With the most devout Emotions do we offer up our Praises and Thanksgivings to the Great Creator of the Universe, whose Omnipotence shielded your Majesty from the deadly Aim of base and desperate Traitors.

Whilst we express our deepest Concern that there should have been in human Nature any depraved enough to contemplate or attempt so black and horrible a Deed, and our sincerest Wish that it's Authors, Aiders and Abettors may be brought to condign Punishment, we again presume humbly to approach your Majesty with the warmest Assurances of our inviolable and unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We are fully sensible that your Majesty ever participates in the Distresses of your faithful People. We are truly thankful for your Majesty's anxious Solicitude and paternal Care to alleviate our present Wants; and we rely with Cheerfulness on your Majesty's Exertions to relieve us from every Difficulty.

We are, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects.

[Presented by Sir George Yonge, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Petition of the Portreeve, Bailiff and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Honiton in the County of Devon.

S I R E,

AFTER having so lately expressed to your Majesty our Indignation and Abhorrence of the late most atrocious Outrages and treasonable Insults offered to your sacred Person, we should not again have presumed to approach your Royal Presence had we not found, from Information, that the baneful Influence of the Societies, which have been established in several Parts of this Kingdom, exciting in the Minds of People Discontent and Sedition, where Peace and Loyalty had before resided, has reached our before united Town, and that the Friends of these Societies have been secretly and partially handing from Door to Door, amongst particular Classes of the Inhabitants, a Paper, purporting to be a Petition to your Majesty, praying an abrupt and immediate Conclusion to the War, in which, from Necessity, this Nation is involved, and your Majesty's Interference against passing the Bills now pending in Parliament, for ensuring the Safety of your Royal Person and the preventing seditious Assemblies, with a Design of imposing it on your Majesty as the Petition of the Principal Inhabitants of this loyal Town, and, with an Audacity equal to the Darkness of their Views, refusing it's Production to your Petitioners, when convened by public Notice by the chief Officer of this Borough for the Purpose of taking it into Consideration.

Though we equally wish, with those Petitioners, to see the Blessings of Peace established, we are fully convinced that the Means most conducive to the Glory and Welfare of this Nation, most compatible with our truest Interests, and most likely to ensure to us an honorable, firm and permanent Peace, are the vigorous Measures now pursuing by your Majesty; and we rely with the fullest Confidence that no Endeavour of your Majesty will be wanting to bring about so desirable an Event.

At the same Time feeling, as we do, that the late Outrages on your Majesty's Person can only be attributed to these Seminaries of Sedition, we most humbly entreat your Majesty will, by your Royal Assent, render effectual the Bills now pending for their Suppression.

And your Petitioners, as in Duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Manufacturers and Inhabitants of the Staffordshire Potteries.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Manufacturers and Inhabitants of the Staffordshire Potteries, humbly beg Leave, amidst the general Voice, to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the daring and flagitious Attack lately made on your Majesty's Person, in passing to the House of Peers.

Impressed with a just and grateful Sense of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, and animated by a steady and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, we cannot but regard with mingled Indignation and Abhorrence so atrocious an Outrage; and we deeply lament that any one could be found so misguided in Principle, so regardless of the public Welfare, and so insensible to your Majesty's Virtues, as to be guilty of a Violence incompatible with all social Order, subversive of all constitutional Security, and disgraceful to the national Character.

Whilst we ardently pray that your Majesty's Reign may long continue, a Blessing to your People and a Source of uninterrupted Felicity to your Majesty, permit us, Sire, to add our firm Assurance that we shall on all Occasions be ready to exert our most strenuous Endeavours in Defence of your Majesty's Person, and in Support of that excellent Form of Government under which it is our Pride and Happiness to live.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgeffes, Assistants, Town Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeffes, Assistants, Town Clerk and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and dutiful Sentiments of Respect, Attachment and Loyalty; and to express our unanimous Indignation at the late daring and criminal Insult offered to your Majesty's sacred Person, whilst your Majesty was in the Exercise of one of the constitutional Duties of the Crown, in your Passage to and from Parliament.

