Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 15, to Saturday December 19, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of December, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 3d of June last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 7th Day of this instant December: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 7th Day of this instant December, presume to transport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition:" — And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 2d of December, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 10th Day of June, 1795, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, will expire on the 10th Day of this instant December: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any any

any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the said 10th Day of this instant December, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ, which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th of December, 1795,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit on to serve board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant December; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant December to the Twenty-eighth Day of February, 1796, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Lieutenantcy for the City of London, has been presented to the King by the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, accompanied by Sir Watkin Lewes, Knt. Richard Clark and John Boydell, Esqrs. Sir James Sanderfon, Bart. Paul Le Mesurier, Esq; Mr. Recorder, John William Anderson, Harvey Christian Coombe, and Stephen Langston, Esqrs. Sir John Eamer, Knt. Thomas Raikes, Thornton Astill, Robert Hunter, Henry Jackson, Thomas Plummer, Anthony Geledneki, Alex. H. Sutherland, George Shum, Mathew Wilson, Richard Puller, Thomas King, William Manwaring, John Travers, James Curtis, John Dunnage, Bicknell Coney, David Scott, and Grose Smith, Esqrs. with many others, being introduced by the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenantcy for the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenantcy for the City of London, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Congratulations upon your Escape from the late daring Attempt on your Royal Person, in your Passage to and from Parliament.

While we deplore that there should exist any one capable of conceiving an Act so detestable and atrocious, we return our most humble and hearty Thanks to the Supreme Being for the Preservation of your Majesty, as a singular Mark of Divine Favor towards all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects.

Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenantcy, deeply sensible of the important Trust with which your Majesty has been pleased to honor them, desire to assure your Majesty of their unemitting and zealous Exertions to fulfil your Majesty's gracious Intentions, by establishing such Discipline in the London Militia as shall provide for the Safety and Protection of the City of London, as well as contribute to the general Defence of these Kingdoms.

Sire, may the Almighty long continue to preserve your Majesty, where your Majesty's Virtues have so justly placed you, enthroned in the Hearts of the British People.

By Order of the Court,

Edward Grose Smith, Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I THANK you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your Expressions of cordial Attachment to My Person and Government.

The Proofs which I have received of the Affection of My People on this Occasion leave Me only to lament the Outrage which has been committed as a Violation of the Laws and Constitution, directly tending to subvert their dearest Interests, for the Support and Maintenance of which I shall never cease to use My utmost Endeavours.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Address from the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Fourteen Troops of Volunteer Yeomanry Cavalry of the County of Kent, has been presented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Dorset; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates of the Volunteer Yeomanry Infantry of the County of Kent, deeply affected with Indignation at the unprovoked, daring and atrocious Insult lately offered to your Majesty's Person in going to and returning from your Parliament, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most unanimous and cordial Congratulations on the providential Preservation of our beloved Sovereign. Voluntarily united as we are in the Cause of good Order and Peace, we are at all Times ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Protection of a Life so justly dear to us as your Majesty's, in defeating the Attempts both of foreign and domestic Enemies, and in Defence of the established Constitution of these Kingdoms.

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Volunteer Yeomanry Cavalry of the Division and Vicinity of Basingstoke, in the County of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of perfect Loyalty and Attachment, and to express, in Union with our Fellow Subjects in this County, the Indignation and Abhorrence we feel at the late daring Attack upon your Royal Person; an Attack, if possible, the more atrocious by being committed at a Time when your Majesty was proceeding to the Exercise of one of the most important Functions prescribed by the Constitution of these Realms.

While we offer our humble but heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty on your providential Escape from the Dangers of that treasonable Outrage, we beg Leave at the same Time to repeat our solemn Assurances of uniform and steady Allegiance to your Majesty, and our determined Resolution, at the Hazard of every Thing we hold dear, to protect, support and defend that Constitution which has long, but more especially during your Majesty's mild and equitable Reign, been the Pride of every true Briton and the Admiration of the World.

Signed, at the unanimous Request of the Corps,
Charles Shawe Lesfèvre, Captain-Commandant.

[Presented by Charles Shawe Lesfèvre, Esq; Captain-Commandant.]

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Carlisle, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Presence, and to assure your Majesty, that the late Insult and Outrage on your Majesty's sacred Person and Dignity has filled our Minds with the deepest Anxiety and Concern.

Your Majesty has most happily escaped the Effects of the intended Outrage and Violence; on this Event we at once desire both to congratulate with every good Subject in your Majesty's Kingdoms, and to be thankful to Heaven for it's gracious Protection and Interposition.

Experience will not justify us in entertaining Suspicion of the Loyalty of the common People. They may doubt on some Occasions whether their Cries shall reach the Royal Ear, but they never doubt your Majesty's paternal Care and Affection; and we are convinced, Sir, that even their rudest Solicitations would have been tempered, as at other Seasons, with the sincerest Regard and Veneration towards your Majesty's Person if their Judgments had not been misguided, and their Passions inflamed by the Suggestions of artful and wicked Men.

It is therefore with much Pain and Indignation that we feel ourselves constrained to connect this atrocious and detestable Transaction with the many dangerous Endeavours which have lately been made to delude the Minds of the People by seditious Meetings and seditious Publications. When we say these Endeavours have been many and dangerous, we contemplate rather the Magnitude of the Crimes and the incessant Exertions of a Few, than the peaceable Dispositions and the good Principles of the great Body of your Majesty's faithful Subjects; for we are persuaded that there never was a Time in the History of this Country when a vast Majority of the People were actuated by a more firm and affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and to the illustrious House of Brunswick, by a higher Sense of the inestimable Value of the Constitution, or by a more determined Zeal and Promptitude to support it.

Permit us, Sir, at the same Time that we acknowledge and lament the Existence of a few disaffected Persons, to derive Comfort and Confidence from a firm Expectation that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils and of Parliament will devise such suitable Provisions and Regulations as may in future effectually defeat their wicked Intentions, and by preventing, repressing, and punishing the Circulation of pernicious Doctrines, ensure the future Safety of your Majesty's Person and of our excellent Constitution in Church and State.

