

happened in the Metropolis where we reside, and was committed while your Majesty was in the actual Discharge of one of the many important Duties of your high Office, impels us more especially to renew the Profession of our firm and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to express our Determination to guard and protect these invaluable Pledges of our Happiness against every Attempt of Sedition and Violence, and renders us particularly anxious to discriminate the Clamours and desperate Acts of a few misguided Miscreants from the general Sentiments and Conduct of your affectionate and faithful Subjects.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are fully sensible of the superior Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Administration of the Laws of our wife, free and approved Constitution; that we were never more deeply impressed with a Conviction of the Importance of your Majesty's Life, nor ever more grateful for it's Preservation.

It is our fervent Wish and Prayer that your Majesty may long continue to reign on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful, and united People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of North Allerton, in the County of York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Burgesses and Inhabitants of North Allerton, in the County of York, struck with Astonishment and Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt upon your Majesty's Person, (an Attempt which we do not hesitate to ascribe to that Hostility which of late Years has been avowed against the Monarchical Part of our free Constitution) think it our Duty to express to your Majesty and the whole Kingdom our Abhorrence of the base and alarming Outrage, and our thorough Detestation of those wicked Men who could direct it against your Majesty's Person, at a Time when it was overflowing with Sentiments of Tenderness and Compassion for the Distresses of your People. We cordially join in the Congratulations of our Fellow Subjects on your Majesty's fortunate Escape; we thankfully adore the good Providence of God for shielding your Majesty from the impending Danger; and it is our fervent Prayer to Him that He would prolong your Majesty's valuable Life, now particularly important to the Preservation of social Order and the Happiness and Prosperity of your grateful Subjects.

Signed at North Allerton the 24th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by Henry Peirse and Edward Lascelles, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Wilton, in Common Hall assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Wilton, impressed with the utmost Abhorrence at the late most outrageous Insult towards your sacred Person, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the truly providential Escape from so nefarious and daring an Attack; and we deeply deplore that there should be Men in this Country thus capable of breaking through every moral and civil Obligation.

We earnestly trust that such an atrocious Attempt on your Majesty, so eminently distinguished for your public and private Virtues, thus happily averted, will in future be effectually guarded against by the Exertion of that Vigilance, Attachment, and Zeal which your People have uniformly shewn towards your Majesty.

We are fully convinced that the Safety and Prosperity of these Kingdoms must owe their Continuance to the Preservation of social Order under the Sanction of your Majesty; and we rely on the same parental Care for the public Good, which your Majesty has unceasingly exerted; humbly imploring the Almighty Disposer of all Events still to stretch over you his All-ruling Hand, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, united, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Town Hall of the said Borough, this 26th Day of November, in the 30th Year of your Majesty's R. Ign.

[Presented by James Dawkins, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, and Major-General Goldsworthy, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Wilts.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, in the County of Kent, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our very sincere Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack on your Royal Person in your Passage to and from Parliament.

We cannot sufficiently express the Indignation we feel at this Event, nor can we too fully declare our Sentiments, that such an Outrage is also an Attack upon our Religion, our Laws and our Liberties.

That it may please the Almighty long to vouchsafe your Majesty his gracious Protection, and continue you a bright Example of every public and private Virtue to a loyal and grateful People, is and will be our constant Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and under the Hands of us the Inhabitants, this 27th Day of November, 1795.

[Presented by William Evelyn, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Montgomery, in Common Hall assembled.