Permit us, Sire, to acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Goodness in the Regard your Majesty has shewn for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, in your Majesty's gracious Intention to give full and speedy Effect to a Negotiation for a safe and honourable Peace.

May the great Disposer of Events bestow a Blessing on your Majesty's Endeavours to effect that desirable End, and long preserve your Majesty's Person and Family in perfect Security and Happiness.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Burgeffes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Arundel in the County of Sussex, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Abhorrence of the Outrages offered to your Majesty's sacred Person, when going to and returning from your Parliament, and to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We trust the Authors of Outrages so disgraceful to the Character of Men and Britons will be made to feel the utmost Severity of the offended Laws; and we pray that your Majesty's Life will be long preserved, and that your Reign may be happy and prosperous over a grateful and free People.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal to be hereunto affixed this 20th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeffes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Christchurch, and the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood thereof.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeffes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Christchurch, and the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and hearty Congratulations on the Escape your Majesty most providentially had from the late daring and detestable Outrage when your Majesty was about to execute the most important Function of your Royal Authority.

We are anxiously desirous at the same Time of expressing our just Indignation and Abhorrence of all Proceedings which have a Tendency to stir up the Minds of any Part of your Majesty's Subjects to Acts of Violence against your sacred Person, or to endeavour to undermine and destroy our happy Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and Court of Assistants of the Society of Apothecaries of your City of London, with all Humility, and with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty, and the Country in general, on your late providential Deliverance from a most traitorous and nefarious Attack against your Royal Person.

We embrace this Opportunity of expressing, in the strongest Manner we are able, though in Words by no Means adequate to what we feel in our Hearts, our Loyalty for your Person, and true and dutiful Affection to yourself and Family. We most sincerely lament that there should exist in this Country Persons capable of harbouring in their Minds Designs so atrocious and diabolical. We hope that the National Honour, which hath been so highly insulted by this most violent Attack on your Majesty's most sacred Person, will be vindicated, by the exemplary Punishment of such daring Offenders. The Safety of your Majesty, and the Security of the Constitution, are inseparable; and we most humbly pray, that your Life, which was ever dear, but at no Time more essentially so than at present to the Public Welfare, may be a Life of Health, Happiness and long Continuance; and that your Royal Person and Family may be long protected by the same good Providence in the Course you have so steadily pursued for the Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, humbly beg Permission to express to your Majesty our great Concern at the late Attempt made to endanger your Life, as well as the violent Outrages committed near your Royal Person.

And we most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on having so providentially escaped from Injury to your Royal Person, and rejoice at the Preservation of a Life so truly valuable, and so inseparably connected with the common Welfare of the Kingdom.

It is also with the greatest Satisfaction we learn, that your Majesty, in Conjunction with the Legislature, is taking such Measures to secure your Royal Person from future Insults, as well as to suppress those unlawful Assemblies and Seminaries of Anarchy which have given Rise to such Outrages.

At the same Time permit us, Sire, humbly to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, to the happy Constitution of our Country, and of our firm Resolution to support them to the utmost of our Power.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Heritors, and principal Farmers of the County of Caithness, met in General Quarter Sessions.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Heritors and principal Farmers of the County of Caithness, met in General Quarter Sessions, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to express our highest Indignation at the Insults and Outrages which were directed against your Majesty's sacred Person, in passing to and from the Parliament House upon the first Day of the present Session.

While we offer our just Tribute of Congratulations to your Majesty upon your happy Escape upon that Occasion, we cannot help lamenting, that any of our Fellow Subjects, enjoying the Blessings and Privileges secured by the Constitution of these Realms to every Class of People, should be so far lost to a Sense of Duty as to wound the Feelings of the best of Kings with Proceedings so tumultuous and indecorous as took Place at that Time. And we trust that those who were most active upon that Occasion will be discovered and brought to condign Punishment.

