

St. James's, December 8.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Worcester, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late wicked Insult on your Majesty's sacred Person.

It is for the Public Wisdom to provide effectual Means to prevent a Repetition of this Crime; but as it could only proceed from a total Want of the religious Principle, we of the Clergy are especially called upon, at this juncture, to inculcate on our Hearers those indispensable Duties of Loyalty, Respect, and Honor, which, on every Account, they owe to their Sovereign, and to repress, as far as we are able, that Spirit of Impiety, which, wherever it prevails, and so far as it prevails, threatens the Ruin of all Order in Society.

To these Exertions, Sir, we shall add our incessant Prayers to Almighty God to prosper your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours for the public Good, and to protect your Majesty's invaluable Life from all Danger.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Cromarty, together with the Inhabitants of the Town of Cromarty, do now approach the Throne with a deep Sense of our Detestation and Abhorrence of the late atrocious Insult offered to your most sacred Person, at the same Time that we are happy to have in our Power to congratulate your Majesty upon the merciful Escape you have made, and that the diabolical Attempts of a Set of seditious Incendiaries have been so providentially frustrated.

Sensible, as we are, that the Nation at large feel, as we do, warmly attached to your most sacred Majesty, and to that excellent Constitution which has so long been the Vehicle of unparalleled Blessings to these Realms, we trust that the Measures now adopting by both Houses of Parliament will give an effectual Check to the Designs of desperate and unprincipled Men, who, presuming on the Mildness of our Laws, have brought Sedition to a System, exciting false Alarms, and using every Means which the Wickedness of their Hearts can suggest, to poison the Minds of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, for the avowed Purpose of substituting Anarchy and Disorder in the room of the inestimable religious and civil Privileges, which we enjoy in a far superior Degree to every other Nation in the World.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a loyal, free and happy People, is our most fervent Prayer.

Signed, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Cromarty, the 27th Day of November, 1795
Years, by Da. Urquhart, Preses.

[Transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland by R. B. Æneas Macleod, Esq;]

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Instant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, was passing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently assaulted by Three Men, who were unknown to him, and stabbed in his Right Leg, and cut across the Calf thereof with some sharp Instrument, of which said Stab and Cut he now lies dangerously maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to seize the Man by whom he believed he was so wounded and cut, the others again assaulted him, and refused the Person whom he had so seized.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders, (except the Person who actually gave the said Stab and Cut,) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the said Regiment to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, so as that he or they may be convicted thereof.

Mess. Cox and Greenwood, Craig's-Court, Charing-Cross.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
December 5, 1795.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters Hall in London, on Wednesday the 16th Day of March next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the under mentioned Farms and other Estates will be let on Leases, to commence upon the Days or Times set forth below; that is to say; West Deanraro, Middle Deanraro, and Bacon's Tedcastle Farms, in the Parish of Warden, and Low Rawgreen Copyhold Farm, in the Parish of Hexham, in the County of Northumberland, and Four Shops, with small Rooms below and Chambers above, lately built, and Two other Shops under the Mootball at Kewick, as also the Tolls at Kewick and Williamson's Close, in the Parish of Crosthwaite, in the County of Cumberland.

Such Persons as may be desirous to take any of the said Farms or other Estates are requested to deliver or send their Proposals in Writing to John Ibbeson, Esq; at Greenwich Hospital, at any Time before the 16th Day of March next, or on that Day, between the Hours of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon and One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Salters-Hall in London; after which last mentioned Time no Proposals will be received; and for Particulars of all or any of the said Farms and other Estates to be let as aforesaid, to apply to Mess. Walton and Turner, Receivers for the said Hospital, or to the Bailiffs in their respective Districts.

The Farms in the Parish of Warden will be let for Ten Years, and the Low Rawgreen Copyhold Farm for Three Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May, 1796; and each Shop, with its Appurtenances, and the Tolls, and Williamson's Close respectively, will be let separately for Seven Years, to commence upon the 5th Day of April, 1796.

N. B. The Shops are exceedingly well situated, being in the central Part of the Market Town of Kewick.
