The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 10th Day of June, 1795, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, will expire on the 10th Day of this instant December: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the said 10th Day of this instant December, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ, which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

St. James's, December 10.

THE following Address of the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London, attended by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Lincoln, Dean of St. Paul's, Mr. Archdeacon Eaton, Mr. Archdeacon Pott, Dr. Bingham, Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Bell, Dr. Vincent, Dr. Mayo, Dr. Coombe, Dr. Finch, Mr. Barton, Mr. Fly, and several other of the Principal Clergy, being introduced to the King by the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, beg Permission to express, in your Majesty's Presence, our devoutest Thankfulness to Almighty God, for having so recently protected your Royal Person from a most flagitious Attempt to deprive us, by one fatal Blow, of one of the best of Sovereigns and of Men.

The many substantial Blessings we experience, and have long experienced, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, are a standing and irresistible Proof (a Proof that speaks to our Hearts no less than to our Understandings) of the infinite Importance of your Majesty's Life to these Kingdoms. We are deeply sensible that in it are bound up our best and dearest Interests; and we can never see it exposed to Danger without Terror and Dismay, nor delivered from that Danger without the liveliest Sensations of Joy and Gratitude to Heaven.

To what other Sources such atrocious Acts as that which we now contemplate with so much Horror are to be traced, it is not our peculiar Province to enquire. But there is one Cause which falls more immediately under our Observation, and which we have too much Reason to believe has contributed its full Share to the Production of these crying Evils: We mean, Sir, Publications teeming with Infidelity, Impiety, and Blasphemy, with the grossest and most indecent Insults on our Divine Master, on his Divine Religion, on the Holy Scriptures, on every Thing held sacred and venerable among Men; most artfully accommodated at the same Time to the Understandings of the inferior and least informed Orders of the People, among whom they have been disseminated with incredible Industry, and have, it is to be feared, done incredible Mischief, by eradicating out of the Minds of too many, the Fear of God and the Dread of future Punishment (those two strongest Curbs on the furious Passions of Mankind) they have prepared them for every Enormity. "To fear God and to honor the King" are Two Precepts joined together in Holy Writ; they cannot be separated without Danger; and we know by Experience, by an Example too dreadful and too near us, that when once Religion is gone, all legitimate Authority is that Moment at an End.

Forgive, Sir, this Effusion of an honest Zeal for the Preservation of our Religion, and for that which, to a great Degree, rests upon it, the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government. Situated as we are in this great Metropolis of your Majesty's Dominions, the appointed Guardians of the Morality and the Religion of it's numerous Inhabitants, we feel it our indispensable Duty to lay these Observations at the Foot of your Majesty's Throne, conceiving them to be very closely connected with the awful Event that brings us here, and in the highest Degree worthy of most serious Consideration.

We shall never cease our Prayers, Sir, to that Almighty Being whose ever watchful Providence has so frequently and so remarkably interposed to shield your Majesty from the most imminent Dangers, that He would still continue his gracious Superintendence over you, and preserve to us, for many many Years, the Father of our Country, the Guardian of our Laws, the Protector of our Freedom, and the firm Friend and Defender of our admirable Constitution, both Civil and Ecclesiastical.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Receive with the utmost Satisfaction this very dutiful and loyal Address.

The affectionate Congratulations of My faithful Subjects upon this Occasion leave Me only to lament, that so daring a Violation of the Laws should have been committed. On My Part you may rely on My zealous Attachment to our excellent Constitution both in Church and State, and My Resolution to maintain it inviolate.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, December 10.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop of Hereford, and the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere Profession of Gratitude to Almighty God for the merciful Interposition of his Divine Providence, in your Majesty's Deliverance from the late Outrage committed, and the horrible Treason and Murder attempted against your sacred Person; and we humbly beg Leave to add our warmest Congratulation to your Majesty on the Safety of a Life, so valuable to our Church and State, to the Liberty, Property, and Lives of your dutiful Subjects, the happy People of this Land.

The daring Malignity of the Attempt, aggravated by the Circumstance of the Time when your Majesty was proceeding to a high and solemn Exercise of your Regal Dignity, and expressing as well as implying a Defiance of all Law and Government, and a Resolution to plunge the whole Nation at once into Confusion and Ruin, did not affect our Minds more deeply than the Inhumanity of the Design against a Prince, who is by every Tie of Duty, Gratitude and Interest most eminently entitled to the Veneration and Attachment of all his Subjects, over whose Hearts he hath hitherto ruled, by making their Welfare his Happiness, and their Laws and Liberties the invariable Rule of his Conduct.