It is our most ardent Wish, that your Majesty may always overcome the evil Designs and Machinations of your Enemies, and that you may long live the beloved Sovereign of a free, a happy, and a grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverfordwest.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and County aforesaid, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere and affectionate Congratulations on that late providential Interposition which delivered your Royal Person from the most daring and traitorous Assault, and, of consequence, protected these Realms from the meditated Horrors of Anarchy and Confusion.

Gratefully sensible as we are of the Blessings which, with our fellow Subject, we enjoy from your Majesty's beneficent and parental Government, and equally sensible of the Necessity of preserving, in it's free and constitutional Rights, every Branch of the State, we cannot contemplate with sufficient Detestation the wicked Attempt of Men, who, by an Assault on your Majesty when exercising the most sacred Duty of the Crown, aimed a deadly Blow at the Constitution

Constitution itself, and conspired against the Happiness of a whole People.

It is therefore with the deepest Sentiments of Gratitude we return Thanks to the Supreme Protector of your Majesty and your People, and sincerely pray, that, shielded by the same Arms, and aided by every loyal Subject, your Majesty may long reign inviolate from every Attempt both of foreign and domestic Enemies.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Macclesfield, impressed with a due Sense of the distinguished Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, cannot but express our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring and flagitious Outrage threatened to your Majesty's sacred Person; for a Deliverance so truly providential, be pleased to accept our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations.

Convinced of your Majesty's ever vigilant and paternal Solitude for the true Interests of your People, we beg Leave to express our warmest Thanks for your Majesty's late Proclamation, assuring your Majesty that we shall, by every Means in our Power, co-operate with your Majesty's gracious Designs therein conveyed to us, by counteracting and endeavouring to suppress all seditious and treasonable Publications, and unlawful Assemblies, calculated to mislead and inflame the Minds of the Ignorant and Unwary, and render them disaffected to your Majesty's Person and Government.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, undisturbed by the unprovoked Attacks of foreign Enemies, and preserved from the insidious Machinations of secret Foes, is the sincere and ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty

GRACIOUSLY to accept the humble Congratulations of your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University and King's College of Aberdeen, on your Majesty's late providential Escape from a most alarming and atrocious Attack on your Royal Person.

Filled with Indignation and Horror that in a Nation like Britain, blessed with a Government free and benign beyond any other on Earth, there should have been found Men capable of so daring and flagitious an Attempt, we are at the same Time deeply impressed with Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all for your Majesty's happy Deliverance.

That the same gracious Providence may still continue to watch over your sacred Person, and that, under the Protection of the Almighty, your Majesty may be long preserved as the Guardian of our happy Constitution, and a Pattern of Virtue to a free, grateful and happy People, are the sincere and fervent Prayers of

The humble Address of the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, at an Assembly held at the Guildhall there on Friday the 20th Day of November, 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor and Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, humbly repeat our strongest Assurances of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, of Attachment to your Family, and of our utter Abhorrence of every Attempt to subvert or impair the Constitution.

Convinced that the Safety of the Sovereign and the general Interests of the People are inseparably connected, we deeply lament the recent Outrages of a deluded Set of Men; and we cordially tender our warmest Congratulations on the Escape of your Majesty from personal Injury.