The Character of these turbulent Spirits is now better understood than formerly; and for that Reason it will be easier to guard against their dark Designs. They are evidently distinguished from the great Mass of the labouring Poor by a more extensive Knowledge and by a better Education than can be supposed to belong to that Class of the Community; and in their seditious Productions it is often not difficult to trace the combined Operation of a wild Imagination, of profane and atheistical Principles, of immoral Habits, and of desperate Fortunes.

Against the destructive Violence and Innovation of such wicked and insatuated Reformers it is impossible for us not to cherish a well-founded Hope, that the Providence of Almighty God will ever be displayed in protecting your Majesty's sacred Person and Kingdoms, and in transmitting to Posterity the British Constitution, as a practical Contrast to all visionary Schemes of Government.

Ascribing, as we are taught to do from the highest Authority, every Escape from Danger which we experience, and every Blessing which we enjoy, to the wise Direction of an over-ruling Providence, we must still be careful not to be found wanting to ourselves. Your Majesty, by a late most gracious Address to the Houses of Parliament, has covered your domestic Enemies with Shame and Confusion. They have seen that at the very Moment when they were meditating the blackest Designs, your Majesty's Royal Breast was filled with the most anxious and compassionate Regards for the Happiness of your People; and they have seen also that your Majesty well understood the true Situation of the Country, and met the great Council of the Nation with Dispositions and Resolutions which were framed with Wisdom, Moderation, and Firmness.

Animated by such an Example, we are confident that all the Lovers of civil and religious Liberty will, according to their different Ranks and Professions, unite as one Man to support your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and to give Strength and Energy to the Determinations of the Legislature.

As Clergymen we feel ourselves, in the present critical Conjuncture, peculiarly called upon to incardinate on the Minds of the People the Necessity and Reasonableness of Submission to the Laws, and of a sincere Belief in the Authority of the holy Scriptures. It has appeared but too plain, that modern Revolutionists not only have in View the entire Subversion of all legal Governments, but also that they wish to efface from the Minds of Men every Sentiment of Awe and Veneration for the Name of God and of his Christ.

May Almighty God long preserve in Health and Prosperity the Monarch of this Country to be a tender Father of his People, a powerful Defender of the Protestant Faith, and a blessed Instrument of the Providence for the Suppression and Defeat of the wild Conspiracies of sanguinary and democratical Tyrants.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Chancellor and Clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Chancellor and Clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough, earnestly desire thus to approach your Royal Presence, having our Hearts deeply impressed with the utmost Grief and Concern, as well as burning with the liveliest Indignation at the late horrible Attempt, too plainly levelled against your Majesty's sacred Person, and at that daring Violation of our most excellent Constitution, which has been for a long Series of Years the Envy of so many Nations.

Nations, the Pride and Glory of this. We most sincerely and fervently congratulate your Majesty upon your providential Escape from an Outrage, which we are fully persuaded in our own Minds can only serve to render your Majesty, your Family and Government over us, still more dear and precious in our Estimation, and those vile Traytors to, and Enemies to both, still more detestable in the Eyes of God and Man.

Your Majesty may be well assured that nothing will be wanting on our Parts, as far as in us lies, to defeat all dangerous Designs against your invaluable Life, as well as every Attempt to disturb or weaken your Majesty's mild and gracious Reign over us: And we most sincerely and devoutly pray to the Almighty Disposer of all Events, that He would be pleased to continue your Majesty long, very long, in Health and Safety, till our Ruler and Governor; and that when it shall please Him, in his Divine Wisdom, to separate you from an affectionate People, and to remove you from those Toils and Troubles which are inseparable from an earthly Throne, He may receive you to Himself, and translate you into a Kingdom of endless Peace, Felicity and Glory.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and other Clergy of the Diocese of Chichester, do, with all Humility, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Deliverance of your sacred Person from the great and imminent Danger to which it was exposed by a late most daring and detestable Attempt against it; an Attempt which has so justly and so generally alarmed the Fears of your faithful Subjects, and which, God be praised, by the merciful Interposal of his Providence, you have happily escaped.

We cannot now but reflect, with Pleasure, upon all the Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Care and Protection; to which alone, under God, we are indebted for them: That the chief Object of your Attention is, like that of your Royal Ancestors, the fixing and preserving our Constitution, both in Church and State, upon the firmest Basis; and by this Means connecting, what is scarce ever united in other Kingdoms, the Honour, Influence and Prosperity of your Government with the Happiness of your People.

Excited by these just Sentiments, it would be unpardonable in us not to take this publick Opportunity of expressing our Joy and Thankfulness for the Preservation of your Majesty's most valuable and important Life, and of Course the Continuance of our present Felicity, which we cannot but consider as involved in it.

May that God, whom you constantly and devoutly serve, and whose gracious Protection you have now so signally experienced, preserve you a long and shining Example of sincere Piety and the purest Morals, exercised and maintained in the highest Station; make you a blessed Instrument in the Hands of his Providence, to promote the same virtuous and religious Principles among your Subjects, to establish the Freedom, Commerce and Security of your Country upon a durable and sure Foundation; and to dispense to a grateful and happy People every other Blessing of a glorious and peaceful Reign.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, impressed with the deepest Gratitude to Almighty God for his many providential Interpositions in Behalf of this Nation, humbly request your Majesty's Acceptance of our warmest Congratulations on a new and signal Instance of the Divine Goodness, in your Majesty's late Deliverance from a wicked and desperate Attempt, by which the Safety of your Majesty's Person and of our excellent Constitution was alike equally endangered.