Whether we shudder at the atrocious premeditated Treason, or reflect with Shame on the base Ingratitude to which some of our deluded Fellow-Creatures were induced to degrade their Nature, we have the Consolation of a firm Confidence in your Majesty's Magnanimity and Goodness, that you will continue our gracious Protector against your Enemies, and the unnatural Enemies of our excellent Constitution; and we humbly profess before your Majesty that we think ourselves bound to instil into the Minds committed to our Care the best and genuine Public Spirit, Obedience to the Laws, which prescribe the Duty of Subjects, and to such further Improvement of those Laws, as shall be deemed necessary by your Majesty and the great Council of the Nation, for Prevention of the like alarming national Disgrace and Ruin.

We implore the Divine Blessing in the long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, and pray, that when your Royal Example shall descend with the Throne to your illustrious Posterity, it may be rewarded by the persevering Allegiance of a loyal and grateful People.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Ely, together with the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of Ely, humbly approach your Majesty, in common with the Rest of your loyal Subjects, to express our dutiful and just Abhorrence of the atrocious Insults and traitorous Violence which have recently been offered to your Majesty's Royal Dignity and personal Safety. We are impressed with the deepest Gratitude that it has pleased God to disappoint an Attempt, which, at the same Time that it endangered your invaluable Life, brought into imminent Hazard the Existence of our happy Constitution both in Church and State. So daring an Outrage could neither be conceived nor effected but by Persons lost to every Principle of Virtue and Allegiance, and totally unworthy to enjoy the Protection of your Majesty's mild and equitable Government. We sincerely hope that the Authors and Abettors of a Crime so alarming will not remain undiscovered; that those malevolent Disseminators of the frantic Principles of Irreligion and Anarchy will feel the full Weight of that Indignation and legal Punishment which such Depravity requires. May the same gracious Providence which has indulgently blessed these Kingdoms with your Majesty's exemplary and auspicious Rule render them worthy of a long Continuance of it; and that the guardian Hand of Heaven may still shield your Crown and Life from every evil Conspiracy and open Violence will be the constant Prayer of those who now beg your Majesty's favourable Acceptance of their zealous and most respectful Declarations of inviolable Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

Life

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept the sincere Congratulations of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bangor, on your providential Escape from a late daring Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person, in your Passage to and from your Parliament at the Moment you were performing one of the weightiest Duties of the Crown; and to permit us, at the same Time, to express our entire Detestation of the pernicious Principles which prompted certain Persons to assault your Majesty in so violent and outrageous a Manner.

Your Majesty's great personal Virtues, and the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equal Government, have raised in our Breasts such an unfeigned Love, Affection, and Veneration for your Majesty, that we heard, with the utmost Horror and Indignation, that any could be found within your Majesty's Dominions so profligate and abandoned as to join in a traitorous Design, by which your Royal Person was endangered, and in that the Happiness and Safety of the whole Country; and we observe, with the deepest Concern and Regret, that neither the Laws in Being, nor even your Majesty's personal Qualities, could secure you against the Treasons and Conspiracies of these Times; and we therefore most earnestly hope and trust that the Wisdom of Parliament will speedily devise such salutary Measures as will effectually check and restrain this daring Spirit of Sedition.

As we feel in common with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects the encreasing Weight of the public Taxes, we return your Majesty our most grateful Thanks for your gracious Intention of giving the fullest and speediest Effect to a Negotiation for a general Peace on just and suitable Terms, whenever the Situation of Affairs is such as to afford a reasonable Expectation that a secure and permanent Treaty might be concluded; and being persuaded that nothing is so likely to ensure and accelerate this desirable End as to strengthen your Majesty's Hands, and enable you to prosecute the War with Energy and Vigour, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we shall most cheerfully submit to any farther Aids which the Exigencies of the Public Service may require, and be ready, on all Occasions, to exert ourselves in the best Manner we can for the Support of your Majesty's Person and Government against all your Enemies both foreign and domestic.

In the several Places where we have been appointed to serve, it has been our constant Care to encourage, both by Precept and Example, good Order, a due Degree of Subordination, and a Reverence for our excellent Constitution in Church and State; and we have the Satisfaction to think that the loose and licentious Opinions, which are propagating with such unceasing Industry, have made but little Progress in this remote Part of your Realm; and your Majesty may be assured that we shall be vigilant, and spare no Pains to prevent the Growth of them: And may that all-merciful God, who so signally protected your Majesty from the Fury of a deluded Multitude, make this good Work to prosper in our Hands, and continue to guard, and long preserve your Majesty, as a Blessing to these Kingdoms, to our most gracious Queen, and your Royal Progeny.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Archbishop and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of St. Peter of York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbishop and the Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of St. Peter of York, beg Leave to express our Concurrence in the general Testimonies of a sincere Attachment to your Majesty, and to join in the publick Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from a traitorous Attempt against your sacred Person.

However atrocious and alarming the Attempt was, it has been followed by this Satisfaction, that it has produced the most genuine Effusions of Affection and Esteem from all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects; and these not arising from a casual or short Popularity, but from the sober Decisions of deliberate Judgement.