Anxious to behold the Return of Tranquillity both at Home and Abroad, we observe, with grateful Satisfaction, your Majesty's paternal Solitude "to give the fullest and speediest Effect to a Negotiation for a general Peace on just and suitable Terms;" and we beg Leave to express our fervent Wishes and Prayers, that, under the Divine Providence,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the profoundest Sentiments of Respect and Attachment. We are anxious to express to your Majesty our Horror and Indignation at the daring Outrages lately offered to your Royal Person, at the Moment you were discharging one of the most solemn and important Duties of your high Situation, and to congratulate your Majesty upon your providential Escape from the Danger to which you were then exposed. Convinced that your Majesty's paternal Care is uniformly extended to every Description of your Subjects, we cannot but view these atrocious Acts of Violence with equal Surprise and Concern. Whilst we participate in the general Blessings of your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, we are bound, as Ministers of the Gospel, to acknowledge the happy Influence of your Royal Example in Support of the great Interests of Religion and Virtue. We feel the warmest Gratitude to Almighty God for this recent and signal Instance of his accustomed Goodness to this Country, and we earnestly pray that the Supreme Disposer of all Events will be pleased to continue his gracious Favor to these Kingdoms by a long Preservation of your Majesty's invaluable Life.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, deeply impressed with indignant Horror at the late daring Attempts against your Royal Person, eagerly press forward to offer our most hearty Congratulations on your happy Preservation, by the merciful Care of Divine Providence, from the alarming Danger to which your precious Life was exposed, by so desperate an Effort of treasonable Violence. Though for a few Years past we have had but too just Cause to lament the mischievous Industry with which Principles of the most pernicious Tendency have been propagated throughout the Kingdom, it might have been expected that the Force of Loyalty, in the great Majority of good Subjects, would already have been sufficiently strong to defeat the Machinations of the turbulent and profligate Enemies of their Country, who, with an Activity that supplies their Want of Numbers, labour to subvert a Form of Government which insures to every Member of the Community as great a Share of Freedom as is consistent with social Order. But, when we now observe them, emboldened by Impunity, starting out from the dark recesses of their seditious Meetings, and proceeding, with unexampled Insolence, to the most public Manifestation of their detestable Designs, it is high Time to unite all the Strength of the State, all the Authority of the Laws, and all the Weight of Individuals, in every Station and of every Profession, to repress the wild Infatuation. Those of our Profession, Ministers of holy Religion, are not only under peculiar Obligations to exert their best Endeavours, at so momentous a Crisis, but have peculiar Opportunities of exerting them to good Purpose. Permit us, therefore, humbly to convey to your Majesty our most sincere Assurances, that it shall be our constant, and, we trust, our effectual Study to guard the Minds of our Congregations against the Delusions employed by the Emissaries of Sedition, to cheat them out of their Happiness, and, by training them up to the Fear of God, to furnish them with the most powerful Motives to honour the King. To the diligent and conscientious Discharge of the Duties of our sacred Function in our public Instructions, so well calculated to produce the most important national Advantages, we shall never forget to add our earnest and devout Supplications to that great Being who governs all Things in Heaven and Earth, that He would vouchsafe the Continuance of his Protection to your Majesty from secret Conspiracy and open Violence; that he would preserve you, long to reign, endeared to the great Body of your People, not less by the Exercise of every private Virtue, than by an invariable Attention to the public Good; and that there never may be wanting a Succession of Sovereigns of your illustrious Family, who, emulous of your bright Example, may be the happy Instruments of Heaven in securing to our latest Posterity the invaluable Blessings of civil and religious Liberty, now completely enjoyed under the beneficial Influence of our Constitution in Church and State.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, humbly approach the Throne to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the providential Escape your Majesty has recently experienced, and to express our utmost Abhorrence of the daring Insult by which your Majesty's Life has been endangered, and the Laws established for the Safety of your sacred Person grossly violated.

We feel our Indignation increased by the Consideration that the atrocious Attempt, which Divine Providence hath graciously frustrated, was committed when your Majesty was in the actual Discharge of one of the most important Duties of your high Office, and against a beloved Sovereign, the whole Tenor of whose public Conduct has been devoted to the Welfare of his People, and whose private Character has displayed to them the brightest Example of Virtue and Goodness.

When such an Outrage is offered to such a Monarch we feel ourselves forcibly called upon to profess our firm and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to profess our Determination to protect these invaluable Pledges of our Happiness and Prosperity against every Effort of Sedition and Violence, and to discriminate the Clamours and desperate Acts of a few from the general Sentiments and Conduct of your affectionate and faithful Subjects.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are fully sensible of the superior Blessings we enjoy under our our wise, free and approved Constitution, and of your Majesty's mild and just Administration of the Laws; that we were never more deeply impressed with a Conviction of the Importance of your Majesty's Life, nor ever more grateful for it's Preservation.