Instructed by the Example of a neighbouring Kingdom, we wanted not the Evidence of so daring an Outrage to be thoroughly convinced of the pernicious Tendency of those Doctrines, which have produced in that Country their natural Fruits, Anarchy and Bloodshed; and which have been too successfully employed in corrupting the Morals and exciting a Spirit of Discontent and Insurrection in the Minds of the lower Orders of the People in every other civilized Government. We cannot, however, but consider it as an awful and incontestable Proof of the alarming Progress which those Principles have made amongst ourselves, and an abundant Justification of the Wisdom of the Legislature in devising other and more effectual Means than the present Laws afford, both for the better Security of your Majesty's Person, and for the Suppression of those tumultuous and illegal Meetings, where the sacred Name of Liberty is used only as a Cloak of Maliciousness, and where the Preachers of Sedition conceal from the deluded Multitude their Designs of subverting the Constitution under the specious Pretext of reforming it.

As Ministers of that Religion, which teaches us, at the same Time, to fear God and to honour the King, we are manifestly required, and will constantly endeavour to inculcate upon the Minds of those committed to our Charge the indispensable Duties of Loyalty to your Majesty and peaceable Subjection to the established Laws. As Britons, we feel and rejoice in the Blessings of a free and equal Government. We are fully apprised of the inestimable Value of both our religious and civil Liberties; and warranted, by the uniform Experience of your past Conduct, in believing them to be equally dear to your Majesty. We pray that your Majesty may long continue to be their sovereign Guardian and Protector, and that, under the Government of your Royal House, they may be transmitted unimpaired to our latest Posterity.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishop and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Landaff, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our sincere Abhorrence of every Attempt, direct or open, against your Majesty's Person and Government. We consider the Sacredness of your Majesty's Person as a wise and fundamental Law of the Land, and we have for so many Years experienced the Equity and Lenity of your Government as to be persuaded that your Majesty can have no Enemies in this Country, except amongst those who are lost to every Sense of Honour, Virtue, and Religion.

We are thankful to God for the late providential Escape which He hath vouchsafed to your Majesty, at a Period so critical when a Turbulency of Spirit, subversive of all Government, and destructive of the Ends of all political Society, seems to have unhappily invaded the Minds of many. We think it our Duty to come forward with a solemn Declaration of our Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, of Attachment to your Family, and of our Determination to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, the Constitution of our Country as established at the Revolution.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Roman Catholic Peers, Commoners and Clergy of Great Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impressed with unfeigned Gratitude for the invaluable Blessings which we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Roman Catholic Peers, Commoners and Clergy of your Kingdom of Great Britain, have, in a peculiar Manner, derived from and now enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, and to assure your Majesty, that it is with equal Grief and Indignation we have heard of the wicked and atrocious Attack recently made upon your Majesty's Royal Person.

We lament that there should exist in your Majesty's Dominions any Person so flagitious, and so lost to every Sentiment of Religion and Loyalty, as to be capable of perpetrating so treasonable an Act against the most mild and beneficent of Sovereigns.

Permit us, Sire, to offer our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on your providential Escape from the desperate Attempt.

Independent of the loyal Affection which animates us, in common with our Fellow Subjects, we, in a peculiar Manner, feel anxious for your Majesty's Safety, under whose auspicious Government many of the constitutional Rights of British Subjects have been restored to us.

We beg Leave most humbly to renew our Assurances to your Majesty, that we will on all Occasions, by every Means in our Power, most strenuously support and defend your sacred Person and Government, on which the Prosperity and Happiness of your People so much depend; and that it is our most fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may long live the beloved Sovereign of these Realms, and continue to be the Object of Divine Favour and Protection.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Lord Arundel and the Hon. Mr. Petre.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Montgomery, attached to your Majesty by every possible Tie of Allegiance, Loyalty and Gratitude for the innumerable Blessings we have experienced during your Majesty's benign and paternal Reign, and impressed with the utmost Degree of Indignation at the atrocious and outrageous Attempt recently made upon your Royal Person, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, and offer our most heartfelt and unfeigned Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential Deliverance.

We lament that the Honour of our National Character has been polluted by the Atrocity of such a Band of Ruffians, but we most cordially hope and trust they will speedily be brought to suffer Punishments commensurate with the enormity of their Crimes.

We implore the Almighty for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign in the Hearts of a brave, free, loyal and united People, and that your Majesty may be thereby enabled to transmit to Posterity, free and inviolate, our excellent Constitution, the Pride and Glory of Britons, and the Envy and Admiration of surrounding Nations.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting, this 14th Day of December, 1795.

Lawton Parry, Sheriff.

[Presented by Francis Lloyd, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and others, Inhabitants of the County of Cardigan, in pursuance of public Notice assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, with the most affectionate Sentiments of Veneration and Respect, to express our Horror and Indignation at the late most daring Assault and flagitious Outrage offered to your Majesty's sacred Person in your Majesty's Passage to and from your Parliament. We, who enjoy every Blessing derived to us, in common with our Fellow Subjects, from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, are unable in adequate Terms to express our Concern that there are within your Majesty's Dominions Persons so daringly wicked as to hazard, by such Insults and Violence, the Safety of your Royal Person, and therein the Happiness of all your People.

It is therefore with the most profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Disposer of all Events that we have to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from such traitorous Attacks, dangerous at once to the public Tranquillity and the glorious Constitution, of which your Majesty forms so important a Part.

Thomas Bonfall, High Sheriff.

[Presented by Thomas Bonfall, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cornwall, humbly approach the Throne to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape from an Attack on your Majesty's Person of the most daring and flagitious Nature.

If a Crime of such extensive Mischief, and of such peculiar Malignity, could possibly admit of any Aggravation, gravation, we might presume to observe, that at a solemn and solemn as that when your Majesty was proceeding to open the High Court of Parliament, it argued more than common Dapravity in those insatuated Miscreants, who, ceasing to consider themselves as Subjects, had cast off the Feelings of Men, and scrupled not to attempt the Life of their Sovereign, engaged in the highest Functions of his Royal Office.

We spare ourselves the Pain of reciting, and your Majesty of recollecting, the wicked Arts by which this Influence has been produced on weak Minds by designing and ambitious Men. The scandalous Misrepresentations which have been practised to seduce the Unwary, the criminal Hopes instilled into the Idle and Profligate, all aiming at one and the same Object, the Degradation and Extinction of Monarchy, and the Subversion of our established Constitution both in Church and State.