You have the Happiness, Sire, to be the Sovereign of an honest People who abhor such Treasons, not only as being wicked and contrary to the Welfare of common Society, but as particularly dangerous to free Constitutions, which are always brought into extreme Hazard by such Attempts.

In Addition to their general Reasonings, they saw in the Person of your Majesty a Life endangered, in the Preservation of which their dearest Interests were all involved.

Permit us, Sire, who consider your Majesty as not by Law only but by Principle the Defender of our Faith, to be as forward, at least as any others, in the Expression of our Zeal and Duty. We have already in our Prayers offered these the Feelings of our Hearts at the Throne of Grace, and we think ourselves safe in expressing them to your Majesty, being assured, from the Nobleness of your Nature, that they will excite in you no other Sentiments but those of an encreased Affection to a dutiful and deserving People.

Given under the Hand and Seal of the said Archbishop, and the Common Seal of the said Dean and Chapter, the 23^d Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1735.

W. Ebor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Congratulations on the Escape your Majesty has recently cently had, under the Providence of God, from the outrageous Attacks made upon your sacred Person by the deluded Agents of desperate and wicked Men.

The unanimous Expressions of Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty which were called forth a few Years ago upon an Occasion partly similar, were justly excited by a Regard for your personal Virtues, and a Sense of the Blessings we have long enjoyed under your Government; but while, under the Impression of the same Sentiments, we see ourselves called upon to repeat those Expressions, it is with the utmost Astonishment and Horror that we have additional Regret to find that the present Attempt, of which we thus presume to testify our Abhorrence, was the Effect of deliberate and intentional Wickedness.

Sensible as we are that such an Attempt, independent of the Danger to which it exposes a Life so justly dear to us, is a direct Attack upon that excellent Constitution which has so long been our Boast, and by which, under your Majesty's Auspices, we have hitherto been preserved from the Contagion around us, we cannot but consider the Preservation of your Majesty's Life as involving in it a Continuance of that Civil and Religious Establishment, by which our dearest Interests are protected, and which it has ever been the chief Concern of your Majesty to strengthen and support.

Under such Circumstances we look with Confidence to the Wisdom of the Legislature, and the Vigilance of those entrusted with the Execution of the Laws, not only to bring the Perpetrators and Abettors of such nefarious Attempts to the Punishment they deserve, but to provide also such further Securities as may be most likely to defeat, in future, the Machinations of evil-minded Men; and we implore that Providence, which has hitherto watched over these Kingdoms, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a grateful and united People.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop and the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, and Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese, beg Permission to approach your Royal Presence to testify our Horror at the late outrageous Attempt of insatiate and abandoned Men upon your sacred Person, and to express the warm Emotions of our Joy upon the happy Event of your Majesty's Deliverance. We admire and adore the Mercy of that good Providence which, in the Preservation of your Majesty's invaluable Life, hath rescued this Church and Kingdom from impending Ruin. Sire, when the Weapon of the base Assassin, which providentially had missed its Aim, was levelled at your anointed Head, the Assault was at once upon your Life, upon your Throne, upon the Constitution, upon our National Church, and upon the Christian Religion. We render Thanks to God that he hath frustrated such complicated Schemes of Mischief; and with our Praises for this signal Mercy our Prayers shall be daily sent up to the Almighty for your Majesty's continual Safety and Preservation, which are one with the Safety and Preservation of your People, and for the endless Prosperity and Glory of your Royal House.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of Rochester, accompanied by the Lord Bishop of Bristol.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Winchester, and the Warden, Fellows and Masters of the College near Winchester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Winchester, and the Warden, Fellows and Masters of the College near Winchester, deeply impressed by the great Blessings we enjoy under our excellent Constitution in Church and State, and fully satisfied how much the mild and prudent Government of your Majesty concurs with the Spirit of that Constitution to render us more sensible of these Blessings, have approached your sacred Majesty to express our extreme Abhorrence of the late wicked and desperate Attempts against your Majesty's Royal Person.

We sincerely lament that Spirit of Sedition and Disorder which manifested itself in those atrocious Excesses, considering the Attack upon your Majesty in the Discharge of one of your most important Functions as no less a daring Violation of the Laws, and a gross Insult on the Dignity of the Country at large, than a horrid and detestable Attempt on the Life the most valuable and interesting to us in these your Majesty's Dominions.