It is our fervent Wish and Prayer that your Majesty may long continue to reign on the Throne of these Kingdoms and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Brechin, in the County of Forfar.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Brechin, beg Leave with all Humility and Respect to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to assure your Majesty of our sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

It was with the utmost Horror that we heard of the recent outrageous Insult offered to your Majesty's Person. We detest the Authors and the Principles which instigated them to so nefarious a Deed.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape, and return our grateful Acknowledgments to Almighty God for having preserved your valuable Life, upon which the Happiness of these Kingdoms so much depends.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that it shall be our constant Endeavour to inculcate upon the Minds of the People under our Care a Spirit of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and of due Submission to the Laws.

That your Majesty may be preserved from the insidious Designs of wicked and desperate Men; that you may long sway with distinguished Lustre the Sceptre of these Realms, and after this Life enjoy a Crown that fadeth not away, are the fervent Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Brechin.

Signed, in our Name, Presence, and by Appointment.

Andrew Fergusson, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer and Governors of the Scottish Corporation, do humbly approach the Throne to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the daring and flagitious Attack lately made on your sacred Person, while in the Execution of one of the most important Branches of the Constitutional Prerogative.

Impressed with a just Sense of the Benefits we have hitherto enjoyed under our most excellent Constitution, and your Majesty's just and mild Administration of the Laws, we will most fervently pray that Almighty God may long preserve your Life, and secure to us a Continuation of the Blessings resulting from that excellent Form of Government under which it is our Pride and Glory to live.

Unanimously agreed to at an Annual Court held in London, on the 30th Day of November, 1795, and ordered to be signed and presented in the Name and on Behalf of the Corporation, by David Scott, Vice-President, and Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects forming the Volunteer Companies of Yeoman Infantry of the Towns of Kingston and Richmond, in Surry, humbly presume to offer our Tribute of Congratulation on your Majesty's late providential Escape and Deliverance from the Hands of a violent Banditti of Assassins, in the Exercise of one of the most important of your Royal Functions, that of meeting your Parliament.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we view, with peculiar Horror and Detestation, the Insults which have been offered to your Royal Person, and that we are determined, on all Occasions, to exert our utmost Endeavours in Support of your Majesty's most sacred Person, and your illustrious Family, against all Enemies, most humbly adoring the Goodness of Almighty God in graciously rescuing your Majesty's Person from blood-thirsty Hands, and highly approving the Measures taken by the Legislature for the better Protection of your Majesty's most sacred Person, and for the more effectually preventing seditious Meetings and Assemblies, that serve only as an Introduction of French Principles, which every true Englishman must utterly abhor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverbervie.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Inverbervie, sensible of the Blessings which we, in common with the Rest of your Subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, beg Leave with the utmost Reverence and Respect to express to our gracious Sovereign the Horror and Indignation which we feel at the daring and outrageous Assault which was made against your sacred Person at the very Time when your Majesty was performing your kingly Duty, and fulfilling your Part of an inestimable Constitution, with which we are blessed. With the most humble Sentiments ments of Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Events, we congratulate your Majesty on your Escape from a traitorous Attack, which tended both to deprive us of our beloved Sovereign, and to subvert our glorious and invaluable Constitution.

We also presume most earnestly to request that every Exertion may be used to bring those daring Miscreants to condign Punishment, and that speedy and effectual Measures may be devised to prevent such horrible and atrocious Attempts for the future; and we assure your Majesty that we are firmly determined by all the Means in our Power to discourage and prevent all seditious and unlawful Publications, and suppress such abominable Practices or Assemblies, and to discountenance and discover the Authors thereof.

We also faithfully promise, when called upon, to come forward with Zeal in the Defence of your Majesty's Royal Person, and in the Support of your Government.