Animated with these Sentiments, and partaking of that Joy which the late important Successes of your Majesty's Forces and those of our Allies have diffused through all Ranks of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, we address our fervent Prayers to the Disposer of all human Events, for a long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign in Health, Prosperity and Glory, and with an ardent Hope for the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace, whenever the same can be secured to us on Terms consistent with the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and the lasting Interests of your People.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, Yeomen and other Inhabitants of the County of Kent, humbly approach the Throne to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the providential Escape your Majesty has recently experienced.

We humbly beg Leave to testify our Abhorrence and Detestation of the atrocious Assault made upon your Majesty in going to and returning from your Parliament, and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty that we are fully sensible of the superior Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Administration of the Laws of our wise, free and approved Constitution.

That we were never more deeply impressed with a Conviction of the Importance of your Majesty's Life, nor ever more grateful for its Preservation.

It is our fervent Wish and Prayer that your Majesty may long continue to reign upon the Throne of these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful and united People.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Milton Volunteer Company of Infantry, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's most sacred Person with our most sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late atrocious, premeditated and desperate Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person, and to express our total Abhorrence and Detestation of so base and execrable an Attempt.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to add our warmest and most heartfelt Wishes for the Prolongation and Support of your Majesty's most mild and happy Government; a Government securing to your Majesty's Subjects that Protection and Felicity which renders it most deservedly the Envy of surrounding Nations.

And suffer us, Sir, with our most ardent Prayers for the Continuation of your Reign, to offer those Services to your Majesty and our Country for which you have been graciously pleased to sanction our taking up Arms, with a full Assurance of our unalterable and unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty; and that we shall at all Times be ready to stand forth with our Lives and Property in Support of your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Bedford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Bedford, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring Attack upon your Royal Person, and to express the deepest Concern that there should be found within your Majesty's Dominions any Person wicked enough to endeavor to impede your Progress to and from your Parliament in open Defiance of the Laws, and in Violation of all Order, Decency and Respect to your high and exalted Station; and we do most ardently hope that such Person or Persons, so breaking the Laws and committing an Act so treasonable, may be discovered and suffer the Punishment the Offence so justly deserves.

At the same Time we cannot help thinking that such evil and malicious Designs are stirred up and excited by the many seditious Meetings and Assemblies held in and about the Metropolis; but we are in great Measure relieved from the Apprehension of any future evil Consequences of these Assemblies, by the Hope that Parliament will, in its Wisdom, provide such Measures as may suppress Meetings, which are not only highly offensive to the Public

Peace,

Peace, and the good Order of Society, but also dangerous to the happy Constitution of this Realm.

We lament the Calamities of War in common with the rest of our Fellow Subjects, and we have full Confidence that your Majesty's Endeavours will not be wanting to obtain the Blessings of Peace whenever they can be had consistently with the Honor, Dignity and Welfare of this Country.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Derby, now assembled at our County Hall, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our indignant Abhorrence of the audacious and aggravated Outrages lately offered to your Majesty when engaged in the Exercise of the highest Function of your Royal Office, and to assure your Majesty of our ready Attachment to your Majesty's Person and the Constitution of these Realms. May your Majesty long continue to reign on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a faithful and united People.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply and Clergy of the County of Sutherland, in North Britain, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne humbly to express our just Abhorrence and Indignation at the daring Outrages lately offered to your Majesty's Person in your Majesty's Passage to and from the Houses of Parliament.

That those insulting Outrages have proceeded from Enemies to the British Constitution we have no Doubt; the many personal Virtues so conspicuously displayed during your Majesty's Reign, which may God prolong; your Majesty's Constitutional Exercise of the Regal Power; the Justice and Clemency with which your Majesty has governed these Kingdoms, joined to the Exercise of every human Virtue, must have left your Majesty without one personal Enemy: It is with Pleasure, therefore, we observe your Majesty's Parliament has lost no Time in devising such Measures as tend not only to prevent a Repetition of the late Insults to your Majesty's Person, but are calculated also to preserve to all your Majesty's Subjects the inestimable Blessings which, in common with them, we enjoy under our happy Constitution of Church and State.

That the recent just War in which your Majesty is engaged may be attended with signal Success by Sea and by Land, in every Quarter of the Globe, and terminate in an honourable and lasting Peace: That the Blessings of the British Constitution may be transmitted to our latest Posterity: That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and your Majesty's Person be under the Protection of Almighty God, are the fervent Prayers of us, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the ancient Borough of Dornoch, in the County of Sutherland, in our own Names, and in Name of the whole Community, beg Leave to approach your Majesty humbly to express our warm Indignation and just Abhorrence of the late daring Outrages offered to your Majesty's Person in your Majesty's Passage to the Houses of Parliament.

Your Majesty's many princely and amiable Qualities so conspicuously and invariably displayed during your Majesty's mild Reign over these Kingdoms have not been calculated to create personal Enemies to your Majesty, but, on the contrary, to inspire every Friend to the British Constitution with Sentiments of the highest Respect, Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government: It is therefore with the greatest Satisfaction that we, as Friends to both, observe your Majesty's Parliament has lost no Time in devising Means to repress the Insolence and counteract the Malice of the Enemies of our happy Constitution, by whom the late Outrages, we have no Doubt, must have been perpetrated.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and your Majesty's illustrious Person and Family ever safe under the Protection of Almighty God, is the fervent Prayer of us, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects,

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magistracy and Community, by Hugh McCulloch, Preses.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Selkirk, embrace this earliest Opportunity in our Power of expressing our deep Regret at the daring Outrage lately offered to your Majesty's Person, together with our sincere Thankfulness to Almighty God, that it was not attended with the worst Consequences, and our Hopes that what is best will be done for your Safety in future,

We beg Leave, at the same Time to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Family and Government, and of Resolutions to persevere in our Endeavours to impress on the People under our Care a due Regard for our admirable Constitution, Reverence for it's Laws, and Affection for a Monarch not less distinguished by the amiable Virtues of private Life, than by an uniform Tenor of public Conduct favourable to the Liberty and Happiness of his Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and other Magistrates of the Shire of Ross, assembled at Tain on the 11th of November, 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace and other Magistrates of the Shire of Ross here assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Expressions of the most unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to your sacred Person, and to congratulate your Majesty on the narrow Escape you have lately made from the daring Attempt of some profligate, seditious and unprincipled Ruffians, at the same Time to felicitate ourselves and all your well-disposed Subjects in these Kingdoms that the Attempt has been so providentially frustrated.

