

the general Voice, to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the daring and flagitious Attack lately made on your Majesty's Person, in passing to the House of Peers.

Impressed with a just and grateful Sense of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, and animated by a steady and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, we cannot but regard with mingled Indignation and Abhorrence so atrocious an Outrage; and we deeply lament that any one could be found so misguided in Principle, so regardless of the public Welfare, and so insensible to your Majesty's Virtues, as to be guilty of a Violence incompatible with all social Order, subversive of all constitutional Security, and disgraceful to the national Character.

Whilst we ardently pray that your Majesty's Reign may long continue, a Blessing to your People and a Source of uninterrupted Felicity to your Majesty, permit us, Sire, to add our firm Assurance that we shall on all Occasions be ready to exert our most strenuous Endeavours in Defence of your Majesty's Person, and in Support of that excellent Form of Government under which it is our Pride and Happiness to live.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Town Clerk and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorset.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Town Clerk and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and dutiful Sentiments of Respect, Attachment and Loyalty; and to express our unanimous Indignation at the late daring and criminal Insult offered to your Majesty's sacred Person, whilst your Majesty was in the Exercise of one of the constitutional Duties of the Crown, in your Passage to and from Parliament.

Permit us, Sire, to acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Goodness in the Regard your Majesty has shewn for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, in your Majesty's gracious Intention to give full and speedy Effect to a Negotiation for a safe and honourable Peace.

May the great Disposer of Events bestow a Blessing on your Majesty's Endeavours to effect that desirable End, and long preserve your Majesty's Person and Family in perfect Security and Happiness.

Parliament, and to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We trust the Authors of Outrages so disgraceful to the Character of Men and Britons will be made to feel the utmost Severity of the offended Laws; and we pray that your Majesty's Life will be long preserved, and that your Reign may be happy and prosperous over a grateful and free People.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal to be hereunto affixed this 20th Day of November, 1795.

We are anxiously desirous at the same Time of expressing our just Indignation and Abhorrence of all Proceedings which have a Tendency to stir up the Minds of any Part of your Majesty's Subjects to Acts of Violence against your sacred Person, or to endeavour to undermine and destroy our happy Constitution.

[Presented by George Rose, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Master, Wardens, and Court of Assistants of the Society of Apothecaries of your City of London, with all Humility, and with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty, and the Country in general, on your late providential Deliverance from a most traiterous and nefarious Attack against your Royal Person.

We embrace this Opportunity of expressing, in the strongest Manner we are able, though in Words by no Means adequate to what we feel in our Hearts, our Loyalty for your Person, and true and dutiful Affection to yourself and Family. We most sincerely lament that there should exist in this Country Persons capable of harbouring in their Minds Designs so atrocious and diabolical. We hope that the National Honour, which hath been so highly insulted by this most violent Attack on your Majesty's most sacred Person, will be vindicated, by the exemplary Punishment of such daring Offenders. The Safety of your Majesty, and the Security of the Constitution, are inseparable; and we most humbly pray, that your Life, which was ever dear, but at no Time more essentially so than at present to the Public Welfare, may be a Life of Health, Happiness and long Continuance; and that your Royal Per-