Signed by our Order, and in our Presence, at Inverbervie, the 23d Day of November, 1795

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Heretors, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Heretors, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumbarton, beg Leave at this Crisis to approach your Majesty with renewed Assurances of inviolable Fidelity to your Majesty's sacred Person, and unalterable Attachment to the Constitution and Government of these Kingdoms as established in King, Lords and Commons.

The late daring Outrage committed, to the Danger of your Majesty's Person, and to the Interruption of your Passage to and from Parliament, has filled our Minds with Horror! And we confidently trust that the Authors and Perpetrators of that Outrage offered to your Majesty will meet with their merited Punishment. We at the same Time anxiously hope that the Wisdom of the Legislature may devise such Means as will be preventive of the like Outrages in future.

That your Majesty's mild Reign may be long and happy is our fervent Wish.

ELPHINSTONE, Prefes.

Dumbarton, November 21, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the ancient Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common-Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late malignant and atrocious Outrages committed against your Royal Person, in going and returning from opening the present Session of Parliament.

We venerate the Laws of our happy Constitution, which secure to us, in common with all your Majesty's Subjects, the highest Measure of civil Liberty, the Protection of our Persons, the free Exercise of our Religion, and the peaceable Enjoyment of our Property; and we cannot behold with supine Indifference the insidious and alarming Attempts of those Enemies to their Country, who seek to instil into the Minds of the People of these Realms a jealousy of that Government which we are well convinced has no other End but the Happiness of the Subject, and who, by raising up Shadows of Grievances, existing only in the visionary Theory of wild Speculatists, under the Pretence of Reform, evidently aim at introducing a baneful Anarchy, in the Room of a System of Polity, the best and mildest that human Wisdom ever could devise.

We rely with Confidence upon the Wisdom of the Legislature for the Adoption of such Measures as will in future most effectually protect your sacred Person from such daring Insults, and preserve publick Peace, Order, and good Government.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, is the united Prayer of your faithful Subjects.

By Order, Peter Taylor, Common Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk, in Common Hall assembled, firmly attached to our excellent Constitution, and fully sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under Majesty's Government, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty to express our Indignation and Abhorrence of the late traitorous Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person, and to congratulate your Majesty on the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence, in preserving you from such imminent Danger.

That the wicked Designs of your Majesty's Enemies, both foreign and domestic, may be frustrated, and that your Majesty may long reign over a free, loyal and happy People, is the earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Signed, in Presence and by Appointment of the said Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Sudbury, and the Common Seal of the said Borough is appointed to be hereto affixed by me the said Mayor, at Sudbury, the 16th Day of November, 1795.

John Humphry, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Volunteers and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Ripon, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Escape from the malignant and wicked Attack made upon your sacred Person on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament, and to express our Indignation and Abhorrence against the Authors of so daring an Outrage.

And we beg Leave most humbly to suggest our Hopes that your Majesty, with the Advice of your Parliament, will adopt such Measures as may most effectually preserve your sacred Person from future Insults, and may be adequate to restrain the extreme and dangerous Licentiousness of the Ill-disposed.

That the Almighty may continue to your Majesty his protecting Care, during a long and happy Reign, is the sincere and ardent Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guildstewards and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Calne, in the County of Wilts.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guildstewards and Burgesses of the Borough of Calne, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our unfeigned and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential and happy Escape from the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's most sacred Person, the Authors and Abettors of which we devoutly hope will meet that Punishment so justly due to their Crime.

We fervently hope that your Majesty may enjoy a long, prosperous and happy Reign in the Affections of a free and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Parishioners of the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Parishioners of St. Martin in the Fields, in the City and Liberty of Westminster, humbly approach the Throne to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the providential Escape your Majesty has recently experienced, and to express our utmost Abhorrence of the daring Insult, by which your Majesty's Life has been endangered, and the Laws established for the Safety of your sacred Person grossly violated.