We beg Leave to express our sincere Hope, that your Majesty may long reign over a Nation so universally sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government, and so sincerely attached to your sacred Person and illustrious Family.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the Borough of Boston in the County of Lincoln, in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the ancient Borough of Boston, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late most audacious and wicked Attempt against your Royal Person, and to express our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence of such atrocious Conduct.

We view with infinite Satisfaction the Zeal and Activity of the Legislature in endeavouring to prevent such riotous Proceedings in future; and we pray to Almighty God that your Majesty may long live to reign over a happy, free and grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Bridgemen and Burgesses, and other the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Henley upon Thames, in the County of Oxford.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Bridgemen and Burgesses, and other principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Henley upon Thames, in the County of Oxford, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Escape from the late horrid and outrageous Attack on your Royal Person.

On a former Occasion we pledged ourselves, in the most solemn Manner, to stand forth in the Support of the excellent Constitution of the Country under its present Form of King, Lords and Commons, and at that Time we likewise publicly declared we would use our utmost Endeavours to prevent and suppress all unlawful and seditious Meetings, as likewise the Circulation of all mischievous and inflammatory Papers within our Jurisdiction; we now beg Leave to renew our former Assurances, and to declare we will use our utmost Exertions to enforce a due Obedience to the Laws and for the Protection of your Majesty's Royal Person; and should the existing Laws be found insufficient for the above Purpose, we trust that the Legislature will enact such further Laws for the Security of the Constitution and of your Majesty's Person as in their Wisdom they shall think necessary.

Firmly attached to our most excellent Constitution and to your Majesty's Person, we sincerely hope your Majesty may long continue to reign over a loyal, free and happy People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and most dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns of Manchester and Salford, and the Neighbourhood thereof, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on your late providential Deliverance from the barbarous Attempt of desperate and designing Men, at the very Moment when your Majesty was discharging one of the most important Functions of your Royal Office.

We have observed with Concern that many daring Societies have been instituted in these Kingdoms for the Propagation of seditious and rebellious Maxims, and are sensible such an atrocious Act of Treason could never have been attempted against your Majesty's Person had not the outrageous Traitors been encouraged and incited by the violent and indefatigable Exertions of those wicked Societies.

We therefore observe with heartfelt Satisfaction that the Wisdom of Parliament is now pleased to interfere in stopping the Progress of such evil Societies, and also in more effectually consulting the Security of your Majesty's sacred Person.

We return our humble Thanks to your Majesty for the gracious Assurance which you were pleased to give your Parliament, that you are willing to procure for your People the Blessing of Peace, when such Peace can be obtained upon a permanent and honourable Basis.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Aldermen, Recorder, Common-Council, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Ruthin, in the County of Denbigh, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Attachment tachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. We have heard, with the deepest Concern and Indignation, of the wicked Attempt made upon your Majesty's sacred Person, and we sincerely congratulate your Majesty and our Fellow Subjects that it hath pleased Providence to preserve your Royal Person, and thereby to continue to your People the Blessings they have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and prosperous Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Constables, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Port, Town and Borough of Minehead.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Constables, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Port, Town and Borough of Minehead, beg Leave to express our deepest Concern at the late most daring Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person, in your Passage to and from your Parliament, with our Acknowledgments to Divine Providence for your Majesty's happy Escape from personal Injury. We express our Confidence in the Wisdom and Discretion of Parliament, that such Measures will be adopted as may effectually put a Stop to the Growth of those Principles, which lead to the Commission of such illegal and atrocious Acts, and which, if permitted to exist, we deem to be incompatible with the Safety of this Realm.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Inverness.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Inverness, presume to approach your Throne to express our most firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government. Impressed with these Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, we could not view but with the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation the daring Insult offered to your Majesty's Dignity, and the most nefarious Attempt made upon your sacred Person, in going to and returning from your Parliament. We offer our most sincere Thanksgivings to the Most High for the providential Protection vouchsafed to your Majesty, and we congratulate your Majesty most cordially on your Escape from that Danger.

While we are assiduously employed in instructing the People under our Charge in the Duties of Religion and Morality, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are likewise attentive in inculcating upon them a becoming Regard to your Majesty's Person, with due Subjection to all lawful Authority, and a proper Estimation of the Benefits of our most excellent Constitution. That Almighty God, the Father of Mercies, may prolong your Majesty's Life as a Blessing to these Realms, that He may pour down His best Blessings on the Queen, the Prince and Princesses of Wales, and on all the Branches of your Royal and illustrious Family, is the earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Inverness, met in Presbytery.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of North Berwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your Royal Burgh of North Berwick, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express the Indignation we feel at the late unprovoked and daring Attack made upon your sacred Person, by seditious and unprincipled Men, with a Design to overturn that happy Constitution which has so long distinguished us among the Nations. At the same Time we declare our firm Purpose to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majesty's mild and equitable Government.

Being convinced that the Security of the Subjects depends solely upon the Safety of the King, we see, with the greatest Satisfaction, those wholesome Measures now adopted by your Majesty's Two Houses of Parliament, for the Protection of your Person and Government, and for the Suppression of all seditious Societies.

While we feel the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude to Heaven for your Majesty's Preservation, we would beseech Almighty God to bless you with a long and prosperous Reign, and that the Blessings we now enjoy may be transmitted unimpaired to latest Generations.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Independent Company of Volunteers of Beverley, in the East Riding of the County of York.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Beverley Independent Volunteers, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincerest Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack on your Majesty's Royal Person.

