To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, in full Senate assembled, think it our Duty to approach your Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, to express our extreme Concern and Indignation at the late outrageous Attempt against the Life of a Sovereign, whose Virtues might disarm even Malice itself.

Deeply sensible as we are that the many Blessings we enjoy are owing to your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and that the Happiness of these Realms is closely connected with the Security of your august Person, we beg Leave to offer our sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Deliverance from the most traiterous Design which the most abandoned of Men could devise.

In this Deliverance we acknowledge, with Hearts full of Gratitude, the Mercies of a gracious overruling Providence; and we fervently implore the Continuance of that Divine Protection, which has hitherto guarded and preserved your sacred Person from all the Dangers of these disastrous Times.

We trust in God that the desperate Assault, which is now to us the Subject of equal Grief and Abhorrence, will strengthen in the Minds of all the Obligations of Duty and Allegiance; and we feel it peculiarly incumbent upon us to assure your Majesty, that it will animate our Endeavours to guard against the Growth of evil Principles, to enforce Obedience to the Laws, and inculcate that Reverence for Authority, which is the Basis of all Order and good Government.

Sealed with our Seal, this Fourteenth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this very dutiful and loyal Address, and for the cordial Expressions of your Attachment to My Person and Government.

The Proofs I have received on this Occasion of the Loyalty and Affection of My People have afforded Me the most sensible Gratification. The during Outrage which has been committed demands My Attention principally as it affects the Laws and Constitution; for the Maintenance of which you may always depend upon My utmost Exertions.