The Consideration that the atrocious Attempt, which Divine Providence hath graciously frustrated, happened in the Metropolis where we reside, and

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the City and Liberties of Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the City and Liberties of Westminster, beg Leave to express the deep Concern, Indignation and Abhorrence with which we were filled by the late daring and criminal Outrages offered to your Royal Person in your Passage to and from Parliament, and to lay before your Majesty the earnest Wishes of us your faithful Subjects that the Authors of Crimes so atrocious may be discovered, and receive such Punishment as the Laws have wisely decreed.

We further humbly beg Leave to add our sincere Prayers, that it may please the Almighty Disposer of Events ever to protect your Royal Person in all Safety, and that your Majesty may long reign over a People unanimous in every Effort for the Happiness and Glory of their beloved Sovereign, and for the Maintenance and Support of the ancient and free Constitution of these Realms.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of North Allerton, in the County of York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Burgesses and Inhabitants of North Allerton, in the County of York, struck with Astonishment and Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt upon your Majesty's Person, (an Attempt which we do not hesitate to ascribe to that Hostility which of late Years has been avowed against the Monarchical Part of our free Constitution) think it our Duty to express to your Majesty and the whole Kingdom our Abhorrence of the base and alarming Outrage, and our thorough Detestation of those wicked Men who could direct it against your Majesty's Person, at a Time when it was overflowing with Sentiments of Tender-ness and Compassion for the Distresses of your People. We cordially join in the Congratulations of our Fellow Subjects on your Majesty's fortunate Escape; we thankfully adore the good Providence of God for shielding your Majesty from the impending Danger; and it is our fervent Prayer to Him that He would prolong your Majesty's valuable Life, now particularly important to the Preservation of social Order and the Happiness and Prosperity of your grateful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Wilton, in Common Hall assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Wilton, impressed with the utmost Abhorrence at the late most outrageous Insult towards your sacred Person, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the truly providential Escape from so nefarious and daring an Attack; and we deeply deplore that there should be Men in this Country thus capable of breaking through every moral and civil Obligation.

We earnestly trust that such an atrocious Attempt on your Majesty, so eminently distinguished for your public and private Virtues, thus happily averted, will in future be effectually guarded against by the Exertion of that Vigilance, Attachment, and Zeal which your People have uniformly shewn towards your Majesty.

We are fully convinced that the Safety and Prosperity of these Kingdoms must owe their Continuance to the Preservation of social Order under the Sanction of your Majesty; and we rely on the same parental Care for the public Good, which your Majesty has unceasingly exerted; humbly imploring the Almighty Disposer of all Events still to stretch over you his All-ruling Hand, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, united, and affectionate People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our very sincere Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack on your Royal Person in your Passage to and from Parliament.

We cannot sufficiently express the Indignation we feel at this Event, nor can we too fully declare our Sentiments, that such an Outrage is also an Attack upon our Religion, our Laws and our Liberties.

That it may please the Almighty long to vouchsafe your Majesty his gracious Protection, and continue you a bright Example of every public and private Virtue to a loyal and grateful People, is and will be our constant Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Montgomery, in Common Hall assembled.

S I R E!

WE, the High Steward, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Montgomery, in Common Hall assembled, impressed with the deepest Concern at the atrocious Outrage recently offered to the Peo-ings and to the Constitution of Britons in the sacred Person of your Majesty, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, sincerely trusting that the Perpetrators and Abettors of so horrid a Crime may be brought to that condign Punishment which the Heinousness of their Guilt so flagrant demands: And we firmly rely upon the Vigilance and Wisdom of our constitutional Representatives, in Parliament assembled, for adopting Measures completely adequate to the Support of the the Royal Dignity and Safety of the Constitution against the direct or indirect Attempts of unprincipled and seditious Demagogues, humbly imploring the Divine Providence long to continue us in the unparalleled Blessings we now enjoy under your Majesty's mild, equitable and paternal Government; and that your Majesty may long continue to reign on the Throne of these Kingdoms and in the Hearts of a loyal, brave and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lewes, and adjoining Parishes of St. Thomas and Southover, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person to express our Indignation at and Abhorrence of the late atrocious Insult offered to your Royal Person wherever it may have originated. Grateful to your Majesty for the Happiness and Protection we have enjoyed under your paternal Government, we sincerely lament that any Person should be found capable of an Act so unworthy the British Name. Deeply impressed with humble Thankfulness and Gratitude to the great Supreme Disposer of Events, that in his infinite Goodness hath been pleased hitherto to avert from this Country the Ravages and Horrors of War, we humbly implore your Majesty that you will direct your Servants to open a speedy Negotiation for Peace; and we confidently hope and trust, under the Divine Blessing of the common Father of all the Families of the Earth, that your Exertions will lead to a lasting and honourable one. Gracious Sovereign, may you soon be enabled to accomplish this momentous and desirable Object, and thereby restore Tranquillity and Plenty throughout all your extensive Dominions, and give additional Security and Lustre to the British Throne. Such is the ardent Prayer of the loyal inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lewes, and the said two adjoining Parishes.