Viewing with Horror and Concern the rapid Diffusion, for some Time past, of Opinions and Doctrines so subversive of all regular Governments, and so destructive to Society itself, and animated with the same Zeal for the Preservation of our inestimable Constitution, and the same Attachment to your Majesty's Person, which originally prompted us to take up Arms, we feel that we should ill discharge the Duty we owe to that Constitution, of which your Majesty is the faithful Guardian, and to ourselves, if we did not, at this critical Period, come forward with renewed Professions of our Loyalty, and of our steadfast Determination to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes tunes in Defence of those Blessings which these Kingdoms, under Providence, have so long enjoyed.

Permit us then, Sire, to assure you, that should your Majesty be ever driven to the painful Necessity of calling out the Energies of the Country for the Preservation of our Constitution, from whence alone we can hope for Security of Person and Property, your Majesty may rely with Confidence on the firm Support of the Beverley Independent Volunteers.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Derbyshire Corps of Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Derbyshire Corps of Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry, beg Leave to present our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late daring and atrocious Attack made on your Royal Person, whilst in the Discharge of the most important Functions of your exalted Station, assuring your Majesty that we feel the utmost indignation at so unmerited an Outrage.

Permit us, Sire, to avail ourselves of this Opportunity of declaring; that the same Motives which first induced us to arm at the Appearance of threatened Calamity from the boasted Invasion of a foreign Enemy, and the seditious Conduct of some of your Majesty's deluded Subjects, will stimulate us with the Zeal of Britons, whenever the Protection of your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, or the Laws and Constitution of our Country, may render it necessary.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Bathurst.]

St. James's, December 19.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, Inhabitants of the Metropolis and Parts adjacent, approach your Majesty, at this Crisis, to express our Grief for the daring and highly criminal Outrages that were lately committed, to the Danger of your Majesty's Person, and to the Interruption of your Passage to your Parliament, to declare our Abhorrence and Detestation of such disloyal and seditious Attempts upon your Majesty's Person and Government; and to declare our Readiness to sacrifice every Thing we possess for the Protection of your Majesty, in all the Honours, Respect and Reverence, as well as all the legal Authority belonging to your Royal State, being fully persuaded as we are that nothing we possess, neither our Liberty nor our Property, can be safe, unless your Majesty, the Guardian of the Laws, be in Safety.

We cannot contemplate this unexampled Insult on your Majesty without calling to our Minds those Considerations that are ever before us, and make so signal a Contrast with this disloyal Outrage; the Tenor of your Majesty's Government, so uniformly mild in every Part of its Administration, the unbounded and universal Demonstrations of Loyalty and Affection among your Subjects, never more manifest than at this Moment, and the National Character of Britons, always averse from Acts so ferocious and so unmanly. In the Midst of such Evidences of general Prosperity and Content, what Manner of Men must those infatuated Few be who degenerate so from the rest of their Countrymen; what can they promise themselves, and by what Motives can they be actuated.

We are unwilling to bring to your Majesty mere Expressions of Condolence and of Loyalty, at a Time when our Hearts are full of serious and alarming Reflections, arising from the late nefarious Outrage; we think it a Duty we owe your Majesty, and an Obligation towards our Fellow Subjects, to take this Occasion to lay before your Majesty our firm Persuasion and Belief as to the true Cause of such Outrage and Violence.

We beg humbly to submit to your Majesty, that the Heat and Intemperance discovered by the Offenders on that disgraceful Day are to be ascribed to a Design that has long been at Work for corrupting and inflaming the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects against the good Laws and Government of this Kingdom. The Manner in which this Design is carried on has been laid open in the Reports of your Two Houses of Parliament, during the last Sessions of Parliament, and in the Trials of certain Persons for High Treason. We daily see with what Activity and Perseverance this Design is still managed: The mischievous Actors are continually employed, either in Clubs, at Political Debates, at Political Lectures, or at Meetings in the open Air; in all of which your Majesty's Person and Government, and the established Laws, are openly traduced and scoffed at in the Hearing of many Hundreds of your Majesty's Subjects. In such Seminaries as these, Mens Minds are prepared for open and violent Attacks on all lawful Authority; at such Meetings the Professors and Missionaries of Sedition tutor and madden their ignorant and fanatical Disciples, whom they send forth to commit overt Acts of Mischief.

The Progress of this Design, first for destroying a good Opinion of the Government and afterwards the Government itself, has been viewed by your loyal and peaceable Subjects with great Concern and Indignation, and they have been the more deeply impressed by a View of this growing Evil, because they see by Experience that the Law, either in the Letter or in the Application of it, is not adequate to prevent or suppress it; and that the Contrivers of Mischief act in open Contumacious of Magistracy: The Consequence is, that Disaffection increases, and the Licentious deride the Law that cannot curb them.

The Disgrace and Danger attending such a Want of Efficacy in the Laws have, as we believe, united the Majority of your Majesty's Subjects in one general Wish, that the Law were rendered more energetic. The Parliament has been used on former Occasions to restrain the Excesses of the Time with new Laws adapted to the Nature of them. If any public Mischief deserved a Remedy, and if any Thing required it, we submit that the present does. Never was the Foundation of the Government, and of Society itself, so threatened, and at no Time did the Nation manifest itself so prepared to receive, and indeed so plainly call for, some Regulations that would protect the good Subject against the bad, and the the Prosperity of the Whole against the Machinations of a Few.

Your Majesty's Subjects cannot but compare the Advantages enjoyed by the Professors of Sedition above other public Exhibitors. They observe, that the Parliament has anxiously provided Restrictions upon Places of innocent Amusement, where Money is paid for Admission. Theatres and Places of that Sort are not permitted but by your Majesty's Royal Patent, or by a Licence from the Magistrates, and every individual Dramatic Piece must previously be approved by the Lord Chamberlain of your Majesty's Household.