We are happy in the Persuasion that this odious Crime was imagined by a few shameless and abandoned Individuals only; lost to Gratitude and Duty, whilst the Sense of your Subjects at large is, in Unison with our own, full of Love and Reverence for your Majesty's Person, Character and Virtues; and full of Assurance, that in the Observance and Respect which are due to the Laws and Religion of the Country, are alone to be found the real Safety of the Constitution, the true Happiness and genuine Liberty of the British Subject.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of Winchester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of St. David's.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of St. David's, truly conscious of the many invaluable Blessings which we have experienced from the constant and anxious Exertions of your Majesty's paternal Care and Attention to the Good of your People and the Welfare of your Kingdoms, beg Leave to express our zealous Attachment to the Person of your Majesty, as well as the mild Government under which we live. Gratefully thankful to the Supreme Being for having preserved a Life of such Importance, as well to the Maintenance of Civil and Religious Liberty as to the Prosperity of the Nation, we look with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation Detestation on the late outrageous Violence directed against the sacred Person of your Majesty. We deeply lament that there should be found, in your Majesty's Dominions, Men so insensible to the fatherly Love which your Majesty bears towards all your Subjects, and of Dispositions so vile, as for one Moment to forget that Respect which is due to best of Sovereigns.

Accept, Sir, our strongest Assurances, that, as Ministers of the best Ecclesiastical Establishment in the World, we will continue unwearied in the Discharge of the Duties of our sacred Function, as the most effectual Means of promoting Peace, Loyalty, and every Species of public and private Virtue. We also intreat your Majesty to be assured, that we will not cease to offer up our most fervent Prayers to Almighty God, beseeching Him to protect your sacred Person, and grant your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign.

William St. David's.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of St. David's.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Northumberland, humbly presume to offer to your Majesty our most heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's late Providential Escape from the atrocious Blow aimed against your sacred Life by the Hand of a desperate and rebellious Assassin; and to assure your Majesty, that whilst we sincerely deplore and detest the Wickedness of so treacherous an Attempt, we return our most unfeigned Thanks to Providence for the Preservation of a Life which we most earnestly hope will long continue to afford to your Majesty's Dominions it's wonted Example of every Royal Virtue, and to be a Blessing to the People committed to your Charge.

[Presented by Cuthb. Shafte, Esq; Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders of the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most heartfelt Congratulation on your providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack upon your Royal Person, at the Moment your Majesty was engaged in one of the most important Functions of the Sovereign of these Realms.

We rely with Confidence on the Wisdom of the Legislature, that some Law may be enacted for the better Security of your Majesty's Person and Government, and also for the more effectually preventing seditious Meetings and Assemblies, where Attempts are made to involve this Country in all the Miseries which Anarchy and Confusion may produce.

Permit us, Sir, to return our Thanks to your Majesty for the Assurance made by your Majesty to Parliament, that you will restore to your Kingdoms the Blessings of Peace, when it can be obtained upon just and suitable Terms.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

It was with the utmost Indignation that we, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, learnt that an Attempt to assassinate your Majesty was made on the 29th of October last, during your Passage to your Parliament.

Accept, most gracious Sovereign, our sincere Congratulations upon your happy Escape from the Hands of these Miscreants.

We rely with Confidence that such Measures will be adopted by the Wisdom of the Legislature as may effectually suppress those seditious Meetings, where it appears to us that Attempts are made to involve this Country in all the Miseries which Anarchy and Confusion can produce.

We trust and hope that it will please the Almighty to shield you from the Attacks of all your Enemies, both foreign and domestic, and to continue to your Subjects that Happiness which they have long experienced under your benign and paternal Protection.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and others, the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Halifax, in the County of York, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on your late providential Deliverance from the outrageous Attempts of desperate and abandoned Men; and as we feel ourselves most deeply interested in your Majesty's Welfare, we are happy to observe that the Wisdom of Parliament is now engaged in forming such Laws as we hope will ever secure your sacred Person from the like atrocious Violence, and effectually suppress all seditious Meetings, tending to the Destruction of public Peace and Security; and we pray that the same Tranquillity and Happiness, which this Kingdom has hitherto enjoyed under the illustrious House of Hanover, may, by the Blessing of Heaven upon your Majesty and your Descendants, remain to the latest Posterity.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford, in the County of York, feel ourselves under the strongest Obligations of Duty and Allegiance to unite with our Fellow Subjects in presenting an humble Address to your Majesty on one of the most alarming and eventful Occasions that in our Opinion ever occurred in the Annals of this Kingdom.

