St. James's, December 15.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Dunkeld.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Members of the Presbytery of Dunkeld, being duly met, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the atrocious Attack lately made on your sacred Person, by the Hands of unprincipled and profligate Men.

Cordially attached as we are to your Majesty's Person and Government, we cannot hear of Danger threatened to the Father of his People without expressing our Indignation and Horror.

And while we thus express our own Sentiments, we are happy at being able to assure your Majesty, that Sentiments of Regard to your Royal Person, and Attachment to your Government, universally prevail among the People among whom we live.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and loyal People, is our earnest and constant Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Presbytery of Dunkeld, at Dunkeld, the 1st of December, 1795.

John Robertson, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Volunteers of Argyllshire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of Argyllshire, impressed with the strongest Sentiments of Veneration and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to that happy Constitution of Government under which we live, reflect with inexpressible Indignation on the late atrocious Insult offered to your Majesty in your Majesty's Progress to and from Parliament.

While such an Act awakens our Apprehensions for your Majesty's Safety, and our Resentment against the Perpetrators of it, we are thankful to that Providence which has protected your Majesty, and averted from these Kingdoms the dreadful Calamity meditated against them by a few desperate and unprincipled Men, totally unworthy of enjoying the inestimable Blessings of British Subjects.

We

We beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty, with Assurances of our most inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to that Constitution, in Support of which we have taken up Arms, convinced that we shall, at all Times, be joined by every one who has either Character or Property to lose; and we sincerely hope, that all those concerned in exciting Tumults and Sedition, particularly those concerned in the late daring Instance, will be speedily discovered, and punished as their Crimes deserve.

Signed, by Appointment of the Six Companies of Argyllshire Volunteers, at Inverary, this 16th Day of November, 1795.

Hun. Graham, Major Commandant.

[Transmitted by J. Campbell, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Ayr, &c.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of Argyllshire.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of Argyllshire, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most unfeigned Sentiments of Respect and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Deeply sensible of the Happiness these Kingdoms enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, we reflect with the utmost Surprise and Horror on the late daring and atrocious Insult offered to your Majesty's sacred Person.

While we humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your escaping without personal Injury from so alarming an Outrage, permit us to assure your Majesty, that we shall at all Times be ready to protect your Majesty's Person and Government with our Lives and Fortunes.

We are happy to perceive that the Legislature are employed in Measures to prevent similar Outrages in future, and to suppress those seditious Meetings which for some Time past have so justly alarmed the peaceable Inhabitants of these Kingdoms; and we sincerely hope your Majesty will long continue to reign over a free, loyal, and a happy People.

Signed by Sir Alexander Campbell, of Ardkinglask, Baronet, in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Inverary, the 7th Day of December, 1795.

[Transmitted by J. Campbell, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Ayr, &c.]

May it please the King,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach the Throne, impressed with the highest Sense of Gratitude to the Great Disposer of all human Events for that kind superintending Providence, so manifestly displayed in the Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person, when the most daring Attempts were lately made against it by a Band of desperate and audacious Ruffians, to the Disgrace of the Soil which gave them Birth, and which will for ever stain with Dishonour the British Annals.

While we congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Escape from such imminent Danger, a Danger which has excited the warmest Affections in every honest and loyal Breast throughout the Land, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are ready upon all Occasions to stand forth as a Shield between your Majesty's sacred Person and the Dagger of the Assassin, and to protect your Crown and Dignity with our Lives and Fortunes.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring and most atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, on your Way to the Parliament House.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of the Happiness of living under a Sovereign, whose Government has been so uniformly equitable and mild, whose paternal Love to his People, and amiable Virtues of every Kind, ought to endear him to all Ranks of Men, we cannot but feel the utmost Astonishment and Sorrow that any of your Majesty's Subjects should have been so blind to their own Interest, and so ungrateful to Divine Providence for the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, as to offer Insult to your sacred Person.