In these Instances the Legislature wisely shewed their Concern for the Morals and Principles of the People, and as wisely provided Regulation, not merely of Punishment but of Prevention. But the Teachers of Sedition open a Debating Society, or a Lecture, wherever they please, and promulge what Doctrines they think fit; and they have complicated their Mischief before Punishment can overtake them, if it ever does; and although the Word of God cannot be preached in any other than the established Churches without a previous Licence from the Magistrates, yet pestilent Doctrines, destructive of all Government and social Order, are inculcated every Evening to Crowds, without Interruption or Penalty.

We cannot but reflect on these Comparisons, and express our deep Regret that the Promulgation of dangerous Opinions, respecting your Majesty's Person and Government, and the established Laws, should enjoy such Impunity. Whether this arises from a Lenity in the Administration of the Laws, or the Law needs Amendment, we do not presume to say; but we humbly lay these our serious Apprehensions before your Majesty, trusting to your Majesty's Wisdom for the Remedy, whether it may be by a more vigorous Execution of the present Laws, or by recommending to your Parliament to provide such others as to their Wisdom shall seem proper.

In thus praying your Majesty to interpose for the Suppression of this growing Mischief by some new Measure, either of Exertion or Regulation, we hope we are justified because we believe it is necessary, not only for your Majesty's loyal and peaceable Subjects, to protect them and their Families against the Designs of the Disaffected, but also for the misled and infatuated, to protect them against the insinuating Arts of their Leaders in Sedition, and because we believe that till the Door of these Conventicles for Sedition is shut there will be no Peace in the Land. We feel Confidence in this our humble Prayer when we consider that your Majesty is sent for the Punishment of evil Doers, as well as for the Praise of them that do well.

We feel ourselves wholly free from Censure in imploring your Majesty to use your Authority against our Fellow Subjects, when we reflect that the utmost we wish is, some preventive Regulation that may protect the Offender against himself, by taking away the Opportunity of offending.

We are, may it please your Majesty, with most inviolable Attachment, your Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and most obedient Subjects.

[Transmitted by John Reeves, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Royal Society of Scottish Antiquaries, assembled in our Anniversary Meeting, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and to mingle our most sincere and cordial Congratulations with those of your Majesty's other well-affected Subjects, on the happy Escape of your Majesty from the daring and outrageous Attack made on your sacred Person upon the first Day of the present Session of your Parliament.

At the same Time that we assure your Majesty of our firm and unshaken Attachment to your illustrious Family, and to that free System of Government which it has been uniformly zealous to maintain, we trust that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils will adopt Measures for bringing to condign and exemplary Punishment the Authors or Abettors of so wicked and atrocious an Attempt; and that the most salutary Regulations will be devised to secure the future Safety of your Majesty's sacred Person, held inestimably dear to all your faithful Subjects.

We have observed, with the deepest Concern, that the Peace and good Order of your Majesty's Kingdoms has for some Time past been disturbed by a Set of wicked and designing Men; but we trust that the Bill now depending in Parliament, when passed into a Law, will put an End to all seditious Meetings, and effectually check the Intentions of such evil-disposed Persons.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates of the Two Companies of Deal Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to express our warmest Congratulations on your Escape from the late wicked and atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's Person in going to and returning from your Parliament.

We think it our Duty to acknowledge, with heartfelt Satisfaction, the many Advantages we enjoy under your mild Government; and we assure your Majesty that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, exert our utmost Endeavours to preserve and secure the Blessings of our excellent Constitution.

St. James's, December 17.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted or delivered to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stirling, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to express our faithful Attachment and steady Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The Gratitude we owe to the Great Sovereign of the Universe for His continued Preservation of your Majesty's Majesty's Life, calls upon us, in a peculiar Manner, at this Time, to express our utmost Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt to deprive us of so inestimable a Blessing.

We humbly offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations upon the merciful Interposition of a kind Providence, in preserving you from the Violence of the Assassin; and, while we confide in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and in the Vigilance and Vigour of the Laws in bringing the Aggressor to condign Punishment, we firmly trust that the Shield of the Almighty will continue to protect and defend your Royal Person from every open and secret Enemy.

We have been Sharers in the general Happiness of Britons under your Majesty's mild Administration; we have beheld the Lustre of your private Virtues adorning your exalted Rank, and shedding a happy Influence upon all your loyal Subjects; and our earnest Prayers shall never cease to be offered up to the King of Kings and the Preserver of Nations, that your Majesty may long be preserved to reign over us, and that a Race descended of your illustrious House may fill the British Throne to latest Ages, to bless the Generations yet unborn.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church, most humbly request your Royal Permission to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the atrocious Act of Violence which was lately committed against your Majesty's sacred Person, in going to and from your Parliament.

Impressed with a just Sense of this merciful Interposition of the Divine Goodness, we have not failed to offer up our public Thanks and Praise to that gracious God, who, supporting your Majesty in the Exercise of your Royal Authority, has thus signally disappointed the Designs of your Enemies, and prevented the Accomplishment of those wild, licentious Purposes, which are not more hostile to your Majesty's Crown and Dignity than to the Peace and Prosperity of the British Empire. Convinced of the Danger to which they are exposed from the seditious Combinations of evil-minded Persons, we rely on the Wisdom of your Majesty's Parliament for adopting such Measures as may tend to the Safety of your Royal Person, and to the Order and good Government of your Kingdoms: And for promoting these desirable Ends, as far as lies in our Power, we shall continue (as we hitherto have done with Effect) to impress the Minds of those who adhere to our Ministry, with the purest Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of Submission to the Laws.

That the Almighty Sovereign of the Universe may continue to take your Majesty under the peculiar Care of his watchful Providence, guard you from every Danger, and reward your anxious Concern for the Happiness of your People, with a firm

Confidence in their Love and Attachment to your Royal Person, and your illustrious House, is, and shall ever be, the fervent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, the Bishops and Clergy of the Scotch Episcopal Church.

Signed by us, the Bishops of the said Church, for ourselves and the Clergy of our Communion.