N. B. The Figures against which Asterisks are placed are the general Average Prices of all England.

Published by Authority of Parliament,

JOHN JAMES CATHERWOOD, Receiver of Corn Returns.

THE AVERAGE PRICE OF SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 2d Day of December, 1795.

is Sixty-seven Shillings and Five Pence Halfpenny
per HUNDRED WEIGHT,

Exclusive of the Duty of Customs paid or payable thereon, on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
December 5, 1795.

RICHARD WHALLEY BRIDGMAN,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

Whitehall, November 20, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that late on the Night of Thursday the 12th Instant, or early in the Morning of Friday the 13th Instant, Two Guns, loaded with Slugs or other Pieces of Lead, were, by certain evil-minded Persons, fired into a Bedchamber of the Dwelling-House of ——— Pyrke, Esq; a Magistrate for the County of Gloucester, situate at Littledean in the said County, with Intent him the said Mr. Pyrke to murder and kill; which said Slugs or other Pieces of Lead passed close to a Bed which was in the said Chamber, and in which the said Mr. Pyrke usually sleeps.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one or more the said Offenders, (except the Person or Persons who actually so fired the said Two Guns or either of them) who shall discover his or their Accomplices or Accessories, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty does hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon Conviction.

A Further Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person discovering the Offender or Offenders, upon Conviction.

J. Pyrke.

And, in Addition to the above Two Rewards, a further Sum of FIFTY GUINEAS is deposited and will be paid at the Bank of Mess. Niblett, Cendall, Evans and Telf, in Gloucester, on the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders,

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Instant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, was passing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently assaulted by Three Men, who were unknown to him, and stabbed in his Right Leg, and cut across the Calf thereof with some sharp instrument, of which said Stab and Cut he now lies dangerously maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to seize the Man by whom he believed he was so wounded and cut, the others again assaulted him, and rescued the Person whom he had so seized.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders, (except the Person who actually gave the said Stab and Cut,) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the said Regiment to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, so as that he or they may be convicted thereof.

Mess. Cox and Greenwood, Craig's-Court, Charing-Cross.

Gloucestershire Militia. 1795.

A General Meeting of the Lieutenantcy of the County of Gloucester, and the Cities of Gloucester and Bristol, and Counties of the same Cities, is appointed to be held at the House of Mrs. Christian Halling, known by the Name of the White Lion, situate in the Town of Berkeley in the County of Gloucester, on Monday the 21st Day of December next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, then and there to issue out Precepts to the several High and Chief Constables of several Hundreds and Wards in the said County and Cities respectively, for their making out true and perfect Lists of the Names of all Persons residing in several Parishes, Tythings, Places and Wards in the said Hundreds and Cities, liable to serve in the said Militia, and for returning such Lists at such respective Times and Places as in and by the said Precepts shall be appointed for that Purpose, in order, at such Times and Places respectively, to ballot for such Men as shall be then wanting to fill up the Vacancies in both Battalions of the said Militia.

By Order of the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkeley, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Gloucester,