Kingdom. We would wish, most gracious Sire, to express, in the strongest Terms, our utter and most cordial Abhorrence and Detestation, not only of the late atrocious Outrage offered to your Majesty, but of those pernicious and destructive Principles also from which it too clearly originated; for we consider it not merely in the Light of a wanton and unprovoked Attack upon your august Person, but as levelled at the very Fabrick itself of the British Constitution. We further beg to assure your Majesty, that we will, on our Parts, at the Risk of every Thing that is dear or valuable to us as Individuals, oppose, to the utmost of our Power, every Machination of those worth of Foes, the Disturbers of the internal Peace of the Country, and the avowed Enemies of all regal Government; and that we will exert ourselves to give Efficacy to such salutary Laws as in the Wisdom of Parliament may be thought expedient at this Crisis for the Prevention of those seditious Meetings, which have been too long the Bane of this Country; at the same Time offering up our sincere Petitions to Heaven, that the Great Disposer of all Events may be pleased to avert those dire Calamities which have for some Time threatened to overwhelm this highly favoured Nation, and that the same kind Providence (which has hitherto in a signal Manner displayed itself in your Majesty's Preservation) may still continue to protect you, that so we may long experience the blessed Effects of your mild and parental Government.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Huddersfield, impressed with the warmest Gratitude to Divine Providence for protecting your Majesty's sacred Person in the late ferocious and wicked Attack made upon your Majesty by a Band of Miscreants, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our Congratulations for your happy Deliverance. It is our ardent Wish and Prayer, that the Safety of your Majesty may never more be endangered, but that uninterrupted Health and Tranquillity may attend your Majesty's most valuable Life through a long Series of Years to come.

We can emulate with Pleasure the Measures now pursuing by Parliament for more effectually restraining the licentious Freedom of turbulent and seditious Men; and sincerely hope that, under the Favour of Heaven, the Blessings derived to this Nation from our present happy Constitution may be continued to the latest Posterity under the Auspices of your august Family.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Barasley, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Barasley, sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild, auspicious and paternal Government, and interested as we feel ourselves, in the Preservation of a Life so dear to us as that of your most sacred Majesty, most humbly approach your Majesty and beg Leave to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the late atrocious and diabolical Outrage committed against your Majesty's most sacred Person. We are thankful for the Interference of that good Providence which, in the present Instance, so miraculously preserved it: We lament the Necessity of the Interference of the Legislature for its more immediate Protection; and we humbly implore the same good Providence to keep your Majesty under its especial Care and Protection, to the End that we, and all other your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, so dear to your Majesty, may long possess and enjoy all the Blessings and Privileges handed down to us through your Majesty and our most excellent Constitution as by Law established.

[Presented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bradford in Yorkshire, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your late providential Escape from the traiterous Attack of Russians upon your sacred Person, when in the Execution of one of the most important Functions of the Crown. We lament that such a Circumstance should have happened to disgrace the Annals of this Country, and we cannot sufficiently express our Horror and Indignation at so daring and unprovoked an Insult, together with our Execration of the infernal Purpose which suggested and gave Birth to so heinous a Crime; and as it is our firm Opinion that it originated in certain seditious Meetings, Speeches and Writings, tending to alienate the Minds of the People from your Majesty's mild Government, and to subvert the happy Constitution of this Kingdom, we feel it our Duty to declare that we every Day see more Occasion to approve and firmly adhere to those Principles which first induced us to arm, under the Sanction of Parliament and your Majesty's Commissions; and that we will be at all Times ready to assist the Civil Magistrate in suppressing the first Risings of Sedition, and to nip Rebellion in the Bud. And we do solemnly pledge ourselves, that we will, on all Occasions which may require our Interference or Aid, stand forward in the Defence of the Religious and Civil Establishment of this Kingdom; and that, on no Account whatever, will we shrink from the Oath we have taken, to support your Majesty's Person and Government against all your Foes, foreign and domestic.

Signed, at the unanimous Request of the whole Corps,

J. A. Busfield, Lieutenant-Colonel-Commandant.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of

Ormskirk,

Ormskirk, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, beg Leave most humbly to join with our Fellow Subjects in expressing our Indignation on the Outrage lately offered against your Royal Person, and our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Escape from the horrid Attempt.

We beg Leave, at the same Time, to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to defend your Majesty's sacred Person with our Lives and Property, and to support every constitutional Law for that Purpose.

We trust that the affectionate Attachment which your Majesty hath experienced on this Occasion will convince seditious Men in every Rank and Situation, that, relying on the Goodness of Divine Providence for a long Continuance of your Majesty's valuable Life, every true Briton will protect, to the utmost of his Power, the Blessings he enjoys under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Prescott, in the County of Lancaster.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Prescott, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your late happy and providential Escape from the atrocious and malignant Attack made on the sacred Person of your Majesty in the Exercise of one of the most important of your Functions.

We cannot but express our Wonder that there could be found amongst your Subjects Men wicked or misguided enough to attempt a Crime, the Effects of which we shudder to imagine.

That your Majesty may long enjoy with undiminished Splendor the Crown of these Realms, and transmit our excellent Constitution unimpaired to Posterity, is our most fervent Prayer.

In Witness whereof we have hereto set our Hands this 26th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Presented by Colonel Stanley, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaster.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Inhabitants of the Islands of Scilly, beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of the late traitorous Outrage committed against the sacred Person of your Majesty; and, animated with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty, we cannot but express our earnest Hope that the Abettors and Contrivers, as well as the actual Perpetrators of so atrocious an Insult offered to the Person of our Monarch may be brought to speedy and condign Punishment.