Downing-Street, December 19.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Extracts, were received last Night from Robert Craufurd, Esq; by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Head Quarters of Marshal Clerfaye's Army, Alzey, Dec. 2, 1795.

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship that Marshal Clerfaye, with that Part of his Army which during the Siege of Manheim had been encamped between the Rhine and Neustadt, arrived on the 29th in the Neighbourhood of Creutzenach, where it formed a junction with General Wartenstieben's Corps, and took nearly the same Position that the latter has occupied for some Time past, the Right Flank being at Bingen, the Left on the Heights behind Creutzenach and Furfeld, and the advanced Posts pushed on beyond the Nahe.

General Kray, as soon as he was relieved from the Post of Neustadt, directed his March towards Wolfstein; from whence, after having received Reinforcements from the Army, he was to advance by Lautereck and Meissenheim to turn the Right Flank of the Enemy, encamped near Zimmern, whilst the main Body of the Army should menace his Front.

General Kray could not arrive at Lauterecke before the 1st Instant. In the mean Time General Jourdan advanced with the Army of the Sambre and Meuse, consisting of about Fifty-five Thousand Men, drove back, on the 30th, the Austrian advanced Piquets that were on the other Side of the Nahe, and took a Position opposite to that of Marshal Clerfaye's Army, his Right Flank being covered by One Division posted behind Lauterecke and Meissenheim on the Glahn, his Centre and Left extending along the Banks of the Nahe to the Rhine. At Bingen, which is situated at the Conflux of these Two Rivers, and on the Right Bank of the former, there is a Stone Bridge over the Nahe; but it is equally difficult for either Party to undertake any Thing on this Quarter. From thence to Creutzenach, where there is also a Stone Bridge, the Nature of the Ground is much more favourable for the Enemy than for the Austrians, as the Hills on the Left Bank (that is, on the Enemy's Side) are very commanding, and close to the Nahe; whereas, on the Right Bank there is a Plain of considerable Breadth, from which the Heights rise in so gradual a Slope as to afford, in general, no Position for the Austrian Artillery near enough to defend the Passages of the River without being entirely commanded by the French Batteries on the opposite Side. These Circumstances exist in a peculiar Degree at Creutzenach itself; so much so, that Infantry posted on the Hill called the Schloßberg, on the Left Bank, can fire quite into the Town and on to the Bridge.

On the Morning of the 1st Instant the Enemy were seen in very great Force drawn up on the opposite Hills. About Nine o'Clock a large Body of Infantry, supported by the Fire of Artillery very advantageously placed on the Heights behind the Town, advanced to attack Creutzenach: The Austrians defended it with great Firmness, but the Disadvantages of the Situation made it impossible for them to prevent the Enemy's at length getting Possession of it, which happened at about Eleven o'Clock. The Austrians, however, having re-formed on this Side of the Town, advanced again, and attacked the French with so great Bravery, that they presently drove them quite over the Bridge, and out of the Place.

The Enemy renewed the Attack with a large Body of fresh Troops, and the Austrians in the Town being extremely galled by the commanding Fire of the French Artillery, and by that of the Infantry on the Schloßberg, and being totally unsupported by their own Cannon, (which, from the Nature of the Situation, could not be made Use of) they found it impracticable to maintain the Post: They therefore abandoned it a second Time, and retired to the Heights, Heights, bringing away the only Piece of Artillery that had been employed in the Affair.

The Enemy contented themselves with occupying the Bridge, and did not venture to shew themselves on this Side of the Town.

The Loss of the Austrians in this Affair amounts to near Five Hundred killed and wounded.

Fifty of the Enemy were taken Prisoners, and their Loss in Killed and Wounded must have been considerable.

The having been obliged to abandon the Post of Creutzenach is not of any very material Consequence, as the Army maintains exactly the same Position as before, excepting that the Part of the Line which is opposite that Place is thrown a little back, in order to occupy the most commanding Heights.

At the same Time that the above-mentioned Affair happened at Creutzenach, General Kray attacked and defeated a Corps of the Enemy at Lautereck, and entirely cut to Pieces and took Two whole Battalions. The Number of Prisoners are Eight Officers and One Hundred and Fifty Men. General Kray occupies Lautereck.

Head Quarters of Marshal Clerfaye's Army, Aitzey, December 5, 1795.

THE Situation of the Austrian Armies on this Side of the Rhine is at present as follows, viz.

Marshal Clerfaye's behind the Nahe, from Bingen to the Heights behind Voickshiem (near Creutzenach) and Fursch. Two or Three Battalions at Alfentz and other Villages to the Left, to keep up the Communication with General Kray's Corps, which is at Lautereck and Wolfstein, and has lately been reinforced by some Battalions from the Army. General Saxeendorf is in March from Kayerslautern, which Post, and those dependent on it, as Franckenlein, Nippstadt, and Hockspier, were this Day occupied by a Detachment of General Wurmsers Army. Another strong Corps of that Army extends from Neustadt, behind the Speierbach and Rechbach, to the Rhine, occupying Speier, &c.

Frankfort, December 2.

BY Accounts from the Austrian Army it appears, that the Enemy's Loss, in the Battle of the 14th of November, amounted to about Five Thousand Men, besides about Seven Hundred Prisoners; and that Twenty-two Pieces of Cannon, with above One Hundred Ammunition Waggons, and some considerable Magazines of different Kinds, were taken by the Austrians; and other Magazines, and Numbers of Ammunition Waggons, destroyed by the Enemy in their Retreat.

E S C A P E.

WHEREAS Richard Lee, late of the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, stands indicted for publishing a traitorous and seditious Libel intitled "King Killing," and also for publishing Two other traitorous and seditious Libels, and being apprehended and conveyed, by Lord Chief Justice Kenyon's Tipstaff, to the House of Thomas Wright, One of the Officers of the Sheriff of Middlesex, for safe Custody until he should find Sureties to answer the said Indictments or be committed to Prison, escaped out of such Custody on the Evening of Wednesday the 9th Day of this Instant December: The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in
