

Cologne, Febr. 24. The Peace being published, and orders given for the ceasing of all Hostilities, the French Officers come hither with all liberty, to provide themselves with what they have occasion for. From Ments we are told, that the Duke of Lorraine demands great Sums of Money for the Winter-quarters of his Army from several places upon the Rhine. The Duke of Neuburg's second Son has for three days together treated Monsieur Calvo and all his principal Officers at Duseldorp.

Brussels, Febr. 28. On Saturday last Lieutenant-General Agurto marched from hence towards Ghent, and the next day Count Salazar with his Regiment entred into, and took possession of the Cittadel, and yesterday Monsieur Montbron marched with the Garrison out of the City, which at the same time was delivered up to Lieutenant-General Agurto. On Thursday next Courtray will be likewise evacuated. On Saturday or Sunday next his Excellency goes for Ghent, to settle the affairs of that Province, and upon his return hither will receive the Order of the Golden Fleece. This day arrived the Spanish Ordinary, the Letters from Madrid say, that the Marriage between the King of Spain and Madamoiselle d'Orleans is concluded. and that several Ladies who are to be of her Majesties Family, are already appointed.

Antwerp, Febr. 28. Last night arrived here part of the Train and Equipage of the Marquis de Jos Barbaces from Nimeguen, which will be soon followed by his Excellency himself; the occasion of whose Embassie is now publickly declared to be about the Kings marriage, which our Letters from Madrid, arrived this day, say, is absolutely concluded, and that the new Queens Household is not only established, but that several Ladies of the first Quality are appointed to attend her at her reception on the Frontiers. The said Letters add, that the Kings intended journey to Valencia and Catalonia is put off, those Provinces having intimated that they are not in a condition to receive his Majesty with that splendor and Magnificence that becomes his Royal Person. That the Duke de Medina Celi is appointed to succeed the Conde de Mesellin in the Presidentship of the Council of the Indies; that the Marquis de Jagunas, Brother to the Duke of that name, is made Viceroy of Galicia in the room of the Duke de Pertaguas, who is made Viceroy of Valencia, and that the Duke de St. German is dead. We have had in great a Flood in this Country for some days, that there has been no passing between this place and Brussels. The Dyke of the Brussels Canal is broken in three or four places by the force of the Waters, and some hundreds of the people are at work night and day to repair the breaches, which its hoped they will have done in a day or two.

Hague, Febr. 24. The States of Holland have been assembled since Wednesday, their deliberations hitherto have chiefly concerned the regulation and improvement of their Revenues. It is said that the next week will be taken into deliberation the demand which is very much pressed by the Spaniards, of having Maastricht delivered up to them. Here is a discourse as if the Heer Odyke, and the Heer Dickvelt, will be called home from France, and that the Heer Boreel will remain there alone. The States General are much dissatisfied at the Province of Groningen having refused to call an Assembly of the States, at the request of their Deputies, and yet more at their refusing when they shall meet, to receive them in their Assembly; but the States General have ordered their said Deputies to repair to Groningen, against the time that the States are to assemble there, and to insist to be received into their Assembly. From Prussia they write, that a party of Brandenburgs, who pursued the Suedes somewhat too closely, had been repulsed with considerable loss.

Duisio, Febr. 28. The French Ambassadors at Nimeguen having declared that if the King of Denmark and the Elector of Brandenburg do not make their peace with Sueden before the end of the next month, the King their Matter will demand of the latter the restitution of Lipstadt to the Elector of Cologne, and of both, the reimbursement of the charges he shall be at in continuing the War for the procuring the satisfaction of Sueden. From Frankfort they write, that the Ministers of Denmark, Brandenburg, and Lunenburgh, were arrived there, to assist at the Assembly of Allies that was appointed to be held in that City, which it's believed will now since the Peace is signed, be put off. The Duke of Lorraine is said to be very much dissatisfied with the said Peace.

Paris, Mareh 1. The Abbot d'Estades is parted hence on his way to Turin, whither he goes in quality of Ambassador; it's said he is to negotiate certain important matters. The Dauphin comes often to divert himself here, and yesterday he was at the Opera; from Hannover we have an account, that the Suedes have sustained very great losses in their retreat, and that of the Army they entred into Prussia with, there remains not above 3000. From Cologne they write, that the Peace had been published there the 17 past; and that Monsieur Calvo had given orders for the ceasing of all Hostilities against that City.