We beg Leave respectfully to assure your Majesty of the general Loyalty and Affection of your Subjects in our District, of our steady Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our Zeal for the Support of our present happy Constitution, rendered more ardent by the Circumstances of the Times.

With a deep Sense of Gratitude to Almighty God for protecting your Majesty in the Hour of Danger, and humble Confidence that He will continue to defeat every Attempt against your Person and Throne, we earnestly pray that your Reign may be long and prosperous over a free, loyal and happy People, and that you may afterwards be received into God's heavenly Kingdom and Glory.

Signed in Name, Presence and by Appointment of the Ministers and Elders, met in the Presbytery of Dumbarton, at Dumbarton, the 1st Day of December, 1795,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Reverend Presbytery of Lochmaben, Dumfriesshire.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Lochmaben, with the People in the Thirteen Parishes under our Charge, beg Leave to approach proach the Throne with Sentiments of the strictest Loyalty and the most affectionate Attachment.

We abhor the late audacious and insidious Insult to your Royal Person and Dignity, in your Progress to Parliament, and hope the contemptible Perpetrators will, in due Course, be brought to their just Punishment.

We anticipated the Privy Council's Instructions by our having previously and repeatedly offered up to the King of Kings public Thanks for your Majesty's merciful Preservation.

We detest all seditious Men and Measures, and are happy to declare that there are none such among us.

We rejoice in our excellent Constitution, both in Church and State, and are determined, by every proper Exertion, to resist every Attempt hostile thereto; and we pray that benign Providence may preserve and prosper your Majesty and your Royal Descendants at the Head of the British Empire, as nursing Fathers, through succeeding Ages, down to the latest Generation.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the loyal and faithful Volunteers of the Town of Cromarty, most humbly pray your Majesty may graciously deign to permit us to approach your Throne, to express to God our Thankfulness for his merciful Preservation of your sacred Person on the late traiterous Attack and Insult, and to testify our Detestation and Abhorrence of the Perpetrators, their Abettors and Instigators; and publickly to declare our Resolution to shed the last Drop of our Blood in Defence of your Majesty's august Person, and our most happy and envied Constitution. That your Majesty may long live to reign over a loyal, free, grateful and most happy People, is our most ardent Prayer.

Walter Ross, Commandant.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Selkirk, beg Leave, with due Respect, to approach the Throne, and express our Abhorrence of the detestable Perpetrators of the late daring and outrageous Attack upon your Royal Person, and offer up our warmest Congratulations upon your Escape from an insatuated Mob.

We observe with Indignation the Attempts made by the Seditious to inflame the Minds of the ignorant, the Idle and Unwary, and rejoice that the Two Houses of Parliament have turned their Attention to the Framing of Regulations, which we sincerely trust will tend to the Support of our glorious Constitution and the utter Disappointment of its internal Enemies.

The Loyalty of our Ancestors (the Sutors of Selkirk) was sealed with their Blood at Flowden Field, where many of them fell in Defence of their Sovereign and Country; and your Majesty may rest assured that their Posterity remain uncorrupted in their Loyalty, unshaken in their Attachment to the true Principles of the Constitution, and determined on every Occasion to support it with their Lives and Fortunes.

We are sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under the Mildness of your Majesty's Administration, and the unparalleled Advantages flowing from our blessed Constitution; and that your Majesty may long reign over us is the united Wish of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of the Burgh of Selkirk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Heritors of the County of Peebles, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, whose private Virtues and publick Conduct, as our Sovereign, have impressed on our Minds the warmest Loyalty and Affection to your Person and Government, and have caused us to assemble to express our utter Abhorrence of the late daring and atrocious Outrages committed against your Majesty's Person, the first Day of this Session of Parliament.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for your Majesty's Preservation, we pray that the same kind Providence may continue it's Protection, so that we may long experience the blessed Effects of your Majesty's parental Care and mild Government; and we trust and hope, that the Wisdom of Parliament will adopt such Measures as will in future prevent similar Outrages; and also provide such Remedies as will prove most effectual, and put a Stop to such seditious Meetings as have of late been held, where wicked and designing Men instil Poison into the Minds of the Ignorant and Unguarded, for the malevolent Purpose of subverting our happy and envied Constitution, and substituting in it's Place the popular Despotism of France.