We cannot suppose any Subject of your Majesty would have been guilty of such an Attempt unless seduced by the malevolent Arts of those, who, preferring Anarchy to regular Government, appear as little sensible of the Blessings of the British Constitution as entitled to its Protection.

Although situated in a remote Part of your Majesty's Dominions, we boast the Glory of being British Subjects, and, as such, must consider the Preservation of our dearest Rights and Liberties as deeply and essentially interested in the Safety of our Sovereign, whose first and best Prerogative consists in being enabled by the Constitution to protect them.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bridlington Volunteer Corps of Artillery, with Sentiments of unalterable Loyalty to your Majesty, and affectionate Veneration for the Constitution of this Kingdom, humbly offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late Escape from the nefarious Attempt of insidious Traitors on your Majesty's sacred Life.

We deplore with Indignation, and execrate such atrocious Purposes; and beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to sacrifice our Lives in Defence of your Majesty's Crown and Person.

May the Great Disposer of all Events long continue to us the Blessing of your Majesty's Life, and preserve to our latest Posterity the Happiness of the British Constitution.

We are, Sire, with the most perfect Attachment and Loyalty, your dutiful, faithful, and obedient Subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, the Archdeacons, and others the Clergy of the Diocese of Chester, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty our earnest Abhorrence of the Outrage lately committed against the Dignity and Safety of your sacred Person.

Whilst we lament with the deepest Concern that wicked Principles and seditious Arts could so far have succeeded as to endanger your Majesty's Person, and expose to imminent Hazard the Blessings which, under God, we owe to our civil Constitution and your Majesty's paternal Affection for your People; we congratulate your Majesty and the Nation at large upon your providential Escape from the daring Designs of a tumultuous and treasonable Combination, and we anxiously hope that the Provisions devised by your Parliament will in future afford an effectual Security against Attempts so atrocious and alarming.

For ourselves, it shall continue to be our Care constantly to inculcate, upon Principles of true Religion as well as those of sound Policy, an inviolate Attachment to your Person, a dutiful Submission to your Government, and a vigilant Solicitude for the Safety and Preservation of a Constitution, from which, by the Indulgence of Divine Providence, we have to long experienced the most valuable and important Benefits of social Order.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Leicester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects,
the Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Leicester, this Day assembled at the Castle of Leicester, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Escape your Majesty has lately experienced from the daring Outrages offered to your Majesty's Person, in passing to the House of Parliament. Deeply affected with a Sense of such a flagrant Instance of Licentiousness, which we cannot reflect upon without Detestation and Abhorrence, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Crown and Dignity; and although we are prevented by our Distance from using our Endeavours to bring such Offenders to Justice, yet we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we will cultivate and maintain in our County, as far as in us lies, that Spirit of Peace, Harmony and good Behaviour, so agreeable to your Majesty's Wishes, and so essential to the Happiness and Well-Being of your People. It is our fervent Wish and Prayer, that your Majesty may long continue to reign on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful and united People.

Pechin, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dorset, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, impressed with the purest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, and convinced of the Advantages and Blessings which we have enjoyed under our excellent Constitution, and under the just Administration of Government during your Majesty's Reign.

In congratulating therefore your Majesty upon your providential and most happy Escape, we cannot but express, at the same Time, the extreme Indignation we feel at the late atrocious Attack on your Majesty's Person in the Execution of one of your most necessary and constitutional Functions; and are anxious to declare our utter Abhorrence of those Principles, which by their fatal Tendency did excite and encourage some malignant Miscreants to that wicked and unmanly Attempt.
Under these Impressions, though our Hope and Confidence is, that the Tranquillity of the Kingdom will be maintained, that the Malignant will be controuled, and that the Misguided will see their Error; still should the good Order of Society require further Protection, and should more active Exertions unhappily become necessary, we, as faithful Subjects to your Majesty, and zealous Supporters of Government against Anarchy, are ready and willing to come forward, at the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in Defence of our Laws, Religion, and Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and dutiful Address of the Loyal Corps of Newark Volunteer Infantry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us to assure your Majesty that we feel the greatest Abhorrence at the wicked and daring Attempt which has been lately made against your Royal Person; and we return our sincere Thanks to Divine Providence for having averted from us the most dismal Calamity that could have befallen a Nation, so happy in the Enjoyment of the most enviable Constitution, and under the Government of the best of Kings. But whilst we lament that there exists in these Kingdoms any Man so misguided or so wicked as to violate in such an outrageous Manner the Laws of his Country, we trust that this Attempt will unite the Wishes and give Energy to the Endeavours of all good Men to support them.