Signed by Sir James Nasmyth, of Possfo, Baronet, the Praeses, in Presence of and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Peebles, the 5th Day of December, 1795 Years.

James Nasmyth, Praeses.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESS'D with a most sincere Concern for your Majesty's Safety, and a profound Veneration for our most excellent Constitution, we, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Tain, met in Presbytery this Day, beg Leave to approach your Throne on this Occasion, to express express our just Indignation at and Abhorrence of the late daring and atrocious Insults offered to your sacred Person. Every Attempt devised against the Life of so good and gracious a King as now in your Person sways the Sceptre of these Realms we abhor, and consider as levelled against all Monarchical Government, and as tending to rob the Inhabitants of Great Britain of a Constitution which secures to them every sacred and civil Privilege. Grocers-Hall, December 2, 1795.

At a numerous Meeting of Merchants, Bankers, Traders, and other Inhabitants of London, held here this Day in consequence of public Advertisement.

SAMUEL BOSANQUET, Esq; in the Chair.

THE Chairman having read the Advertisement by which this Meeting was called, a Motion was made by Robert Darell, Esq; and seconded by John Roebuck, Esq; that the following Declaration be read, viz.

DECLARATION of the Merchants, Bankers, Traders, and other Inhabitants of London, made at Grocers-Hall, December 2, 1795.

"We the undersigned Merchants, Bankers, Traders, and other Inhabitants of London, impressed with the same Sentiments which produced our Declaration in Support of the Constitution of Great Britain, made at Merchant Taylors-Hall, on the 5th of December, 1792, observing the Resolutions of certain Meetings, lately held at the Paul's Head Tavern, purporting to be Meetings of "The Merchants, Bankers, Manufacturers, Traders, and other Inhabitants of the City of London," feel it our indispensable Duty thus publicly to disclaim all Connexion with these Meetings, or Approbation of their Proceedings.

"Perceiving, with deep Concern, that alarming Attempts continue to be made, to alienate the Affections of the People from the Government established by Law, and to disturb it in the Exercise of its most important Functions; we think that it has become necessary for Parliament to adopt Measures for the Protection of His Majesty's Person, and the more effectual Preservation of the public Peace.

"We lament that the Disposition of the Times should call upon Britons to resign, even for a short Period, the smallest Portion of that Liberty, which, in this Country, forms the distinguished Privilege of the Subject, and the great Object of Government itself. We trust, therefore, that the Legislature (and we have full Confidence in its Wisdom) will adopt such Restrictions only as the Urgency of the Case demands; that, as the Danger arises from the Times, the Remedies also will be temporary; and, that while Parliament strengthens the Security, it will respect the Liberties of the People.

"Under these Considerations we here make this public Declaration of our determined Resolution, "to support, by every Means in our Power, the ancient and most excellent Constitution of Great Britain, and a Government by King, Lords and Commons; and to exert our best Endeavours to impress on the Minds of those connected with us, a Reverence for, and a due Submission to the Laws of their Country, which have hitherto preserved the Liberty, protected the Property, and increased the Enjoyments of a free and prosperous People."

Which having been read:

Resolved by a great Majority, That this Declaration be approved, and be subscribed by all such Merchants, Bankers, Traders, and other Inhabitants, as may approve thereof; and that it do lie at this Hall for Signature.

Resolved, That every Person, who shall sign this Declaration, be desired to add his Place of Abode, and Description.

Resolved, That the Master and Wardens of the Grocers Company, together with Samuel Bosanquet, Esq; being the Names of those Gentlemen who have stood forward to call this Meeting, be a Committee to attend the signing of this Declaration, and they are hereby requested to cause the same to be published in the Newspapers, and in any other Manner they may think advisable.

Right Hon. Thomas Harley,	Edward Kensington, Esq;