We have associated for the Defence of our King, our Laws, and our Constitution, and we do unanimously and most solemnly declare our Resolution to protect and support them to the utmost of our Power:
And that your Majesty may long enjoy the Blessings of a happy and prosperous Reign is our most cordial Wish.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of the County of Lincoln, impressed with the highest Veneration and Respect for your Majesty, under whose mild and auspicious Government we have experienced and hope long to enjoy the inestimable Blessings of our happy Constitution, think it our indispensable Duty to declare our Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attack upon your sacred Person, and beg to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape.

Fully sensible of the great Importance of your Majesty's Safety to the Well-being of the State, we confidently trust in the Wisdom and Exertions of Parliament for the Preservation of our beloved Sovereign, and the Security of our glorious Constitution, and fervently pray that it will please God to render your's a long and happy Reign over a loyal and grateful People.

Assegein, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, actuated by the Principles of true Loyalty and Patriotism, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, as well to declare our utter Abhorrence of the late most daring and wicked Outrage against your sacred Person and the Authority of the Laws, as to present our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape.

Participating in the Blessings of a just, mild and paternal Government, we ardently hope for the Continuance of them, in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, the Efficacy of the Laws, and the unimpaired paired Vigour of the Constitution in all it's Branches. With these Sentiments, we cannot but deprecate the Assemblies of certain misguided and seditious Men, as the Source from whence the worst of Mischiefs may originate.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address and Congratulation of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg Leave, with all Humility and Respect, to approach the Throne, and to express our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

The late atrocious Attacks made on your sacred Person, in going to and returning from your Parliament, have filled us with Indignation and Horror. We lament that in this Nation any should be found so insensible to those Virtues by which your Majesty has ever been so eminently distinguished as the Father of your People, and as the faithful Guardian of our happy Constitution, as to expose these Realms to the Danger of losing the best of Sovereigns, and, perhaps, of incurring all the Horrors of Anarchy and Irreligion.

Impressed with the most devout Gratitude to Almighty God for having averted, by your Majesty's Preservation, so dreadful a Calamity, we beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on this providential Deliverance. While we join, on this Occasion, in the general Expressions of Loyalty and Attachment, we feel particular Satisfaction for the Interests of Learning, of which your Majesty has always been so magnificent a Patron.

That the Supreme Disposer of all Events may continue with your Majesty His most gracious Protection: That you may ever enjoy the Love of a free and a happy People; and that the Crown of these Kingdoms may be maintained in your Majesty's Royal House to the latest Posterity, is the fervent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Inhabitants of the County of Somerset, actuated by the greatest Regard and Attention to the Constitution of this Country, and by the strongest Ties of Affection to your Majesty, presume to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the providential and happy Escape your Majesty has experienced from the late outrageous and daring Attack on your sacred Person, and at the same Time to express our utmost Abhorrence of the very atrocious Attempt, by which your Majesty's Life, so deservedly dear and valuable to the People of these Realms, has been endangered, and the Laws so grossly violated.

We trust that the most spirited Measures will be taken to discover these atrocious Offenders, and by the Energy of our Laws they may be brought to a speedy, just and exemplary Punishment.

We beg Leave to declare to your Majesty, that we are truly sensible of the Blessings and Happiness we experience under your Majesty's just and mild Administration of the Laws, and at the same Time to express our most fervent and sincere Prayer, that you may long continue to reign on the Throne, as well as in the Hearts of your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Nottingham, humbly desire to assure your Majesty of the Horror and just Indignation which we felt at the late atrocious Attempt made against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our heartfelt Joy and Thankfulness for the Protection of Divine Providence. Fully convinced that the personal Safety of your Majesty and the Continuance of your mild and equitable Government are the surest Pledges to us of our continuing to enjoy the Blessings of our happy Constitution, we hold it our Duty to express our Wishes that the Wisdom of the Legislature may provide such further Securities as the wicked and unexampled Practices to corrupt the Loyalty of some of your Majesty's Subjects may have made necessary. It is at the same Time our anxious Desire that Measures may be adopted to suppress those unlawful Assemblies, where the seditious Harangues and the Doctrines propagated have a manifest Tendency to encourage the Violation of your Majesty's Sovereignty and the Subversion of all legal Government, and to bring upon us those consequent Calamities which have been so fatally exemplified in a neighbouring Kingdom.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, beg Leave to approach the Throne of our beloved Sovereign with Sentiments of Indignation on account of the late flagitious Outrage offered by a misguided Multitude to your Royal Person. Such Disorders arising in your capital City, in the Face of legal and constitutional Government, cannot but alarm us; since, besides the Insolence which these express towards your sacred Majesty, they seem to bear a menacing Aspect upon the Liberties of the People at large.

We feel the sincerest Joy and Gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's Escape from this unlooked for Danger, and hope that the Authors of it will be brought to a just Sense of their Folly and Wickedness. We have the most perfect Confidence in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, supported by the Wisdom of Parliament, that the most proper and effectual Means will be devised for preventing in future similar Outrages, so disgraceful to the Character of the Nation, and so hurtful to its true Interest and Happiness.

And while we thus express our own Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to the Constitution of our Country, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, in our Station, we shall exert our utmost Endeavours to impress the same Sentiments upon the Minds of the People under our Care.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Society of Solicitors at Law before the Commissary, Sheriff, and City Courts of Edinburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Society of Solicitors at Law of Edinburgh, incorporated by Royal Charter, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with determined Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Safety from the very daring and flagitious Attack made on your Royal Person.

We cannot help being surprized, and to declare our Detestation at any Expression of Discontent with our happy Constitution and the Government of this Country, where Life, Liberty and Property are secured to every Subject by equitable Laws; where no Person is persecuted on account of his Religious Principles; the more rigid feudal Servitudes of our Ancestors have been done away; the whole Face of the Kingdom, in the Course of the last Age, evidently changed so much for the better; and, in fine, where Happiness is open to all who will conduct themselves with Propriety. We would hope the good Sense of the British Nation will reflect, and be convinced of these Truths; and that, in the mean Time, the Wisdom of Parliament will take such Measures as they may see necessary to prevent any Mischief to the Government from the Evil-designing or Mifled.

We humbly beg Leave to join our loyal Fellow Subjects in offering our Thanksgivings to the Almighty for his Interposition in preserving your Majesty's Life for the Peace and Happiness of your Subjects, and the Welfare of all your Dominions over the Globe.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's most sacred Person, and to present to your Majesty our warmest and most affectionate Congratulations on your late fortunate and happy Escape from the Hands of a desperate and deluded Banditti on your Passage to and from your Parliament, whilst fulfilling one of the most important Duties attached to your exalted Station; and to testify our utmost Abhorrence of all such traitorous, outrageous and diabolical Proceedings. Deign, Sire, to believe that we will, at all Times, and at the Risk of our Lives and Property, use our utmost Exertions and Endeavours to support your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and to defend your sacred Person against all those who dare attempt to weaken the Foundation of the one, or to hurt, or insult the other. We humbly beseech your Majesty will, in Conjunction with your Parliament, take such Steps as may appear most likely to stop the rapid Progress of seditious Meetings, which are the Fountains from which the most alarming and calamitous Evils are likely to proceed.

Believe us to be your Majesty's ever faithful and affectionate Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Fordyce.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Fordyce, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late shameful and atrocious Insult offered to your Majesty's sacred Person and Authority, on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament.

We are unable to express the Indignation and Abhorrence which we feel against those deluded Persons who instigated or committed the unprovoked Attack.

While we truly execrate the Principles which lead to such outrageous Conduct, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, and that we will continue to inculcate, by Precept and Example, among the People under our pastoral Care, that Harmony, Peace, and Obedience to the Laws, which are so congenial to the Interests of Religion, and so essential to the Happiness of Society.

That the over-ruling Providence of the Almighty King of Kings may continue to shield your Majesty from all the Designs of your Enemies, whether open or insidious, whether foreign or domestic, is our anxious Wish and fervent Prayer.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Fordoun, in Presbytery assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Fordoun, join our Voice to that of our Countrymen, in expressing Horror and Indignation at the late daring Attempt made by lawless and deluded Men upon your Majesty's sacred Person, and Gratitude to Almighty God for having preserved to us in Safety our beloved Sovereign.

Sensible of the inestimable Blessings which we enjoy under the British Government, and deeply impressed with your Majesty's personal Virtues, we would rejoice in the Adoption of such Measures as might have a Tendency to secure to us and to our Posterity the Continuance of our free Constitution, and to prevent your Majesty's Feelings from being again wounded, and your Majesty's Safety endangered, by the Violence of any of those Subjects, over whose Interests your Majesty has ever watched with the most paternal Solitude.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corps of Thurso Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of Thurso, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with Sentiments of the firmest Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government.

It was with equal Astonishment and Indignation that we heard of the Dangers to which your Majesty's sacred Person was exposed, in passing to and from the Parliament House, upon the first Day of the present Session. The daring Outrages of that Day, which appear to have been premeditated, clearly evince that the Enemies of our glorious Constitution have not yet lost Sight of their wicked Purposes: We cannot therefore but approve of every Exertion of the Legislative Body and of the Executive Power, which may tend to defeat such traitorous Designs.

While we congratulate your Majesty upon your late happy Escape, and offer up our fervent Prayers to Heaven for the long Preservation of your precious Life, as a Blessing to your Kingdoms, the Volunteers of Thurso beg Leave to assure your Majesty that they shall always be found ready to stand forth in the Defence of their King, their Country, and its Constitution, against the Attacks of foreign Invaders, or the more dangerous Attempts of secret and domestic Enemies.
